LIGHT TOWER 1967

FORT WAYNE BIBLE COLLEGE
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

GROWING TO SERVE

Beneath the golden lobe, shadowed under the rumbling black of storm, or whipped and pounded by the slashing wind, the wheat stalk thrusts itself toward the blue above its head. It is growing. Fort Wayne Bible College, like the wheat stalk, stands proudly erect with its roots deep. It too is growing. We strive not only for endurance in these days of storm; we fight the elements to strengthen ourselves—to grow.

The young seed pokes its shy face through the earth, then encouraged by the Sun's warm, compelling strength, unbends, builds, and pushes higher. Silhouetted against the summer sky, the golden stalk daily reaches upward to touch its goal. Its nature is to grow, for its Source is the Creator of all things. Fort Wayne Bible College has the same Source; our goal too is to grow for the glory of God and the service of man.

DEDICATION

The staff of the 1967 Light Tower dedicate this book to

Miss Eunice Conrad

for her spiritual and discerning insight into life; academic achievement in her field; and her inspiring dedication to her task of helping others to grow.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS
FORT WAYNE BIBLE COLLEGE, 1967

It is a pleasure for me to extend my best wishes as you complete your college education.

You are graduating into a society in which you will be warmly welcomed. Our country has never had so great a need for highly educated men and women. Never have young Americans moved from the college campus into a world offering so broad a range of opportunities for individual fulfillment and contribution to the welfare of humanity.

Your generation of students has been distinguished by its fresh and vigorous concern for the quality of American life and its commitment to American democracy. Perhaps the greatest opportunity awaiting you is the challenge to make this a life-long commitment.

Today, Americans from every walk of life are striving together to shape a society that can offer a meaningful and rewarding life to all its members. Never have so many of our countrymen been so deeply dedicated to eradicating the old evils of ignorance, poverty, and bigotry from every corner of the land.

Through your years of study, you have prepared yourselves for positions of leadership in this quest for a better America.

I congratulate you, and urge you to take full advantage of that opportunity.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lyndon B. Johnson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

The wheat stalk needs fresh air and a stimulating atmosphere for growth. Fort Wayne Bible College seeks to provide a fresh and stimulating intellectual atmosphere for the mind, where the truth may be known with Divine guidance.

"Smile, you're on candid camera!"

"What class is that collateral for?"

Just as myriads of wheat stalks grow in a field together, so man needs the strength and support gained from associating with others. Fort Wayne Bible College, in seeking to develop the total man for Christ, trains in this area also.

GRO
TO

Dr. Gerig and Gordon Smith take a look at part of the future of Fort Wayne Bible College.

Dear Students and Friends of FWBC:

It is a personal joy to greet you all through this page of the 1967 Light Tower.

“Growing to Serve” has been the inspiring slogan for this past year. Growth always indicates life, and service is the primary reason for living.

A college is always successful when it can measure spiritual growth in the lives of its students. Such growth is achieved through a variety of experiences and there is no greater joy than to watch students mature in their faith and actions.

Intellectual growth is another objective of great importance. This involves more than learning and storing facts. It embraces maturity in judgment, a growing sense of life values, settled convictions in relation to life’s calling and ministry, and a seriousness in relation to personal responsibility to a world in need.

Fort Wayne Bible College is growing physically in order to successfully serve its constituency spiritually and intellectually. Without compromise or apology, it trains young people in the conservative evangelical faith. It challenges them to life dedication and service. It seeks to prepare them for a high calling in some definite area of Christian ministry.

Our students are to be congratulated on a remarkable record of outstanding ministry in all parts of the world across sixty-three years of institutional history.

It is true—FWBC “grows to serve.” We want to share our blessings of growth and service with you always.

Yours devotedly in Christ,

IN MEMORIAM

I would not have you grieve for me today
Nor weep beside my vacant chair
Could you but know my daily portion here
You would not, could not, wish me there.

I know now why He said, "Ear hath not heard"
I have no words, no alphabet,
Or even if I had, I DARE not tell
Because you could not hear it yet.

So only this—I am the same, though changed
Like Him! A joy more rich and strong
Than I had dreamed that any heart could hold
And all my life is one glad song.

Sometimes when you are talking to our Lord
He turns and speaks to me . . . dear heart,
In that rare moment, you and I are just
The distance of a word apart!

And so my loved ones, do not grieve for me
Around the family board today;
Instead, rejoice, for we are one in Him,
And so I am not far away.

"No, the fact is that they longed for a better country altogether, nothing less than a heavenly one. And because of this faith of theirs, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for in sober truth he has prepared for them a city."
—Hebrews 11:16

“And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry for the edifying of the body of Christ, Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;”

—Ephesians 4:11-14

SENIORS

There it is, the church of tomorrow. Not exactly Gothic, is it? This generation is accelerating faster than any other has or could. Problems, needs, methods and fads arrive, pass through their stages, and burn out as fast as this rocket. Christ compels us to be aware.

Seniors! This is your day. What are you going to do about it?
