Rolvaag Attorneys Ready Petition for State Recount

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Attorneys for Democratic Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag today readied petitions for a recount after incumbent Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen's certification Thursday as winner of the closest governorship race in Minnesota history.

The legal challenge of State Canvassing Board findings, which were bolstered by a State Supreme Court ruling, may be filed in any one of the state's 10 judicial districts. The filing must be made within 10 days.

The state board certified Andersen as the winner by 142 votes on the basis of returns which had been amended in 10 of the state's 87 counties. Original figures had given Rolvaag a 58-vote margin.

The high court ruled the amended figures should be accepted because corrections had been made before the state canvassers met. Rolvaag supporters argued that, had similar recounts been undertaken in other counties, more errors would have turned up which would have shown the Democratic candidate a winner.

It was expected that the recount action probably would be filed in one of those areas. The finally certified figures from the Nov. 6 election gave Andersen 619,722, Rolvaag 619,580.

The judge in the district where the petition is filed will serve as the arbiter over the recount, which will be carried out by teams of three inspectors. Each party will name one team member and those two then will select a third. In case there is no agreement, the judge will pick the third member.

Rolvaag backers have indicated they would seek a statewide recount rather than one directed at specific precincts. They informally have suggested that as many as 100 three-member teams be named.

It was estimated that such a force would be able to recheck all of the just over 1 1/2 million ballots cast within about 10 days.

Apprised of the canvassing board action, Gov. Andersen said he was delighted.

"It has meant a great deal to me to be governor and the opportunities for accomplishment in the four years ahead are given greater," he said in what amounted to his first victory statement since the election.

But neither Andersen nor Rolvaag drew a majority of the votes cast on Nov. 6 and final figures revealed that 20,066 persons had failed to vote for either.

The governor drew 48.89 per cent of all ballots cast, Rolvaag 48.88 per cent. The 7,234 votes received by William Bratz, running on the Independent Government Party, amounted to 57 per cent.

A sampling of legislators Thursday night showed that most apparently favor having the state pick up the bill for the recount, as advocated earlier by both the DFL and GOP party chairmen.

Liberal Rep. D. D. Wozniak, St. Paul, said he felt that responsibility for a correct count was the concern of every citizen of the state and the state thus should pay.

"Under the circumstances of such a close contest, I also think the state should meet the recount expense," said conservative Sen. Gordon Rosenmeier, Little Falls. But he added that he would want to have advance assurance of exactly what costs would be included.

Two other conservative senators withheld their views. John Zwach, Walnut Grove, majority leader in the 1961 session, said he would want more information before deciding. And Donald O. Wright, Minneapolis, refused any comment.

Agreeing with Wozniak's view were liberal Sen. Paul Thuet, South St. Paul, and Rep. Karl Gritner, St. Paul.

$150,000 Fire Damages Building In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fire Thursday night did an estimated $150,000 damage to the warehouse of the Auto-Miles Co. at the western edge of the Minneapolis loop.

Firemen fought the blaze for more than an hour before controlling it shortly before 10 p.m.

Miles Hanson, president of the firm which handles service station supplies, made the loss estimate. He said the cause had not been determined.

Fire fighters were handicapped by numerous explosions as cans of auto anti-freeze blew up.

The adjoining quarters of the Walker, Selick Co., a construction firm, suffered heavy smoke and water damage.

President Asks Recognition of Bill of Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has called on Americans as "trustees of freedom" to mark the 171st anniversary of the Bill of Rights Dec. 15.

In a proclamation issued Thursday Kennedy also designated Dec. 10 as Human Rights Day and the week of Dec. 10-17 as Human Rights Week.

The President said in proclaiming Bill of Rights Day, commemorating adoption of the first 10 amendments to the Constitution: "Let us shoulder our responsibilities, as trustees of freedom, to make the Bill of Rights a reality for all our citizens."

Human Rights Week, Kennedy said, should be observed "to celebrate the blessings of liberty for our country."

Kennedy Leads Drive for U.S. Culture Center

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy led a big closed circuit television audience on the beginning of a $30-million culture crusade Thursday night.

He told the nation that when the dust of centuries has passed the United States "will be remembered not for our victories and defeats in battle or in politics, but for our contribution to the human spirit."

He was joined by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, tuned in from Augusta, Ga., in a non-partisan appeal for funds to build a national cultural center here. "A mecca for art," Eisenhower called it. He said it could give everyone who comes to Washington a better appreciation of America.

Kennedy opened the show—an extravaganza of the arts from ballet and drama to concert stage, Negro spiritual and poetry, all donated by the artists.

He said "as always, art knows no national boundaries" and "genius can speak at any time and the entire world will hear."

But hearing was a big problem at the huge National Guard Armory, where a sellout crowd of 5,000 paid $100 for dinner and the show. Despite elaborate acoustical plans, much of the audience had trouble hearing throughout the program, which ran 45 minutes over its scheduled two hours.

By the time the telecast ended at 12:12 a.m., more than half of the armory audience had departed, including Kennedy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Shriver.

And comedian Danny Kaye, starting his routine at 11:40 p.m., quipped, "You know when I came here tonight I was a young man."

Kennedy had come from a more than three hour White House conference with Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan. He rose and stretched once midway through the program.

Eisenhower, who was to close the show, was kept up late at his Augusta Country Club vacation spot where a glittering southern banquet hall was created for the $50-a-plate dinner.

An audience estimated at 150,000 tuned in on the closed-circuit pageant in 65 cities, paying entry fees from $1 to $100. It was hoped the night's efforts would raise one million dollars—just a fraction of what's needed for the cultural center.

Talks on Cuba Will Continue

India-Pakistan Talks Assured

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru and Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan have agreed to new negotiations on the 15-year feud over Kashmir and other disputes — but the talks promise to be tough going.

Nehru indicated today he was prepared to retreat little if any from his position.

An uproar of opposition rose in Pakistan's National Assembly. A Pakistan newspaper, The Times, said officials wanted concrete results from talks and were not prepared for "academic discussions on Kashmir with anybody."

Nehru told Parliament he was not committed to a partition of disputed Kashmir as a basis of settlement and could not "bypass or ignore our basic principles."

Any "upset of the present arrangement would be very harmful to the people of Kashmir as well as to future relations between India and Pakistan," he added.

The present arrangement is a partition by a cease-fire line which has been in effect for 13 years under U.N. watch.

Nehru consented to the talks under the pressure of the Red Chinese offensive which broke through India's Himalayan frontiers.

A joint Indian-Pakistan communiqué announcing the talks was issued as Red China charged India with conducting provocative troop movements up to the Himalayan cease-fire lines.

The Chinese charge, made on the eve of the Saturday deadline set by Peking for a pullback of its troops, raised prospects of fresh fighting instead of a Chinese retreat.

The prospective Indian-Pakistan negotiations ended India's necessity, at least for the time, of keeping the bulk of her troops on guard against Pakistan during an undeclared border war with China. Already a squadron of American Hercules transports has transferred thousands of Indian troops from Pakistan's borders to the endangered Northeast.

Duncan Sandys, British Commonwealth relations secretary, took the lead in arranging the negotiations when he flew from New Delhi to Rawalpindi, the Pakistani capital, on Tuesday.

U.S. Assistant Secretary of State W. Averell Harriman brought word Wednesday from New Delhi to Rawalpindi of Nehru's readiness to talk.

Kennedy Meets With Mikoyan For 3 Hours

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan have agreed that the United States and the Soviet Union will continue negotiations for a final settlement of the Cuban crisis.

But their lengthy White House conference failed to yield any evidence of progress toward agreement on other critical East-West issues.

The President and Mikoyan met for more than three hours late Thursday. U.S. officials had hoped the meeting would produce evidence of change in Soviet policies on arms control, or other global problems, in the wake of the crisis over Cuba.

In this hope, they were apparently disappointed.

White House sources said that from the U.S. point of view the meeting did not provide any surprises—that Mikoyan's discussion of Soviet policies produced nothing of a new or different character.

Mikoyan, who just spent three weeks in Cuba, told reporters as he left the President's office shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday night:

"We had an exchange of views with the President on questions of interest to both our countries, chiefly about Cuba. As a result of this conversation, we agreed to issue certain instructions to our representatives in New York — we to our negotiators, and the President will instruct the negotiators—to continue negotiations to finally settle the Cuban question."

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the two men had agreed "that, as a follow-up of this meeting, the conversations would continue in New York between Ambassador Stevenson, Mr. McCloy and Mr. Kuznetsov."

Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and John J. McCloy have been negotiating with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov for several weeks on specific problems involved in easing the U.S.-Soviet confrontation over the installation of Soviet offensive missiles in Cuba.

While no details of the conversation were made public, Kennedy presumably emphasized to Mikoyan two main points about the U.S. attitude toward Cuba.

1. That until some kind of on the spot inspection is provided, the United States will continue aerial surveillance over the island.

2. That even though Soviet missiles have been removed, the United States strongly objects to any use of Cuba as a military base by the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union still has thousands of military technicians and troops in Cuba and a number of short-range missile bases, including 24 anti-aircraft missile installations, which Kennedy would like to have dismantled.

Whether the negotiations will cover such points as those was not disclosed by officials.

East German Swims Icy River to Freedom

BERLIN (AP)—A young East German swam the icy River Spree in downtown Berlin under gunfire before dawn today.

The 23-year-old man reached the West Berlin bank near the Reichstag building and was taken to a hospital for treatment for exposure.

An East German police patrol boat fired 10 shots at the swimmer, West Berlin police reported.

U.S. Planned to Send 100,000 Into Cuba

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States might have been left with few readily maneuverable Army and Marine divisions to deal with other crises if it had launched an invasion of Cuba.

Perhaps for that reason, it was evident U.S. military chiefs counted on a swift, pulverizing stroke to knock out Fidel Castro's forces and Soviet-manned missile bases.

The Defense Department disclosed Thursday that more than 100,000 troops in the Strategic Army Corps had been alerted for possible use against Cuba in the recent crisis.

This represented five of the eight divisions in STRAC, the force maintained by the Army in the United States as a reserve to be rushed overseas in event of emergencies.

Two of the five divisions earmarked for the Cuban operation were the only paratroop outfits in the Army. The 82nd Airborne and the 101st Airborne Divisions normally would be the first to go in any hurry-up "fire brigade" operation.

Over-all, the Army has 16 divisions. In addition to the eight in the United States, five are pinned down in West Germany facing the iron curtain, two are in South Korea confronting the Communists in North Korea and one division is split between Hawaii and Okinawa.

The Pentagon's roundup of military actions in the Cuban crisis indicated that about 12,000 Marines—nearly the equivalent of a full division—were committed to the Cuban operation.

They were sent in to reinforce the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo or were embarked with the Atlantic Fleet preparatory to landings or helicopter-borne attack on Cuba.

These Marines came from two of the corps' three divisions—the 2nd at Camp Lejeune, N.C., and the 1st based at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Pope Out of Bed Briefly

By JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII is making a good recovery, with medical treatment "obtaining the hoped for results" in his battle against anemia, a Vatican spokesman said today.

The 81-year-old pontiff got out of his sick bed briefly again this morning and "occupied himself with some problems regarding the government of the Church, giving the relative dispositions," the spokesman added.

It was the second time he had been able to get up since he was stricken Tuesday.

Vatican sources said the Pope's doctor was concerned, however, that he was rushing things in his determination to get back to work.

"As soon as he feels a bit better, he wants to get out of bed," Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini was quoted as saying. "It is difficult to keep him there."

There were widespread—but unconfirmed—reports the Pope has a stomach ulcer.

Dr. Gasbarrini was quoted by the Milan paper Il Giorno as denying "speculation the Pope suffers from cancer of the prostate."

Dr. Gasbarrini, 80, was quoted as explaining about the pontiff's condition: "Certainly he is prostatic. Everybody is at his age, including me. But there is absolutely no cancer."

Il Giorno also said Gasbarrini denied that surgery was contemplated. There have been reports in Rome papers—and among sources at the Ecumenical Council of prelates meeting in Rome—that the Pope might have to be operated on for a long-troublesome prostate condition.

Hoffa Breaks With Counsel During Trial

By GAVIN SCOTT

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa and George S. Fitzgerald, his legal counsel and friend for 27 years, have parted bitterly in the midst of Hoffa's $1-million conspiracy trial.

As the prosecution rested its case Thursday—following six weeks of testimony by 29 witnesses and featuring 263 exhibits—the Detroit News said in a copyrighted article that Hoffa fired Fitzgerald, who is from Detroit.

Fitzgerald's firing, the News said, followed a heated exchange last Monday between the men outside the federal courtroom here.

Fitzgerald, under subpoena as a government witness in Hoffa's trial, told the jury on Monday he swapped his personal check for $15,000 to Hoffa in return for a dividend from Test Fleet, a trucking firm involved in the trial, made out to Hoffa's wife.

Fitzgerald testified the transaction was made at Hoffa's request and that the latter offered no explanation.

The News quoted Hoffa as telling Fitzgerald: "You're all through! Turn in your books and records. And you'd better start thinking about the $75,000 loan."

As for turning over union books and records, as requested by Hoffa, Fitzgerald said he had neither books nor records.

"I talked with him (Hoffa) twice after that," Fitzgerald said, and he repeated it (the firing)."

Hoffa said the union had "made certain requests of Mr. Fitzgerald and that 'rather than comply he severed his relations with the union.'"

As for Hoffa's statements about him resigning, Fitzgerald told the Detroit Free Press Thursday night, they were "strictly a fabrication—garbage."

Hoffa said he had told all union lawyers—not just Fitzgerald—they would have to drop some of their clients and if necessary spend their full time with the union. He said he made other requests of Fitzgerald.

"I told him he had to stop drinking and he had to take our business first before he takes his other clients," the union chief said.

Above Normal Temperatures Will Continue

It's the same old story, weather-wise, and a welcome one at that. Considerable cloudiness and continued mild with no important temperature change through Saturday.

Sunday, says the weatherman, will be a little cooler with the chance of occasional light rain or snow. A low of 35-42 is predicted for tonight and a high of 45-52 for Saturday.

