Miss Charlotte Michaud,
The Lewiston Evening Journal,
Lewiston, Maine.

My dear Miss Michaud:

Thank you for your letter. I will be very glad to see you when you come to Ogunquit on Friday. I would suggest that, since we are very near the DanSing Fan, you come to the Studio. We are just at the head of Whistling Oyster Lane, where it connects with the Shore Road. This is just before you will cross the bridge going toward the DanSing Fan. We have matinee and evening performances on Friday, but either time you suggested (just before six or after seven) will be convenient for us. Miss Benton will be here and will be very happy to meet you and talk with you. We wish that you could stay for the evening performance.

Very sincerely yours,

Lee Ruttle
