33d Massachusetts and 33d New Jersey. LOOKOUT VALLEY, Tenn., Jan. 19, 1864.

To the Editor of the Press: These are two of the best regiments of the 11th Corps, now encamped in this Valley near where it won its first fame in the West.

To-day there was a grand occasion with the 33d New Jersey-the presentation of a new state flag. They had invited Gen. Howard to make the presentation. It was a clear, mild afternoon and the new red-trimmed, dark-blue uniform of the 33d looked neat and becoming. Their camp is always one of the cleanest in the corps and to-day seemed to have been doubly swept. The men looked cheerful as they stood drawn up in linc. Gen. Howard dismounted and taking the flag in his hand be flag in his cheerful as they stood drawn up in line. Gen. Howard dismonnted and taking the flag in his hand, said to the Commanding officer (the Major), "I take pleasure in presenting to you and through you to the officers and men of the 33d N. J. Reg't this flag—the state flag of New Jersey." He then stepped forward and handed the flag to the Major who made a very handsome speech in response. He com-menced by complimenting the General — speaking of the honor they had in receiving the flag from the left hand of one who had given his right for his country—the honor they felt at being under the command of one who had won such deserved and honorable fame. He alluded to the grim presence of Lookout which now overlooks their camp, but when they first came here used to frown worse at them (crowned as it was with rebel artillery), and vent its displeasure at their presence with something more than frowas though little else than useless growls. The Major then handed the flag to the Color Ser-geant—a manly old soldier with many grey hairs in his beard—and said he could trust it with one who had borne a noble part in ten battles and had once been stricken to the ground by the enemy's bullets. I cannot give all that was spoken. Gen. Howard then ad-dressed the regiment at some length speaking of what the new flag emblematized—of the historic associations of New Jersey. He com-pared the sufficing condition of Washington's genuine elephant eye whiskey, a brand by the way, till then unknown. On went the play and on went Ned drinking. The conclu-sion march was to be made—the signal was given, and the fore-legs staggered toward the front of the stage. The conductor pulled the ears of the elephant to the righ—the fore-legs staggered to the left. The toot lights obstructed the way, and he raised his foot and stenned plumm into the orchestra' Down went stepped plump into the orchestra ! Down went the fore-legs into the leaders fiddle; over of the fore-legs into the leaders fiddle; over of course turned the elephant, sending the prince and hind-legs into the middle of the pit. The manager stood horror-struck, the prince and hind-legs lay confounded; the boxes were convulsed, the actors chocking with laughter, and poor Ned, casting one look, a strange blending of drunkenness, grief and laughter, at the scene, fled hastily out of the theatre, closely followed by the leader with his wreck of a fiddle, performing various cut and thrust motions in the air. The curtain dropped on a scene behind the scenes. No pageant—no fore-legs—but everybody held his sides. Music actors, pit, boxes and gallery, rushed from the theatre shrieking between every breath, "have you seen the elephant!"

WHAT HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN.-J. G. Holland, of the Springfield Republican, has been rusticating in Vermont, looking around among the farmers, and he writes to that paper as follows :-

lows :--'Imagine your correspondent imagining the life he might have led and came very near leading, for that matter, among the hills as a farmer. He would have grown stalwart and strong, worked on the farm summers and gone out haying for fifteen days in July, and taken for pay the iron work and running gear of a wagon. At two and twenty, or thereabouts, he would have begun to pay attentions to a girl with a father worth two thousand dollars, and a spit-curl on her forehead, a girl who al-ways went to singing-school and 'sat in the seats,' and sang without opening her mouth----a darnation pretty girl any way. "Well, after seeing her home trom singing-school one or two years, taken her to a Fourth of July, he would have married her and settled down. Years would pass away, and that girl with the spit-curl would have had eleven chil-form--just as sure as you live--seven boys and four girls. We would have had a hard time bringing them up, but they would soon be able to do the milking and help their mother wash-ing days, and I, getting independent at last, and feeling a little stiff in the joint, should be elected a member of the Legislature, having been assessor and school committee for years. In the evening of my days, with my pipe in my mouth, thirteen barrels of cider in the cel-lar, and my newspaper in my hands, I should sit and look over the markets, through a pair of gold-mounted spectacles, and wonder why such a silly piece as this should be published." (FORMERLY WILSON BOUSE.)

J. P. MILLER, PROPRIETOR.

This popular Hotel has recently been pur-chased by Mr. Miller (of the Albico) and has been thoroughly refitted, renovated and re-paired, and numerous excellent alterations made. It is located on the Sacearappa road, about four miles from Portland, affording a beautiful drive over a good road, and just about far enough for pleasure.