THE EXTENDED forecast for the next five days indicated temperatures will average 6-14 degrees above seasonal normals. Daytime highs of 34 to 48 are expected and nighttime lows of 16 to 32. Precipitation is slated to average one-tenth to one-fourth inch in occasional periods of rain or snow, mostly Sunday through Tuesday.

Unless rain falls today, the month will be one of the driest on record with only .11 of an inch being recorded, including one inch of snow on Nov. 23. The least amount of precipitation ever recorded here in November was .04 of an inch in 1903.

The temperature rose to 51 Thursday afternoon and dropped only to 42 during the night. At noon it was 49.

THESE temperatures contrast with a high of 33 a year ago today and a low of 29. All-time high for Nov. 30 was 62 in 1922 and the low for the day -14 in 1947. Mean temperature for the past 24 hours was 46. Normal for this last day of November is 27.

Only at Duluth did the temperature drop below freezing. A morning low of 28 was reported there. Rochester had a morning figure of 34 after a Thursday high of 53. At La Crosse low and high for the 24-hour period was 35-53.

It was snowing in Winnipeg this morning and the thermometer stood at 27.

WISCONSIN will greet the arrival of December with more of that mild, pleasant weather that has brightened the final days of November. Chances are, the unseasonably high temperatures will continue through the weekend.

That's the latest official word from the weatherman who says the only dark note is the possibility of light rain or drizzle in the northwestern part of the state Sunday.

Considerable fog developed in scattered areas of Wisconsin where skies were clear during the night.

Temperatures early this morning ranged from 24 at Madison to 38 at Park Falls and Superior. Lone Rock had 25, Milwaukee 26, Racine, Green Bay and Beloit 31, and Eau Claire 35.

LONE ROCK and Beloit each recorded 60 degrees Thursday, with other maximums ranging down through the 50s and high 40s.

Brownsville, Tex., set the national high of 76 Thursday, compared with the low of 1 below zero early today at Butte, Mont.

Gilmore 4-H Garden Wins

A garden project by Winona's Gilmore Starlighters 4-H Club has won a second place prize in a divisional competition of a national contest sponsored by the Flower and Garden Foundation, Kansas City, Kan.

A plaque awarded in the contest's club division has been received by the Starlighters in recognition of their work in planting and maintaining a garden the past summer at Westgate Center.

Supervised by Mrs. Irvin Blumentritt, Mrs. Robert Toye and Mrs. Rodney Helgenbeck, all Gilmore Avenue, residents, the 21 club members - all under 15 - started their plantings at home during the spring and put in the garden on Memorial Day.

Members were assigned to the care of the garden after it was planted.

An account of club participation in the project, together with photographs of the garden, was submitted by members for judging by the foundation.

The "Young America Gardens" contest is conducted to promote an interest in gardening among young people.

Radio Club 3rd In National Meet

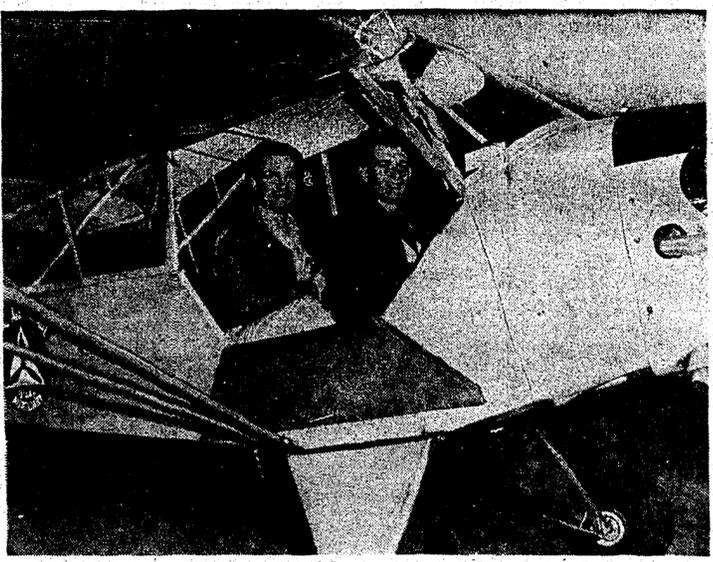

The Winona Amateur Radio Club placed third in the national during a "Field Day" contest held last June 23. The results were received Thursday.

The club, competing in class 1-A (one transmitter), contacted 706 different stations during the 24-hour contest with a transmitter powered by a gasoline generator. A station in the Canal Zone was among them.

Last year the club placed 13th. The club has entered the contest for eight years and this is its best rating.

CAP to Observe 21st Anniversary

By FRANK UHLIG
Daily News Staff Writer

Like any other strapping youngster coming of age, the Civil Air Patrol looks ahead to bigger things when it celebrates its 21st birthday Saturday, just six days before the anniversary of the military disaster at Pearl Harbor.

Considerably younger, but sharing the optimistic view of the future, is the Winona CAP squadron, first organized in 1958, whose roster lists 15 senior members and 26 cadets. The squadron is commanded by Capt. Donald R. Bauer, a World War II veteran who flew Navy patrol bombers in the Pacific theater of operations. He succeeded the squadron's original commander, 1st Lt. E. O. Eckert, in 1960.

"THE PRIMARY purpose of the CAP is to help educate the youth of America in all phases of aviation," Bauer says. "In addition to flying, it provides an understanding of all the things connected with aviation, including the business aspects. Aviation is one of the nation's largest industries and CAP is one of its sources of personnel."

"The Air Force also recruits people from the CAP ranks," Bauer added.

Senior members include private pilots and a few ex-military fliers who like to keep flying skills from getting too rusty. They share a common affection for flying and the desire to pass their knowledge and skills along to younger members.

Cadets are boys and girls of ages 14 to 18. They follow an intensive course of study dealing with the theory of flight, navigation, radio, principles of engines and instruments and such advanced topics as rockets, missiles and their guidance systems.

THOUGH under the supervision of the Air Force, CAP doesn't get as much material help from its parent organization as members would like. Uniforms and equipment are surplus Air Force items, some of which have to be reconditioned in order to be usable.

When CAP units fly authorized search missions, the Air Force foots the bill for gas and oil for participating planes. Also furnished by a conscientious Air Force are loose supplies without which no military unit could function, the inevitable paper forms.

An elderly Piper L-4 two-seater, powered with a 65-horsepower engine, provides cadets with familiarization rides aimed mostly at giving youngsters the feel of flying. Cadets can ride only with senior members having 200 hours or more of flying time and are rounded during actual search missions when they man radio facilities and do flight line chores.

Authorized search missions are thoroughly planned operations carried out under direction of the Minnesota wing whose headquarters are in Minneapolis. The Winona squadron is part of the Austin wing. Searches are usually carried out when an aircraft has been downed in an unknown location or in an attempt to find missing persons. The area to be scanned is determined by headquarters officers and each participating plane is assigned a specific section, boundaries of which are marked out on the highly accurate maps used by fliers. Each plane is manned by a qualified pilot and observer.

Open House Sunday at Roger Bacon Center

Science faculty at the College of Saint Teresa will join the international observance of the 20th anniversary of the atomic age by holding an open house Sunday from 1:30-4:30 p.m. at the Roger Bacon Center for the Sciences and Professions.

A sustained chain reaction in the world's first atomic reactor was achieved Dec. 2, 1942, at the University of Chicago.

Motorist Pays Speeding Fine

Robert A. Tiller, 31, Onalaska, Wis., was fined $25 today by Municipal Court Judge S. D. J. Bruski on a charge of traveling 40 miles per hour in a 30-mile zone.

He had pleaded not guilty and elected to represent himself.

City Prosecutor Roger Brosnan called two policemen who testified they clocked Tiller at 40 miles per hour on 5th Street between Vine and High Forest streets on Nov. 14 at 10 p.m.

Tiller cross-examined the officers. He asked if they considered his speed excessive in view of the fact he had stopped at two stop signs on the street and that everyone else seemed to be going as fast as he was.

Judge Bruski said laws are for the protection of all, that violations are not excused because others are also guilty, and that it would take an army rather than a small police force to catch every violator.

James R. Phillips, 270 E. 4th St., pleaded guilty to driving 50 m.p.h. in a 30-mile zone. He was arrested on West 5th Street today at 12:49 a.m. He paid the $25 fine.

Peterson Sets 2nd Immunization Clinic

PETERSON, Minn. (Special) - The second immunization clinic will be held at Peterson High School auditorium Tuesday at 9 a.m.

It will be for all pre-school and school children. Anyone who missed the first clinic may come to this one. Shots will be given for whooping cough, tetanus, diphtheria and smallpox. The Mantoux test will be given, too.

Winona CAP members got a brief workout Aug. 15 when a small P-40, Wis., boy was lost overnight in wooded bluffs near his home. The squadron's aging L-4 added a vertical dimension to the large-scale hunt that terminated when 4-year-old Paul Neumann was found on a road near the farm of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casmer Neumann.

Bauer said the aim is to log at least 10 hours a month in practice missions, with cadets riding as observers. Successful completion of study courses by cadets is necessary to earn the CAP certificate of proficiency which is a requisite for promotion, Bauer said.

Senior and junior members are now looking forward to the time when their sturdy but obsolete plane will be replaced by one that is completely fitted out with instruments for all weather flying and radio communication. Graduated recognition by the Air Force of the value of its program will inevitably result in issuance of adequate modern equipment, CAP members feel.

New Commander Appointed in India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) - Dashing, mustached Lt. Gen. Sam Maneckshaw will be appointed corps commander of the Indian armed forces in northeast India, authoritative sources said Thursday.

He replaces Lt. Gen. Brij Mohan Kaul, who commanded the Indian army against the Chinese Communist invasion in the North-east.

Other Nations Should Help in Space Efforts

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) - Other nations should bear a larger share of space exploration efforts, says Frederick Seitz, president of the National Academy of Sciences.

"This would solve a big problem for us today—whether the attention being given to aerospace in America is draining too much manpower from the other sciences," he told newsmen at an academy meeting Thursday.

Spirit of Investigation

PERRYSVILLE, Ohio (AP) - When science teacher Edward Everline began studying the balances that control gliding, and the principles of flight, he did it on a grand scale.

Using a plan from a book published in 1919, Everline spent nine months building a 110-pound glider to pursue his studies.

Fillmore County Sheriff Holding Young Airman

PRESTON, Minn. - Information received by the Fillmore County sheriff's office is that Bryan Beaulac, 19-year-old airman from Lue-nenburg, Mass., now in jail here, has been charged by the FBI with violation of the Dyer Act, or interstate transportation of a stolen car.

Beaulac was arrested Tuesday by Ronald Turner, deputy sheriff here, for making an illegal turn on a downtown Preston street. The sheriff's office had been alerted about a man fitting his description by Rochester and Decorah, Iowa, banks where forged checks had been cashed. Turner said.

The deputy became suspicious of Beaulac when he couldn't give the birth date on the driver's license he was carrying. The license later proved to be stolen, he said.

The checks were from the personal check book of John Amdahl, Mabel. It was taken from his car several days ago while it was parked in Decorah, Turner said. The checks passed amounted to between $400 and $500.

Beaulac was allegedly driving a New York rental car when apprehended. Turner said Beaulac rented the car for a $2 down payment. It had been reported stolen by New York authorities. There were about 4,000 miles on the speedometer when Beaulac was arrested.

The prisoner, being held here for the FBI, is reportedly absent without leave from the U. S. Air Force.

The charge against Beaulac was to be filed Wednesday with the U. S. attorney's office in Minneapolis.

Ridgeway Man Held by Court

Bail of $1,000 was set in municipal court today by Judge S. D. J. Bruski for Ralph Butler, Ridgeway, arrested Thursday by sheriff's deputies upon request of authorities at Iron Mountain, Mich. He is sought there on a charge of larceny.

Butler has worked the past six weeks as a horse trainer at a ranch near Ridgeway, his attorney, Leo F. Murphy Jr., told the court. His wife, two minor children, a daughter-in-law and a grandchild are living with him, Murphy said.

The complaint, signed by a former employer at Iron Mountain, alleges Butler stole articles with a value of over $100, including an Indian costume suit, a filing cabinet, a blanket, two bits and straps for horses, and miscellaneous items and fled to escape prosecution.

Judge Bruski denied a motion by Murphy for dismissal on grounds of deficiencies in the complaint. An amended complaint heard after a short recess, stipulated the date of the alleged crime as Oct. 15, 1962.

Murphy asked the court to set bail at a minimum figure of $100 since Butler's family depends on him for support. His employer, Murphy said, had found Butler's work satisfactory and would be able to furnish a moderate bail, Murphy said Butler would not waive extradition.

Bruski said he would consider a reduction in bail if additional evidence were brought to show the complaint was not well substantiated.

Gangs Have Slain 500 in Italy

ROME (AP) - A Sicilian member of the Italian Parliament reports that Mafia gangs have slain more than 500 people on the island since 1945.

Socialist Deputy Matteo Gaudioso gave the figure Thursday as the Chamber of Deputies debated a proposal for a parliamentary investigation of the secret organization.

Gaudioso said the Mafia murdered 153 people in Corleone, a town of 16,000 south of Palermo.

Hunter Fined $300; Had 138 Ducks

Fines totaling $300 were levied on Carl Fratzke, 878 E. Broadway, today by Municipal Court Judge S. D. J. Bruski for possession of wild ducks in excess of legal limits.

Fratzke pleaded guilty to each of six identical counts and received a sentence of $50 or 15 days in the county jail on each count. County Attorney S. A. Sawyer told the court an investigation by game wardens Nov. 2 had disclosed Fratzke in possession of 126 ducks in a home freezer and 12 in a commercial locker.

HAD THE defendant given each member of his family the eight ducks to which every person is legally entitled, Sawyer said, the maximum number he could have had in legal possession would have been 48, with another 90 still being unlawfully retained.

Judge Bruski asked Fratzke, who was not represented by an attorney, if he could give some explanation. Fratzke said the frozen carcasses had belonged to relatives and friends. His wife had cleaned the birds and they had been left in his freezer for storage. Fratzke told the court. Some of the fowl were left from last year, he added.

Sawyer said the law requires frozen ducks given as gifts to be marked with name of giver, receiver, date taken and hunting license number of the giver. None of the ducks in question bore any such markings, he said.

