[Faint, illegible handwriting on the body of the letter, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Peter Butler Esq^r

Dear Sir, I send you a transcript against Gabriel Watt which I wish you to put in operation, ^{or Execution} against him for which I will give you the one fourth of what you make off of him; I supposed it is hardly worth while for me to give any directions how you should proceed, but perhaps it may be necessary for you, with some cunning work with him; in fact do the best you can & I'll try to be satisfied with it.

I also wish you to try to find out the situation of W. T. Beech's affairs in that Country, as W. Thompson & him owes me 16 or $1400 & there appears to ^{be} no chance to get it of Thompson
if you can do any thing for me in that respect I will liberally reward you for your trouble & I have put that business into the hands of Joseph R. Underwood therefore if you can make any discoveries you will let ~~us~~ ^{me} know as to write to him in Bowling Green & he will give you directions accordingly. If you write to me direct to Natchitoches Louisiana, & inform me where I shall direct to you -
I send you, Respectfully

12th Oct. 1835.

Peter Butler Esq.

Dear Sir

I send you a transcript against Patrick Watt in which I wish you to put in operation or execution against him for which I will give you the one fourth of what you make off of him. I supposed it is hardly worth while for me to give any directions how you should proceed, but perhaps it may be necessary for you to work some cunning work with him, in fact do the best you can and I'll try & be satisfied with it.

I also wish you to try to find out the situation of Wm. T. Bush's affairs in that Country, as Wm Thompson and him owes me 16 or $1700 and there appears to be no chance to get it of Thompson if you can do anything for me in that respect I will liberally reward you for your trouble and I have put the business into the hands of Joseph R. Underwood therefore if you can make any discoveries you will be so good as to write to him in Bowling Green and he will give you direction accordingly. If you write to me direct to Natchitoches Louisiana, and inform me where I shall direct to you

I am yours Respectfully