The choice at your own, and Hall and good Bowling It has a fine large Dancing Hall and good Bowling Alleys. In close proximity to the house is a warm and roomy Stable, containing twenty nice stalls. There is also a well sheltered Shed, 106 feet long, for hitching horses. The choicest Suppers will be got up for sleighing and dancing parties, who will find it greatly to their pleasure and advantage to resort to the White House. No effort will be spared for the entertainment of erusets.

dressed the regiment at some length speaking of what the new flag emblematized—of the historic-associations of New Jersey. He com-pared the suffering condition of Washington's veterans marching barefooted upon New Jer-sey soil with that of this regiment in its re-cent equally hard march 250 miles into East Tennessee to raise the siege of Knoxville. They too were barefooted and endured all their hardships and suffering uncomplaining. He spoke of that other flag, the stars and stripes, that they should both, ever as now, float side by side as twin sisters. Cursed be the hand that shall attempt to pluck them asunder or him who shall ever attempt to shrivel and dwart and destroy the life of his State by severing her from the vitalizing na-tional trunk.

I cannot give the thrilling words which seemed to arouse every soul present. Other regiments had gathered round to listen. The regiments had gathered round to listen. The General told them that not a man would lose his reward for his heroic endurance and pa-ties reward for his heroic endurance and pa-his reward, where there are cheers given how regiment but recently having joined the formmand, seemed particularly to gratify Gen, Howard, who says he desires no fame distinct form his corps. No corps stands better in this and your the soldiers but even at his many not only with the soldiers but even at his many not many the the soldiers but even at his corps. A NEW DIVISION

A NEW DIVISION has been added to it containing regiments from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconoho, indiana, finnois, artengan and the beta-sin. These are American troops. The Divis-ion is commanded by Gen. W. T. Ward. I intended to mention the 33d Mass., one of the three regiments which so much distin-

the three regiments which so much distin-guished themselves when first entering this Valley. Col. Underwood, its commander, so desperately wounded, has been promoted to a Brigadier General for his galkantry in that celebrated night engagement. Col. Orland Smith (formerly of Maine) of the 73d Ohio, another of the three regiments, and who has gone home with his regiment as "Vet-erans," will probably come back a Brigadier General. He has commanded a Brigade for a year or more and always with credit.

I ought to mention a recent presentation of an elegant bugle to the leader of the 33d Mass. Band, but I have not the space to describe the teresting ceremonies. ZEPHYRUS.

Origin of "Seeing the Elephant."

Some years since, at one of the Philadelphia theatres, a pageant was in rehearsal in which it was necessary to have an elephant. No elephant was to be had. The "wild beasts' were all traveling, and the property man, stage director, and manager, almost had fits when they thought of it. Days passed in the hopeless task of trying to secure one; but at last yankee ingenuity triumphed, as indeed it al-ways does, and an elephant was made to order of wood, skins, paint and varnish. Thus far the matter was all very well; but as they had found no means to make said combinations travel. Hear again the genius of the stage manager, director, and the property man stuck out and two "brothers" were duly installed as legs. Ned C—, one of the true and genuine "bhoys held the station of fore legs, and for several' nights he played that heavy part to the entire satisfaction of the manager and the delight of the audience.

re audience. The part, however was a very tedious one, as the elephant was obliged to be on the stage about an hour, and Ned was two fond of the bottle to remain so long without "wet'ing his whistle," so he set wits to work to find a way whistle, so he set wits to work to find a way to carry a wee drop with him. The eyes of the elephant being made of two porter bottles, with the necks in, Ned conceived the brilliant idea of filling them with good stuff. This he fully carried out, and elated with success he willingly under-took to play fore-legs again.

Night came on-the theatre was densely crowded with denizens of the Quaker citymusic was played in the sweetest stra the curtain rose and the play began. Ned and the "hind-legs', marched upon the stage. The elephant was greeted with round upon round of applause. The decorations and the trappings were gorgeous. The elephant and the prince seated on his back were loudly cheered. The play proceeded; the elephant was marched round and round upon the stage. The fore-legs got dry, withdrew one of the corks and treated the hind legs, and drank the health of the audience in a bumper of

My attention has been called to an error in one of my former letters, where it was spoken of as a thing unprecedented to find so few lawyers in the Senate as are found in that body at the present time, there being but two out of the thirty members now holding seats in that branch of the legislature. I am reminded that the Senate of 1860 contained but a single lawyer, Hon. J. H. Drummond, then of Kennebec, and he was elected Attorney General soon after the session commenced, so that the upper brauch of the General Court was entirely free from gentlemen of the green bag.

