CRISTINA VASZILCSIN, violin

Cristina Vaszilcsin was born in Romania. She began her violin studies in 1984 at the Music School of Timisoara, where she performed with the Philharmonic of Timisoara at age 10 playing "Spring" from Vivaldi's The Four Seasons, and again at age 12 playing Bruch Violin Concerto. Miss Vaszilcsin began entering international competitions, and in 1991 was awarded a top prize at the Kocian Competition in the Czech Republic. That same year she received a finalist diploma at the Rameau aux Chateau Competition in France. In 1997, she won the concerto competition at the Mozart Seminar in Romania.

Miss Vaszilcsin received a scholarship in 1998 to attend the Harid Conservatory, and is currently pursuing her Bachelor of Music degree as a senior at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music. She performed Sibelius Violin Concerto with the Lynn Philharmonia as a result of winning the Concerto Competition in 2001. In January 2002 she won first prize at the National Society of Arts and Letters. Her future plans include pursuing a Master of Music degree at the Carnegie Mellon School of Music in Pittsburgh.
