The Honorable L. P. Gagne
Mayor of Lewiston
City Hall
Lewiston, Maine

My dear Mr. Gagne:

The Lewiston Teachers' Association would be honored by your presence at their annual dinner, to be held this year on June second, at six-thirty in the evening, at the Mansion House, Poland Spring. We cordially invite Mrs. Gagne to accompany you.

At this dinner, we are honoring our retiring teachers and those who have already retired. We should be grateful if you would say a few words to them in the name of the City Government.

Most respectfully yours,

Mary J. Hamilton

President

Miss Mary J. Hamilton, President
Lewiston Teachers' Association
Lewiston High School
Lewiston, Maine.

My dear Miss Hamilton:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your communication of May 15, 1947, inviting me to be present at the Lewiston Teachers' Association's annual dinner being held at Poland Spring on June second at 6.30 P.M.

On behalf of Mrs. Gagne and myself, I wish to thank you for this kind invitation, and I shall consider it an honor to be present on that date.

Thanking you again, and with kindest personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

LOUIS P. GAGNE

MAYOR, City of Lewiston
