A PLAN OF THE COLLEGE CAMPUS

ROBERT FLYNN TO PLAN ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

Robert C. Flynn, a Freshman and student member of the assembly program committee of John Jaques and Kenneth Taylor, has been appointed in charge of arranging the Wednesday morning assembly programs for the remainder of the college year, Jaques announced today.

Flynn is a native of Lewiston-Auburn, and attended the college the first semester last year.

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK THEME OF TODAY'S ASSEMBLY

Assembly Committee chairman, Robert Flynn, has announced today's assembly's guest speaker will be Mrs. Scott Damren, College Guidance Counselor at Portland High School.

Mrs. Damren will speak on "New Goals in Education."

Mr. Jaques announced the day's program, and mentioned Mrs. Damren "is well qualified to discuss colleges and their separate curriculums."

PARENTS, STUDENTS, AND FRIENDS INVITED TO ATTEND INFORMAL AFFAIR; MEET FACULTY, INSPECT CAMPUS TOMORROW EVENING AT 8 P.M.

Dean Luther I. Bonney has extended a cordial invitation to the parents and friends of PJC students to attend the college's annual "Parents Night," Thursday evening.

Beginning at 8 p.m., the program will include an opportunity for interested parents and friends to inspect the campus buildings and equipment. Copies of "The Stag," "The PJC News" and "The Newsance," and other student extra-curricular activities will be on display.

At 8:30 or thereabouts, a short and informative assembly will be held in the auditorium. The program will feature a debate by members of the student body on the proposed merger of the University of Maine and Portland Junior College, and will be presided over by Kenneth Taylor, President of the Student Council.

The panel will include Wayne McDuffie, chairman; Brian Fotter, student moderator; and Raymond Welch, Agamemnon Poullos, Bruce Trott, and Donald Quinsey.

Raymond S. Cakes, President of the college's Board of Directors, will discuss the merger in length.

Following the assembly, guests are invited to meet the faculty, the individual student's instructors and his counselor, downstairs in the college Lounge for an informal social hour of refreshments and conversation.

Dean Bonney urges the student body to act as his parents guide since the primary purpose of the affair is to acquaint the parents with the college and faculty and to discuss common interests and the students individual education and future plans.