Hon. DAVID D. STEWART, of St. Albans, i one of the Senators from Somerset. Mr. S. is a Lawyer by profession, and though not a graduate of any college, he is one of the besteducated, clearest-headed and best-informed men in the legislature, and one of the keenest most high-minded and successful lawyers in the State. He read law with Mr. Hobbs of Bangor. He was born in Corinna, Penobscot county, and is 40 years of age; stands crect, five feet, ten inches high, weighs about 140 pounds, was formerly a Democrat, but was driven by the pro-slavery tendencies of that party to ally himself with the Republicans. He now stands on the Union platform, firm in purpose for the right, uncompromising in his opposition to slavery and all that savors of the whip and thumbscrew, and hopeful of the results to follow from the efforts being made to put down rebellion and to uphold the country's honor. Mr. Stewart is in the Senate for the second term, is Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and no bill is allowed to pass through his hands until it is made so clear and perspicuous that any man of ordinary intelligence can understand its provisions without the aid of a legal adviser. Mr. Stewart was a member of the House in 1862, and proved himself there, as he has in the Senate, a ready debater, always gentlemanly, but an antagonist of great industry and strength. I doubt if there is a man in either branch who devotes more hours of close attention to the duties of the legislature. I know nothing of Mr. Stewart's political aspirings, but I have no doubt he will yet be heard from in positions of wider

Hon. SAMUEL E. SPRING of Portland, i one of the Senators from Cumberland. Mr. S. is a merchant, a gentleman of fortune honestly acquired, and as a successful business man is probably exceeded by few in the State. He born in Brownfield, and is 51 years of age. In height he is about five feet ten inches weighs about 160 pounds, stands crect, is nervously active, allows no business to flag in his hands, speaks but seldom on pending questions but always to the point, and as chairman of the Committee on Banks and Banking he is an invaluable member of the Senate. Mr. Spring has spent about a dozen years of his life in Buenos Ayres where he laid the foundation of his fortune, and now as a Portland merchant he is extensively engaged in the South American trade. As President of Casco Bank he is regarded as one of the best-informed and most skilful financial officers in the State. In politics he was a Whig, subsequently a Republican, and now stands unnchingly with the Union party of the State, the sworn enemy of rebellion and rebellion sympathizers, open handed and liberal in the support of the government, and ready, at all times, to aid all enterprises and efforts having for their object the good of the State or the interests of humanity. Such a man as Mr. Spring is sure to have enemies,-as all men will who are capable of drawing around them devoted friends,- for he is no mere creation of putty, but a man of positive character, who always has an opinion of his own and is never backward in avowing it on all suitable occasions. He is frank, straightforward and de cided, always meeting a foe face to face, and is never found meanly dealing his blows in the dark, or stabbing his adversary in the back. Prominent among the Kennebec Senators is Hon. DENNIS L. MILLIKEN, of Waterville. Mr. M. was born in Scarboro', is 59 years of age, stands about six feet high, weighs upwards of 160 pounds, is compactly built, his head covered with a thick growth of hair upon which time has made itself busy in scattering its bleaching powder. He is President of Waterville Bank and in business is a manufacturer ; he formerly resided in Waldo County, has been in both branches of the Legislature and three years in the Executive Council. There are few men of more practical common sense than Mr. M., and none of more incorruptible honesty, or who more faithfully attend to the duties for which they are sent to the legislature. He is chairman of the Railroad Committee, and in such matters has had a great deal of practical as well as legislative experience. In politics Mr. Milliken is an old Democrat, of the Jeffersonian, Jacksonian school, but like thousands and tens of thou sands of others he was obliged to go outside of the so-called Democratic party to find the doctrines early taught him represented and exemplified. Of late he has been identified with the Republican party, and of course now stands in the ranks of the great Union party of the State. HOD. THOMAS WARREN OF Deer Isle, one of the Senators from Hancock, is a merchant, is 44 years of age, was born in the town in which he now resides, is five feet nine or ten inches in height, weighs about 170 pounds, is stoutly and compactly built, and is a man of a great deal of energy, shrewdness and business tact. He was a member of the House in 1862, and I am not aware that he has had any other legislative experience until the present winter. Mr. Warren was not only a Democrat, brought up so from his youth, but he had the boldness to hold out after many men of less nerve or of less strength of party attachment had fallen off. He tells me that he was a Breckinridge man and voted for J. C. B., and "Gosef" Lane in 1860. Mr. Warren does not make this avowal in a boasting way, but rather I suppose, to show the very great stretch of saving political grace that could reach one who had gone down to so low a depth in the way which he mistakenly thought to be that of duty. As with Dix, Holt, Stanton, Dickinson, Butler and thousands of others, when Mr. Warren saw that Breckinridge Democracy was the highway to rebellion and treason. like an honest man he abandoned it as un worthy a loyal man's regard, and ignoring all isms and theories, all parties and politicians not in harmony with unconditional loyalty to the stars and stripes, and uncompromising hostility to all traitors and treason and all in stitutions that tend only to uphold treason, he took his position with the Union men of the State with whom he is in close and fraternal is one of the Senators from Penobscot. He has served one year in the House, and proved to be a very valuable member. Mr. Bradbury is a native of Oxford County, was born in Norway, and is thirty five years old. He is of medium size, well formed, stands about five feet ten inches, weighs about 150 pounds, in complexion inclines to the sandy, is of active temperament, well-informed, thor oughly alive to the duties imposed upon him a good debater, ready, well-posted, always gentlemanly, and is seldom thrown off his guard by an antagonist. Mr. Bradbury spent some five years in California. He is by profession a physician, has spent much time in teaching, is a member of the Bowdoin Medical school, and will graduate with the next graduating class. In politics Dr. Bradbury has been a Whig with abolition proclivities since a Republican, and now finds himself perfectly at home and in full sympathy with the great Union organization of the State. Franklin County is represented in the Sente by Hon. WILLIAM H. JOSSELYN of Phillips. Mr. J. was born in Fayette, is fifty years of age, five feet seven inches high, weighs about 165 pounds, is stout, compact and hardy, and slightly gray; was brought up on a farm, is self-made, in avocation a merchant, and like many other Yankees has tried his hand at teaching school, and after such an experience, as might be expected, he proves be a valuable member of the body in which he holds a seat, and enters upon the duties of legislation with the perfect case of one who has confidence in his ability to un derstand and appreciate those labors which an intelligent, common sense constituency expect him to perform. In politics Mr. J has been a Whig, then a Republican, and now is zealous in the Union cause.

