“Camping is our Maine Concern”

STATE OF MAINE
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AUGUSTA, MAINE
04888

JOSEPH E. BRENNAN
GOVERNOR

Dear Campers:

It is with great pleasure that I extend an invitation for you to visit and camp within Maine.

I am extremely proud of the Pine Tree State and I think you will agree when you see what we have to offer.

Maine is truly your Vacationland, generously endowed by nature and offering clear lakes, clean air, forested mountains, and miles of ocean shoreline. You will long remember the innumerable recreational opportunities and unexcelled beauty of the state, as well as the warmth and friendship of its people.

Thank you for thinking of Maine. I hope you have a most enjoyable visit and hurry back again.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH E. BRENNAN
Governor

A Guide to Maine Signs

Maine's so-called "Billboard Law" was intended to preserve the state's scenic resources, but it also affects the directional information available to travellers. You'll probably need to look harder to find your way. While there are some exceptions:

To avoid confusion, we suggest the following:

- Get directions before you leave. Brochures usually include directions, and campground owners will be happy to tell you how to reach them.
- Carry a map. While free maps are hard to find, the $1 or so invested can save a lot of time and frustration.
- Use available information. Maine has manned information centers, and unmanned "kiosks" are being built.
- Signs can only indicate changes in direction. Make next available turn in direction sign arrow is pointing.
- Number indicates distance from sign to destination - after turn is completed.
- Sizes and layouts of signs are standardized. Signs will be 12"x48", 16"x72" or 20"x84". Reflectorized signs will be blue with white lettering and standard symbols.

Hopefully, with a little forethought, the "beautification" of Maine's highways won't complicate your vacation.

For A Campground That Cares

Campgrounds displaying this symbol are members of the Maine Campground Owners Association (MECOA). As such, they are part of the nation's oldest state camping association, formed twenty-six years ago. All are state licensed and inspected to provide safe, clean facilities for campers. MECOA's members work towards improved standards and facilities in order to better serve your needs. They are committed to providing camping areas that are among the finest in the country. Spend your vacation in a MECOA campground and see what we mean.

KEY TO CAMPGROUND FACILITIES LISTINGS

APPROVED CAMPGROUNDS: All campgrounds included in listings are approved members of the Maine Campground Owners Association, and are licensed by the Maine Department of Human Services. In addition to being licensed they assure the camper that the campground offers a good level of comfort, cleanliness and courtesy. An @ preceding a campground listing indicates that it is an affiliate member and has been in operation for less than a full year.

LOCATING CAMPGROUNDS: A map is included in this directory to assist in locating campgrounds.

BOLDFACE TYPE denotes advertiser. Page number indicates where you can find further information on that campground.

AVAILABLE FACILITIES: Campgrounds listed provide the services and facilities indicated.

- X Available in campground
- N Available within one mile of campground
- E Electricity only
- D Dryers only

SEASON DATES are the earliest usual open and close dates, and may vary due to weather or other circumstances. If you plan to camp close to either end of the season, it's a good idea to check with the campground first. Season dates are abbreviated as follows:

SOUTH COAST

The beaches are the attraction in the South Coast Region of Maine, but there's more, much more. When you are camped in this area, you're close to places to shop, some of the best seafood restaurants, museums, golf courses, tennis courts and some of the most picturesque seascapes in America. Artists, photographers and just plain viewers spend hours admiring the beauty of the seashore.

Walk the miles of white sand beaches or perch atop the cliffs at Bald Head and watch the surf thunder against the rocky shores.

Spend a day in the state's largest city - Portland. Here you can shop in modern stores, browse in the many museums, or enjoy a sightseeing tour of Casco Bay. Explore the quaint shops in the Old Port Exchange.

This popular place to camp in Maine is just an hour from Boston. Admire antique autos in one museum, or ride the trolley cars of yesteryear in another. Or take the kids to ride the amusements at Old Orchard Beach.

WESTERN LAKES AND MOUNTAINS

Camping in the Western Lakes and Mountain region of Maine is a scenic delight. The area forms the western boundary of the state along the New Hampshire border and the vistas of the hills along the shores of the many lakes make it a place of unusual beauty.

There is a type of recreation to please every camper - swimming, fishing and boating; places to relax or to play golf and tennis, scenic roadside rests, amusements for the young and museums of interest to the whole family.

