CONFERRING OF THE MEDALLION AWARD

The Medallion Award is conferred by Villanova University in recognition of the outstanding achievements of the recipient.

BRYAN STEVENSON, B.A., M.P.P., J.D.

Presented by
DORIS DEL TOSTO BROGAN

Praised for a brilliant legal mind and unsurpassed oratorical skills, Bryan Stevenson has spent his entire career fighting the bias against the poor and people of color in the criminal justice system. A 1985 graduate of Harvard, with both a Masters in Public Policy from the Kennedy School of Government and a J.D. from the School of Law, Professor Stevenson began his legal career with the Southern Center for Human Rights in Atlanta. Four years later he moved to Montgomery to launch the Alabama Capital Representation Resource Center and subsequently the Equal Justice Initiative. The Equal Justice Initiative is a private, non-profit organization that provides legal assistance to indigent criminal defendants and prisoners who have been denied fair and just treatment. The Equal Justice Initiative litigates on behalf of death row prisoners, juveniles, people wrongly convicted or charged with violent crimes, poor people denied effective legal representation, and others whose trials are marked by racial bias or prosecutorial misconduct.

Professor Stevenson has been recognized by several national publications and organizations as one of the nation's top public interest lawyers. His work on behalf of condemned prisoners has won him national acclaim. In 1995 he was awarded the prestigious MacArthur Foundation Fellowship. Professor Stevenson donated the entire $230,000 grant to the Equal Justice Initiative. He is a 1989 recipient of the Reebok Human Rights Award, the 1991 ACLU National Medal of Liberty, the 1993 Thurgood Marshall Medal of Justice, and in 1996 he was named the Public Interest Lawyer of the Year by the National Association of Public Interest Lawyers. He has also received honorary degrees from the University of Pennsylvania School of Law and Georgetown University Law School. Bryan Stevenson joined the clinical faculty at NYU School of Law 1998.

Professor Stevenson has served as a Visiting Professor of Law at the University of Michigan School of Law, published several widely disseminated manuals on capital litigation, and written extensively on criminal justice, capital punishment, and civil rights issues.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is the National Honor Society devoted to the encouragement of high standards of legal scholarship with chapters in leading law schools throughout the country. Graduates in the top ten percent of the class are eligible for election to the Order of the Coif.

The Order takes its name from the word used to designate the cap which all the members of the Order were required to wear. This cap or coif was originally of white lawn or silk, forming a close-fitting hood, seen today in old engravings, pictures and effigies of distinguished Judges and Serjeants. Serjeants were an order of the highest rank of barrister at the English or Irish bar. By the ancient privileges of the Serjeants, this coif was not to be taken off, even in the royal presence. When wigs came into fashion the coif was changed, no longer worn as a complete hood, but merely as a circular piece of white lawn fastened to the top of the wig.

RECOGNITION OF MERITORIOUS SERVICE

Many of our students have rendered service to the School of Law through involvement in co-curricular activities, student governance and student activities. Certificates recognizing meritorious service will be awarded to the students listed below in connection with the activities noted.

Co-Curricular Activities

Presented Alphabetically

MOOT COURT BOARD

The Moot Court Board is an honorary student organization consisting of students demonstrating outstanding written and oral advocacy skills. Students are selected for Board membership by one of three methods: through exceptional performance in the first-year Legal Writing Program, the second year Reimel Moot Court Competition, or the Open Competition.

The Board is dedicated to the development of student appellate advocacy and coordinates a wide range of activities aimed at achieving that goal. Members represent the Law School in national moot court competitions, organize and administer every facet of the Reimel Competition, and supplement the instruction of the Law School's legal writing program for first year students.