Hon. LUTHER SANBORN was born in Par onsfield where he now resides, and is one o the Senators from York. Mr. S. is a farmer, is 60 years old, stands about five feet ten inches high, weighs 175 pounds, is of sandy complexion, has a keen bright eye, is a man of unimpeachable integrity, was a member of the Senate last year, elected on joint ballot to fill a vacancy occasioned by death, and is a man who gives his undivided attention to all matters before the Senate. Mr. S. was for merly a Whig, and came into the Union party through the Republican organization, o which he has been an efficient and high-minded member. Hon. LEVI CRAM of Bridgton, is one o the Senators from Cumberland. Mr.C.was born in Standish, is 47 years of age, tall and spare, standing about five feet ten inches, and weighing but 140 pounds. Owing to his bleached hair and whiskers he has the appearance o more years than his family record calls for. He was brought up on a farm, has had much experience in school teaching, has been engaged in mercantile pursuits, but now styles himself a lumberman. Mr. Cram, like most of his fellow-Senators, is entirely self-made, and in his large business capacity, his ready comprehension of almost any subject coming before him, and his tact in legislative duties, exemplifies the Yankee spirit and Yankee character to great advantage. Politically Mr. Cram has come up through the Republican branch of the present Union organization from a Whig stock. The north-eastern county in the State Aroostook, is represented in the Senate by Hon. PARKER P. BURLEIGH of Linneus Mr. B. was born in Palermo, is 51 years of age, is well proportioned and stoutly built standing five feet and eleven inches, and weighing 180 pounds. He removed from Waldo to Aroostook in 1830, and has mainly followed the business of Civil Engineering or that branch of it appertaining particularly to land surveying. Mr. Burleigh has always been a Democrat, and has been a man of influence in his party in the section of the State where he resides. He followed the fortunes of Mr. Douglas, and was a devoted triend of the gallant Jameson, whom he supported for Governor of this State. Adopting Mr. Douglas' idea that there can be only two parties, patriots and traitors, he has no hesitan cy in deciding to which he owes allegiance ; he is found acting in full harmony with the great Union sentiment of the State, and will lister to no propositions for a patched up peace, or to any compromises that fall short of the unconditional subjugation of the rebellion and the re-establishment of the whole Union on a permanent foundation. SPURWINK.

The Copperheads and Slavery.

We have said, and we repeat it, that the tast men in the United States to give up slavery will be the copperheads of the North. To this the Argus takes exceptions, and threatens, unless we prove the statementprove a statement that looks to the unfolded uture for its verification ! this is smart- "or manfully retract it" to place us in the category of those unworthy the respect of decent men! If the Argus means by this that it can force us into the disloyal position it has long occupied, and thus render us unworthy of a decent man's respect, we have only to say that it overestimates its power. We shall de no such thing. There is no law of the commonwealth that will compel us to do so. We shall continue, as we have done heretofore, to support the government, to oppose slavery and to fight treason; and for so doing w shall, as heretofore, incur the hostility of the Argus, and continue to receive a full share of its abuse, for which we hope ever to be truly thankful.

That paper says, "by copperheads" it un derstands the Press "to mean Democrats. Egregious fallacy! By coperheads we nev er mean Demozrats; no Democrat can be a copperhead; a Democrat always stands by his government, and will oppose to the death all treason and traitors, and frown upon every institution that rises up in opposition to Union and Liberty, which, with him, are "one and indivisible, now and forever." The copperhead is only a self styled Democrat, one who, under the mask of an honored name would stab his country under the fifth rib. It is the man who believes in such doctrines as are filtered through the Argus, and regards t with favor. It is the man who feels no blush of shame mautling his cheek when found with the Argus in hand, and does not feel called upon to apologize to honest men for patronizing such an organ of dislovalty. Such is the copperhead-a man either perversely disloyal or so ignorant that he mis takes opposition to the government for patriotism; and that that man will be the last to give up his hold upon slavery is as plain as the sun in the mid-day heavens. The best proof that such a proposition is susceptible of is found in the columns of that paper, which growls and whines, mourns and slobbers foams and rages over every act calculated to weaken slavery, while it puts on its blandest smiles whenever that institution seems to gain advantage, or when it can utter a heartless ribald joke at the expense of the downtrodden and oppressed.

