Woods Hole, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Curtis:

It is indeed a pleasure to acknowledge your fine gift to the Maine Author Collection of the six items which your generosity prompts.

We certainly hope that the autobiographical notes may be collected and expanded, and available before long in one volume. Your most interesting and varied work should afford an excellent and exciting book, and already we anticipate it -- may we.

As Miss Hazelton very likely told you, the Maine Author Collection attempts to include all the books of all Maine authors, as well as biographical and critical material. We are grateful that you called and brought your writing to our attention, and that the opportunity is ours of including these publications in the collection.

Please accept our thanks and good wishes.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Dear Mrs. Jacobs:

When I inquired regarding the late Governor of Maine, Carl E. Milliken on a recent visit to the Capitol, Miss Ruth Hazelton told me that the library
would like to have a book I wrote some years ago regarding my early years in Richmond, and anything else of the sort I had

Under separate cover I am sending you several of these publications
