FROM PRESIDENT HEBERT:

Our values here at Georgia Southern University are ones of kindness and civility. We encourage and expect open discussion and dialogue with respect to all points of view.

I want to take a moment to remind the Georgia Southern community that harassment of our students, faculty, staff or community members in any form – especially on the basis of race, religious affiliation, ethnicity or sexual orientation – will not be tolerated at Georgia Southern.

Sincerely,

Jaimie L. Hebert, Ph.D.
President
