AMONG THE FARMERS.

"REAPED THE FLOW." Correspondence on practical agricultural topics is solicited.

Farm Merchandising. The final result of a year's work on the farm is to have something to sell.

The farmer's coat is to a certain extent within his own keeping.

When Mr. Palmer gets a piece of land ready to plant it is in as good condition as possible to obtain in top soil cultivation.

It is not uncommon to hear the statement that the season has changed and it is possible to get a stand.

The following experience is taken from the Ohio Agricultural College Extension Bulletin.

The business side of farming is the weakest part. When the farmer is a merchant he will soon become a better farmer.

Wire Fencing and Trees. In running wire fences it may be necessary or desirable to attach the wires to trees along the fence lines.

Cruelty to Bulls. The editor had occasion this past summer to visit a large number of stock farms.

Notes. Sure it is all right—this general movement toward the farm; but I don't believe in painting the possibilities of farming in too rosy lines.

Good stable are also a necessity to sound feet and legs, and sound health as well.

Good even stable floors are a necessity for sound feet and legs.

Good cow goes as far as good feeding with a horse.

Resuscitating a Run-Down Farm.

In Oxford County, Me., is the farm of J. F. Palmer, pleasantly situated on Carey hill about 800 feet above sea level.

Eighteen years ago Mr. Palmer came to the farm to take care of his wife's father and to take up the work of the place.

The farm of 18 years ago out a small amount of crops which were sold.

Here the farmer made over. Mr. Palmer gets a piece of land ready to plant it is in as good condition as possible to obtain in top soil cultivation.

On similar occasions I had usually remained for half an hour after the other guests had departed.

PROLOGUE.

One of the most interesting characters in fiction, November Joe, well deserves to take his place in the hall of fame alongside his more famous prototype, Sherlock Holmes.

There are two things which I have been present at many trials and the most dangerous witnesses that I have ever seen have been the November Joe types.

I remembered, too, the expression of humor and mocking tolerance which used to invade the boy's face whenever Mrs. Harding told her the facts.

"Remember me to Joe," said he. "I like that young man. Goody and good luck."

Along the borders of Benue and Nigeria, the United States and Canada, lies a land of spruce forest and of hardwood ridges.

I left the cars at Silent Water and rode off at once to Harding's, the house of the Benue farmer where I meant to put up for the night.

"That's right! That's right!" commented Mr. Andrew. "What do the boys of that fellow with the big bell, which you have hanging in your office, measure?"

"Fifty-nine inches." "Then go and shoot one with a spread of sixty."

"Why not?" I inquired. "Mrs. Harding shook her head as she stood still holding the receiver.

"You can ask me anything," I urged. "They want some one to carry a message to November Joe," she explained.

"Why not?" I inquired. "Mrs. Harding shook her head as she stood still holding the receiver.

Therist Frothingham and Deputy Sheriff Tutis Saturday night secured the three prisoners who escaped from the Androscoggin County jail at Auburn Friday night. The men were on the evening train, and were put off at Oxford by the conductor, who took them to the officers. The men were found in a shack at the old quarry near the road from Oxford station toward East Oxford.

The officers of Paris Grange were installed Saturday, Jan. 2, by Past Master L. A. Brooks. The work was done in a very pleasing manner. After the ceremony, two cockades were presented to the retiring Master, A. N. Cairns, and Mrs. Cairns, as a token of esteem for their services for the past two years. The next meeting will be held on Jan. 10, 1915. Dr. G. M. Tutwell is expected to be present and give an address.

Poultry Show This Week. The sixth annual exhibition of the Western Maine Poultry Association will be held in Grange Hall, South Paris, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, Jan. 5, 6 and 7. The association has had five successful exhibitions, and expects another as good as the previous ones this year.

Both floors of Grange Hall will be large spaces, with sufficient room for the use of the officials.

The officers of the association are mainly the same as for some years past. The president is A. E. Shurtlough, secretary is H. E. Lovjoy of Norway; secretary, E. F. Crockett of South Paris; assistant secretary, W. H. Bean, South Paris; with quite a large list of town vice-presidents and directors from the surrounding territory.

The show will be "comparison" show, as was last year's, the judging previous to that time having been done by score card. The judges are George P. Weston of Nashua, N. H.

Cash premiums are paid by the association in the form of $5.00 first and second respectively on breeding pens, and $1.00 and 50 cents for single birds, in all classes except turkeys. For turkeys, the premiums are $10.00, $1.00, and 50 cents. Third and fourth prizes are ribbons. There are also premiums on dressed poultry and eggs.

