McAdoo, Progressive vs. Underwood, Reactionary

Georgia Democrats are called on to nominate their Democratic presidential choice in the Georgia primary March 19. This election will be of the highest importance. Its outcome will have a profound effect upon the success of the party and the welfare of the nation.

Our choice in Georgia is between William G. McAdoo and Senator Oscar W. Underwood. They are the only candidates entered in our primary. Between these two and these only can we express our preference. Let us examine and compare the records of these men. Let us appraise their respective ability and acceptability on the basis of what they have done.

McAdoo is a progressive, independent Democrat. He has always been the friend of the masses. Throughout his entire public career he has demonstrated that his sympathies are on the side of the common people, and his support now comes from the great mass of free-thinking, forward-looking Democrats throughout the nation.

Underwood is a reactionary, stand-pat Democrat. His public career has demonstrated that he is the friend and protector of big money and special privileges, and the inspiration of his candidacy now comes from these interests, as it came in 1912.

Underwood's campaign is remarkably well-financed. Underwood headquarters have advertised very extensively in the newspapers. They have sent out drayloads of letters and literature bearing two-cent postage. They have distributed immense quantities of free copies of all kinds from Atlanta and from Washington. Their agents are touring from county to county in automobiles to "boost" Underwood. Georgians will remember how the state was deluged with money by Underwood campaign headquarters in 1912. Who supplied the finances for Underwood twelve years ago, when he had no chance to be nominated? Who is now supplying the money? What reservoir of wealth is at the disposal of Underwood's backers to keep on running him as a speaking horse?

McAdoo is a national candidate—Underwood is a one-state candidate. McAdoo will go into the Democratic convention in New York in June with a majority of votes on the first ballot, already in the hands of the voters. Underwood will go into the convention with him Alabama, where the Underwood ring leaders procured the passage through the Alabama legislature of a measure by which the presidential primary in that state. As pointed out by William Jennings Bryan, what would be the result every state resorted to such high-handed methods to protect a favorite son? The Democratic national convention, as Mr. Bryan aptly expressed it, would be turned into an auction block.

McAdoo is the friend of the farmer. When the sudden outbreak of the European War in 1914 paralyzed the cotton market, McAdoo as Secretary of the Treasury provided the government loan of millions of dollars in southern banks to make advances to farmers. He proved it by making overtures, the lack of which was one of the causes of the paralyzed market. That effort was defeated by a group of reactionaries of the type of Underwood, who had been in the cabinet on twelve Federal Reserve Banks instead of eight, (as originally proposed), and in organizing the banks in the south by initiating the Federal Farm Loan Banks. He has recently proved it by advocating acceptance of Henry Ford's offer to manufacture cheap fertilizer at Muscle Shoals for the benefit of the farmers.

Underwood has repeatedly exhibited as little genuine sympathy for the interests of the farmers as he has shown his indifference to the farmers by opposing Ford's offer, although he well knows that abundant fertilizer at low prices is today the most urgent and desperate need of southern farmers, fighting a death battle with the boll weevil. The difference between McAdoo and Underwood as regards Muscle Shoals is that McAdoo wants Ford to operate the plant for the benefit of the farmers, while Underwood wants the Alabama Power Company to operate it for the benefit of the Alabama Power Company.

McAdoo is the friend of the woman and children. He proved his friendship by supporting woman suffrage, supporting prohibition and supporting the law by Congress to emancipate children from industrial slavery. (The latter having been held unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court, McAdoo now advocates a constitutional amendment prohibiting child labor.) Underwood exhibited his indifference to the welfare of women and children by fighting against woman suffrage, voting against prohibition and voting against the child labor bill.

McAdoo's ability, experience and achievement in his career as the dominant leader of the progressive forces of Democracy throughout the nation. In the Democratic administration headed by Woodrow Wilson, which gave the country the greatest body of constructive legislation ever written in so short a period of American history, McAdoo was a tower of strength. He broke the strangle hold which Wall Street had exercised upon the United States Treasury for half a century. He was one of the authors of the Federal Reserve Act, and after its passage he organized the Federal Reserve Banks. He initiated the Federal Farm Loan Act. During America's darkest hour in the World War he carried a greater burden than any other man in the government except President Wilson. He raised and handled a greater amount of money than was ever raised and handled by any other man in the history of the world—and retained for his cabinet a poor man with a large family to support. As always, general of railroads he displaced his magnificent ability by conducting a son of a gun fight with the railroads, and exports which threatened our entire movement of supplies and troops overseas. He organized the transportation system into a single efficient unit, which has saved us a year and a half since the railroads are now being operated. When men and operated it under war conditions for thousands of millions less per year than the railroads are now being operated. When men called into the service were about to lose their jobs, he raised and lowered the rate on unskilled men were raised to prohibitive rates, McAdoo organized and put into effect the great War Risk Insurance Act, which has saved the lives of thousands of our boys.

