Nelly Juarez, a native from Costa Rica, has played in some of the most prestigious concert halls in Latin America as part of the Youth Orchestra of the Americas 2002 concert tour, under conductors Leonard Slatkin and Benjamin Zander, and with soloist Yo-Yo Ma. She has participated on the Jeunesses Musicales World Orchestra 2001 concert tour in Germany and the Netherlands performing in major concert halls including the Concertgebouw and the Berlin Philharmonic.

Nelly's experience as a chamber musician is extensive. She has been a member of the Quinteto de Metales Union, Costa Rica Brass Choir, and many other wind ensembles. She has attended the Eastern Music Festival in North Carolina and the Interlochen Center for the Arts in Michigan. Nelly is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music with artist faculty Gregory Miller of the Empire Brass.