IN ANSWER to a question from the bench, Sawyer said it was assumed the ducks belonged to Fratzke since they bore no indications to the contrary. Fratzke said he had neglected to mark the packages.

Judge Bruski, commenting that the penalty was a costly one for anyone working for regular wages, said he hoped the publicity would "awaken the public to its responsibilities in these situations" and help others realize the necessity for compliance with the law.

Lockheed Strikers At Work

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) - Lockheed Aircraft Corp. and its aerospace workers today went back to work and back to the conference table after a brief strike was ended at last temporarily.

Government intervention halted picketing after two days. But union leaders vow they'll strike again if demands for a union shop vote aren't met.

The company says it won't weaken its firm stand against the vote.

A special presidential committee set up under the Taft-Hartley law scheduled its first meeting today to look into the months-long contract squabble.

The committee planned first to study written reports it requested from both management and labor. Its chairman, Prof. Arthur M. Ross, of the University of California Industrial Relations Institute, said he also wants to hold oral hearings.

Picket lines from Honolulu to Cape Canaveral, Fla., quickly dissolved Thursday as strikers ended their walkout at the request of President Kennedy.

A day earlier he had invoked the Taft-Hartley law, clearing the way for a possible injunction against further immediate strikes.

Court Asked To Overrule Dog's Sentence

WASHINGTON (AP) - The highest court in the land has been asked to overrule the conviction of Ricky, a German shepherd dog accused of killing sheep and condemned to death.

Ricky's owner, Jim Laing, of Petersburg, Va., filed the appeal with the Supreme Court Thursday, and court aides believe it sets a precedent. They can't remember a similar appeal involving a dog in the court's long history.

In his appeal, Laing argued Virginia had denied him due process of the law in trying to deprive him of his property.

Ricky's case—including allegations he was spirited out of the state to avoid execution—has been running since February 1960.

He was found then near the carcass of a ewe in Giles County, Va., and shot. When Ricky recovered he was sentenced to death. State courts upheld the sentence.

Laing contends Ricky was trained to do guard duty and was just standing watch over a ewe killed by other dogs.

AC veterinarian's examination failed to find any wool in Ricky's teeth.

Plainview Woman Found Not Guilty Of Selling Beer

WABASHA, Minn. - A Wabasha County District Court jury found a Plainview woman not guilty of selling beer to a minor following about an hour of deliberation Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Ann Nihart was arrested Aug. 18 at the Plainview tavern owned by her husband, Fred, for allegedly selling beer to John P. Hager, 17.

Wabasha County Attorney Martin A. Healy, prosecuting, called three witnesses. Young Hager testified he purchased a case of beer from Mrs. Nihart; his younger brother, David, said he carried it out to their car, and Deputy Marilyn Aikin identified beer bottles taken from the Hager car the same night.

Robert R. Dunlap, Plainview, counsel for Mrs. Nihart, called four witnesses. Mrs. Nihart denied selling beer to Hager. Her husband testified that at the time of the alleged sale he had been working on the Charles Ratz farm, which Ratz corroborated. Julius Nihart, brother of Fred, also was on the stand.

Judge Leo F. Murphy, presiding, will return here Dec. 10 for a scheduled jury case.

Serving on the Nihart case, which lasted only one day, were: Mrs. Katherine Balow, Mrs. Joseph J. Meyer and Leo Pulles, Wabasha; Virgil Bartels and Mrs. Louis Kackmann, Lake City; John Belcher, Mazepa; Mrs. Lester Boehke, Russell Boyd and Andrew DeVries, Plainview; George Dose, Zumbro Falls; Harold Hall, Kellogg; and Mrs. Ed Raymann, Elgin.

It Happened Last Night Modern Strippers Ruining Burlesque

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Ann Corio, once considered America's boldest strip-teaser, refuses to watch the peeling in most burlesque houses today — "It's nothing but degeneracy!" she says.

"I actually get nauseous in some Eastern theaters," says Ann — who was there looking for guys (comedians) for her hit, "This Was Burlesque."

"They're really giving burlesque a bad name," Ann charged. "One comedian said, 'Corio'll walk,' and I did."

"Oh, for the good old days of burlesque when strippers didn't work naked — and didn't sit with customers."

Miss Corio sounds like a reformer — strange indeed recalling that 15 to 20 years ago she was one of the favorite dancers from Union City, N. J., to Boston to San Francisco.

"I won't let any of my girls pose for the nude magazines," Miss Corio told me. "They get fired if they do. I don't think it's proper."

"Arlene Dahl recently did it," I mentioned.

"I'm surprised at Arlene Dahl!" Ann said.

As protractress of the younger gals as well as star, Ann's alarmed about increasing skinniness. "What's happened to the American bosom?" she asked quite severely.

"WELL-DEVELOPED girls are hard to find," she lamented. Show-girls and strippers in her show are supposed to be 38s.

"Girls seem to be the right size, then they confess, 'I'm not all me,'" Ann said. "It used to be, 'What God's forgotten we stuff with cotton.' Now it's 'If your need is drastic, resort to plastic.' And I'm such a square I can't spot falsies. However, there's always somebody around willing to help me."

SOME CELEBS won't agree with Ann that burlesque was Sunday Schoolish, compared to rowdy Red Buttons, visiting Ann's show, claimed he was arrested once for working in New York burlesque. He did his act in court to convince the judge and jury it was innocent.

"The judge arrested the jury," insisted Red, "for watching an indecent performance."

Zsa Zsa Gabor flashed her new 35-carat diamond ring at Danny's. (She'd asked Jeweler Harry Winston, "but dolling, isn't it vulgar?" and he answered: "After you've been married a while, it'll shrink a little".) ... The "First Family" comedy album staff will make another. "First Lady and Friends," 20th Century-Fox is boosting Red Buttons for another supporting actor award, for "Longest Day" ... Director J. Lee Thompson brought his fiancée, actress Shirley Ann Field, to the "Taras Bulba" party.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "There are so many medical shows on television," reports Nonnee Coan, "that now my wife wants a kidney-shaped TV set."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Taft Tuttle saw the Jackie Gleason show, and figures the hefty comic would be great for a movie titled "One For the Seesaw."

EARL'S PEARLS: Sometimes a fellow who tries to drown his sorrow in drink gets caught in the undertow.

Comic Dave Madden tells of the Peace Corps member in Africa who wrote home: "The people are unfriendly and dull and lazy. So much for the staff—now about the natives. ... That's earl, brother."

Bomb Uncovered in Florida Road Work

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A road grader working on a new highway uncovered a 250-pound aerial bomb of a type used during World War II.

An Air Force public information officer at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa said the bomb was found Thursday on Mullet Key, a small island at the mouth of Tampa Bay which was used as a bombing range during the war.

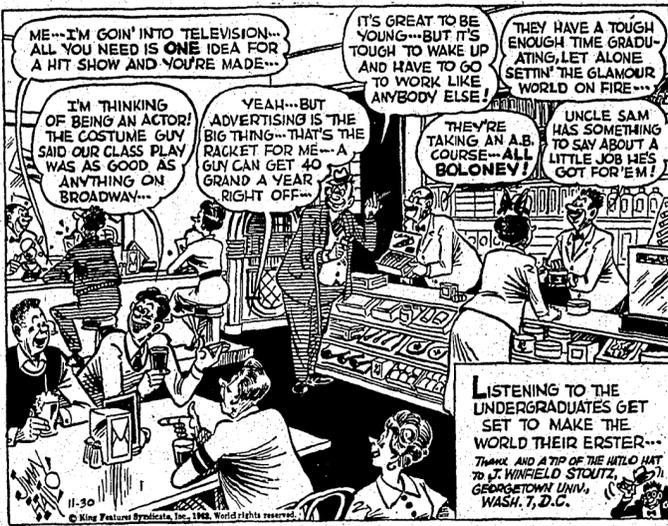

He said members of the 33rd Munitions Maintenance Squadron and the explosive ordnance disposal unit at MacDill would dispose of the bomb.

New Refuge Marking
New eye-catching emblem designating employees of the Fish and Wildlife Service which supervises the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge and lands and equipment under the services control soon will brighten the landscape along the river.

Here and There
Donald Stoner, Galesville, bagged the biggest buck registered at the Black River Falls wanger station. He got it near Disco, Jackson County. It was a 15-point buck that dressed out 213 pounds.

Upper Mississippi River navigation will close officially at 6 a.m. Dec. 5. Army engineers have decreed. On that day work of repairing the Hastings Dam will start closing its locks to further passage of boats. All boats above there are stuck for the winter.

Below Hastings towboats will be given an opportunity at other locks to pass downriver before the curtain is pulled down for the winter. It is a late closing for the river. Winter pool levels will be established, which is slightly below present stage after the passage of the final towboat.

Fish and Wildlife Service emblems were first used in Alaska before statehood. At that time, the fish and wildlife resources of the territory were administered by the Fish and Wildlife Service through its Alaska Game Commission. Alaska Game Commission employees were then authorized to wear uniforms. The shoulder patch for these uniforms has a typical Alaskan mountain wilderness background with a salmon leaping a falls. Overhead is a flying goose. The new stylized Bureau emblem has evolved from the Alaska Game Commission shoulder patch, which remains standard for all Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife uniformed employees throughout the United States.

The new Bureau emblem will appear on entrance signs to field

NASON ON EDUCATION

Tutor Sometimes Hurts Students

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Professor of Education, University of Southern California

When their youngsters' grades begin falling in school, many parents think about hiring an outside tutor. Is it wise? The problem is bothering this parent:

Dear Dr. Nason: Our son is having trouble with intermediate algebra in his 11th grade class. He had difficulties in each of his first two semesters of algebra in the ninth grade, but finally made good grades with the help of a tutor.

Would you advise hiring a tutor again?

B. S., Oakland, Calif.

Tutors help students pass courses but sometimes they leave them weaker rather than stronger as students. They help solve the immediate problem of passing the course, but too often this consists of help in solving specific problems and cramming for tests.

If his tutor in ninth grade algebra straightened out his learning procedures your son certainly would not be in trouble again in the same subject!

Try to choose a tutor this time who can help him learn how to study mathematics.

Dear Dr. Nason: Our daughter is engaged to a man (25) who quit school after only two years of high school. She is a junior at college. How can we help him? Where would we start to close the gap?

B. J., Marshall, Mich.

Successful marriages are not easily achieved with such a difference in education. I suggest that the young man enter a junior college, complete high school and make plans for closing the education gap between him and your daughter before they marry.

A college counselor will be glad to help him plan such a program. Adults can complete high school graduation requirements in less time by taking courses at the college level. These courses also form an excellent foundation for additional college work.

Dear Dr. Nason: Our junior high school daughter started school this year with great enthusiasm.

Now she seems to be losing interest. She spends little time at homework. We ask her what she is supposed to be doing, but get evasive answers.

What can we as parents do to reawaken her interest?

A. C., Waverly, Ohio

Many students appear to lose in terest in school at this time of year. Some are accused of being lazy. In working with such students I find they more often lack skill in doing school work.

This is the time in a semester when parents should try to analyze the school problems of such children and give prompt help. A teacher, one of your daughter's school friends, or perhaps a friend of the family should talk over all the elements of your daughter's school life with her.

Whether it is reading, or some other skill that needs attention often can be determined. Sometimes it is merely a lack of planning how the study should be done.

Mondovi Council Boosts Tax Rate

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special)—The Mondovi City Council Monday evening adopted a tax levy of $266,652 and set the tax rate at 34 mills compared with 31 mills last year.

Although the mill rate is higher this year, taxes on property will be lower because of the state sales tax refund credit.

Property assessed at $10,000 valuation in 1961 paid a tax of $310 at the 31-mill rate. This year with the rate at 34 mills the same property will be taxed at $340 but will receive a state credit of $35.12, with a net tax of $304.88, a decrease of $5.12 from last year.

Estimated expenditures for 1962 are $134,964, including $11,164 outlay for storm sewers and street improvement projects. Anticipated revenue other than taxes is $76,637, leaving the local property tax levy at $58,327.

One of the major storm sewer projects in the near future will be on Jackson Street where the new high school addition is being built.

Other business transacted by the council included granting a bartender's license to Ruth Larson. Mayor Gaylord Schultz read a letter of resignation from Police Officer De Vere Wood, effective today. The police committee was instructed to find a replacement.

A letter from Harry Hurlley requested council to determine the cost and location of a line fence between his property and Forest Erickson's.

Police Chief Carl Swain and Police Officer Norbert Weiss appeared before the Council.

You Both Need Mental Help

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this man (he is 26 and I am 22) for about a year. We love each other very much and have spoken of marriage. He has a terrible temper and when he gets provoked he hits me. He has blackened my eyes and left bruises on me several times. Afterwards he begs me to forgive him and promises he'll never do it again, but he always does. The last time he hit me he cracked two ribs and loosened three teeth. I broke up with him and haven't seen him in two weeks. I now find that my love for him is even greater than before and I want to go back to him, but don't know if I should. Can you help me?

DEAR NO: Any man who would repeatedly strike a woman is sick. And any woman whose love is "greater than before" after such abuse is sicker than he is. If you go back to him, you should use the rocks in your head to fill up the holes in his!

DEAR ABBY: I once read that Russians think we worship dogs. "Lies," I cried. Then I looked into the facts. I learned that more is spent each year on dog and cat food than on baby food. That there are beauty parlors for dogs (at $10 a visit), mink coats for dogs and jeweled collars and leashes that cost thousands of dollars! Dogs (and cats) have been named sole heirs to fortunes. And, Abby, there are even psychologists for dogs! I think dogs make charming pets, but when there are so many under-nourished and unloved children in the world they should come first.

DEAR MOTHER: Considering the millions of dog-owners in the country, you are focusing far too much attention on the few oddballs who lavish thousands of dollars on jeweled collars, mink coats and leave their fortunes to their dogs. Dogs protect the blind, hunt down criminals, protect homes and provide companionship for many, so don't waste your energy worrying about what the Russians think.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me how to kiss a boy. I am going to a party the first of December and will need the information by then. I thank you.

DEAR NEEDS: How old are you? Anyone who needs information on how to kiss is too young to use it.