From the state's second largest lake, Sebago in the south, the area stretches all the way to the Rangeley chain of lakes in the northern boundaries where wilderness camping gets you away from worldly cares.

One of Maine's least publicized scenic roads is Highway 26 through Grafton Notch, a state park of unusual splendor with waterfalls, brooks with warm pools for wading, picnic areas, mountain vistas - a little gem tucked away in the northwest wilderness.

You'll want to take the kids for a long ride on the quaint Songo River Queen, a unique boat trip that winds its way through a connecting passage to Sebago Lake. Then take the whole family to Per-ham's Maine Mineral Store in West Paris where there is a museum of native gems.

Another museum of interest is the Jones Gallery of Glass and Ceramics in Sebago where displays of crafts dating back to ancient Egypt are on display along with modern works. Campers in this area will want to plan visits to the Shaker Museum in Poland Spring, Norland Living History Center, a working 19th century farm in Livermore; visit the Moses Mason Museum or take a walking tour of Bethel, one of the oldest villages in Maine; or visit the Nordica Museum of costumes and other memorabilia of the state in Farmington.

This part of Maine is a Mecca for fishermen with landlocked salmon, trout and bass in several of the lakes. Boating enthusiasts will find the broad waters of the large lakes a delight.

Those who camp late in the summer will enjoy the famous Fryeburg Fair, Maine's largest end of season event. Nearby is the Saco River, one of the most popular rivers in the northeast for canoe enthusiasts.

From hiking trails to highways for leisurely motoring, the Western Lakes and Mountains region has it all.

SOUTH ARM

Maine's Most Beautiful Campground

FACILITIES

South Arm offers you a unique and exciting camping experience. Camp on our beautiful wilderness lake in the Western Mountain Region of Maine. Open the door to the World of South Arm. Mountains, carpeted in the vibrant green of spruces and pines, serve as guardians of the lake.

Experience the thrill of camping surrounded by the green spruces and pines. Let the quiet and beauty of star studded nights sooth you as you drift off to sleep lulled by the soft hooting of an owl. Listen to the Call of the Wild as loons call to their young. Watch as the Great Blue Heron soars overhead through the clear mountain air. Capture the spirit of camping at South Arm.

We have 65 sites on our peninsula camping area all equiped with electric and water hookups included in the site fee. We are the only campground in Maine that can offer tent sites strategically located around our 17 mile lake offering solitude and privacy. Access by boat or canoe only. Three islands await your tenting vacation. Fishing, swimming, boating, canoeing, and hiking the many trails are part of your camping experience at South Arm.

KENNEBEC VALLEY

Campers staying in the region have a strategic base from which to enjoy the pleasures of a Maine vacation. They are close to the seashore and only a short drive to the mountains to the west. Yet they're in an area of sparkling lakes, close to places to shop in big city malls or quaint village shops, and handy to a number of fascinating attractions.

Hallowell on the Kennebec River, for instance, is known as "the antique corner of Maine." The shops and historic houses line both sides of the street.

The state capital at Augusta provides campers with an opportunity to observe the government at work in the historic State House. The Maine State Museum is located here and so is Fort Western Museum, a restoration. Nature buffs should not pass up a visit to the state park here which has 72 species of native Maine trees.

In Monmouth a visit to the Monmouth Museum is a must. It has extensive displays of 19th century rural Maine. A visitor can spend hours browsing through history here.

Poland Spring on the fringe of the area is one of the oldest resorts in the East and the home of the famous spring water which bears the community name. Fishing for landlocked salmon is an outdoor recreation that attracts visitors to the Belgrade Lakes area.

MID COAST

The Mid Coast Region is one place campers go for a real "Downeast" experience. The rugged rocky shores that protect picturesque harbors, museums depicting the lifestyle of folks who go down to the sea in ships, and restaurants featuring lobsters and clams served any way you like are all part of the appeal this area has for campers.

There is Rockland where the annual Maine Seafood Festival is held in August and nearby Rockport, the summer home of Andre, the seal. Rockland's historic Main Street is now a shopping district. The beautiful display of begonias at the Sunken Garden on Route attracts many visitors. The Shore Village Museum has Coast Guard artifacts and Owls Head Transportation Museum displays antique aircraft and automobiles.