HOMEMAVERS COLUMN.

Details are something beneath the notice of the majority. It requires a rare sort of mind to accord to them the proper importance.

It is necessary for every great artist to understand details. He should be able to do things that should be ignored. Gulliver discovered this interesting fact when he woke up one morning. The perfection of any masterpiece depends upon the strategic elimination of its details.

Those who see only those things which lie between the little and the great see neither of these. It requires the same capacity of imagination to master details that it does to master immensities. To see big one must also be able to see small.

Controlling events means controlling details.

Nothing succeeds like details.—Lifts.

FRUIT COOKIES.

Mix together one cup butter, one cup brown sugar, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup sour milk or treacle, one teaspoon soda, one cup chopped raisins, one-half cup currants, three well-beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of ground cinnamon and a sprinkle of nutmeg. Add flour to make a soft dough. Roll so as to make thick cookies.

SUGAR COOKIES.

Cream together two cups sugar and one cup butter, and add one cup cream in which is dissolved one teaspoon soda, one-half cup molasses, one-half cup sour milk or treacle, one teaspoon soda, one cup chopped raisins, one-half cup currants, three well-beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of ground cinnamon and a sprinkle of nutmeg. Add flour to make a soft dough. Roll so as to make thick cookies.

GRANDMA'S GRIDDLE CAKE.

To one pint of sour milk add one teaspoon soda, one-quarter teaspoon salt, one well-beaten egg, and one pint flour. Mix well, bake on a hot well-greased griddle, and serve with butter and maple syrup.

GRAHAM MUFFINS.

Sift together one and one-fourth cups graham flour, one cup white flour, three-fourths teaspoon soda and one teaspoon salt. To one cup sour milk add one-third cup molasses, mix well, and stir this into the dry ingredients, and bake in the kettle.

JOHNNY CAKE.

Mix together and sift one cup corn meal, one cup white flour and one teaspoon salt. Beat one egg until it is light and add it to one cup sour milk and one-half cup molasses in which is dissolved one teaspoon soda. Stir in the dry ingredients, add one-fourth cup melted butter and bake in a square pan.

YANKEE BROWN BREAD.

With one cup graham flour sift one cup corn meal, one cup rye meal and one teaspoon salt. Dissolve three-fourths teaspoon soda in one cup water, add three-fourths cup molasses, stir in the dry ingredients, pour into a buttered mold and steam for three and one-half hours.

SOUR CREAM BISCUITS.

Place two cups sour cream in a mixing bowl, add one teaspoon soda and a small quantity of flour, stirring well. Sift together a second teaspoonful of soda, a teaspoonful of salt, one cup flour and one cup of flour. Mix all together and add a little more flour if necessary to make a soft dough. Bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes.

DUXBURY POTAGE.

Beat one egg, add to it one cup sugar, a pinch of salt, nutmeg to taste, and one cup sour milk in which is dissolved one teaspoon soda, a teaspoon of nutmeg and one cup of flour. Fry in deep fat.

COUNTRYSIDE CAKE.

Cream together one cup granulated sugar and three-fourths cup butter; add the yolks of three eggs and beat again until creamy. Then stir in one cup blackberry jam, one teaspoon soda dissolved in three tablespoons sour cream, and one and one-half cups flour sifted together with one teaspoon cinnamon and one small nutmeg grated. Add the well-beaten whites of the eggs last. Bake in two layers and top with raspberry or strawberry jam which may be placed in place of the blackberry.

SOUR CREAM DRESSING.

Beat one-half pint sour cream with an egg-beater until light. Mix together two tablespoons lemon juice, two tablespoons vinegar, one scant tablespoon sugar, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon pepper and one teaspoon or more minced mustard. Gradually add this mixture to the cream, beating briskly while you pour.

MINI-SMALL FUDGE.

Mix together two cups sugar, two teaspoons cocoa and one-half cup rich milk or cream. Boil together three minutes, then add butter size of an egg, continue to boil ten minutes and pour on stove, add one tablespoon marshmallow cream, and beat to a cream. Four into buttered pans and cut in squares.

TWO EGGS, 1-1/4 CUPS SUGAR, 1-1/2 CUPS TEASPOON SODA, 1 CUP SOUR MILK, 1 HEASING TEASPOON SODA, 1-2 TEASPOON SALT, 1-2 TEASPOON NUTMEG, FLOUR ENOUGH TO ROLL OUT.