DEAR ABBY: My son's teacher kept the entire class after school 30 minutes. She wouldn't allow anyone to telephone home to say they'd been detained. I was one of the mothers who sat out in my car waiting. My son was late for his dental appointment. Please don't give me that song and dance about teachers being overworked and underpaid. They have shorter days and longer vacations than office workers, and if they don't like children they should find another job.

DEAR IRRITATED: An effective way to keep individuals in line is to punish the entire class and then let the culprit suffer at the hands of his classmates. But no child should be denied permission to call home.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Alice Will Go To Rose Parade

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin department heads are in agreement that Alice in Dairyland should represent the state in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, but they are hesitant about entering a float in it.

Wisconsin plays Southern California in the Rose Bowl football game after the parade and state agency heads gathered at Madison Thursday to discuss the value of a float.

The Department of Resource Development was the first state agency to express opposition to a float from Wisconsin. A Conservation Department spokesman also questioned the value of such a float. The Department of Agriculture director wasn't quite as loud in its opposition.

The three agencies contributed $3,400 each for the 1960 Rose Bowl parade float when Wisconsin's football team made its last trip to the west coast for the game.

David Carley, director of the Resources Development Department, said "we feel that Wisconsin will be well represented by the university's football team and by the band, students, alumni and fans who will accompany the team."

NSP Electric Rates Extended

Extension of standard electric rates to some 3,000 customers in the Ettrick, Fountain City, Galesville, Holmen, Melrose and Onalaska and surrounding rural areas has been announced by Northern States Power Co.

The new schedule, effective after Nov. 20, will apply to all customers formerly served by Mississippi Valley Public Service Co. prior to its acquisition by NSP in January 1960.

Substitution of the standard rates will place all customers of NSP Wisconsin on the same basis as to rates and rules of receiving service instead of having those of former companies applied in certain areas.

"The changes in rates will be advantageous to about two-thirds of the customers," according to A. L. Christensen, manager of the La Crosse division. "In most cases only minor increases are involved for the remaining one-third of the customers. The overall effect of the rate changes is a reduction of rates to customers in the affected area of about $20,000 annually."

The standard rate schedule was made at the request of NSP through the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin.

Trainman Completes Last Trip on '400'

Mother, Son Killed in N.D. Head-on Crash

RAY, N.D. (AP)—Florentine Johnson, 45, McGregor, and her year-old son Mark were fatally injured Thursday in a head-on collision on slushy U.S. 2 just west of this Williams County community.

They were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Johnson's husband, Algot, 48, who was listed in critical condition at a Williston hospital.

Pop Cooler Found Full of Drugs

ST. PAUL (AP)—The State Crime Bureau said Thursday that a soft drink cooler found full of drugs in a wooded area near Garrison, Minn., was part of the loot taken from a St. Paul drug store in a July 24 burglary.

Ray Lacher, owner of the store, had reported about $800 in drugs taken. Kenneth Road, 9, son of a resort owner, found the cooler containing over 200 bottles and packages of such drugs as opium, morphine, demerol, strychnine and codeine.

A veteran North Western Railway passenger trainman, Joseph J. Kraft, 1007 W. Wabasha St., who has been railroading for the past half-century, made his last trip today before retiring. Kraft, 69, has been in continuous passenger train service in the Minnesota District since June 23, 1912. He has served on the Minnesota "400" between Winona and Mankato since the service started almost 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kraft have been lifelong residents of Winona. The Krafts have two sons, Dr. Joseph R. Kraft, Sacramento, Calif., a pathologist, and Lloyd J. Kraft, St. Paul, deputy regional Scout Executive, National Council, Boy Scouts of America. The Krafts have 14 grandchildren.

Kraft's railroading career includes service on President Calvin Coolidge's train en route to Rapid City, S.D. The Winonan's only train accident was in April 1920 when a head-on collision occurred between two passenger trains near Sanborn, Minn. The conductor, engineer, fireman and one passenger were killed.

Since 1932 Kraft has been the local chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Winona Lodge 510. In his early days of railroading, all trains had wooden coaches, smoking cars, diners and provided frequent local community service, including railway mail service.

After he retires he will continue to live in Winona but may spend the winter in a warm climate.

Teamsters Strike 2 Newspapers In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A surprise Teamsters Union strike against the city's two major daily newspapers today caused one of them—the Plain Dealer—to cease publication. The editor of the other—the Press and News—expressed optimism his paper would keep publishing.

Teamsters Local 473 began picketing the Plain Dealer and the Press and News in a contract dispute Thursday night. Stacks of newspaper bundles piled up on the morning Plain Dealer's loading dock as the pickets walked around. The papers were undelivered.

Thomas V. H. Vail, vice president of the Forest City Publishing Co., publisher of the Plain Dealer, notified Plain Dealer employees that publication of the newspaper would be discontinued until the strike is settled.

Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Press and News, said he was "going ahead on the assumption we will publish" today despite the Teamster picket line. A Plain Dealer official said the strike came as a surprise after a day of quiet negotiations and expressed hope the strike would end as suddenly as it began.

It was the first time the city's newspapers had been shut down by labor trouble since November 1956, when the city was without its daily papers for 24 days. Vail, in notifying employees the Plain Dealer was ceasing publication, said a limited number of employees "needed to maintain the property and carry on necessary non-production tasks" would remain on the job.

More Federal Highway Funds For Minnesota

WASHINGTON (AP)—An additional $237.5 million of federal aid was apportioned to the states Thursday for highway work in the fiscal year that starts next July 1. The apportionment completes the administrative chore of parcel-ing out more than $3.5 billion of federal highway funds for the coming fiscal year.

Under the total allotment, Minnesota received $10,734,691 for primary roads, $7,566,026 for secondary roads, $3,888,110 for urban roads and $67,063,100 for interstate highways.

Figures for North Dakota in the same categories are $5,283,972, $3,395,473, $416,641 and $11,451,050. For South Dakota they are $5,942,523, $4,300,016, $431,189 and $17,022,525.

CAP Ready to Lend Helping Hand

TWENTY-ONE is the magic number in an ancient game of cards; it is the magic age when a young man legally becomes adult. With Civil Air Patrol, using these other things as comparatives, the volunteer civilian auxiliary of the Air Force literally "comes of age" at 21 when it celebrates its 21st anniversary Saturday.

And during its past year, much has been done to make "comes of age" an accomplishment. Established as a goal of 100,000 teenage cadets and at least 60,000 senior members by 1966. Already the drive is paying off and many of the 52 wings of CAP are meeting their quotas. The membership today is approximately 72,000, both cadets and seniors—already a big step forward. Confidence, however, in the nation's need for a strong search and rescue service by the trained emergency services of officers of CAP, and its need for widespread, more advanced aerospace education for youth is the stimulus that will achieve the aim of the long-range plan.

AS CAP reaches its 21st birthday, many mature things were happening. Most of the wings obtained man-sized written agreements with their state Civil Defense Agencies. Optimist International and The American Legion joined forces with CAP to spread interest in aerospace education and to form new squadrons. As a result, during the first year the long-range plan was put on paper, membership began to grow in the proportions Civil Air Patrol, as a corporation, desired.

Air Force liaison offices at national, region and wing levels aided the drive. Youth programs were stepped up to meet modern-day demands. Aircraft control and space age courses were added to the already established jet and aerospace age courses. The picture brightened.

CIVIL AIR PATROL's activities have spread. Hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, and other natural and man-made disasters find Civil Air Patrol volunteers lending a hand. Surplus military radio equipment has been salvaged and rebuilt into one of the most extensive radio nets this country has today. Some 14,000 CAP radio stations tie the 50 state wings, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia into an invisible network of almost instant communication.

The emphasis on American youth has mushroomed into a Civil Air Patrol cadet program which offers hundreds of special scholarships and honors programs at Air Force bases, and an International Air-Cadet Exchange which has been an outstanding "people to people" program for fifteen years.

Here in Winona, we have had reason to be proud of our own Civil Air Patrol unit. These volunteers are our neighbors and friends. Let us remember that our CAP unit is but one of more than 2,000 such units located in every state of our great country. Your son and daughter may be one of the CAP cadets who now number more than 40,000 nationwide.

CIVIL AIR PATROL is celebrating its 21st anniversary Saturday, 21 years of service to nation and community. We salute Civil Air Patrol on its past achievements, and pay tribute to the Winona squadron which is a part of this 72,000-member volunteer force standing ready to lend a helping hand to you and me.

Be Cautious of Fellow in a Hurry

THE NUMBER of people and organizations who are being bilked by glib-mouthed visitors seems to be growing.

We were reminded of this within the last week when two different people came into our office with tales about the misrepresentation of items that were being sold. One involved the Red Wing Chamber of Commerce, which had arranged to sponsor a production of the "Passion Play".

The same play staged by the same visitor had been shown under local sponsorship at such cities as Rochester, Winona and Faribault. Descriptions of it branded it as "outrageously bad," "the worst thing I've ever seen" and an "unbelievable mess."

The cast apparently consisted of rank amateurs, at least some of whom didn't even have ambitions to act.

OUR CALLER said he was surprised Mankato hadn't been similarly bilked. The reason the promoter didn't call on potential sponsors in these parts, however, probably was that he knew the Mankato Lions Club already had put on the original Passion Play from Spearfish, S.D. As a matter of fact, it may have been the presence of the Spearfish cast in this area which inspired him to show up in nearby towns.

The second caller complained that there are book salesmen around, including those peddling encyclopedias, who misrepresent their products. They prey on the conscientiousness of parents and wind up by asking them if they are going to be so cruel as to deprive their children of a chance to be the leaders in their school class. Sometimes they even suggest they're going to "give" the books to "certain selected" persons. But the contract which the people sign presents a somewhat different, and more expensive, picture.

THIS ISN'T to say that all promoters or door-to-door salesmen are unreliable. Many of them are impeccably honest. They don't like the other kind any more than does anybody else—even less.

But the point to remember when a salesman or promoter calls on you is that, if the story he tells is true, he won't object

How Do You Stand, Sir?

Hiss Show Irks Many Viewers

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

National indignation is still seething over the television show which presented convicted perjurer Alger Hiss literally sitting in judgment on former Vice-President Nixon. It is a righteous and valid indignation which demands fair play for American public figures at the hands of the television industry.

The mere fact of his defeat at the hands of Gov. Edmund (Pat) Brown in the Nov. 6 election for governor of California did not turn Mr. Nixon, overnight, into a species of criminal.

Nor did it necessarily consign him to the political limbo that the television network tried to arrange for him. Mr. Nixon is still a young man. There is a lot of time ahead of him, and a political comeback is not inconceivable.

But regardless of his political future, Mr. Nixon deserved better than he got on the Howard K. Smith show on the ABC network. For the presentation of Hiss and his views on a program called "The Political Obituary of Richard Nixon" was one of the lowest and dirtiest blows ever struck at a great American and a fine public servant.

You had here a man who had served his country brilliantly in the House of Representatives, in the Senate and in the second highest office in the land, the Vice-Presidency, being appraised by a man whom he had helped send to prison. It appeared to many that the program architects had decided that Mr. Nixon's defeat in California necessarily called into question everything he had ever done.

IRONICALLY, THIS inexcusable performance came only a short time after Mr. Nixon had criticized the press but given the television industry high marks for its handling of the California gubernatorial campaign. Ironically, too, the offending program was handled under the auspices of ABC Vice-President James C. Hagerty, who served as White House press secretary during the eight years of the Eisenhower-Nixon administration.

It certainly should come as no surprise to the network that some of its sponsors want to sever relations because of the Hiss appearance in connection with the former Vice President of the United States. Nor should it come as any surprise to the sponsors that some TV officials are yelling "censorship."

I SUGGEST THAT if this is, in fact, "censorship," it is a very healthy brand of censorship. It is a brand in which the public steps in and does the "censoring" because of the bad judgment and poor taste of television programming.

It shouldn't be forgotten in the welter of charges and counter charges emanating from the unfortunate ABC program—that television sponsors are in business to make money. They use the services of TV to advertise their product, to present it in its best light and to increase their sales. For this reason, it is perfectly understandable that some sponsors might not want their products associated with what is imbedded in the public mind as a low blow struck at a fine American who has served his country honorably and with high distinction, both in war and in peace.

How do you stand, sir?

GREAT POPULATION DERBY

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

U.S. Can't Substantiate Hidden Missile Rumors

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Through the eyes of foreign diplomats in Havana and the cameras of vigilante reconnaissance planes, the Central Intelligence Agency is piecing together what has been going on inside Cuba.

CIA agents also have been interviewing Cuban refugees and underground contacts at the rate of 250 per day. Unfortunately, however, the Cubans' reports are often colored by a desire to see the United States invade Cuba.

It has been the Cuban informants, for instance, who have been most persistent in claiming that Russia has hidden offensive missiles in some of Cuba's 350 caves. One of the most reliable informants, underground leader Luis Fernandez Rocha, recently listed seven Soviet-built "subterranean installations" in which missiles supposedly have been concealed.

However, the CIA discovered the report was founded upon two vague, mysterious telephone calls from Havana. This is hardly enough evidence upon which to base U.S. policy.

THE CIA has verified that dictator Castro has been remodeling caves and digging underground installations for over a year. The evidence indicates they are being used for storing weapons and ammunition, including perhaps 25-mile rockets. But the CIA is convinced that Russia has cleared out all her long-range missiles. The word from Havana diplomats is that Anastas Mikoyan, the Kremlin trouble-shooter, had to bribe Castro with a three-year economic aid treaty to get him to agree to the removal of Soviet bombers from Cuba.

The aid offer was coupled with threats to cut off all Communist aid upon which Cuba now depends for 80 percent of its needs.

During the negotiations, Castro also tried some threats of his own. He threatened to side with Red China in the ideological struggle between the Russian bear and the Chinese dragon.

BUT MIKOYAN softly reminded Castro that China, beset with mass hunger at home, could hardly keep Cuba in rice.

After several rounds with the ranting Castro, Mikoyan wearily described him to Iron Curtain diplomats as a "neurotic."

At one point, Mikoyan sweetly suggested to Castro that he needed a vacation. "Only a bullet in the head will remove me!" screamed the bearded one.

Of all the congressmen who scattered to the four corners of the earth after the election, probably the gayest junket was arranged by the House Banking and Currency Committee.