In nearby Camden self guiding tours are available, there is an amphitheater in the Marine Park, and the Old Conway House and Museum with farm memorabilia and an herb garden. The views of the sea from Camden Hills State Park are spectacular on a clear day.

At several ports in the midcoast area camping families can enjoy boat trips just for sightseeing or to offshore islands. Recreation also includes fishing (deep sea trips or at inland lakes), surfing and swimming.

The historic shrines with museums to visit are in almost every community. In Brunswick, the campus of Bowdoin College has several museums including the Peary-McMillan Arctic Museum with displays relating to both these famous explorers. The former home of Gen. Henry Knox in Thomaston is open to visitors. At Bath on the west bank of the Kennebec are the shipyards where many famous vessels were built. Here also you will find the Maine Maritime Museum.

The picturesque village of Wiscasset is fine for strolling or for a slow drive through its fascinating streets. Just south of U.S. 1 here is Fort Edgcomb Historic Site where a blockhouse and some of the earthworks remain. The Musical Wonder House in town is a museum of fascinating antique machines that play a variety of melodies from the classics to pops of yesteryear.

The midcoast area is one of lone peninsulas extending into the ocean and it is necessary for the traveler to venture off Route 1 to enjoy the vistas these tips of land offer including several picturesque lighthouses.

Inland Damariscotta Lake and Lake Pemaquid offer a fresh water alternative for those who would venture away from the seashore. Boothbay Harbor is a popular area for shoppers, sightseers and history buffs. There is a railway museum, a schooner museum and a marine aquarium.

MAINE CLIMATE MOST HEALTHFUL IN NATION

The U.S. Department of Commerce, Weather Bureau annual meteorological summary, says "Maine has the most healthful climate in the United States and equals any in the world, not only in the summer but also, contrary to popular belief, in the winter.

"Sunshine averages close to 60 per cent for the year and monthly averages vary little during the changes of seasons. Frequently the winter has more sunny days than the summer.

"It is a fact that southern Maine has more actual hours of sunshine during the summer months of June, July, August and September than the famous winter resorts of Florida, Georgia, Texas and California have during the winter months of November, December, January and February.

"Vitamin 'D' has been recognized as being very necessary to invalids or convalescent patients. Maine's sunshine and large number of crystal clear days assure residents of large quantities of vitamin 'D' and ultraviolet rays to insure good health."

KATAHDIN/MOOSEHEAD

The Katahdin/Moosehead region of Maine is for campers seeking a true wilderness experience. It's a place where wild blueberries grow along the roadside and you can cover vast distances without seeing a soul.

It's a region to commune with nature, to observe wildlife, to canoe on secluded streams and to fish for the big ones in woodland lakes.

Here in this region is almost half the acreage in Maine – unspoiled beauty for campers, hikers and families who seek a relationship with the land.

Baxter State Park with its more than 200,000 acres of wilderness, the Allagash Wilderness Waterway, and Moosehead Lake, New England's largest, are all within these boundaries. Highways through the area are few but there are private roads, owned and maintained by the pulp industry, leading to many beauty spots.

The Lumberman's Museum in Patten has 2,000 exhibits in nine buildings. At Greenville there is the Moosehead Marine Museum with memorabilia of the area that includes ships of the lake. Mt. Katahdin, highest peak in Maine where the Appalachian Trail starts, is located in this area.

One of the scenic attractions is Caratunk Falls at Solon, beneath the railroad bridge spanning the Kennebec. The waterfall drops 36 feet.

MOOSE – Moose

Scientific Name:

Family:

Size:

Weight:

Color:

Home and Young:

Habits:

Alces alces

Cervidae – deer

Male – 8 to 10 feet long, 5 to 8 feet at the shoulder. Females have no antlers and are ¾ the size of bulls.

900 to 1,800 pounds. A big bull moose may weight over half a ton and carry a six-foot span of antlers. Females are slightly smaller.

Dark brown with blackish hairs that blend into the dense forest foliage.

Thick woods are favorite homes: One or two calves are born each spring. Twins are common, and stay with the mother for their first year.

Mighty moose are the largest deer in the world. They live in the spruce forests of the north, eating aquatic weeds in shallow lakes and swamps. When alarmed, a moose makes a loud bellow like a diesel horn.

DOWNEAST/ACADIA

One of New England's most popular national parks and some of the most spectacular coastal scenery in the East attract campers to the Downeast/Acadia region of Maine.