William H. Williams was shot dead a street in New York, a few days since, by Robert C. Haines. Deceased has been living with the wife of Haines against his long continued remonstrance.

The Bangor Times says that Thomas S. Drowne of Boston and Gilman N. Smith of Bangor, salesman and clerk, in W. P. Stewart's auction room in Bangor, have been apprehended on a charge of stealing $3000 worth of goods.

The Lewiston Journal says a man amed Geo. Williston of Brunswick, who is said to be a substitute broker, was called out of the Maine Hotel (Auburn) Thursday evening by some unknown parson, and "soundly flogged." A gentleman who left New Orleans on the 14th inst., says the fertile plain of Teche, is being cultivated under the charge of government officers and that business in New Orleans begins to show its former signs of activity.

TIt is said the delegates from Arkansas, ho have had an interview with the President upon the subject of re-admitting that State into the Union, declare their willingness to let slavery slide for the sake of peace and the Union. "No slave States" should be the motto on which reconstruction is to be based. In the Supreme Criminal Court in Bos-on on Saturday morning, Wm. Mitchell of Harrington, of this State was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment, John Cole and John W. Perry who were tried with him, were acquitted and discharged.

A correspondent of the Boston Transcript says that among the rebel prisoners on their way to Knoxville a short time since. were a brother-in-law of Parson Brownlow and Captain Moody, of Longstreet's chief of artillery, a brother of Rev. Granville Moody, and originally a Maine man.

The movements of the officials in the case of the Chesapeake indicate a disposition to wait for instructions from the British government before making any decision. The costs attending the various suits will be very large, besides the loss by detention, if the steamer and remaining portion of her cargo should be given up to her owners.

We learn, says the Calais Advertiser that the steamers New England and New Brunswick are being overhauled, cleaned and painted and newly furnished and put in tip top trim for the coming season. They will, should the weather prove favorable. commence running earlier than usual, say about the first of March, thus keeping up the communication between here and Portland and Boston nearly the whole year round This company have done well by the public since they have been on the route, and earned for themselves a reputation which cannot fail to make the line very popular and profitable to all interested.

The hanging of a poor man in Londo while a man respectably connected was allowed to slip through the meshes of the law, aroused the masses to such an extent that violence was expected. As the sheriff put the cap over the face of the prisoner, the hooting and hissing became terrible, succeeded by cries of "shame," judicial murder," "no more hanging," &c. Immediately after the execution several working men mounted upon the steps and railings of the adjoining houses, and announced that it was intended to hold indignation meetings of the working classes throughout London, demanding the total abolition of capital punishment. The crowd then peaceably dispersed, but few waiting to see the body cut down which was done at 10 o'clock.

The New Orleans Times in speaking of the importance of selecting the right man for governor, says the State has a great cause for regret that the constitutional provision requiring four years residence for eligibility, stands in the way of Gov. Shepley's retaining the chief magistracy. Able, patriotic and honest, he has labored zealously and effectively for us. There is no one of the long list of Governors of this State to whom more praise is due, and will be due from posterity, for successful efforts to render enduring services to her. Did our laws admit it he would be our first civil Governor; and the regret is everywhere expressed that he cannot be. The loyal electors would be relieved from all difficulty as to their choice could his name stand at the head of their ticket.

Senator Grimes of Iowa, who has been lmost unanimously re-elected for six years from 1865, was born in New Hampshire, educated at Dartmouth College, and removed to Burlington, Iowa, in 1836. Two years later at the age of 21, he was elected to the first Territorial Legislature, and made Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. The Whigs were then in the minority, but returned Mr. Grimes for several terms. In 1854 he was renominated for Governor, made a most thorough canvass, and was triumphantly elected. His administration contributed much to the prosperity of Iowa, and was marked by rare ability. He is regarded as the father of the present Constitution of his State, the projector of its Lunatic Asylum, the founder of its noble system of free schools.

MATTERS ABOUT TOWN.

EMBARKATION OF THE 29TH VETERANS.-Steamer De Molay arrived at this port, from Boston, at half-past 11 o'clock yesterday. At 3 o'clock, P. M., the 29th Maine Veterans marched down to the steamer, at the end of Custom House Wharf, and embarked on board the vessel. As they passed through the streets they were greeted with cheers at various points. Notwithstanding the driving snow storm, there were some ladies out to witness the embarkation. The steamer did not sail last night in consequence of the storm. In the roster of the regiment published yesterday, we accidently omitted the Lieutenants of Co. E. They are Charles C. Graham, 1st Lieut., Westbrook ; Cyrus S. Waterhouse, 2d do, Portland.

There was quite a large number of stragglers about the city, and the police, and a guard from the regiment were busy last evening hunting them up. Many were arrested and taken on board the steamer, and others were taken to the lockup, where a guard called for them.

