1. How do you determine what specific mentoring practices you will need with Ed.D. students?

Design Thinking Placemat

2.How do you create a different paradigm for inquiry and action with your mentees?

4.How do you evaluate that a change is actually an improvement?

3.What do you perceive mentoring of Ed. D, students look like BEFORE, DURING, and AFTER the Ed.D. process?

5.How do you share evidence for reliable improvement across different contexts and conditions with mentees?

Perceptions of Doctoral
Students in a CPED Model
Improvement Science
Program

6.How do you reflect on the PLAN, DO, STUDY, ACT process (change ideas) with mentees?

Jennifer J. Lesh & Kelly A. Burlison ilesh@lynn.edu kburlison@lynn.edu