Alexander Tchobanov was born in Plovdiv, Bulgaria and began playing the piano at the age of six, entering the Dobrin Petkov Music School in Plovdiv, in the class of Ginka Taskova. At ten, he gave his first solo recital and was declared a prize-winner of the Svetoslav Obretenov national competition for instrumentalists and singers. While in California, Alex was a prize-winner in the California Youth Piano Competition and was also chosen as a semifinalist at the Spotlights competition in Los Angeles. In 2000, Alex was invited to perform a live recital along with renowned pianist Christopher O'Riley on the classical radio station WGBH in Boston and he also performed at the Jordan Hall of the New England Conservatory.