McAdoo is the friend of the worker and the unemployed. He has done more for the worker and the unemployed than any other man in the history of the world. He has done more for the worker and the unemployed than any other man in the history of the world. He has done more for the worker and the unemployed than any other man in the history of the world.

INSURANCE BONUS PLAN IS APPROVED

ADVOCATES OF NEW MEASURE THINK HAS BETTER CHANCE OF PASSAGE.

Washington, March 7.—A new form of bonus plan, with paid-up life insurance as a principal provision, was decided upon today by the House ways and means committee. A proposal to include an option of full cash payments is under consideration.

Adoption of the insurance scheme definitely detracts from the bill passed at the last session providing four options—cash payments to those not settled to more than $50; adjusted service certificates, a form of deferred payments, vocational training and farm or home aid.

Proponents of the new bill argue it has a much better chance of presidential approval. The old measure was vetoed by President Harding, while President Coolidge has also declared against a similar bonus.

Considerable support was given today to the motion of Representative O'Connell, Democrat, Ark., to make full cash payments an alternate option of the measure.

A plan advanced by Representative Bacharach, Republican, New Jersey, will be used by a sub-committee in working out the definite form of the insurance provision. It provides for 30-year endowment policies to all veterans who served more than sixty days.

By a vote of the full committee all veterans up to and including the rank of captain in the army and marine corps and lieutenant in the navy, would be included in the benefits of the measure. This provision is the same as in the old bill.

Mr. Bacharach's plan would allow policies with values figured for $2.65 for each day of service. This would cost not more than $2,000,000,000, he said, with a maximum of $78,000,000 for any one of the thirty years.

Mr. Bacharach said he also would favor placing the administration of the schemes in the hands of old line insurance firms. Some favor has been expressed toward giving it to the War Risk Bureau. Adoption of the former plan, Mr. Bacharach argued, would require the government to further administrative costs.

Upon appointment of a sub-committee, hearings are planned at which insurance experts will be called. The final draft of the bill then will be written.

Representatives Fish, New York, and Andrew, Massachusetts, Republicans, also have proposed insurance policy plans similar to that of Mr. Bacharach. Mr. Fish proposed a 20-year endowment with policies valued at $400 for each six months of service and $1,600 as a maximum.

Final action on the measure by the committee is not expected before the middle of next week.

Country Gentlemen, Stovells Evergreen, Adams Early, Hickory King, White and Golden Dent, Whittier's Profile Corn. OLLIFF & SMITH.

EX-SERVICE MEN SAID TO FAVOR INSURANCE PLAN

St. Paul, Minn., March 11.—Results of a state wide poll among ex-service men taken by American Legion posts on adjusted compensation show preference for insurance option of payment.

The announcement covering polls reported from ten posts show that of 117-voting, 62 voted the option permitting a twenty-year paid-up insurance policy, 42 will choose aid for improvement of homes and farms, six will select vocational training, and only seven who accept the insurance policy will seek temporary loans to tide them over financial difficulties. Complete reports of the poll are expected shortly, and department officials declare that this vote, representative of rural and urban population, indicates the preference of veterans if the pending bill is passed.

CARD FROM E. T. DENMARK

To the Voters of Bulloch County: This is to express my thanks and gratitude to my friends who supported me in the race for school superintendent in the primary of February 27th. I did not violate the prohibition law, or any rule or regulation of the primary, or buy votes. I only asked the people for a consideration and promised to be their servant if elected, so I am not holding any ill will toward anyone.

Entering the race late and being handicapped with my school work, I consider that I made a creditable showing, one not to be ashamed of. I expect to remain in the school work, not discouraged though defeated, and trust that Mr. Olliff will have a very successful administration, promising him my co-operation.

Hoping to serve you, I am, Respectfully,
EWELL T. DENMARK.

Your children's food

The foods your children eat today, determine their strength and health in later years.

Remember this; they must have well balanced meals. Their food should contain the right amount of mineral salts. These salts act as bone building material.

Bakings that are made of good plain white flour and baking powder contain the necessary amount of mineral salts. Allow your children to eat heartily of these bakings together with fruits and dairy products. This forms an ideal food balance.

When making quick rising breads and pastries such as biscuits, muffins, cakes, waffles, etc., don't fail to use Calumet—the economy Baking Powder. It contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—it's the purest and surest leavener made. That's why it helps make your flour foods light and easily digested.

Millions of mothers use Calumet daily because they are interested in their children's welfare—their present and future health.

The Central of Georgia is Encouraged By State of Public Sentiment

The Central of Georgia believes that the railways of the United States are in the best condition in their history, both physically and in the place they today occupy in public opinion.

