Biography

William Dale, cello

William Dale is a native of Palm Beach, Florida. He has performed in music festivals such as Meadowmount School of Music, National Orchestral Institute, and Encore School for Strings in Ohio. At the age of seventeen, William was honored to have performed the Rococo Variations with the Dreyfoos School of the Arts orchestra which was later broadcast multiple times on WXEL National Public Radio. He also performed at the first Russian art exhibit given in the United States commemorating the fall of communism. He performs locally with the South West Florida Symphony and the Palm Beach Opera.

He is currently in the studio of Johanne Perron at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music. He was previously a scholarship student of Yehuda Hanani at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. William has been coached in chamber music by Peter Oundjian, James Tocco and Sandra Rivers.

William has participated in cello master classes of Ronald Leonard, Paul Kats, and Phillippe Muller. His former teachers include Hans Jorgen Jensen, Orlando Cole and Janos Starker. Earlier this year, William had the opportunity to have worked with the eminent American composer George Crumb on his quartet Black Angels which he later performed as part of the North American Music Festival.
