MOSSER, MARJORIE

November 3, 1939

Miss Marjorie Mosser
14 West 49th Street
Rockefeller Center
New York City

Dear Miss Mosser:

Your alluring book, GOOD MAINE FOOD, is just what every kitchen needs, and we hope that those housewives who do not purchase a copy will have generous friends at Christmas! Our copy which we purchased for lending has already an imposing waiting list, and there are those on the staff who have decided that they won't resist it, and that they will be much happier with a copy in their own kitchens.

You are to be congratulated upon such a very fine, authentic, attractive and valuable book. It is exceptionally delightful to have such unusual and also such typical recipes preserved in something other than memories and "written-in" cook books. It is one of the most irresistable cook books we have seen in a long time -- and our avocation is resisting cook books!

We hope you will want to inscribe a copy for the Maine Author Collection. You are probably thoroughly familiar with the idea of the exhibit, but may we remind you that we also collect biographical data, and that any which you may be kind enough to send us will be gratefully received.

Our sincere and hearty wishes for a huge success for GOOD MAINE FOOD.

Very truly yours

Dear Miss McLeod:

I appreciated your letter and all the kind things you said about GOOD MAINE FOOD very much. By this mail I am sending an autographed copy to you for the Maine Author Collection.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

Marjorie Mosser.

Dear Miss Mosser:

The gift copy of your delightful book, GOOD MAINE FOOD, has been received; and we hasten to express to you our deep appreciation of your kindness and generosity.

The only biographical information we have for our files is "niece and secretary" of Mr. Roberts, which is rather inadequate. Wont you send us a little more at your convenience?

We are extremely gratified to observe the success which GOOD MAINE FOOD is justly enjoying, and we trust that its life will be a long one. Thank you again for the Maine Author Collection copy.

Very truly yours
