RESCUE BY AN ISLESBORO CAPTAIN. The schconer Ella, belonging in Bangor, and commanded by Capt. W. M. Coombs, of Islesboro, arrived in Bangor, Oct. 2, from Perth Amboy, with coal to Baron, Robinson & Co., having made one of the quickest trips of the season. Off Block Island, Saturday morning, 77th ult., Capt. Coombs sighted an open boat containing five men, whom he picked up. They proved to be Capt. Philip Moore, of Orand, and his crew, who were in the schooner Hattie Card, of Boston. This schooner was loaded with lime, and bound from Camden to Jacksoncille, Florida. Friday night, at five o'clock, when deven miles southwest of Block Island, she began deaking and sank in a very few moments. Her aptain and crew had only time to jump into a boat not saved nothing from the staking schooner they remained in their boat all night, and were ricked up by Capt. Coombs, who landed them at Iolmes Holl the following evening at seven clock. The crew were extremely fortunate in ching rescued, and in such good season, by Capt.
Joombs.

The warming and invigorating effects of Athlorizons are felt in the parts of the body affected by Rheumatism or Neuraigia, as soon as it begins to destroy the poisonous acids in the blood. It operates directly on these, and works a speedy and permanent cure. It has won its thousants of testimonials by doing well what it was intended to do. On this fact alone is based the claim that it worthy the name—ATHLOPHOROS—champion remedy for Rheumatism and Neuraigia.

Campaign Lyrics. THE ELECTION IN MAINE. Dear Brother Jacob: 'Spose you've he'erd About our State election; It went jist right, but some folks say It han't got no connection With what we think of Mr. Blaine An' all the yarns they're tellin',
But still it kinder 'pears to me,
Accordin' to my spellin',
It proves that Blaine is tol'able
Well thought on by his neighbors,
An' that they're goin' to vote for him,
Ter pay him for his labors.
But arter all, some papers say.

But arter all, some papers say,

'Twas "bout as they expected.'

"Tain' no great viet'ry at all Nor sign who'll be elected. That Blaine, he is an awful man,

An' set a sorter pattun, Which way to vote; but it won't be

The case when comes November.

For all the lyin's and the sins Folks then won't disremember." But I dunno; though sence I writ

The last, I've bin considerin'.

An' studyin' politics a bit, An' kinder, sorter, figgerin'; An' ef I've got the answer right, By addin' and subtractin',

An' cancellin' an awful sight O' things that is distractin', Our State will vote for Mr. Blaine,

An' show the English that he is

A man, to home respected, An' prove to all the college folks Who take the Christian Union,

Tan't best to be so awful sot, Like some on close communion; An that, mos' likely they've forgot

Those folks who strain so at a guat

That somewheres it is writ,

A camel down may git; An' that it an't the proper way

An' say the Independent side

Virtu a'nt left the State of Malne An' gone to Buffido.
"that prehaps it might be so,

That, as the Scriptur saith,
Some honesty might still be found In deown cast Nazareth,
An' that prehaps, if they should make
A new an' perfect party,
An' all the good folks jined it tew,

So innercent an' hearty, They might be plagued to find a man

But minded all his mother said, Without the least demurrin.

And never once in all his life
Was 'bleeged to say "I'm sorry,"
Who never got the answer wrong

But I have not told you yet what the water of the spring was good for. It is not pretended that it cures everything. It is not good for weevilin wheat, for smut in corn, for adultery, for cholera, smulpox, yellow fever or the discusse that is ruining the Democratic party. It is only pretended that it cures all diseases arising from a bad liver, such as kidney diseases, rheumatism, goun, and I don't know what else, and I can bear most hearty testimony to its efficacy. I had to pay my board, so this is an honest notice. When I arrived at the Springs I could not walk, and now I am the equal of Weston. Less than two months did it. I met a yonne terchant from Texas.
