Dear Mrs. Darling:

A copy of your PERSONAL REMINISCENCES was presented to this library, and it occurs to us that the book should also be in the Maine Author Collection, as well as the general library.

The Maine Author Collection is a permanent exhibit of books written by Maine people, and books pertaining to the State of Maine. Most of the volumes are inscribed presentation copies, and we find that the inscriptions lend a delightful touch of originality to the books. We also gather biographical and critical material, so that our information on Maine authors may be as complete as possible.

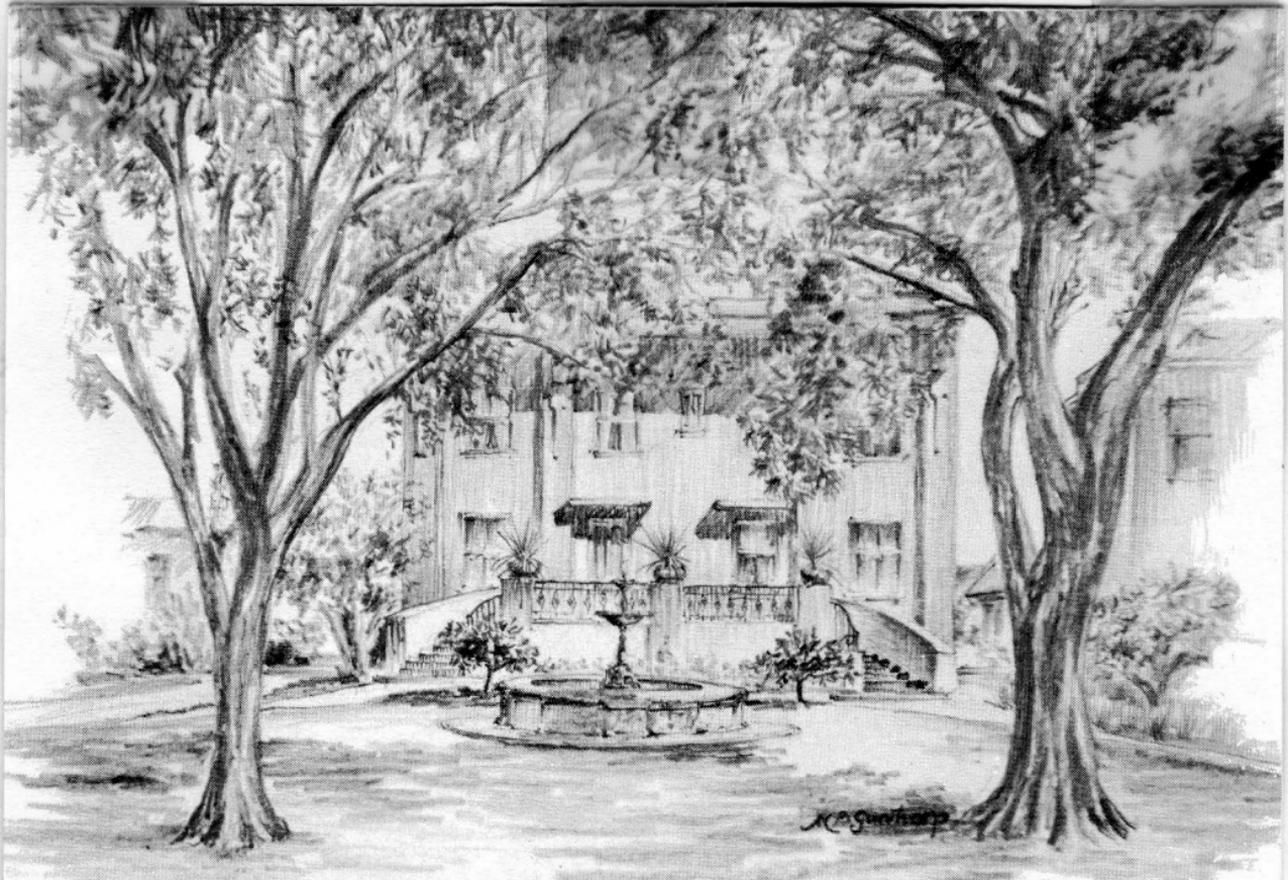

We should very much like to have PERSONAL REMINISCENCES in this collection, and write to inquire whether or not another copy could be made available to us for this purpose. If it can, would you be so very kind as to inscribe it?

Our good wishes go to you, and our appreciation for the copy of your book which you previously placed in this library.

Sincerely yours

hmj

Dear Mrs. Jacob:
I thank you for your letter of March 14th. I was,
of course, quite gratified to hear that you thought my little book worthy of a place in the Marie Antoinette Collection.
I mailed you a copy with inscription yesterday.

I have been here - about twenty miles from San Diego - for a year. It is a "home" for Retired gentle folks (it used to be so-called) and is one of the oldest in the country. It is truly a delightful place with many activities if one desires, a mild climate, and perfect freedom. This is a Kingdom.

Dr. Lillian Noble, born in Maine and who practiced as an osteopath in Augusta about 1894 for a few years (then Dr.
Wentworth) is here - also Abbie Howe, whose sister Mrs. Allen, lives in Augusta. We have men & women from all over the country. With best wishes to all my Maine friends, cordially, Marshall Curtis

Dear Mrs. Darling:

Thank you so much for your friendly letter, and for the delightfully inscribed copy of your book, PERSONAL REMINISCENCES, which we received this morning.

This copy will be added to the Maine Author Collection, where it will be a part of the exhibit works of other Maine writers.

You seem situated in a comfortable and most attractive spot, and we congratulate you upon your comfort and contentment.

Again thank you for your interest and generosity.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Jacob:

Would you please attach me of the enclosed addendum to page 71
of my Reminiscences and give the other to the librarian of the State Library.

I thought it too bad that I neglected to include Wm. Holmes in my text, through carelessness.

Cordially yours,

Mary W. Darling

Dear Mrs. Darling:

Thank you very much for the addendum which you thoughtfully provided for your book. We have entered it in the proper place.

We trust that your winter is comfortable and interesting, and that you are enjoying a convenient lack of snow.

Sincerely yours