Sunday afternoon, immediately after the regiment had entered the hall, private Albert S. Moore opened a window and jumped on to the boiler house, and from thence to the ground. He attempted to escape by scaling the fence, but was discovered by the police arrested and taken back. We are informed that, subsequently, he made good his escape and is now at large.

TRANSMISSION OF CLOTHING BY MAIL.-By the act of Congress approved by the President January 22, articles of clothing, manufactured of wool, cotton or linen, comprised in a package not exceeding more than two pounds in weight can be sent by mail to any non-commissioned officer or private serving in the army of the United States at the rate of eight cents for every four ounces or any fraction thereof.

Packages addressed to commissioned officers, or composed of other materials than are above specified, such as boots, shoes, &c., if sent by mail must be prepaid by stamps at the letter rates, viz., three cents for every half

The man charged with forgery, whose escape from the officer was referred to in the Press of Saturday, was arrested by one of the police department of this city. The forgery charged in the warrant was only $300 instead of $5000 as stated. As the prisoner was a business man the officer had no suspicion that he would do otherwise than give the necessary bonds for his appearance, and considered it a needless act of arbitrary power to force him from his wife during the ride to the city. His forbearance was grossly abused.

BOOKS FOR THE YOUNG .- Messrs. Robert Carter & Bros., New York, have just issued two little books entitled "Falsely Accused," and "The Bags of Gold," illustrating the conquest over hate, fear, jealousy, avarice, dishonesty, self-will, &c. The stories are written in such a manner that they will take hold of the young mind, and are calculated to do much good. H. Packard has them for sale.

7TH MAINE BATTERY .- The 7th Maine Battery, under command of Capt. Twitchell, left Augusta yesterday and arrived here about 7 o'clock in the evening. The men and horses occupied twenty cars. SENATE. WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. Vice President Hamilin presented the resig-nation of Senator Bayard, of Delaware. Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, rose to a personal explanation as to the course imputed to him by the Senator from Maine, (Mr. Morrill.) Mr. Saulsbury presented the credentials of Geo. Head Riddle, elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Bayard, of Delaware. of Delaware. The resolution of Mr. Doolittle requesting

The resolution of Mr. Doonthe requesting the appearance of some persons connected with the departments to represent them before the committee of investigation was taken up. Mr. Grimes supported the resolution at length as an act of justice to the departments and introduced a long letter from Donald Mc-Kay in defense of Mr. Sherwood and the Navy Department. Department.

There was some debate but no action was taken on Mr. Doolittle's resolution.

The correspondence between our govern-ment and Great Britain was received from the Secretary of State relative to the pursuit of hostile Indians into Hudson's Bay, in answer to a resolution of the Senate. Resolutions were received from the House announcing the death of Mr. Nocl, of Missouri. Appropriate resolutions were passed and the HOUSE. Resolve proposing increased pay to pension-ers and to give further protection to emigrants to the Territories was adopted. Mr. Blair, of Missouri, offered a resolution for the appointment of a select committee to inquire into the practical operations and re-sults of the Treasury Department's trade regu-lations, and as to commercial intercourse with the rebellious States, whether frauds have not been practiced by its around and whether been practiced by its agents, and whether favoritism has not been shown. Debate arisfavoritism has not been shown. Debate aris-ing the resolution lies over. Mr. Eldridge, of Missisippi, offered a pre-amble declaring against the conscription or forced military service as contrary to the prin-ciples of self government, and concluding with a resolution instructing the committee on Mil-itary Affairs to inquire into the expediency or noncaling or supending the conscription or repealing or suspending the conscription law, and in order to secure the men necessary to put down the rebellion, giving increased pay and bounties to volunteers. Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved to lay the proposition on the table. Agreed to yeas 84, nays 42. Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, offered a resolution declaring that a more vigorous policy of en-listing persons of African descent in the army would meet the approbation of the House.— Adopted 80 against 46. The House resumed the consideration of the bill to revive the brevet rank of Lieut. General.

Mr. Garflield, of Ohio, opposed it. He said they should wait until the war was over before onferring the title. Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois, favored the imnediate passage of the bill. Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, in voting for it would to so without in the least degree wishing to be understood as interferring with the selecion of the President.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, spoke of the exploits of Gen. Grant, for whom the brave title was destined.

