My dear Mrs. Robinson;-

I am preparing for the next issue of our Library Bulletin a Who's Who of Maine poets. This is limited to poets born in Maine who have published collections of verse since 1900. We shall be glad to include you in this list.

Will you please send us biographical data about yourself, including date and place of birth, and a list of your books with dates of publication?

I find that you are not represented in the Maine Author Collection, which is an exhibition collection of autographed and inscribed copies of books written by Maine authors. If you care to send the collection autographed copies of your books we shall be delighted to receive them.

Very truly yours

Dear madam:

I shall be very glad to be included in the Who's Who of Maine Poets.

Enclosed you will find biographical data.

I am pleased to send you, within a few days, an autographed and described copy of Sharon Lane, for the Maine Author Collection.

Very truly yours,

Pearl L. Robinson.

Dear Mrs. Robinson:

In checking up on some of our incomplete correspondence, we find a letter from you, dated June 17, in response to our request for information.

You have very kindly sent us biographical information, and in your letter, you wrote that you would be pleased to send us an inscribed copy of SHARON LANE for the Maine Author Collection.

We have not received this, but we would be glad to have a copy, and we assure you that your generosity would be sincerely appreciated.

Please accept our most cordial invitation to visit the library and the Maine Author Collection when you are again in Maine.

Very truly yours

Maine State Library
