PREFACE

This volume is the fifth in a series of Bulloch County, Georgia, cemetery surveys begun in 1979 by the Genealogical Records Committee, Archibald Bulloch Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. One Jenkins County cemetery is included because it was once in Bulloch County. A number of the cemeteries are Black cemeteries. Members of the Black community expressed a desire for surveys to be made of their church cemeteries.

At the beginning of each cemetery, names of surveyors are given along with the date surveyed and directions for reaching the cemetery from Statesboro.

Unmarked graves have been listed. Where a metal undertaker's marker gives the name and dates for an otherwise unmarked grave, this is shown by "UTM". If the marker is illegible, "Illeg." is used. "S.S." between two graves indicates that a common headstone was used. A line around a grave or a group of graves means that the group is enclosed by a fence, concrete curb, bricks, or other material.

Two members of the staff of the Statesboro Regional Library have given invaluable assistance in locating and surveying these cemeteries.

Copies of this volume will be placed in the Statesboro Regional Library and its five branches and in the Georgia Southern College library.

This volume lists twenty cemeteries with a total of 2465 graves.

Akins (Lucinda) Cemetery
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Statesboro go out U.S. 80 west to Williams Road. Turn left onto Williams Road. Go 4.4 miles to Joe Olliff Akins' house - a two-story white house on the right. Turn left on a narrow dirt road in front of the house. There is a metal barn nearby. Go about 15 yards. Turn right into a field by a walnut tree. Follow a fence a very short distance. There are only three graves and they are those of Joe Olliff Akins' grandparents and his great grandmother, whose maiden name was Brack. She married Thomas Young Akins.

AKINS-WHITE CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Statesboro go out West Main Street to Bethlehem Church (about 3 miles). Turn right on paved road. Go 2.6 miles. Turn right on dirt road. Go 1.4 miles. Cemetery is in field, toward to left, in a grove of trees.

Surveyed 10 March 1983 by Mrs. William Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly.

1. Johannah Akins
Dec. 15, 1851
Sept 24, 1891
(Broken)

Family members gave the following information:

Johannah White married Isaac Akins. Her brother, Taylor White, was also buried here. He married Anne Deal. They had one child, Brooks White, who moved to Effingham County. After Taylor's death, Anne married Jake Strauss. They had a son, Mooney.

ANCIAUX CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

DIRECTIONS: From Statesboro go out Savannah Avenue east. Turn left on Lester Road. Go by the high school. Turn right on Jones Mill Road. Pass Nightingale Nursing Home. Go 2.6 miles on this road. In a field on the left behind Benjamin Groover's house (a brick house) is a marker.

Surveyed 14 April 1983 by Mr. William Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly.

1. Lt. Col. Nicholas Anciaux
French Army
Rev. War

The exact spot where the graveyard was located is not known. Brier Creek Chapter, DAR, placed a marker in the field as a memorial. Somewhere on what was a 1200-acre estate are buried Nicholas Anciaux and his wife, who was Lydia Richardson, of Newport, Rhode Island. Anciaux was a French soldier who came to this country with Lafayette and served in the American Revolution. He settled in Savannah where he was a prosperous merchant. In 1807 he was granted this land on Mill Creek for his service to America and he came to Bulloch County to live. He died before 1820 and Lydia died in 1838. Their daughter, Elizabeth, married John McPherson Berrien, U.S. Senator and Attorney General under President Andrew Jackson.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Statesboro go out US 80 East for 11.8 miles to Pembroke-Arcola road (county road 582). Turn right. Go 2.9 miles. Turn right. Go .2 of a mile to church and cemetery.

Surveyed September 30, 1983, by Mrs. William Starling, Mrs. David Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly, Chmn.

Beginning at the back of the cemetery, farthest from the church, left to right:

BROWN CEMETERIES (Two)
Bulloch County, Georgia

The following two cemeteries no longer exist. Information on them was given by John Aubrey Brown, 222 E. Gwinett St., Savannah, Georgia. Both were in the Stilson area of Bulloch County. One was located near Old Fellowship church on a farm now owned by the Misses Catherine and Rachel Meldrim. Buried in this cemetery were the following:

1. William Brown
b. 1780, S.C.
d. 1865
2. Nancy Bragg Brown, wife (possibly second wife)
b. 1800
d. After 1850

They were the parents of:

George Washington Brown
Nov. 11, 1824
Nov. 4, 1922

John Brown
Dec. 26, 1826
Mar. 28, 1905

(Both buried at Old Fellowship church)

Several other children, names unknown

William Brown purchased property in Bulloch County around 1802.

The second cemetery was located near U.S. 80 in a field now owned by Donald Brown. Buried in this cemetery were:

1. John (Jackie) Brown
1802-1883
2. Carrie Redden Brown, wife
1807-1849

Two of their children were:

Eliza Brown
Feb. 22, 1833
Feb. 23, 1914
Married John Brown

Margaret (Maggie) Brown
July 23, 1830
Feb. 26, 1901
Married George Washington Brown

Brown cemeteries, p. 2

Margaret and Eliza Brown are buried at Old Fellowship church.