There was further debate when Mr. Garfield A long debate ensued, during which Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, strenuously advocated the bill, saying the war would never be closed until a tighting General commanded our armies. That's what's the matter. (Laughter and voices "you are right.") Mr. Garfield's motion to table the bill was disagreed to, yeas 19, nays 113. An amendment recommending Maj. Gen. Grant for the position of Lieutenant General was agreed to, yeas 111, nays 17. The bill was then passed, yeas 96, nays 41. The bill provides that the grade of Lieut. General be renewed in the army of the United und authorizes the President to a

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 1. Tha steamship Hibernia, from Galway 19th has arrived. The Hibernia arrived here at 4 P. M. She

The Austrian and Prussian Ambassadors are reported to have quitted Copenhagen on the 18th

The Emperor of Austria had reviewed 20,000 troops destined immediately for Schleswig. Prussian military preparations were proressing vigorously. The French Chambers continue to debate the address. It is stated that the amendment touching Mexico will be met by the ministerial statement that since the first of January all charges for French troops have been borne by the Mexican government. It is reported that Maximillian will visit Paris as Emperor, receiving appropriate hon-

Garibaldi has issued a proclamation an-nouncing the formation of a committee to promote Italian Union, and invites the Italians to rally around it. A new Spanish Ministry is formed and Lorenzo Arizola is President. The Duke of Cleveland died at Roby Castle yesterday afternoon. His Grace has been seriously ill since Friday. The London Times city article says the news of the summary notification sent to Den-mark by Austria and Prussia for the withdrawmark by Austria and Prussia for the withdraw-al of the obnoxious constitution, on pain of an immediate occupation of Schleswig, pro-duced a further depression in all the markets yesterday, which was aggravated by the in-creasing intensity of the drain of gold from the Bank of France and the probability that its action on this side may induce an early return of the rate of discount to eight per cent. The general discount demand was active, but bank it was not especially heavy. In foreign securities there was again extreme heaviness, and Greek bonds experienced a further fall. About £35,000 in gold was taken from the bank for France, and 48,000 sovereigus for Alexandria. About £200,000 held in private hands was also transmitted to Paris. The Daily News says the Paris advices state that the application for the new French gov-ernment loan of £12,000,000, the lists of which were opened yesterday, are expected to reach an astounding total. According to the belief of some, an aggregate of £160,000,000 sterling will be attained, being more than thirteen imes the stock offered. The failure is announced of the house of P. Moll, silk broker, of Old Broad Street, London, with liabilities for about £80,000, a con-siderable portion of which, however, is secured. The unsecured creditors will, it is stated, get no dividend. This stoppage has also caused the failure of the respectable firm of Wm. Chappell & Sons, of Coventry, whose liabilities reach about £40,000. In this case, however, it is thought that the unsecured cred-itors will obtain a dividend of seven or eight shillings on the pound. The London Post says the Austrian and Prussian Representatives will doubtless quit Copenhagen, and war may be formally declar-ed, but it is still possible that active hostilities may not instantly follow. Neither Austria or Prussia can possibly wish for a serious war with Denmark, and we suspect that their present policy, however dangerous, is pursued in consequence of their defeat in the Diet to become so far as regards the other powers masters of the present situation. The allied power of Prussia and Austria on one side and Denmark on the other would be the belliger-ent parties, and the German Confederation would no longer have a right to interfere in the pending dispute. Austria and Prussia would be the sole arbiters of the conditions on which they would be willing to conclude reciprocity treaty, from which it appears that the domestic products and manufactures ex-ported to Canada under that treaty for the fiscal year ending June, 1863, amounted to about $18,500,000; the imports from Canada for the same period were $12,807,000; the ex-ports of breadstuffs increased from $216,000 in 1849 to $9,588,000 in 1863; our exports of manufactures have been reduced from $4,186.manufactures have been reduced from $4,186. 000 in 1859 to $1,511,000 in 1863; the exports from Baffalo to the eastward ports in 1863 were $9,088,000; the tonnage of transporta-tion by the Welland canal was, 15,000 to Canadian ports and 7000 to United States ports; and by the St. Lawrence canal, 23,000 tons to the United States. The Secretary gives numerous tabular statements with references to the Canadian trade, but makes no recommendation on the subject.

SY CURED BY MRS. MANCHESTER.

This is to certify that I have been cured of the Dropsy of fifteen years standing by Mrs. Manches-ter. I have been to physicians in Boston, New York and Philadelphia. They all told me that they could do nothing for me, unless they tapped me, and as-sured me that by tapping I could live but a short time. I had made up my mind to go home and live as long as I could with the disease, and then die. On my way home I stayed over night in Portland with a friend of mine, and told them what my mind was a regard to my disease. They finally persuaded me and told me my case exactly. I was so much astonished to think that she told me correctly, that I told her that I would take her modi-cines, not having the least faith that they would from any good, or that I should get the signitest relief from any course whatever; finally I took the medi-cine and went home. In one week from the time I commenced taking the medicine, I had ever three gallens of water pass me in seven hours; and my ful-low sufferers may be assured that it was a great relief to me. I had not been able to lie down in bed at night before this for two years. Now I can its down with perfect case. I have taken her medicine for eight months, and am as well as any man could wish

THE WORLD MOVES .- A correspondent of the Bridgton Sentinal says he has heard Frederick Douglass twice before Portland audiences. Once in the winter of 1844, when notwithstanding the presistent efforts of a few citizens, made in his behalf, neither a Church. nor any building, over which the City Authorities held controll, could be opened to him, wherein he might freely, declare the God given Rights of humanity. As a last resortpermission was obtained for the occupancy of the old Brick Meeting House of the Friends still standing on the corner of Pearl and Federal Street, and now occupied as a Marble Shop. Limited, as is the capacity of that building, it was ample sufficient for the audience then and there assembled, composed only of a small number of the common people who heard him gladly. Then for the first time, did I listen to the sound logic, and thrilling eloquence of that gifted Man. If any, "color prejudices," had previously existed in my mind, that able address removed them all. This was a free lecture, with out money or price.

