

The will to win,

the desire to succeed,

the urge to reach your full potential ...

these are the keys that will unlock the door to personal excellence.

Welcome to commencement

The key that you are wearing on your tassel today represents the many doors that your education at Lynn will open for you.

During your time here, you were among the first college students in the nation to experience boundless classrooms with iPad-powered learning. You gained a global mindset with peers from 100 countries. And for many of you, that global experience extended well beyond campus as you studied in programs around the world. Some of you earned national championship trophies. Some of you graduated at warp speed through Lynn's accelerated degree programs. Some of you have already started your own social enterprises or connected with your future employers through the Career and Alumni Connections center.

And all of you are now part of a proud tradition of Lynn University graduates who leave here with the intellectual flexibility to achieve your potential and build a better world.

Wear your tassel key proudly, graduate. We hope this memento will help you, our newest alumni, remember your home, your friends and your life-affirming experiences at Lynn University.

Congratulations, class of 2019.

Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, Michael Kitts '03

“I subscribe to a Harvey Mackay line: Dig your well before you’re thirsty. Invest in relationships and you can be successful in anything.”

—Michael Kitts

Michael Kitts, B.S., business administration, class of 2003, earned the 2019 Distinguished Alumni Award for his work with the National Basketball Association’s Golden State Warriors and his dedication to the next generation of Lynn students.

Kitts, a native of Chula Vista, California, joined the Warriors in 2012 when they rated in the bottom of the league. “We have a lot of work to do,” he said. Now he is helping scale the Warriors’ workforce from 250 to over 2,000 employees.

“We happen to be the right team at the right time in the right market,” he said. “We’re very lucky.” Part of that luck is due to the Splash Brothers—guards Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson, who have led the team to four NBA finals and three championships since 2015—but Kitts has played his position.

As vice president of corporate partnerships, he leads the team’s sales, development and partnership efforts and frequently tops the league for account growth and performance. He and his team landed the largest naming rights project of its kind with JPMorgan Chase. He also has won partnerships with Google Cloud and Pepsi, among others.

Kitts worked his way through Lynn with a succession of restaurant jobs in Mizner Park, avoiding South Florida’s many distractions by staying focused on paying for college. “I attacked it like I could not fail,” he said.

After graduating summa cum laude, Kitts worked for Jacuzzi Brands. He learned about corporate sponsorship when Jacuzzi partnered with the Florida Marlins.

“A lightbulb went off,” he said.

Kitts enrolled in the sports management MBA at San Diego State University and worked for Learfield Sports after graduation. He also worked at the San Diego Sports Commission before joining the Warriors.

“I want to make sure I am modeling gratitude by investing my resources and guidance back to those places and people who have meant so much in my life.”

Kitts and his wife, Robin, live in Pleasanton, California, with their daughters, Cruz and Kendell, ages 7 and 4.

Speakers

Commencement speaker, James Patterson

In a January 2010 feature, The New York Times Magazine hailed James Patterson as having “transformed book publishing.”

Patterson has sold over 275 million books worldwide, and he is the top-selling author in the past three years. He is the first author to simultaneously have new titles reach No. 1 on The New York Times Best Sellers Lists for adult and children, and the only author to have five new hardcover novels debut at No. 1 each year since 2005. He has 19 consecutive No. 1 The New York Times best-selling novels and holds its record for most hardcover fiction best-selling titles by a single author (83)—a Guinness World Record.

Patterson is a lifelong champion of reading. The mission of JIMMY Patterson, his new children’s book imprint, is to inspire them to read even more. He created the James Patterson Pageturner Awards to reward creative reading initiatives, and ReadKiddoRead.com, which helps adults find books kids will love. He’s donated more than one million books to students, soldiers and school libraries and has over 400 Teacher Education Scholarships at 24 colleges and universities. He invests proceeds from sales of JIMMY Patterson Books into other pro-reading initiatives.

He is a two-time Children’s Choice Book Award “Author of the Year” nominee—a designation granted by more than 15,000 young readers. He is the creator of the Alex Cross detective series that inspired Hollywood’s Along Came a Spider and Kiss the Girls, and of the No. 1 new ABC detective series, Lindsay Boxer and the Women’s Murder Club. He co-wrote his most recent No. 1 best-seller, The President Is Missing, with former President Bill Clinton.

Additional accolades include the Edgar award, BCA Mystery Guild’s Thriller of the Year, the International Thriller of the Year Award, and Reader’s Digest Reader’s Choice Award. He also earned acknowledgment in Forbes’ Celebrity 100 and made a guest appearance on The Simpsons.

Student speaker, Shawn Howard Johnson '19

Shawn Howard Johnson, a student in the accelerated degree program, graduates with a Bachelor of Arts in multimedia journalism.

A native of Pelham, Alabama, Johnson had no choice but to grow up loving sports (Roll Tide!). He heard stories of remarkable student-athlete achievements: academic honors, volunteer accolades and feats of heroic game action. Watching televised Southeastern Conference games, he began to see college athletes as role models and developed a deep appreciation for the highlight reels, which brought to life the athletes' characters.

Playing sports as a child, Johnson quickly discovered his brain was better at sports than his body. He discovered journalism in high school and enrolled at Lynn University to pursue sports journalism. He joined the student-run news organization, iPulse, and served as its editor-in-chief from 2017 to 2019. "iPulse taught me to be flexible, and I learned how to manage people when things don't necessarily work the way you want them to. It taught me to use my own talents to help others succeed—and seeing their work published was really rewarding."

During his tenure at Lynn, he contributed articles to The Palm Beach Post and Boca/Delray News. He covered everything from Dan Marino's tequila brand to the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce's Diamond Award recipients. The exposure landed him an internship with Comic Cure, a company that hosts comedy shows to benefit nonprofit organizations. More recently, he accepted a public relations internship with The Wick Theatre in Boca Raton, where he promoted local and national shows to drive ticket sales.

