PORTLAND, MAINE

Rev. Morris H. Turk, D.D., Minister
17 West Street

22 June 1923

Rev. H. E. Dunnack,
Augusta, Maine.

Dear Mr. Dunnack:

Today I am sending you a copy of my book "They Live - And Are Not Far Away" in fulfilment of our conversation one day in the book-store of Loring, Short and Harmon.

This copy is of the first edition; you may be interested to know that the second edition is off the press.

I have not forgotten your gracious invitation to come up to Augusta; but I have been tied so closely to my work that I've not yet managed it.
But I expect to validate this hope someday.

With all good wishes, I am,
Faithfully yours,

Morris H. Turk.

Dear Mr. Turk:-

I was very glad to receive your letter this morning and to learn that you had autographed a copy of your book "They Live - And Are Not Far Away." I purchased a copy of the book some time ago and I read it with very great profit and also with great pleasure.

I congratulate you as well as your readers on this splendid interpretation of a great thing. Your book will be added to the list of books by Maine authors. Will you send me a brief biographical sketch of yourself to file with the book? I am,

Sincerely yours,

Henry E. Dunnack
Librarian.