The two Brown families were not related until the marriage of the two Brown brothers to the two Brown sisters.

Other persons were buried in these cemeteries but John Aubrey Brown has no information about them. William Brown and John (Jackie) Brown were his great-great-great grandfathers.

LITTLE BETHLEHEM CHURCH CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From the Bulloch County courthouse, go out West Main Street for 2.7 miles. On the right is a dirt road and a house. On the left is a field road, barely discernible. Take this road on the left and go .5 of a mile. There is a large cedar tree on the right. In the woods, beyond this tree, is what is left of the cemetery. This was the site of Little Bethlehem church. All tombstones are broken. There is evidence of other graves having been there. William G. Tyson, who lives in the area, took us to this cemetery.

Surveyed 20 June 1983 by Mrs. William Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly.

MILLERGROVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Statesboro go out East Main street (highway 24). Church and cemetery are 7.6 miles from the city limit on the left.

Surveyed 30 Sept. 1983 by Mrs. William Starling, Mrs. David Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly, Chmn.

It was impossible to make this survey by rows. We began at the back of the cemetery, nearest the road and made as orderly a survey as we could.

OLD MT. PISGAH PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY
 Bulloch County, Georgia
 Established November 1883

Directions: From Bulloch County courthouse go out West Main Street for 12.2 miles to Upper Lott's Creek church. Immediately beyond the church turn left on a dirt road. Go 3 miles. (You will come to a large white house on the left where five roads meet. Take the second road at the right and continue.) Turn right. Church and cemetery will be in sight on the left. Two church members, Mrs. Eileen McCray and Mrs. Mattie Lou Parker gave us directions and met us at the church. We were told that the church is better known as "Fishtrap".

Surveyed 27 September 1983 by Mrs. William Starling, Mrs. David Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly, Chmn.

There are no rows as such but we tried to make our survey by rows as best we could.

Beginning at the back of the cemetery, from left to right:

PARRISH CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

DIRECTIONS: From Statesboro, go out the Pulaski Road to Candler County line. Just before the line, turn left on to a dirt road. Go past a pond on the right. Go .7 of a mile after turn. There is a field road on the right. Go down this road .1 of a mile. The cemetery is about 60 or 70 feet into the woods, on the right. There is only one tombstone.

The property is C. W. Anderson's. He took us to the grave.

Surveyed 25 May 1983 by Mrs. William Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly.

1. Nancy Parrish
Wife of Ansel Parrish
Aug. 14, 1796
May 22, 1853
Age 56 yrs., 9 mos., 8 days

Members of the family told us that Ansel Parrish was buried beside his wife. There are also children buried there and 18 slaves. These originally had wooden markers but they were burned.

Ansel Parrish was a son of Henry Parrish, Revolutionary soldier.

From Parrish Family Record by J. J. Parrish:

Ansel Parrish was born Nov. 16, 1781, probably in North Carolina. He died July 28, 1865. He married Nancy Holloway on March 3, 1814. They had 14 children. He was a large slaveholder.

PAYNE'S CHAPEL METHODIST CHURCH CEMETERY
 Jenkins County, Georgia
 Church est. 1776

DIRECTIONS: From Statesboro, go out US 80 west, then 25 to Jenkins County line. Go 3.1 miles further. Turn left on paved road. (There is a sign: Payne's Chapel Church.) Go .2 of a mile. Turn right on dirt road. Go .1 of a mile. There is a cyclone fence around a well-kept cemetery. There are 12 graves outside the fence.

Material for this cemetery was contributed by Dr. J. Curtis Lane from his mother's files. His mother was Mrs. Julian C. Lane, Bulloch County Historian at the time of the 1933 survey by H.G. Lanier, Rocky Ford, Ga. At that time there were 45 graves there. Since then 405 have been added.

Surveyed 25 October 1982 by Mrs. William Starling, Mrs. David Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly, Chairman Genealogical Records Committee, Archibald Bulloch Chapter, DAR.

5. Flat slab. Broken marker

On the broken marker on #5 we thought we read Apr. 15 and Sept. 22. There were no year dates remaining.

Family members said the parents of #1 were George W. and Louisa Jane Joyner. #4 is Seaborn Mathew Proctor. Malachi Augustus Joiner (sp) is buried there. He was grandfather of Rufus Joiner. His wife is buried at Langston Chapel, as are George W. and Louisa Jane Howard Joiner, parents of #1. Seaborn Mathew Proctor's wife, Elizabeth Lee Kirkland Proctor, is also buried in this cemetery. They were married Dec. 14, 1848 but no birth and death dates were obtainable.

There were bricks to indicate another grave and it is said that at least twelve graves were originally there.

WILSON-ROBINSON-BRANAN CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Statesboro go out US 301 north for 6.7 miles from city limit. Turn left at a Time Saver. Go .3 of a mile. Cemetery is on right and is visible from the road. It has a wire fence, broken. It is overgrown with vines and weeds and is neglected-looking. The fenced area covers about an acre of land.

Surveyed 15 March 1983 by Mrs. William Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly.