Nearly a dozen members and their wives set out after elections to fly completely around the world at the taxpayers' expense. They even wangled ex-president Eisenhower's luxurious plane, the Columbine, from the Air Force and headed for the glamor capitals of the world, ranging from Honolulu to Hamilton, Bermuda.

THE OFFICIAL purpose of this round-the-world trip was described in the committee's transportation request in these sweeping, all-inclusive words: "To study matters of legislative and economic concern to the committee."

The real truth is that the Banking and Currency Committee deals only with domestic banking and currency. Foreign commerce is not its concern. It is handled by another committee.

It is true, however, that on this trip congressmen are handling a lot of currency, but it's counterpart currency, drawn from the American embassy at each stop and for which the travelers are not accountable to the embassy or the State Department.

The State Department has even set up a secret account, under the code number 19FT-561, to keep the congressmen in spending money on their overseas junkets.

It would be easier to learn the whereabouts of our secret nuclear stockpiles than to find out how much each congressman spends overseas. For the 19FT561 account is kept top secret by both the State Department and Congress.

HERE IS the roll-call of congressmen taking this glamorous trip:

Rep. William Barrett, D-Pa., went on ahead to Hawaii to sun himself before catching the Columbine in Honolulu. Rep. and Mrs. Abe Miller, D-N.Y., and Rep. and Mrs. Paul Fino, R-N.Y., joined the party in Tokyo.

Rep. and Mrs. Robert Stephens, D-Ga., and Rep. Harold Ryan, D-Mich., waited to pick up the Columbine in Rome. Those who made the full trip in the Columbine were Rep. and Mrs. James Harvey, R-Mich., Rep. and Mrs. Michael Feighan, D-Ohio, and Rep. Edward Finnegan, D-Ill.

They were accompanied by Jesse Wolcott of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and Joseph Barr of the Treasury Department and their wives. Three committee staff members — Bob Paston, Orman Fink, and Grady Perry—also went along.

Note—Counterpart funds are local currency paid by foreign governments for foreign aid and not convertible into dollars. Those who believe the public is entitled to know how much counterpart funds any individual congressman spends should protest to Chairman Omar Burleson (Texas) of the House Administration Committee or Sen. Carl Hayden (Ariz.) of the Senate Appropriations Committee. These are the two men who have refused to release a breakdown of congressional spending abroad.

Business Needs Stable Outlook

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Everyone who knows anything about the operations of American businesses knows that uncertainty is the biggest barrier of all to careful planning.

Uncertainty is increasing. There is talk of a tax cut. There is talk of tax "reform" which will add to various expenses and wipe out certain deductions. There is talk of a tightening of interest rates. There is talk of larger deficits in the treasury — possibly the largest in peacetime.

There is talk of a bigger and bigger outflow of gold from this country and a serious impact on the value of the dollar abroad.

On top of this is the talk of a 35-hour week and higher wage demands, which, in turn, has led to talk of raising prices soon after the tax cut occurs and "spending" is stimulated.

All the talk adds up to more and more uncertainty about the future. For several months now the trend has been characterized as deflationary. Now there are fears of inflation.

What is lacking, of course, is a broad-gauged approach that will bring stability and allow for some long-range planning. But politically minded persons in Washington are, for the time being, interested only in what kind of condition will prevail in the economy 20 months from now when the next presidential campaign will be under way.

So the usual course in politics is being followed — the same thinking as prevailed in the 1930's, when the emphasis was on the slogan "spend and spend, tax and tax, and elect and elect." But it didn't cure unemployment then. Government spending helped to increase consumer spending, but it didn't encourage the heavy-goods industries.

Today the administration has gone back to the policies that failed in the 1930's. Stress is again placed on consumer spending. The tax cut is to be "across the board," with the biggest reductions probably in the lower brackets. The expectation is that people in the upper brackets — who will get some reduction in taxes rates — will promptly invest their money to enable companies to add new plant and equipment.

But the indubitable fact is that today there is no lack of money to invest. There is instead a lack of will to invest. The monopoly power of labor is so strong that it threatens the whole system of planning for a fair rate of profit out of which a reasonable dividend rate can be paid.

Congress, of course, is expected to grant the President's request for a tax cut because this is supposed to be politically popular. But increasing consumer spending will not change the business picture or prevent an increase in unemployment. In this age of technological improvement, the need is for better equipment. But unless a large volume of sales is in sight and the national economy, in all its segments, can improve, the risks of expansion will not be taken and the unemployment situation will not improve.

Today, according to official figures, personal incomes have risen to record heights. But somehow this doesn't help, for instance, to recover jobs for the nearly 100,000 workers in the steel industry who have been thrown out of work ever since the administration began tampering with the price structure.

IT LOOKS now as if the tax-cut legislation may be enacted sometime in the spring of 1963, and the full effects probably will not be felt until later in the year. But also during 1963, if a general tax "reform" bill is passed, there are many businesses which will be hurt. Lots of individuals will have deductions taken away from them and many persons who look only at the savings obtained in their own over-all tax rate will discover that they have had an increase in taxable income due to the so-called "reforms."

What can be done to bring prosperity? The answer lies in one word — stability. If tax rates, wage rates and interest rates were stabilized, and if political misuse of government funds called "welfare spending" were discontinued and the budget balanced, business would gradually increase its rate of profit, investors would be encouraged, and job creation — the biggest need of the country today — would be given its greatest impetus in decades.

Severe Muscle Weakness

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please tell me the why and wherefore of myasthenia gravis. My daughter has it. She takes a drug daily but can never miss a dose or she becomes quite weak.—MRS. S. E.

"Myasthenia" means muscle weakness and "gravis" means severe.

The disease has also been called "The fatigue that rest won't cure."

Although it has been known for 300 years, no effective treatment was found until 1929 when a woman victim, taking ephedrine for a sinus condition, noticed that it helped her fatigue.

Since then neostigmine, and derivatives of it and ephedrine, have been added.

We don't know what causes the disease. The muscles and the nerve trunks are normal, studies show.

The present concept is that a chemical defect occurs at the point at which nerves are supposed to transmit impulses to the muscles. With myasthenia gravis, the muscle does not respond, hence the weakness.

Again for unknown reasons, the disease attacks young females more often than older ones. Contrarily, more older males than young ones are affected.

The extreme fatigue usually affects certain muscle groups. Drooping (fatigued) eyelids give a sleepy look. There can be extreme weariness from chewing, difficulty in swallowing, exhaustion from climbing stairs or just walking.

The degree of fatigue varies a good deal. There may also be unexplained improvement, then relapse.

REST AND keeping muscular exertion at a minimum help, but regular use of drugs is essential to improve muscle tone. In women under 40, if the disease is not too severe, removal of the thymus gland sometimes brings favorable results but I cannot suggest any reason for this. Hormones, vitamins, special diets, anti-inflammatories and a variety of other things have been tried but appear to have no effect on the ailment.

Using the modern drugs, patients have a favorable outlook but they must never be without the medications.

The Myasthenia Gravis Foundation in New York, by the way, is doing much to foster study and research relating to this mysterious problem.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it dangerous to wash the dishes of a cancer patient with those of the rest of the family?—MRS. H. J.

No danger, as cancer is not a contagious disease.

SCHULER HOME . . . This is a view of the back terrace, back garden and swimming pool of Schuler on Long Island, N. Y. Mr. Schuler is the son of Mrs. C. C. Schuler, 252 Franklin St., and "Malmaison," home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mrs. Schuler is Patrice Munsel, opera singer.

The Casual Observer

(Editor's Note: Because of local interest in former Winonan Robert Schuler who is now a theatrical producer, and his wife, opera singer Patrice Munsel. The Casual Observer is doing a two-part column on her visit with them at their Long Island home. This is the first of two articles.)

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Last Saturday I went out to Brookville on the north shore of Long Island to spend the day with former Winonan Bob Schuler and his wife Patrice at their home "Malmaison." They met me at the station. Patrice dark and vivacious and looking very small and young in her well-worn cream-colored buckskin Indian breeches and fringed jacket, and buckskin squaw boots with little silver bells on them. "This is our day off when the children are home and we have fun," she said gaily.

That rather remote section of Long Island is still quiet, uncluttered and lovely.

We wound through woods on several huge estates and caught glimpses of great houses through the trees. Curving over roads on the Whitney estate I saw the famed Whitney Stables where some of the finest racing thoroughbreds in the world are raised and trained. The stables consisted of one after another English brick buildings joined to each other, each with paddock where handsome horses were grazing.

We turned in at the wrought iron gate and gravelled driveway of "Malmaison," a large and charming Georgian house of palest pink, and ascended the shallow steps into the marble entrance hall where two formal pink rose trees flanked an Italian wall fountain. Up another shallow flight of marble steps to a guest-reception room done in shades of violet with brilliant color accents; off it were coat rooms, a powder room and a bath that fascinated me because there was a marble bathtub draped with pink chiffon canopy-curtains over it.

Patrice showed me the bedrooms. The airy master-bedroom done in white had two big dressing rooms off it — Pat's done in pink and white, and Bob's in bright dark colors. In Pat's room was a long pastel-painted breakfront cabinet filled with what looked like clumps of brilliant exotic flowers — her favorite hats! Off her dressing room was a "gown room" with high racks from which hung Pat's many opera and theatrical gowns. Down the hall was a sweet little-girl bedroom in pale blue-and-white check that belonged to nine-year-old Heidi. Seven-year-old Coke had a fine cowboy bunkroom done in red and white, while at the end of the hall was the nursery where dark three-year-old Nicole and her blonde four-year-old brother Chico slept, with their nurse's room adjoining.

The three of us went outside and poked about the grounds — the house is set in 12 acres of lovely unspoiled woods. From the back terrace we looked down a flight of broad shallow stone steps down a vista of formal paths and boxwood garden to the swimming pool, now covered over with canvas. As we walked down the garden and shuffled through the deep leaves of the adjoining woods we talked about Winona and Winona friends, about the show "Chrysanthemum" Bob is slowly rounding into shape for a Broadway production, about the fun the whole family had had last summer when Pat sang "The Merry Widow" in California and Texas.

Back in the house we wandered into the kitchen where the German cook was preparing a cheese soufflé for our lunch. Bob showed me a very long and spacious room off the kitchen. "When we bought the house this was a bunch of servants' rooms. We tore them out and made a big playroom for the kids which I also use for a projection room for my TV films. It's long enough so that the kids can roller skate or ride tricycles. And there's a little stage at the far end where they give plays. They're all real hams," said Bob. (To be continued.)

Politics Get British Soldier Out of Service

LONDON (AP) — Running for a seat in Parliament is the latest thing in Britain's armed forces. The military candidates don't expect to win—it's the cheapest way to get out of uniform.

A young lieutenant started it by putting himself before the electors of Middlesbrough at a special election this summer.

Now a dozen soldiers—and maybe more—are ready to stand at a special election in the Yorkshire steel town of Rotherham.

Most British soldiers enlist for 9 or 11 years. If they want to break the contract, they have to pay the government up to 250 pounds ($700).

British law says that any soldier who wants to stand for Parliament must be discharged. And running for Parliament costs only a deposit of 250 pounds ($420) which is returned to the candidate if he wins more than one eighth of the votes.

Eleven soldiers escaped to city street that way this month.

None of them won. They didn't want to. But they got a few votes.

At Chippenham last week three reluctant soldiers captured 600 votes among them out of 36,498 cast.

Rotherham's election is scheduled for March. City officials say 12 servicemen already have entered their names and they expect more.

Lynne is having a check-up. She underwent leg surgery for the correction of multiple sclerosis at University Hospital the past year.

Ike, Kennedy Will Plug for Cultural Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedys and the Eisenhowers join a troupe of stars on a million-dollar promotional pageant tonight to raise money and enthusiasm for a national cultural center.

The entertainment world is contributing its talent, television its technology, and thousands of citizens their dollars.

This two-hour extravaganza—to be seen in 60 cities on closed-circuit television—is the kickoff of a drive to raise $30 million to build a capital showplace for drama, the dance and music.

Conductor Leonard Bernstein assumes the role of master of ceremonies for this "American Pageant of the Arts." Comedian Danny Kaye is cast in the role of conductor of the sedate National Symphony Orchestra.

Haunting spirituals sung by Marian Anderson, the poetry of Robert Frost and the stark drama of Eugene O'Neill portrayed by Frederic March and Florence Eldridge are only a sampling of the program.

President and Mrs. Kennedy will appear in person before a sell-out audience of 5,000, which paid $100 a plate to dine in Washington's barn-like National Guard Armory.

In Augusta, Ga., at the country club where he has spent several golfing vacations, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and his wife, Mamie, lend their prestige to the project at a $50-a-plate dinner.

In three other cities, Los Angeles, Chicago and New York, other stars have assembled to step into the live television act.

The audience is spread across the country, gathered at college campuses, civic auditoriums, movie theaters and dining halls where they have paid $1 up to $100 to promote this cultural cause.

The Evening Star

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The brilliant evening star is a symbol of many things to many folk. Mariners hail it as a good omen, for it usually forecasts a clear, calm night and smooth sailing. The shepherd tending his flock on a desolate hillside gratefully notes its appearance in the heavens, for its friendly light offers an intangible sort of companionship during his lonely vigil. To many, the star is representative of God's infinite power and wisdom.

Just as this star touches hearts in countless different ways, so may the Church bring to those in all walks of life, peace and comfort which lead to a happier, more fruitful pattern of life.

Let us make the Church our guiding light. We can brighten our lives if we accept the teaching of the Scriptures as guideposts along the pathway to future endeavors.

Houston County Jury Returns Guilty Verdict

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) — A Green Bay, Wis., man was found guilty of grand larceny, second degree, by a Houston County District Court jury Thursday afternoon and sentenced to indefinite term at the state prison at Stillwater.

Lawrence Ernest DeCloux, 52, had pleaded not guilty to tearing a public telephone from its booth near the Bucket Drive-in at La Crescent Nov. 5. Apprehended with him on the same charge was Everett John Dayton, 38, La Crosse, who Wednesday pleaded guilty as charged. A pre-sentence investigation for Dayton was ordered by Judge Arnold W. Hatfield.

THE DECLOUX CASE opened Wednesday morning and went to the jury at 2:45 p.m. Thursday. A verdict of guilty as charged was returned at 3:20 p.m., according to Claude Kretzer, clerk of court. Jurors had three choices in their special verdict — guilty, not guilty or guilty of petty larceny.

