Dear Mr. Felton:

Congratulations on THE WORLD'S MOST TRUTHFUL MAN, which we purchased at once for the library. It is delightful entertainment for anyone, and a source of satisfaction to us to have stories with typical Maine humor preserved for the enjoyment of those who never had the pleasure of hearing them told in their native environment.

We write now especially about the Maine Author Collection, which is a permanent exhibit of Maine books and books by Maine people. Nearly three thousand volumes, most of which are inscribed presentation copies, make up this exhibit, one of value and fascination which constantly attracts students and visitors. We also collect all possible biographical and critical material about our writers.

May we claim you as a Maine author? Certainly the nature of your book indicates its right place is in a collection of Maine books. We hope that you may want to inscribe and present a copy for this purpose.

Our very good wishes go to you for the success of THE WORLD'S MOST TRUTHFUL MAN.

Sincerely yours

hmj