From Armory Square Hospital Gazette.

Our Christmas Dinner.

Eastward six hundred miles or more, Where Portland lies on Casco's shore, Upon a time awhile before Last Christmas festive day—

A voice came floating througe the air, It was the voice from Armory Square, From Chaplain Jackson stationed there And this the voice did say –

"Kind friends remember us I pray, "Who fight your battles far away, "For love of country not for pay, Heed well our humble prayer"

Your husbands, sons and brothers here, Who hold you in remembrance dear, Would fain partake of your good cheer. "A Christmas dinner share."

Right well that voice they understand. And quick respond, with willing hand They gather good things of the land. With epicurean taste—

Proud "tem" will no more strutting go. And chantleleers no more will crow, Upon the shores of fair Casco, For they are shipped "in haste."

On Christmas morn in Armory Square The day was cold but brightly fair, Our hearts were light as mountain air, For telegram was here—

That Maine would with paternal care, Regale her sons in Armory Square, And all her friends abiding there, With a merry Unristmas cheer.

But when the dinuer call was heard. Fell disappointment was the word. For mince pies, cake, nor nary bird Was on the table laid—

To our sad fate we graceless yield, A bridge is burned, the passage sealed, Old Susquehanna's tide congoaled, Our Christmas gift is stayed.

Our Christmas mirth mixed with alloys, We did not let it mar our joys, "How are yon turkey!" said the boys, And all went well again-

Till near a score of days had passed, And nought of birds was thought or asked, Our precious gift came on at last, By slow and lumbering train.

Now mirth and happiness ran high, And pleasure beamed in every eye At thought of turkey and mince pie So soon to be enjoyed—

The dinner came and oh! how vast and bounteous was the rich repast, All fell to eating quick and fast With pleasure unalloyed.

Now every soul in Armory Square, To our kind friends in Mane will bear, A soldier's thanks, a soldier's prayer, For kind rememberance given-

And may you all next Christmas day, From St. John to Piscataqua, Meet all your friends now far away, Your best reward be Heaven!

Armory Square Hospital, Jan. 14th, 1864.

MISCELLANY.

AN ARKANSAS PLANTER'S OPINION ON THE NIGGER QUESTION .- A planter who came to Little Rock, Ark., to get arms for Union home guards on White River, gave his idea of the great question of the day as follows :

"The nigger business is done up, and there's no use talking about it. It don't make no odds how good a Union man one may be, he'll lose his niggers. Ever since the war com-menced Old Abe has been turning the screws down on us—first a little turn, and then an-other; we don't scarsely feel it, but he keeps a turning his screws, and now its got to be dogon tight. Over thar in Missouri, the Unlon men thought they was going to come out all right, but the screws have come down on 'em so saug they had to do something -- and they so snug they had to do something--and they done it, but'twant no use; down came the screws again, and you see where they are. That keeping in Schofield was for nothing but to take another turn on the screw. Now there's Old Kanetuck; she feels as if she was on the top of the heap, and she's been a brag-gin what she's done; but you wait a spell, and you'll see the biggest kind of screw turn down on her, and if she don't walk the chalk, she'll have her index soucezed out. There's she'll have her insides squeezed out. There's no use o' talking; the thing's all fixed; and I wouldn't give a dime for the best nigger you can find."

The principal of a public school has been sending circulars to the parents, asking for a written authority to "inflict such punishment,

CABINET ORGANS

THE subscriber, being impressed with the great excellence of these instruments, and their adap-tation either for small churches, vestrys, or parlors, offers them for sale to the citizens of Fortland and vicinity. The manufacturers have the written testimony of over a hundred of the best Organists and Musicians, both foreign and native, to the effect that they are superior to any Instruments of the kind that they have ever seen. Among the testimonials of such as Thalberg, Morgan and Zundel, is the following from Gottschalk:

Thalberg, Morgan and Zundel, is the following from Gottschalk: "Massas. MASON & HANLIN:--I congratulate you on the introduction of a new Musical Instru-ment, long wanted, and sure to find its way into every household of taste and refinement that can possibly afford its moderate expense. Your Cabinet Organ is truly a charfming instrument, worthy of the high praise it has received, and far superior to everything of its class I have seen. I take pleasure in commending it most heartily as everywhere wor-thy a place beside the Piano Forte, to which it is a fine complement, from its capacity for rendering much delightful munic, sacred, secular, classic and popular, to which the Piane is not adapted."