The prison sentence was imposed after questioning of the defendant by the judge disclosed that he had a record extending back to 1932 and has served in Alcatraz, Leavenworth, McNeil Island in Washington, and in state prisons on grand larceny, burglary, conspiracy, transferring a stolen vehicle across a state line, and other charges.

WITNESSES called by L. L. Roerholl, county attorney, were Ernest Miller, Hokah, on whose property parts of the telephone house were found; Byron Whitehouse and Daphne Glen A. Heinz; Lawrence W. Klug; three employees of Ace Telephone Co.; two policemen at Houston County jail; Wayne A. Hangerud, Preston, Fillmore County deputy sheriff; and A. W. Holtberg of the State Highway Patrol.

Holtberg testified to apprehending DeCloux at Preston on the night of Nov. 5 for failing to have a driver's license. Dayton, who was with him, was released. Deputy Hangerud testified to tools he found in the DeCloux car.

Virgil Bjorge, Lanesboro, and Allen M. Brønseth, office manager at the main office of Ace Telephone Co., Houston, identified the telephone found in the Miller yard and parts that had fallen to the floor in the booth. Murray Burns, also of Ace, valued the damaged instrument at about $166.

EVERETT John Dayton, his alleged accomplice in the telephone theft, said he had received a ride from DeCloux in La Crosse. Everett Allen Johnson, a prisoner, said DeCloux told him he committed the telephone robbery.

Thomas A. Flynn, Houston, court-appointed attorney for DeCloux, called the defendant and two other witnesses. DeCloux said he was a freelance diesel repair man, had been in La Crosse, and was driving to Rochester where he hoped to find work. He said he picked up Dayton as a hitchhiker at Hokah.

Ernest Keynon, manager of Ace Hotel, La Crosse, testified DeCloux had paid him $7 for a room in half-dollars, quarters and nickels. A total of $6.42 in change had been found on DeCloux when arrested. Duane Klinski, another prisoner in the jail, testified that he hadn't heard DeCloux talking about taking the telephone.

DeCloux and Dayton were arrested on the larceny charge Nov. 6 after Miller found part of the telephone in his garden. Dayton was apprehended by officers in jail at Preston on the no-driver license charge.

JURORS serving on the only case at this term, were: Mrs. Raymond Bissen, Hokah; Francis Bruening, Crooked Creek; George Carlson, Mound Prairie; Joseph Eiken, Black Hammar; Alfred Erdman and Richard Mireau, Money Creek; Burnell Garnes, Spring Grove Township; Mrs. William Ideker Sr., Brownsville Township; David Lilly, Houston; Lloyd Molling, Mayville; Justin Somermeyer, Caledonia Township, and Mrs. Robert Stark, Caledonia village.

The jury was dismissed for the term but some court matters and sentencing remain. Other jury cases were settled. John R. McDonald, La Crescent, was court-appointed attorney for Dayton. The special term of District Court will be Thursday.

WHAT IS The Church of Christ

The Bible clearly teaches that Jesus built only one church. Jesus said "Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matt. 16:18).

The church of Christ is not a new church. It is as old as the first century. Members today are simply seeking to live and practice the same principles Jesus laid down for the church 70 generations ago in the New Testament.

Beta Sigma Phi Program Treats Drama History

"Drama" was the program presented by Mrs. James Werra at the meeting of Beta Sigma Phi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Erwin Bachler.

Discussing great playwrights through the years, Mrs. Werra stated that modern drama came to being in the last quarter of the 19th century and came of age in Norway with the plays of Henrik Ibsen. His "Hedda Gabler" is considered one of the finest.

"In the field of English drama, George Bernard Shaw rates second only to William Shakespeare," she said. She spoke also of the plays of James Barrie Somerset Maugham, Christopher Frey and Noel Coward.

She touched briefly on Russian drama stating it was mostly historical in outline and mentioned Anton Chekhov, thought by critics to be the greatest Russian playwright.

American playwrights Harriet Beecher Stowe, David Belasco, Eugene O'Neill, and Thornton Wilder were discussed as well as the field of musical comedy in which the American theater is unique.

In conclusion, Mrs. Werra gave a reading from "A Majority of One" by Leonard Spigelgass. During the business meeting plans were completed for the annual Christmas party to be held 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Captain's Quarters of the William's Hotel with the social committee in charge of arrangements.

Brilliant Two-Piano Artistry Displayed in Concert Series

By MRS. JAMES K. CARLSON
Member of Community Concert Association Board of Directors

The opening concert of the Community Concert Association 1962-63 series treated Winonans to a brilliant display of two-piano artistry by Arthur Whitmore and Jack Lowe Thursday night.

The overture to "Alexander's Feast" by Handel, the opening selection, displayed the wide range of tone and expression which can be produced so beautifully by four hands at two pianos. The second number, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach, expressed the quiet, reflective spirit of Bach's religious devotion, and was in marked contrast to the worldly, majestic music of Handel.

"JEUX D'ENFANCE," or Childhood Games, by Georges Bizet, was written expressly for two pianos by the composer. Whitmore and Lowe gave a precise and delicate performance of these seven descriptive pieces. The difficulties of playing exactly together seems to have been overcome by these two artists, as shown by the "precision pedaling" of "The Drummer and The Bugler," and the subtle changes of rhythm in "Soap Bubbles."

Mr. Whitmore, a relaxed and able speaker, commented on the music of Ned Rorem, whose "Sicilienne" was next on the program. Although Mr. Rorem is a contemporary composer, his music is "neo-classic" in style. The modern harmonies were not distracting, but seemed to fit well into the structure of this 18th century dance form.

MEYERSON'S Andante and Variations were offered next, and for some listeners this number may have been an anti-climax. Mendelssohn was a "musician's musician," an outstanding spokesman of the Romantic period. One section of this rarely performed work shows striking similarity to the music of Mendelssohn's contemporary, Chopin, and other sections seemed to prophesy the rhapsodies of Brahms.

After intermission, Mr. Whitmore introduced the section of the program entitled "Music of Today," commenting that he and his partner follow the mood of the moment in choosing the numbers to be played. The numbers include their own favorites, audience requests, and novelty numbers, nearly all by contemporary composers.

THE FIRST number in this group was a short sonata by Francis Poulenc, a 20th century composer, combining "with tongue in cheek" delightful dissonances and classical form. The highlight of the evening, for this reviewer, was the next composition, "The Lover and the Nightingale," by Enrique Granados, one of the few great composers of Spain. Often called the "Spanish Debussy," Granados wrote beautifully descriptive "summer night" music, and Whitmore and Lowe gave an inspiring and brilliant interpretation of this difficult work. Bela Bartok, the controversial Hungarian, was represented by two very short pieces—in response to a request for a "little" Bartok—"New Hungarian Folk Tune," with modal harmonies, and "Perpetual Motion," with appealing jazz rhythm.

In contrast to the music of Bartok, who experimented so widely with new sounds and effects, the next number was the romantic and familiar "Stars in My Eyes," composed by Fritz Kreisler and arranged by Whitmore and Lowe. Closing this part of the program was Celebration Dance from the ballet, "Billy the Kid," by Aaron Copland. In encore, the duo performed an easy-going improvisation of "That Old Black Magic."

THE FINAL number on the program was a truly virtuosic performance of "La Valse" by Maurice Ravel, who died only 25 years ago, described "La Valse" as a choreographic poem, and wrote many other pieces based on dance forms. This number is really a parody of Straussian waltz themes, almost grotesque at times, then suddenly sensuous and soothing. Ravel was a master of orchestration besides being an accomplished pianist, and used his genius to full effect in "La Valse"; at times the two pianos seemed to reach more stirring climaxes than a full orchestra could achieve.

The encores offered by the artists were well-chosen for appeal to all shades of musical taste. First, the quiet and restrained Melody from "Orfeo" by Gluck, then another Kreisler number, "Liebesfreud" and the third encore, a marked contrast to the first two, the March from "The Love for Three Oranges" by the contemporary Russian, Prokofiev. The final encore as the familiar "Bolero" by Ravel, made more interesting by the use of stopped strings to produce the percussion effect heard in the well-known orchestral version.

U.N. Military Adviser Off On Congo Trip

By TOM HOGE UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Acting Secretary-General U Thant sends his chief military adviser to the Congo today to tighten pressure on Katanga President Moise Tshombe and try to end the secession of the province. Rikhye was to consult with U.N. field commanders on deployment of new planes, anti-aircraft units and ground troops that U.N. members have offered to help beef up the U.N. military force in the Congo. Italy is sending four jet fighter planes to the Congo. Sweden has offered four fighters and two reconnaissance planes. Rikhye, an Indian, also planned to go to New Delhi to seek retention of some 5,500 Indian troops, the largest contingent in the U.N. force of 18,000 men. India has said they may have to be pulled out to help in the fight against Communist China.

High Court Rules Illegitimate Child Goes to Parents

ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Supreme Court ruled today that an illegitimate child may not arbitrarily be put in the custody of a county welfare board unless there is a showing of neglect. The high court reaffirmed its temporary order blocking the Ramsey County Welfare Board from taking custody of a baby boy during a hearing on the child's custody. The baby was born out of wedlock but immediately was taken into the family of its real father and his wife. The mother had consented to this arrangement. During a hearing on the father's custody, the county welfare board moved in to take over the child. The board acted on the order of the Minnesota Supreme Court which held that the board must count revised figures from 10 of the state's 87 counties. Those figures gave Andersen a 142-vote edge. Without the revisions, Rolvaag would have won by 58 votes. Recounts proceeded today in two other states.

Absentee Ballots Elect Republican In Rhode Island

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two states have finally chosen governors, more than three weeks after the Nov. 6 election. But the winners' slender victory margins could be overturned in recounts. Rhode Island became the latest state to pick a winner when, early today, absentee ballots gave the nod to Republican John H. Chafee over Democratic Gov. John A. Notte Jr. who sought a second two-year term. The final unofficial count put Chafee ahead by 398 votes. There was no immediate word whether Notte would seek a recount. But in another close gubernatorial election—in Minnesota—attorneys for Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag, a Democrat, were preparing recount petitions. They have 10 days in which to challenge the State Canvassing Board official certification Thursday of Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen as winner of another term. The board acted on the order of the Minnesota Supreme Court which held that the board must count revised figures from 10 of the state's 87 counties. Those figures gave Andersen a 142-vote edge. Science Gains Affect 4-H Programming

LEWISTON, Minn. — "The increasing emphasis on science now evident in education and government is also being felt in 4-H activities," says Dennis Kluber, assistant Winona County agent.

Since its earliest beginnings, 4-H has been concerned with better methods, based on science and research, according to Earl Berglund, assistant state 4-H club leader at the University of Minnesota.

"Now revision of many of the projects will stimulate youth to be curious to explore and understand why things happen as they do in the world about them; will help them to think objectively, logically and imaginatively and to appreciate the value of science to a better way of life," said Berglund.

WITH THE rapid rate of scientific and technological changes in recent years, it is important for young people to understand the scientific principles behind approved practices. In agreement with this statement, the National Science Foundation has awarded the National 4-H Club Foundation a grant of $47,200 to provide an analysis of the effectiveness of the current 4-H program in relation to science education with recommendations for improvement.

The National Science Foundation is interested in 4-H because it offers a unique approach in the field of science education. The foundation sees an opportunity to add a scientific emphasis that will be consistent with the objectives and values of 4-H.

The new emphasis in the 4-H dairy project is an example of the scientific approach. Members learn, for example, not only proper feeding and management of their animals, but also the "whys" of nutrition, such information as how a cow can make milk from roughage and the story of inheritance.

IN THE 4-H electric project, members not only learn the "how" but, more important, the "why" behind the project. With the scientific background which members gain at the beginning of the project, they have a foundation for their projects and experiments. They learn about the relationship between current, voltage and resistance, the distribution of electricity on the farmstead, electrical safety, electric motors and the care of their tools.

Food preparation, agronomy, entomology—these are only a few of the other projects that are stressing science—putting emphasis on the "whys" as well as the "hows."

Developed Farm Plans Reach 617 in Root River

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Fifty-five farmers in the Root River Soil and Water Conservation District have developed their conservation farm plans this past year with assistance from the Soil Conservation Service.

At present 1,070 Houston County farmers are signed as cooperators. Of these 617 have developed basic soil and water conservation plans.

Around the Pitchfork

High-moisture barley, stored in a silo and put through a roller when brought out for feeding, seems to be an efficient feed for fattening steers.

In University of Minnesota research reported at the meeting of the American Society of Animal Science, high moisture barley with a special protein supplement was the most efficient ration fed.

E. C. Frederick said steers receiving such a ration averaged 2.4 pounds gain per day in one trial and 2.6 in another. Feed requirements were 797 and 793 pounds per 100 pounds gain in the two trials.

By comparison, steers fed rolled dry barley with a supplement required 831 and 837 pounds of feed per 100 pounds gain. The high-moisture barley was harvested at 30 percent moisture and put in an air-tight silo. It was rolled when removed from the silo just before feeding.

Milk and milk products are ideal for raising young animals. And University of Wisconsin dairy scientists Bob Niedermair says dairy calves are no exception.

Milk is a high energy food with plenty of good quality protein. It's high in minerals and vitamins, which is just what the calves need, he said.

Calves aren't as flexible as the cow ration. Feeds can't be as freely substituted because the calf doesn't start out as a ruminant capable of using hay and other dry feeds, so as milk is taken away, a substitute feed must be supplied that provides the same high nutrient requirements of the calf.

Selecting hog breeding stock according to growth rate after weaning can lead to heavier weaning weights in the next generation of pigs.

The finding was reported by livestock geneticist W. E. Rempel from the University of Minnesota. He reported on inheritance data from records of 2,693 pigs kept at four stations in the Minnesota Swine Breeding project.

One of the aims of genetics research in hogs is to improve weaning weight. The heavier a pig is when it is taken from the sow, the more profitable it is, both to the man raising and selling feeder pigs and to the person fattening the animals in a feed lot.