This spirit is manifested in many ways: by the voice of the press, by utterances on public occasions, by the correspondence of shippers with carriers, by resolutions of civic organizations in support of a sound public policy toward the railroads.

The only exception to this prevailing sentiment seems to be on the part of those radicals who are advocating an impossible program of rate-reduction coupled with wage increases. One scheme of theirs is to reduce, by some arbitrary method, the valuation of the railroads, as fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission...

The Central of Georgia does not believe that the farmers, the business men, the shipping and traveling public generally, favor the radical program that has as its first step the confiscation of invested property, then Government ownership of railroads, and finally the establishment of some form of Socialistic government in America.

We consider it our obligation to seek in every proper way to enlist public interest in the future of the railway. We shall continue to give out accurate information to the public and shall await with confidence its verdict upon transportation affairs.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

L. A. DOWNS, President, Central of Georgia Railway Company.

Delicious, Flaky PIE CRUSTS

BAKE your favorite pie from a crust made of self-rising flour. The wholesome, flaky texture will reveal to you a new delight in pie making. Many excellent cooks find self-rising flour without equal for all kinds of delicious pastries.

Mrs. G., who has been a self-rising flour enthusiast for 21 years writes: "I like self-rising flour for pie crust because it makes a crust so light that anyone loves it. I also make a great many tarts. Self-rising flour is especially fine for short-cakes. I make them of every kind of fruit, both fresh and canned, as well as with creamed chicken, fish or oysters."

Self-Rising flour comes with just the right amount of pure phosphate baking powder already mixed in to give perfect baking results. Nowhere can you buy a more healthful food—nowhere can you obtain more value for your money than in good self-rising flour.

FOLLOW THESE FIVE RULES For Making Perfect Biscuits with Self-Rising Flour. (1) See that your oven is hot; (2) Always use sweet milk or cold water; (3) Never add baking powder, soda or salt; (4) Use good shortening—lard, vegetable fat or butter; (5) Make soft dough—knead gently.

Keep Sinks, Drains and Pipes Clean

TRAPS and drain-pipes will clog. Ordinary soap is practically useless to clean them. The best way is to use a little Red Seal Lye into the pipes. Its powerful cleaning qualities quickly loosen the grease and dirt and the rinse water washes away the sediment, leaving the drain-pipe clean and sanitary. A can of Red Seal Lye saves many plumbing bills.

Be Sure and Buy only the genuine Red Seal Lye. Write for FREE booklet, "How to Use Red Seal Lye." P. C. TOMSON & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

COUNTY AGENT HILLIS NETS FARMERS OF BULLOCH MORE THAN MARKET PRICE.

Practical benefits are coming to the farmers of Bulloch county in a most tangible way through the efforts of county agent Hillis in the sale of sweet potatoes during the past few weeks. Three carloads of potatoes have been sold by Agents Hillis, ranging in price from $1.75 to $2.45 per 100 pounds delivered at the depot in Statesboro. The lowest price was netted for the first car, sold about three weeks ago.

The adjusted service credit is figured on the same basis as in the old bill which twice passed the house $1 a day for home service and $1.25 for home service and $1.25 for overseas duty. Service between April 5, 1917, and July 1, 1919, may be counted though, though enlistment must have been made before November 1, 1918.

BULLOCH COUNTY BOYS FORM PASTURE CLUB

Bulloch county boasts of having the only boys' pasture club in the state of Georgia. This announcement is authorized by W. D. Hillis, county agent, who was instrumental, with the assistance of School Superintendent Davis, in organizing the club. The matter of organizing the boys into a pasture club was first presented by Mr. Davis before the Statesboro Advertising Club. It was his suggestion that members of the club contribute the grass seed for the planting of the first ten pastures that were made ready. This proposition met a hearty response, and ten members were quickly found who each contributed the amount sufficient to pay for the seed, which was $3.80 for each acre-patch.

A LANDSLIDE FOR M'ADOO

CARRIES BULLOCH COUNTY BY TWO-TO-ONE MAJORITY AND THE STATE BY BIGGER ODDS.

As McAdoo carried the entire state of Georgia, so he also carried Bulloch county by a veritable landslide. Though the vote was light as compared with recent county elections, it was fully as large as was expected. The absence of interest is manifest by the small returns in all the districts, one district (the Lockhart) failing to hold an election at all. The vote in the county by districts was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: District and Underwood. Rows include Sinking, Club House, Lockhart, Briarpatch, Hartin, Court House, Bay, Brooklet, Emitt, Blitch, Fortal, Nevils, and Total.

Atlanta, Ga., March 20.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, swept Georgia yesterday in the Democratic state Presidential primary, defeating Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, his only opponent, by a 4 to 1 vote.
