Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters

Partnerships in Teaching and Research

Partnership Strategies

In their search for the most appropriate and sustainable ways to rebuild their communities after disasters, CRSCAD collaborates with:

- Government agencies and policymakers
- Academics and researchers
- Practitioners
- Nonprofits
- Community-based grassroots organizations

Outcomes in Post-Disaster Rebuilding

*CRSCAD assists local, national, and international agencies as well as the victims of disasters to develop practical, sustainable, and long-term solutions to the social, economic, and environmental consequences of disasters.

*We also host international conferences and workshops at UMass Boston to provide a space for partners to network, exchange ideas, and share best practices.

Local and Global Partners

In conjunction with the John W. McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies and the College of Advancing and Professional Studies, we collaborate with:

- Airlangga University, Surabaya, Indonesia
- Boston Public Health Commission's DeValle Institute.
- Center for Homeland Defense and Security.
- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).
- InterIntel.
- Salahaddin University, Iraq.
- United Planet.
- University of São Paulo, Brazil.

Conferences and Workshops

Since 2007, CRSCAD has held conferences on rebuilding post-disaster communities in:

- China
- Haiti
- Indonesia
- Iraq
- Japan
