Dr. Guido Calabresi, B.S., LL.B., M.A., LL.D., Jus.D.
Sterling Professor of Law
Yale University

Presented by

Gerald Abraham
Acting Dean of the School of Law

A profound and innovative legal scholar and philosopher, a dynamic imaginative and inspiring teacher, he has convincingly demonstrated that such accomplishments are of the utmost service to justice in our society. He has been notably successful in guiding law toward the greater good of society by helping lawyers, judges, and scholars better to understand the processes by which legal decisions are made. As a scholar, he has helped to direct the law towards the goal of social justice. As a teacher, he has given his students an awareness of the human needs the law must serve.

As one who has given himself unstintingly to the needs of his law students, his law school and the entire legal community, his example should inspire us to think more deeply and critically, to study more thoroughly, and to strive for a system of justice that is at once both more efficient and more humane.

Guido Calabresi

Professor Calabresi brilliantly prepared for his distinguished scholarly career. He received a B.S. degree in Analytical Economics from Yale College in 1953, a B.A. degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Magdalen College, Oxford in 1955, an LL.B. degree from Yale Law School in 1958, and an M.A. degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Oxford University in 1959. At Yale College and Yale Law School he was first in his class; at Oxford University, which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar, he took his degree with first class honors. After his graduation from law school, Professor Calabresi served as law clerk to the Honorable Hugo Black, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

In 1959, Professor Calabresi joined the Yale Law School faculty, where he has remained, achieving distinction as one of the brightest stars in a great constellation of legal scholars. Professor Calabresi's seminal book, The Costs of Accidents: A Legal and Economic Analysis (1970), has become a classic in the field of tort law and is recognized today as one of the major works of legal theory in this century — one that has basically changed our thinking about the study and application of tort principles. In his three other books since 1970, Professor Calabresi has further enlarged his reputation as a legal scholar and philosopher.

Professor Calabresi also has enriched legal scholarship with more than thirty articles. He has lectured throughout the United States, Canada and England. He has received numerous honors, and has been the recipient of several honorary degrees.

In addition to his full-time work at Yale Law School, Professor Calabresi has served on numerous commissions, and he has taught as a visiting professor at universities in Japan, Italy and England.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is the National Honor Society devoted to the encouragement of high standards of legal scholarship with chapters in leading law schools throughout the country. Graduates in the top ten percent of the class are eligible for election to the Order of the Coif.

The Order takes its name from the word used to designate the cap which all the members of the Order were required to wear. This cap or coif was originally of white lawn or silk, forming a close-fitting hood, to be seen today in old engravings, pictures and effigies of distinguished Judges and Serjeants. Serjeants were an order of the highest rank of barrister at the English or Irish Bar. By the ancient privileges of the Serjeants, this coif was not to be taken off, even in the royal presence. When wigs came into fashion the coif was changed, no longer being worn as a complete hood, but merely as a circular piece of white lawn fastened to the top of the wig.

Alma Mater

*When the twilight shadows gather
Out upon the Campus green,
When the blue and purple night
Comes stealing on the scene
Loyal heirs of Villanova
Sing a hymn of praise
To our dear old ALMA MATER
And Our College days,
Villanova, Villanova
When we leave your shelt'ring walls,
We shall leave an echo ringing
through your treasured halls
We will leave an echo ringing
In the silent night
While our memories are singing
Of the Blue and White.*

DUBIN/BURKE

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

*Oh, say, can you see,
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled
Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?*
