THE BISHOP'S HOUSE
307 CONGRESS STREET
PORTLAND, MAINE

May 10, 1940

Mr. Olivier V. Pelletier
212 Third Street
Auburn, Maine

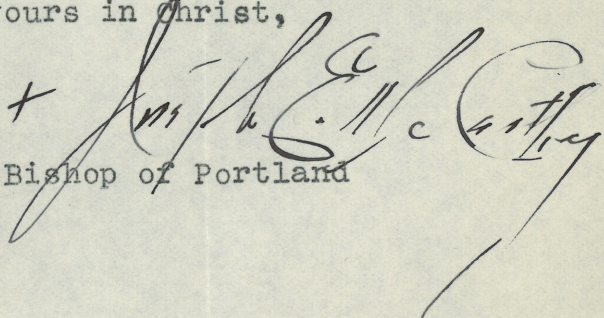

My dear Mr. Pelletier,

I do appreciate deeply your very gracious invitation to attend the May Festival of your esteemed Association, and while nothing would give me more pleasure to be present at such an unusual evening entertainment by your excellent artists, I am afraid that my Confirmation exercises in two cities on the nineteenth of May, will rather prevent me from assisting.

May I not take this occasion to wish you a very deserving success in a work that is of such high class Catholic entertainment.

With sentiments of profound respect, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Portland
