JOHN A. CONE, SUPERINTENDENT

BRUNSWICK, MAINE.

May 9 - 1927

My dear Mr. Dunnack,

I am sending you to-day a copy of a little book of mine which has recently been published. If you think it worth while, will you kindly add the book to the collection of volumes by Maine people.

If you will glance at the "Foreword" by President Sills, and at my "Explanation", you will see the excuse for the existence of the volume.

Yours truly
John A. Cone

WHAT SOME LEADING EDUCATORS SAY ABOUT

"A SUPERINTENDENT'S SUGGESTIONS TO TEACHERS" BY JOHN A. CONE.

"It is a fine little handbook and should be extremely useful to young teachers and will not come amiss to the more experienced. I hope to see it in general circulation among teachers and superintendents. It is a good definite piece of work and I congratulate the author on a worth while achievement."

Augustus O. Thomas,
Commissioner of Education for Maine.

"I have read with the greatest interest every word of the little volume which has just come out under your authorship. You have done a very real service in having condensed for the practical use of teachers some of these simple but not always understood principles of school organization and teaching. I am sure the book will be of value not only to inexperienced and untrained teachers of rural schools but teachers of experience will profit by it. I should predict for the book a very wide circulation."

Payson Smith,
Commissioner of Education for Mass.

"I have received a copy of 'A Superintendent's Suggestions to Teachers.' I am delighted with it. I have read it through from cover to cover. I wish to congratulate you for the clear and simple way in which you have emphasized the every day fundamental tasks of the teacher. In its construction itself it is a worthy model for the teacher, in that it combines the virtues of clearness and brevity with that of comprehensiveness. Teachers will get enjoyment and profit from reading and re-reading it."

Walter E. Russell,
Prin. of Gorham Normal School.

"I have read thoroughly with much interest and approval, 'A Superintendent's Suggestions to Teachers.' It seems to me to be a book exceedingly valuable to superintendents in their work with young teachers. I shall be glad to bring it to the attention of my summer school."

W. G. Mallett,
Prin. of Farmington Normal School.

"I wish that every inexperienced teacher in Maine might have a copy on her school desk. There is also much in it by the way of suggestions and encouragement for those who have taught for some time. The chapter on teaching English and especially the reference to the 'English conscience' strongly appealed to me."

William D. Hall,
Prin. of Castine Normal School.

"I think the book is going to fill a real need. I do not know of any other book in the market just like it. Its brevity, its kindly spirit and its consideration of the most practical points in a teacher's life certainly make it a very helpful handbook for any teacher; and especially to those less well trained in some of the more general things which books on pedagogy do not describe. I congratulate the author upon the fine piece of work he has done."

Florence M. Hale,
Agent for Rural Education in Maine.

"I consider the book very valuable indeed both for teachers and superintendents. The book has been ordered for our training school. The author has made a good contribution to the books of education."

San Lorenzo Merriman,
Prin. of Aroostook State Normal School.

"A Superintendent's Suggestions to Teachers" is published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldridge, 11-15 Union Square West, New York City.