One way to improve weaning weight would be to select gilts and boars which are themselves heavier when weaned. But Rempel and other researchers found that weaning weight and daily gain after weaning are highly correlated. The correlation coefficient was .70. A perfect correlation is 1.00.

Plainview Co-op Adds Equipment

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special) — Plainview Cooperative Creamery has completed installation of new equipment in its new 47-by-58-foot steel building that was finished last March.

The structure, which has a creamery tile interior, is 35 feet high.

Manager Glenn Hasse said that an instantizer was installed last August followed by a new spray dryer which went into operation this month. It has a capacity of 3,000 pounds of dried milk production per hour. The two old drying units produced only 1,000 pounds of powder milk per hour.

One of the old drying units has been retained and will be used to dry buttermilk and other dairy products which may be marketed in the future.

The instantizer changes spray dried powdered milk into a more soluble product.

Hasse said that the new addition will increase the production capacity of the plant by about 35 percent and will give the company additional markets for its dried products.

Plainview Co-op Adds Equipment

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special) — Plainview Cooperative Creamery has completed installation of new equipment in its new 47-by-58-foot steel building that was finished last March.

The structure, which has a creamery tile interior, is 35 feet high.

Manager Glenn Hasse said that an instantizer was installed last August followed by a new spray dryer which went into operation this month. It has a capacity of 3,000 pounds of dried milk production per hour. The two old drying units produced only 1,000 pounds of powder milk per hour.

One of the old drying units has been retained and will be used to dry buttermilk and other dairy products which may be marketed in the future.

The instantizer changes spray dried powdered milk into a more soluble product.

Hasse said that the new addition will increase the production capacity of the plant by about 35 percent and will give the company additional markets for its dried products.

Winona FFA Sets Drive on Tractor Safety

Farming need not be a hazardous occupation, yet it ranks third in the accidental death rate, according to James Fabian, president of the Winona chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

The chapter is participating in a nationwide program to prevent accidents resulting from carelessness with farm power units. The program is sponsored by the Farm Equipment Institute and the National Safety Council.

THE MEMBERS of the Winona FFA Chapter will be visiting their neighbor's farms Saturday as a part of their safe farm power use program. They will place farm safety stickers in appropriate places and also leave a safety reminder card to be placed in the home. Richard Waldo is chairman of the chapter's committee on farm safety.

Farmers routinely handle many different kinds of tools and machinery, Richard said. He urged every farmer to be sure his workers, especially young people, know the proper way to check out and operate tractors, plows, disks, harrows and other farm implements.

Tractors and power-driven implements built to ASAW standards or converted to them can be fitted together without delay and without make shift homemade hookups. While even more self-powered farm equipment is coming into use, tractors still are used as a major power source, the chapter noted.

He explained that shields are made to prevent accidental entanglement with the driving shaft. They are seldom made of material strong enough to fully support the weight of a person, and are not intended to be used as steps.

THE CHAPTER ALSO made these recommendations for safer tractor operation:

- For all practical purposes, farm equipment on highways should be considered as stopped.
- Use red warning flags in daytime and lights at night to alert fast-moving traffic.
- Pull only from the drawbar.
- Never hitch to the axle housing.
- Shift transmission to neutral and lock the brakes before hitching implements.
- Avoid sudden starts, excessive speed, and sudden stops when operating on hillsides, rough ground, and in most of the road work.
- Disengage the power take off before adjusting or unclogging power-driven machinery.

Debt-Free Farm May Be Impossible For Many Families

ST. PAUL, Minn. — The traditional goal of owning a debt-free farm may not be realistic for many families in years ahead, a University of Minnesota agricultural economist said Tuesday.

High capital needs, increased cash operating outlays and the relative difficulty in transferring farms nowadays may well justify "perpetual indebtedness," Sherwood Berg told clergymen at an Institute for Town and Country Churches on the St. Paul campus.

Berg pointed out that capital value of modern dairy farming set-ups often runs between $40,000 and $80,000. Beef-hog farms may range up to $350,000 and over.

Average price per acre for farm land in Minnesota has increased from $105 to $155 since 1957. Operating cash requirements have gone up, too. In 1950, Berg said, a farmer could figure $5 or $6 cash expense for each 30 hours labor in producing an acre of corn. Today, it takes $35 to $40 cash expense for every 5 or 6 hours of labor.

The farm of today has a smaller percentage of return left over the retire debts. Before World War II, a $6,000 gross left $3,000 for family living and debt retirement. Today it takes a $10,000 gross to provide $3,000 family income.

The entire situation, according to Berg, indicates a needed change in our philosophy toward farm debts. He suggested this example of how perpetual indebtedness might work: A couple might buy a 200-acre farm in southwestern Minnesota, valued at $300 per acre, with $200 per acre borrowed initially.

The couple might amortize $100 per acre in their life time, thus eventually reducing the loan to $100 per acre. Beyond that, all that is required would be interest payments on outstanding debt. Further principal payments would be optional.

The borrowers would use their earnings over interest costs to maintain or step up production efficiency and their level of living. The lender would have a relatively riskless loan, bringing higher returns than many alternatives.

1,000 Attend NFO Feed At Caledonia

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Ehard Pfingsten, Sargeant Bluff, Iowa, national chairman of the NFO meat bargaining board, spoke to more than 1,000 at the sausage feed at St. Mary's Auditorium here Tuesday.

"Everyone knows, every farm organization knows, that the farmer is in trouble, but they don't know the remedy. Farmers are now the smallest in number since 1879, they owe more money than at any time in history, and have the smallest chance of paying it off."

Pfingsten went on, "We are led to believe that the Free Market will give the farmer fair prices, when the supply and consumption are in balance. Even in periods when supply and consumption were in perfect balance, the farmer still didn't receive a fair price for his product, because he let the processor set the price."

"The program of the NFO is to put the farmer in a bargaining position for the commodities he produces, so that he too may have his fair profit."

Two Trempealeau County Farmers Win Soil Honors

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special)—Three farmers from the Trempealeau County Soil Conservation District were honored at the 13th annual recognition banquet.

Byron Kopp and John Richard and Henry of the Lower Tarnack area near Centerville; Donald Estenson, Fitch Coulee area, near Whitehall, and Myron Nestingen, Highway 95, east of Blair, were honored.

About 100 persons attended the banquet at French Creek Lutheran Church Tuesday noon.

E. O. BAKER, Eau Claire, SCS, erosion control agent, was master of ceremonies and the main speaker was Miss Mae Roach, Eau Claire, retired instructor from Stevens Point State College.

Baker paid tribute to the conservation district workers and introduced members of the staff. They are Mrs. John Tidquist, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ausderau, Henry L. Anderson, Henry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Frey, Mr. and Mrs. Henrik Herness and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bierl.

"Trempealeau County was the first county in Wisconsin to sign agreement with the USDA as a soil conservation district," Baker said. He introduced the district supervisors: Odell Schansberg, Whitehall, chairman; Joseph Roskos, Independence, chairman of the county board; Paul Lehman, Centerville, treasurer; Lily Reich, Independence, secretary, and John Walek Jr., Independence, director.

Miss Roach spoke on "Let the Land and the People Rejoice." "Conservation," she said, "is not done by the people who plan it, but by the farmers who do the work." She said that she deplored the passing of the family farm and that she was overjoyed that the farmers present were still able to meet in small groups such as the conservation banquet being held.

3 Directors To Be Named At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Minn. — Plainview Community School will be the site of the Plainview Cooperative Creamery's 40th annual meeting Saturday.

The business session will start at 11 a.m. and three directors will be elected. Terms of Milton Schwartz, William Rahman and Ralph Tiedemann are expiring. Tiedemann recently replaced Lewis Dickerman on the board. Dickerman had resigned because of ill health.

JOHN SLOAN, Ambrose Simon, Sidney Stolls and Herman Weis are other board members. Glenn Hasse is the creamery manager.

The Plainview High School Band will provide the music during the noon lunch at the school cafeteria. The lunch and afternoon entertainment is open to the public.

Marley Wood, Rochester, resident inspector of the USDA, will be the featured speaker. He will speak on the future of dairying in general and the dairy industry.

Musical selections by the Sepko Quartet, Minneapolis, will open the afternoon program. Martin Kloser, Chicago, will present a film program on dairying and on dairying in the Hawaiian Islands.

The creamery broke records again in its operations for the year. Records were established in all phases: Dollar volume, pounds of production and returns to patrons.

Total sales increased nearly one-half million dollars over last year and pounds of cream and milk received and processed was increased by more than six million.

MR. AND MRS. NESTINGEN moved to Trempealeau County in 1946 where they have a 240-acre farm. Nestingen's soil and water practices include: 84 acres of contour strip cropping, 1,350 lineal feet of grass waterway, 28 acres of pasture renovation, 1,500 pines for wildlife cover, 40 acres of protected woodland, 145 acres of crop rotation (consisting of corn, grain, and three to four years of hay on sloping land, two years of corn, one year grain and two years of hay on level land).

Nestingens has a 45-cow dairy herd with 30 young stock. He is a member of the DHIA and the Tri-State Breeders Association.

BYRON KOPP and sons own a 426-acre farm. Kopp began his soil and water project by establishing 74 acres of contour strip cropping in 1953. They followed this with 100 acres of contour strip cropping, 5,600 lineal feet of grass waterway, 1,350 lineal feet of diversion, 17 acres of tree planting with 45,000 trees, 51 acres of protected woodland, one erosion control structure, 150 acres of crop rotation of corn, grain, and four years of hay on sloping land, two years of corn, one year of grain and two years of hay on level land.

They have a 50-cow Holstein Dairy herd, 50 young stock, 35 sows, and they market 300 hogs per year. The Koppes are members of the DHIA and the Tri-State Breeders Association. Richard Kopp, unmarried, is a member of the army reserve. Henry is married and has three children.

Let's Get Growing

By A. F. SHIRA

Some Notes on Soil

In recent articles we talked about the value of humus in the soil and stated that compost was one of the best ingredients to accomplish this.

Now, let us look at the nature of the soil and the means at the gardener's command to improve for best results. Often the expression "rich soil" is used with little thought given as to the source of its fertility.

Without good soil to grow plants no form of life could exist on the earth. Gardeners, of course, know from experience that fertile soil doesn't just happen. Countless years have gone into the making of our soils, yet it is hard to realize that on the average our fertile topsoil is only about seven inches deep, much less than this in some places, more in others.

The topsoil with which we are primarily concerned here may be considered as a living medium which is capable of being improved by the gardener to fit his particular needs, or requirements. On the other hand, it can be misused and robbed of its fertility until it becomes in time only a piece of worn-out ground incapable of fulfilling its functions.

MAN, ALONE, is capable of using and modifying soils to suit his own purpose, usually with benefit to himself and the land, but sometimes otherwise. If the native or wild soil is fairly rich, well-drained and receives ample rainfall, it will generally grow any plants that are adapted to the region, whether for necessary food, or for ornamental or other purposes. On the other hand, if the plant growth is poor, it may signify an inferior soil originally, or that a formerly rich soil had been abused. Of course, soils vary widely in their capacity to grow plants and some types are more suitable for growing certain varieties than others.

Over a period of time this native soil can be greatly modified and, under careful handling, can become rich and diversified, a fertile and friable soil known as "garden loam." This is the goal that all good gardeners seek as they improve their ground year after year.

Soils may be classed in regard to their physical properties under three general types as sand, clay and loam with their various mixtures. However, to the gardener the meaning of loam goes far beyond any such classification. He knows that, in addition to sand and clay, a good loam soil must contain a considerable amount of organic remains, or humus, together with large numbers of beneficial bacteria for best plant growth.

IN GENERAL, most soils contain the necessary elements for many years of plant growth, but taking off without putting back causes a rapid depletion of the nutrients in the average soil. Each crop of plants or vegetables that the gardener grows on the land takes various amounts and kinds of growth elements from the soil. Eventually, the soil may be robbed of its fertility to the point where unproductive results may require laborious rebuilding.

These nutrients must be replaced, if the fertility of the soil is to be maintained. It is up to the gardener to keep a balance by replacing the elements that are lost. This can be done by incorporating substantial amounts of organic matter each year to increase the humus. This tends to keep the soil loose and porous thus permitting greater penetration of air which is essential. Also, its water holding properties are increased thereby encouraging the activity of the beneficial bacteria.

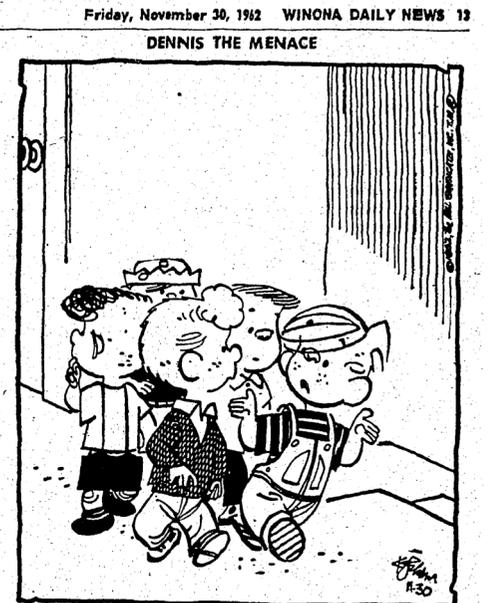

At the same time the mineral elements for good plant growth must be replenished and this can be done by the use of complete fertilizers. Fertile soil, then, must contain the necessary plant foods and its physical properties must be such as to make the food elements available to plants.

Redmen Open Saturday; State vs. Pointers Tonight

Meet Duhawks At St. Mary's

By CHARLIE WHEELER
Daily News Sports Writer

The St. Mary's College basketball team will have a dual purpose in mind when it takes the floor Saturday night against Loras College.

1—Start the 1962-63 campaign on the right foot.

2—Continue a Redman hex over the Dubuque, Iowa, cagers.

Both goals would be accomplished by a Redman victory over the Duhawks in the season inaugural for St. Mary's.

BESIDES THE morale value of an opening night triumph, the Redmen would also like to tag Loras with its third straight loss in two years and sixth in four years to St. Mary's.

The Redmen whipped the Duhawks 96-85 in Winona last season, and came back to bury Loras 86-65 in Dubuque. St. Mary's had won three straight from the Loras dating back to 1959 before Loras scored a 73-70 upset in 1961.

