UNEMPLOYMENT ACTION CENTER

New Advocate Training

When: Tuesday, February 20th; 7:00-8:30pm

Where: Room 204

What: Do you want to develop your oral advocacy skills? Are you interested in employment law, labor law, access to unemployment benefits, or civil rights? If so, the Unemployment Action Center is the club for you!

The Unemployment Action Center provides students the opportunity to represent low-income individuals who have been denied unemployment benefits. Students are permitted to take on their own cases, meet with their clients, and argue in front of Administrative Law Judges at the Department of Labor.

Participation in a New Advocate Training is mandatory to take on a case

Dinner will be served!