Beat the eggs and sugar together, then add the soda. Use what is left from the table, then it requires no shortening and they will keep moist for a long time.

APPLES ON HALF-SHELL.

Cut slices of bread into rounds, butter and put in baking dish, pare and core some good large apples, cut them crosswise into inch thick slices, put on each slice of bread, dust with granulated sugar and put in hot oven, bake 20 minutes and serve with cream.

APPLES WITH SYRUP.

Make a syrup of sugar and water. Slice a lemon into it and let boil until clear. Pare and core sound tart apples, cut into quarters and lay them carefully into the syrup; let them cook gently until a state can be run through them, taking care not to break them. Lay the pieces of apple in a glass dish, boil down the syrup, then slightly cool pour over the apples.

OLD-FASHIONED SALT FISH DINNER.

Soak fish over night in cold water skin side up so that the salt may be drawn out. When soaking, put on a stove to heat water and keep warm, but not boiling, till softened. Then remove the bones and skin, place on a warm platter; take a hot put in hot fat, cook in smaller slices; cut these into small square dice, fry carefully in a spider until crisp brown, turning often; pour fat and all into a hot greasy boat for serving.

NEW ENGLAND PANCAKES.

Beat 3 eggs very light, add 1-2 pint milk, 1-2 teaspoon melted butter, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 tea-poon soda and 1 teaspoon cream tartar, mixed with flour enough to make a batter. Add one cup nutmeg, one cup vanilla and serve with the following sauce: 1 cup powdered sugar beaten into 1-2 cup butter until white and creamy; then add 3-4 tablespoons cream or milk; beat well on a plate or glass dish and put where it will harden; flavor white soft with vanilla or lemon.

HINTS.

To keep the little girl's hair ribbons from fraying, cut the ends pointed or slanted; or if straight ends in preference, take care inside the string for an eighth of an inch up from the end.

Granite and porcelain should never be scraped. It may not hurt the first time but it is bound to be injured sooner or later. Soak in a weak solution of soda and water.

If you don't like the odor of cheese around, remove the rind (the gaily part) and then wrap the cheese in oil or paraffin paper to keep it from drying out.

When milk is kept in the cellar, the old-fashioned swing shelf is the best place for it, and nothing of strong odor should be kept near it.

If the lamp wicks work light pull some of the threads that run through them. When the lamp smokes blot the burner in strong lye water.

Self-Belief the Key to Success.

Do you still believe in yourself? If so, you cannot become a failure. You can at worst only have failed to learn the science of success. In the great game of life we can afford to lose everything but our self-respect. Money lost is little loss; friends lost, much loss; but self-respect lost, and all is lost. Self-belief is the master key of success. It is the mother of self-reliance. Believe in yourself and you will win through. Self-belief is the master key of success. It is the mother of self-reliance. Believe in yourself and you will win through. Self-belief is the master key of success. It is the mother of self-reliance. Believe in yourself and you will win through.

Good Advice.

"What would you say," said the prophet of woe, "if I were to tell you all the rivers in this country would dry up?"

"I would say," replied the patient man, "go and do that likewise."

Collector—No money again? I'm tired of waiting. Debtor to his maid—Jane, give this gentleman a chair.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ordered the Kings Around.

Prince Meternich, prime minister to the emperor of Austria, was once asked under what circumstances had Napoleon, whom he had often met, given him the most striking impression of prestige and sovereignty. It was, he said, one morning at Compiegne, when they returned from a drive in the forest. They returned to the palace. The emperor, leaning his back against the chimney, chatted with his guests while awaiting the summons to lunch. There were a number of personages and members of the imperial family present. Napoleon began to feel the pangs of hunger, so he turned to the emperor and said: "I am very hungry. Will you please order the kitchen to bring me a meal?"—Baltimore Star.

Starting Forest Fires.

Engines—portable and locomotive—are bad enough. But when it comes to deliberate, willful carelessness and stupidity, the most criminal miscreants of them all. Hunters, hikers and automobile parties are prime offenders against the fire laws of the state. One-third of all the forest fires must be charged against these mental and moral delinquents. They are a high grade moral looter like a modern Solomon. They should be abated as supreme nuisances. To build a campfire and go off and leave it burning or half put out or to build a fire in any territory. They sent out matches and papers against the fire laws of the state.