For the opening contest, Redmen Coach Ken Wittgen plans to start three junior lettermen and two sophomores who had some varsity experience last year.

Juniors Denny Burgman (6-5) and Tom Hall (6-2) will open at forwards, with sophomore Jim Rockers (6-7) at center. The guards will be junior Al Williams (6-2) and sophomore Jim Clarkin (6-0).

HALL and Williams ran two-three in Redman scoring last season, and should provide much of the offensive punch to the '62-63 edition of Redmen. Hall bucketed 279 points for an 11.2 average, only six points behind leading scorer Marty Lillig, a '62 graduate. Williams averaged 10.2 points per game with 257 tallies.

Burgman lettered at center as a freshman, repeated as a forward last year, and is being counted on for shooting and rebounding help this year from his forward post. Rockers and Clarkin both have the potential to make St. Mary's an MIAAC contender, but lack game experience.

Also slated to see action for the Redmen are sophomore letterman George Valaika (6-5) and freshman Dan McKian (6-5) and Roger Pyllewski (6-6), all forwards, and sophomore guard Mike Maloney (6-3). Guards Frank Meekins (5-11), a sophomore, and Dave Feeley (5-9), a freshman, complete the Redman roster.

Loras will bring nine lettermen and a new coach to Winona for the game. Bob Zahren, a former athletic great for the Duhawks, starts his first year at the helm of the Loras varsity after a successful three-year stint as freshman cage coach. He replaces Jim Smarjesse.

ZAHREN will have the services of seniors John Willenborg, Jim Goettinger, and Jack Higgins, juniors Fred Kunnert, Mike McGrath, Ron Van DeVelde, Jim Neppi, and Denny Marshall, and sophomore Dennis Haerle, all lettermen from the 1961-62 Duhawks squad which posted a 4-18 mark.

Probable starters for the Saturday encounter with the Redmen include Dan DeVelde (5-10) and Neppi (6-1), who scored 30 points in two games against St. Mary's last year, at guards, with Haerle (6-5) or Kunnert (6-5) at center. McGrath (6-4) will be at one forward spot, with either Goettinger (6-4) or Willenborg, leading scorer two years ago, (6-3) at the other. Loras will have one game under its belt when it meets the Redmen. The Duhawks are at Eau Claire, Wis., tonight to meet the State College Bugolds.

"WE PLAN to run more this season," Wittgen said in discussing the season opener. "We have good size for a change and should be able to capture our share of the boards, one of the first requisites of a fast-breaking team."

Wilt Scores 53 In 7th Defeat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt keeps scoring and the Warriors keep losing.

That's the sad, confusing story of the worried Warriors of San Francisco in the National Basketball Association.

Wilt Chamberlain tossed in 53 points Thursday night, but the Warriors lost their seventh straight, 128-121 to St. Louis.

Syracuse romped over Chicago 112-85 in the only other game on the schedule.

Twins to Host All-Star Tilt

NEW YORK (AP)—The major leagues will return to one All-Star game in 1963. The game will be played on Tuesday, July 9, in Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington.

The players, through their representatives, reluctantly agreed Thursday to drop the second All-Star game, at the request of the owners, who compromised by agreeing to relinquish all claim to All-Star receipts.

The players previously had received 60 per cent of the receipts, amounting to approximately $300,000. The other $200,000 went to the owners, who used the money, except for the commissioner's 5 per cent, to aid the minors.

Jefferson Sweeps In Junior Action

Jefferson swept to victories in both the lightweight and heavyweight classes in Junior High School basketball Thursday.

Central Golds beat Washington-Kosciusko 52-36 in lightweight play and W-K won 40-37 in heavyweight action. Leading scorers were Jerry Urness 13 and Mike Hartwick 9 for the winning Golds; Larry Tarras 19 and Ken Brommerich 8 for the losing W-K; Larry Larson 17 and Ray Spaulding 20 for the winning W-K team, and George Hubbard 11 and Doug Emanuel 10 for the Golds.

Trojans Shoot for National Title

USC-Irish, Army-Navy Tilts Climax Football

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California, attempting to nail down the national championship for the West Coast for the first time since 1939, goes against rebounding Notre Dame Saturday in the climax game on college football's wind-up weekend of the regular season.

The program also includes such tilts as the colorful, traditional Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia and closing action for national powers Mississippi, Alabama and Oklahoma.

Mississippi and Alabama are expected to announce acceptance of bids to the Sugar and Orange Bowls, respectively, immediately after their games, which would complete the line-up for the major post-season classics.

Southern Cal already has secured the Rose Bowl berth opposite Wisconsin, but must get past the Fighting Irish to complete an unblemished season and retain solid control of the No. 1 spot in the nation.

Should the Trojans falter — and they're one of the very, very few teams in the country to escape upset this season — it could seriously jeopardize their bid for the national title, which will be decided in next week's poll.

Wisconsin, the No. 2 team in the nation and the Big Ten champ, scored a 17-8 triumph over Notre Dame and the comparison with the Southern California result is inevitable. Wisconsin closed its season last week.

The Trojans rule a one-touchdown favorite to turn back the Irish, but a form reversal is a decided possibility.

Coach Joe Kuharich's lads from South Bend have stormed to four straight victories after a shaky start. They've piled up 119 points in rolling over Navy, Pitt, North Carolina and Iowa and have history in their favor. Notre Dame holds a 22-9-2 edge in the old series.

Southern Cal, winner of nine straight, is seeking its first unbeaten, untied season in 30 years and the first national title for the West Coast since the Trojans won it 23 years ago.

A crowd of about 85,000 is expected for the game in Los Angeles, while about 101,000 including President Kennedy are expected for the service classic in Philadelphia Stadium. The game also will get national television coverage (CBS, 12:30 p.m., Winona time).

Ruppert's Grocery, which two weeks ago stacked a 3,038 series and missed the season's record by nine pins, Thursday night smashed 3,066 in the Classic League at Westgate Bowl.

Shooting 1,046, 997 and 1,023, the Ruppert quint bettered the 3,047 of Del's Cafe by 19 sticks.

Leading the way was Al Ruppert with 608, Dick Nlemeyer, 603, and Jim Ruppert 601. Ray Ruppert, father of the two 600 shooters, rapped a seven-in-a-row 245 game in a 588 series and Jim Garry added a 534.

The Ruppert team also owns a 1,078 game which is seventh high in the city. That is a scratch total, too.

Meanwhile, the girls got into the act also as Hot Fish Shop turned in a 906 game, seventh high in the city, en route to a 2,580 in the Ladies League at the Winona Athletic Club. Marge McGuire posted 211-521 for Wally's Sweethearts.

ATHLETIC CLUB: Majorite — Rita Noeske totaled 191 for Jerry's Plumbers as the quintet rapped 651-2,451. Marcy Thimany clipped 437.

HAL-ROD LANES: Eaglet — Del Prondzinski belted 223-612 for second-ranked Eagles Club. Owl Motor smashed 970-2,779.

Powder Puff — Rita Rompa posted 183 for Marigold Dairies and Esther Pozanc clipped 522 for Watkins Products. Oasis Bar topped 909-2,542.

ST. MARTIN'S: Thursday Nite — William Becker smashed 187 and William Ramlin belted 502 for Clate's Mobil. The second-place quintet clipped 978-2,710.

RED MEN CLUB: Ladies — Irene Janikowski posted 467 for Winona Milk Her mates topped 852. Shirley Thels hit 180 for Leicht Press. Schmidt's Beer chalked 2,510.

Men's League Opens Sunday

Six teams will open play Sunday in the Park-Ree Men's City Basketball League at Winona High School gymnasium.

Watkins meets Bud's Bar at 5:15 p.m., National Guard faces Rollers at 6:30 p.m. and Merchants meets Westgate at 7:45 p.m.

Bud's is a new entry, succeeding Standard Oil of 1961-62. The merchants, still seeking a sponsor, are last year's Schaffer team.

Games will be played each Sunday at WIIS except for the Dec. 9 and Jan. 20 round which will be at Rollingstone due to a schedule conflict.

Players are restricted to those with residence in Winona or Goodview, College and high school varsity. "B" team, reserve teams or freshman team boys are not eligible.

No team may add players after Dec. 29.

Single elimination four-team playoffs will start Feb. 10 to determine the entry to the state recreation tournament at Faribault March 15, 16 and 17.

WSC Eyes Second Win

By AUGIE KARCHER
Daily News Sports Editor

Winona State College wastes no time getting into the swing of things basketball wise.

With an 82-63 victory already stashed away against Stout, the Warriors travel to Stevens Point tonight and then return home to entertain Platteville State at 8 p.m. Saturday at Memorial Hall.

The Warriors get five non-conference tests before the Northern States College Conference season opens Dec. 14 and Coach Bob Campbell is making the most of his opportunities to give his squad a real "shakedown" cruise.

THOUGH LIMITED to barely an hour of practice a day this week because of quarter-ending examinations, Campbell says "we haven't looked too rusty in practice." He won't know until Monday how his cagers did on the textbooks, but added "I don't expect any casualties."

Against the Pointers, the Warrior coach elected to start the same quartet that sparked the win over Stout.

That will have Bob James, 6-3, and Dick Pappentuss, 6-2, at forwards; Lyle Pappentuss, 6-4, at center, and Arlie Klinder, 6-2, and Mark Dilley, 5-8, in the back court.

Chuck Weisbrod, 6-4, and Jim Vinar, 6-5, are expected to see extended service with guards Bob Lieberman and Mike Leahy also due for early duty.

ROUNDING OUT the 12-man traveling team will be John Kelly, and freshmen Darrell Schuster and Clair Flaten. Another frosh, Gary Petersen, will miss the trip because of a bad chest cold.

Campbell expects to encounter a zone defense tonight and has spent some time this week on a zone attack. "We also have spent some time on offensive rebounding, where we have been weak," he added.

Flaten and Schuster have been developing fast, but still lack defensive ability. Schuster, a left-hander, gave the regulars fits in a mid-week drill as he simulated the Pointers' leading scorer.

FLATEN HAS demonstrated excellent play on the boards and the Big Nine scoring champion of last year hasn't had any trouble finding the basket in workouts.

Winona State also is busy on two other fronts this week-end. The Warrior tankers have scheduled a dual meet with Platteville at 5 p.m. Saturday at Memorial Hall and the Warrior Wrestlers invade Cedar Falls for an AAU tournament.

CAGE RULES EXAM MONDAY

A basketball rules examination will be given at 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 3, in Room 103 at Winona Senior High School.

All basketball officials and coaches are invited to take the exam, said Vic Gislason, Winona High director of athletics.

WINHAWKS FACE ROCKETS

Cotter, Regis Meet Tonight

Winona High vs. Rochester — in three different sports — and Cotter vs. Eau Claire Regis in basketball at St. Stan's provides Winona sports fans with their prep athletic menu for tonight.

The Winhawk basketball team travels to Rochester but the Hawk tankers meet the Rockets in the WHS pool at 7:30 p.m. and the wrestlers go to it at 8:30 p.m. in the WHS gym.

The Cotter-Eau Claire cage contest at 8 p.m. marks the home opener for Coach John Nett's Ramblers who have a 1-1 record by the margin of five points. Regis is 1-0, having beaten Altoona in its home opener Tuesday night.

COACH JOHN Kenney at Winona High will probably find a healthy Dave Dougherty facing the Winhawks. The 6-8 Rocket sophomore center has been having back trouble, but is expected to start in the Big Nine opener. He scored 14 points as Rochester whipped Stillwater 65-40 in its only game.

COACH VINCE Dowd, in his second year at Regis, has one returnee from 1961-62. He is 5-10 senior guard Pete Paveliski, who scored 142 points as Regis posted a 17-4 record.

With Paveliski will be Mike White, 5-7 junior. In the front line, Gary Rheingans, 6-4 sophomore, will start at center, and Gary Duffenbach, 6-0, and Dave O'Donahue, 6-2, will go at forwards.

Dowd also has high hopes for 6-2 junior forward Red McSorley and 5-5 sophomore guard Mike Schreier.

TEAM HOSTS WAKE FOREST

Gophers Start Run For Big Ten Title

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Wake Forest, one of the nation's top-ranked basketball powers the past two seasons, and Minnesota, a Big Ten also-ran in 1961-62 who has visions of making a run for the title this time, open their 1962-63 basketball season here Saturday night.

Wake Forest lost its all-everything star, Len Chappell, through graduation but Coach Bones McKinney returns three starters from a club that finished third in the NCAA playoffs last year, and five other lettermen.

The Deacons get back regulars Frank Christie, Dave Wiedeman and 6-10 center Bob Woolward.

Also returning are 6-7 Brad Brook 6-5 Richard Carmichael and Butch Hassel, Al Koehler and Ted Zawacki.

Coach John Kundla likely will go with two sophomores in his starting lineup as he shoots to get his Gopher cagers off to a fast start.

The yearlings who likely will start are 6-3 guard Terry Kunze of Duluth and 6-8 center Mel Northway of Minneapolis. Teaming with them will be three starters from last year, forwards Eric Magdanz (6-6) and Tom McGrann (6-7) and Guard Bob Bateman (6-2).

After Wake Forest, the Gophers catch Kansas State here Monday.

Stock Market Slips Lower, Trading Active

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices slipped lower early this afternoon after an irregular start. The market was active but not up to the pace of recent sessions. Changes of most key issues were extremely small. A few stocks were off a point and some of the wider movers a bit more. Most autos were off small fractions with Chrysler ahead a minimum fraction.

At noon The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .7 at 240.4 with industrials down 1.2, rails off .4 and utilities off .3.

Most major sections slipped into the minus column, including the rails which have been higher in almost every session of the last week or so.

Santa Fe, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific and Illinois Central were among the losers in the rails. No loss was as much as a point.

Eastman Kodak fell about 2 1/2. IBM suffered a 2-point drop. Polaroid and Xerox were down more than 1.

At noon the Dow Jones industrial average was off 3.43 at 649.18.

Republic fell nearly 1 1/2 among the steels. U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin were down fractions.

Other major groups showing a lower trend included rubbers, air-crafts, electronics, metals, oils and tobaccos.

Chemicals were mixed with Union Carbide and Allied Chemical advancing fractions.

Bond prices were irregular.
