Dear Miss Douglas:

We have noticed with pleasure your poems which are included in the recently published anthology, MAINE AND VERMONT POETS.

We find that we have no biographical information concerning you, and we hope you will be so kind as to furnish us with a brief sketch of this nature. We would like to know, also, what writings have been published. We will very much appreciate your kindness and cooperation.

Please accept our congratulations upon your achievement, and our best wishes for future success.

Very truly yours

Many thanks for your congratulations and kind wishes. Following are the facts, requested, in your letter of recent date. Born, Oct. 14 1885, in Freeport, Maine, on the rocky farm where my father and mother (Edgar C. and Elnora Curtis) reared their family of nine children. Graduated from Freeport High School in 1903. Married at nineteen, Charles L. Douglas of Brunswick, Me. Lived for sixteen years on a farm in North Brunswick, where eight of our nine children were born. Since then have lived in Brunswick Village, and have added another son to the family. Six girls and two boys living now. Spend our Summers at Gun Point, Harpswell.

Have had a few poems published in "Embryo" a poetry magazine published in the middle west. A few published in "Sun Up" a magazine published in Portland.

Sincerely,

Ruth C. Douglas
