Henry A. Dummack
State Librarian
Augusta, Maine

Dear Mr. Dummack -

I am sending in this mail a very precious copy of my book of ten years ago

Wild Scottish Clans.

Please put it with the Maine authors not to be taken from the library.

I own this copy as it belonged to

FALMOUTH

Portland, Maine

my sainted Mother.
Something those sacred fingers have handled is precious beyond price.

Please acknowledge receipt of this to me at Northeast Harbor, Maine
as I will get it Saturday.

Sincerely Your Friend
Arthur L. Griffiths

My dear Griffiths:

The presentation copy of your Wild Scottish Glans has been received. The book is greatly appreciated for its own merit but to receive the copy sent to your Mother makes it a thousand times more valuable.

Please accept my sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Henry E. Dunnack

Dear Friend Dammack:—

A voice from the little white part.

Less than one minute ago I finished my second novel,

Jean Laurie
A Tale of the Philippine Islands my other one

Dageet
A Tale of the South Seas is in the publishers' hands

Yours sincerely
Arthur L. Griffiths