Acadia National Park on Mount Desert Island is the key attraction here with programs conducted by park naturalists, a road to the top of Cadillac Mountain, sweeping views from Schoodic Point and more. Campers should first stop at the Visitor Center for an orientation before exploring the many park roads. From the top of Cadillac Mountain a visitor can be the first in the nation to see the sunrise.

You can explore the beauty of the rugged coast by automobile, by bicycle or by footpath in the park or in nearby villages. Swim in fresh or salt water that is refreshingly cool.

Southwest Harbor is one of the principal lobster ports in Maine. Here you can see the lobstermen bring in their catches at the docks. The Mount Desert Oceanarium depicting the story of the lobster is located here.

The Maine Maritime Academy is at Castine where the training ship "The State of Maine" is berthed. There also is the Wilson Museum with Indian artifacts and minerals on display, and the John Perkins House, a pre-revolutionary structure.

Ship models and paintings are on display at the Penobscot Marine Museum in Searsport. A bit to the north is Bangor, commercial center of northern Maine and an important city. Visitors are attracted to the giant 31-foot statue of Paul Bunyan on Maine Street. A person may take a self-guiding tour by getting a map at the Chamber of Commerce. Fort Knox State Park at Prospect, the wildlife preserve at Ellsworth with a display of mounted specimens are other attractions.

MAINE

- ... has 60 lighthouses including Portland Head Light commissioned by George Washington.
- ... is America's largest blueberry growing state raising 98% of the low-bush blueberries in the United States. Potatoes rank 3rd in acreage and 3rd in production nationally.
- ... is nationally famed for its shellfish; over 19.5 million pounds of lobster were harvested in 1984. The total of all shellfish and fin fish harvested was 187 million pounds with a total value of $108 million in 1984.
- ... abounds in natural assets - 542,629 acres of state and national parks, including the 92 mile Allagash Wilderness Waterway, Acadia National Park (second most visited national park in the United States), and Baxter State Park (location of Mt. Katahdin and the end of the Appalachian Trail).

Timberland and farming are important to those who live here. So are blueberries since most of the succulent berries sold in the U.S. are grown here.

There are attractions for the visiting camper, too. In Lubec, a seaside village famous for sardine packing, is located the Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Bridge to Campobello Island in New Brunswick. In the days of FDR Campobello was the Summer White House and now is the site of Franklin D. Roosevelt Campobello International Park.

Eastport nearby is famous for its record tides, some of them reaching as much as 26 feet in Passamaquoddy Bay. Calais has an international bridge to Canada and is known as Maine's only international city, famous for shipbuilding and lumbering. The Moosehead National Wildlife Refuge has woodcock and waterfowl and trails for hiking and nature walks.

Other places of interest include the Burnham Tavern Museum in Machias with revolutionary artifacts, the Gates House in Machiasport with local memorabilia and ship models, and the Ruggles House in Columbia Falls with unique carvings and a famous flying staircase.

Jonesport, a fishing community, is the site of the yearly "World's Fastest Lobsterboat Race." The area's fishing and hunting grounds include the Grand Lakes chain, featuring many camps in wilderness surroundings.

Ocean Camping

on Maine's Beautiful Rockbound Coast Hermit Island Casco Bay, Small Point, Maine

An Ocean Resort for Campers with Tents, Tent Trailers and Small Pickup Campers

For Those Who Enjoy...

CAMPING in the woods or in the open, or on the very shore of the salty North Atlantic.

BATHING on uncrowded natural white sand beaches and in hidden warm water coves not available to the public.

BOATING on the picturesque calm waters of the Branch, among countless enchanting islands of Casco Bay, or on the long rolling gentle swells of the open sea.

FISHING off breezy iron veined rocks or from native pine built skiffs for Mackerel, Flounder, Bass, Atlantic Salmon, or deep sea fishing for Cod and Giant Blue Fin Tuna.

HIKING along narrow green lanes, over ocean bluffs, or along moss covered forest floors.

SKETCHING colorful scenes of Maine's Maritime region and its restless sea.

LOBSTERS in abundant quantity, alive and snapping fresh, from the deep, cool water ledges of Casco Bay.

MOTORING on easy daytime trips to countless points of historic interest, entertainment and charm, located on the numerous nearby peninsulas reaching out into the Gulf of Maine.
