STATE OF MAINE
OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL
AUGUSTA

July 26, 1940

To: The Municipal Officers:

Proper time has been allowed for the registration of all aliens resident in this State as directed by Governor Lewis O. Barrows by Proclamation dated June 14, 1940.

This office requests the immediate return of all completed forms, and a special effort on the part of the municipal officers concerned to complete the registration in every community at the earliest possible time.

To expedite this action it is ruled that in the event that the standard forms provided for alien registration by this office are insufficient in number, registering officials may utilize written, typewritten or mimeographed forms of their own manufacture so long as the outline of the official form is adhered to.

Your cooperation in this matter will be a real contribution to the State Defense measures being directed by this office.

For the Adjutant General:

Clyde W. Metcalf.
Capt. Inf. Me. N.G.
Intelligence Section.