Johnson also contributed to Lynn's career center and admission efforts. He created a recruiting program for home-schooled applicants. "As a home-schooled kid, I didn't have a guidance counselor. Lynn was great for me because of the small classes and personalized approach. I wanted to help other home-schooled kids see that Lynn just might be the school for them."

Johnson also presented at the 2018 College of Arts and Sciences Symposium, 2018 Florida Communication Association Conference, and the 2019 CIVSA Student Development Institute in Birmingham, Alabama. He earned the National Basketball Association's Thurgood Marshall Fund scholarship, Karl & Madira Bickel Scholarship for journalism and the Chick-fil-A Leadership Scholarship. He graduates as a member of the President's Honor Society.

Student speaker, Alexandra Rafferty-Flugel '19

Alexandra Rafferty-Flugel is graduating with a master's in communication and media.

Rafferty-Flugel has over 20 years of experience in the public relations, film and TV industries. Her production credits include documentaries, public service announcements, direct-response infomercials and national television programs. She earned an Emmy nomination for her work with The Children's Museum of Boca Raton, where she continues to serve as the chair of the marketing committee.

More recently, Rafferty-Flugel served as a director and producer for Inside Edition, America's Most Wanted, Extra WB and The Ellen DeGeneres Show. Today, she writes and directs national BrandStar programs including Inside the Blue Print and Military Makeover with Montel Williams.

She credits an internship with Palm Beach County's local international film festival for sparking her passion for the entertainment industry. She continues to remain involved in the organization, including helping to coordinate its annual festivals from 2015–17.

Rafferty-Flugel additionally has worked in screenwriting, set design, casting and directing, marketing, media and community relations, reputation management and as a media training community ambassador in Palm Beach County.

She was recently nominated as a 2018 Woman of Distinction by the Soroptimist International of Boca Raton and Deerfield Beach, which honors women who make a difference in the lives of women and children in their communities. She is a member of the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce's 2015 Leadership Boca class, serves as a board member on the Media Advisory Board of Florida Atlantic University representing the Department of Communications, and is involved with several additional local nonprofit organization boards and events.

She earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Florida Atlantic University. Upon earning her master's, she plans to continue TV production and to begin teaching university courses.

Traditions

2019 class gift

Every year, graduating students leave their legacy at Lynn University by donating to the class gift. The class of 2019 joins this proud tradition and honors those who have supported them by contributing to the Alumni Pay It Forward Endowed Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded annually to deserving incoming freshmen in need of financial assistance so they can one day fulfill their potential. The university is grateful to the graduates for “paying it forward” and to the Student Philanthropy Team for fostering philanthropy among students and encouraging graduating students to uphold the class gift tradition.

Academic regalia

The academic robes and hoods worn by the faculty and students lend color to the pageantry of commencement. This regalia dates back to the medieval ages, when it served a functional as well as an ornamental role, separating the learned men from other groups and offering warmth and protection.

In America in the late 19th century, representatives of colleges and universities held a conference to bring order and system to the custom of academic dress. Since then, there have been periodic conferences to revise or reconfirm existing practices.

Undergraduates wear the black robes with the white collars. Holders of the master's degree wear hoods, which are lined with the colors of the college conferring the degree and trimmed with the color representing the subject in which the degree was earned. The doctoral robe is adorned with velvet and is also worn with the hood suitably ornamented.

Holders of degrees from foreign universities or religious orders wear the entire academic costume as decreed by the conferring institution.

A new heart of campus

Class of 2019 graduates ushered in a new era with the grand opening of the Christine E. Lynn University Center. The magnificent new building is the social hub for students and alumni.

Celebrating the arts.

The class of 2019 enjoyed the annual Celebration of the Arts with showstopping performances by students, alumni and employees.

We are the champions

Men's golf won its first NCAA Division II national championship—the 24th national title for the Fighting Knights.

Wearing blue since 1962

Founders Day, with its beloved canoe challenge, is an annual tradition to celebrate our history and remarkable accomplishments.

The gonfalons

The gonfalons are processional banners representing each college. This tradition originated in the civic rituals of 12th century Italy. The vice president for academic affairs, in consultation with the academic deans, selects the faculty members honored to serve as gonfalon bearers.

The ceremonial academic mace

The academic mace dates back to the 14th century, when royalty, magistrates, and church or university officials carried maces in official processions. The design of the ceremonial academic mace incorporates elements from royal scepters and battle maces, representing both leadership and strength.

During the commencement ceremony, the mace indicates the authority of the university president to award degrees. The chief marshal carries the mace.

The Lynn University mace consists of a three-foot-tall wood scepter with a bronze cast of the Lynn University seal on the top. It was designed in 2002 by Graphic Design Professor Emeritus Ernest Ranspach, who presented it to then-Lynn University President Donald E. Ross in honor of 30 years of leadership and service.

This program is not an official graduation list. This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for academic year 2018–19, as of April 17, 2019, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The university's official registry for the conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the Registrar, Lynn University, 3601 N. ## Alma Mater

Music and lyrics by Joe Carey
Choral arrangement by Rick Krive

Under skies of blue
We've made friends so true
From every corner of the world
Celebrating different cultures
Made us see our world anew.

From this caring place
We will squarely face
The challenge of our destiny
Like our Fighting Knights
We'll lift hearts and sights
And we'll go forth in victory.

And if our blue skies should turn to grey days
Or we misplace a dream or two
We'll remember Alma Mater
And then Her spirit will see us through.

So let's raise our voice
In a proud refrain
Remembering good times we all knew
Hail all hail our Alma Mater
Lynn University ... Here's to you!
