Congress Unlimbering Slowly on New Program

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Congress pressed by President Johnson to cut taxes, enact civil rights legislation and war on poverty is unlimbering slowly. In a 41-minute State of the Union speech interrupted a record 80 times by applause, Johnson told the legislators Wednesday the nation can move forward under a new $97.9 billion budget to provide the greatest federal impetus to social welfare in history.

pledge of less spending and fewer federal employes was generally favorable. But it was tinged with bipartisan skepticism that the series of health, education, housing and job training programs he proposed could be carried out under a reduced budget.

Several Republicans predicted there would be a wide "performance gap" between what the President asked and Congress produces.

Urged by Johnson to move expeditiously, the Senate Finance Committee stepped up slightly the ponderous pace of its consideration of the House-passed $11 billion tax cut the President said is needed now "to keep the country moving."

It approved two provisions: a reduction in corporate rates from the current top of 52 percent to 50 percent for 1964 and to 48 percent in 1965; a minimum standard deduction of $200 for the taxpayer plus $100 for each exemption including himself.

But March 1 appears a better bet for completion of congressional action than the Feb. 1 date he spoke of.

The House Rules Committee already had scheduled a start of hearings today on the civil rights bill Johnson said poses a "moral issue."

The measure probably will reach the House floor early next month. Passage there would send it to the Senate, where it would have to await disposition of the tax bill.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., an old political ally, put Johnson on notice that he will face an all-out fight from Southern Democrats determined to try to filibuster the measure to death in the Senate.

Discuss Academic Freedom

Rosen, Sibley Go 'Round, 'Round

By GERRY NELSON
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — St. Paul City Commissioner Milton Rosen asked a question and got an answer Wednesday — otherwise he and Prof. Mulford Q. Sibley found little common cause in what turned into a debate on Sibley's qualifications to be a teacher.

The match was billed as a pair of speeches, and answers to audience questions, on the subject: "The Nature and Limits of Academic Freedom."

Sibley denied he is a Communist, but Rosen said the University of Minnesota professor speaks "in the same tone" as communist leaders.

Sibley declared there can be no limitations on man's search for truth; Rosen said academic responsibility must go with freedom and said tax support should be prohibited for those who take the side of socialism, nudism and atheism.

It wasn't exactly a debate — each man spoke for 15 minutes to a packed house in the student union ballroom at the university, then answered written questions from the audience.

In applause, Sibley was an easy winner. He was greeted by a 30-second burst of applause from the predominantly student audience, was frequently interrupted with handclapping, and left to standing applause.

Rosen spoke first and took Sibley to task for advocating that every college campus contain the seeds of dissent — individuals and clubs espousing everything from atheism and free love to communism.

He called socialism a "password for pinks," labeled opponents of automation enemies of progress, linked Sibley with Communist Party secretary Gus Hall, and said the professor has been quoted in the Communist Daily Worker.

Rain, Snow Hit Broad Areas of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain, rain mixed with snow and snow hit broad areas in the eastern two-thirds of the nation today and colder air from the west spread east and southward from the Rockies.

A storm centered in the lower Mississippi Valley spread moist air from the Gulf inland, causing heavy rain in the southeastern quarter of the nation. Amounts ranged from more than one to three inches in parts of the rain belt.

Light snow and rain mixed with snow splashed across wide sections of the Midwest. The cold air, which dropped temperatures below zero in parts of Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, and the Dakotas, headed eastward across the upper Great Lakes and the northern half of the Mississippi Valley.

Vance to Take Gilpatric's Defense Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roswell L. Gilpatric's long-expected resignation as deputy secretary of defense was accepted today and President Johnson is naming Secretary of the Army Cyrus R. Vance to the post.

The White House also announced that Vance will be succeeded in his Army job by Stephen Ailes, who has been undersecretary of the Army since February 1961.

Gilpatric's resignation will be effective Jan. 20.

Brush Fire in Malibu Canyon

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — A brush fire whipped by strong winds broke out on the west side of Malibu Canyon this morning and forced the evacuation of residents in the Malibu Knolls area.

Men and equipment rushed to fight the blaze that quickly swept 10 acres and was out of control.

The district is not far from the beach where movie colony personalities have many lavish homes.

Fire Capt. Carl Salih said the fire started in a dwelling and spread to brush.

Firemen sent northeast winds of 15 miles per hour were blowing down the canyon.

McNamara Hits Missile Charge By Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara accused Sen. Barry Goldwater today of damaging national security and being politically irresponsible in saying that U.S. long-range missiles are not reliable.

McNamara's statement of reply was read to reporters by Asst. Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester.

It said: "Sen. Goldwater's reported statement that the U.S. long-range missiles are not dependable is completely misleading, politically irresponsible, and damaging to the national security."

"There is no information, classified or otherwise, to support the false implication that our long-range missiles cannot be depended upon to accomplish their mission."

"The importance of the long-range missiles to the defense of this country and the evaluation of their effectiveness by our leading military authorities is indicated by the strong support given by the Joint Chiefs of Staff to the missile program."

Watch Posts Planned by U.S., Russia

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is drafting a proposal for a system of international military observation posts to be set up on both sides of the Iron Curtain in Europe as a safeguard against surprise attack.

It is understood officials are thinking about proposing 20 to 30 posts on each side at key transportation centers where unusual military activity by either Soviet or U.S. forces might be detected.

President Johnson announced in his State of the Union message Wednesday that "we shall make new proposals" on disarmament issues when the 17-nation disarmament conference reopens negotiations at Geneva in two weeks.

Work is going forward on the proposals in the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency under the immediate direction of William C. Foster, agency director. He is expected to head the U.S. delegation in the new round of negotiations beginning Jan. 21.

Officials have said the U.S. proposals will deal with familiar issues in new ways which they hope will enlarge the possibility of agreement with the Soviet Union.

Meanwhile, disarmament experts of the United States, Britain, Canada, and Italy are undertaking consultations aimed at coordinating their policies. France, whose chair in the conference is empty because President Charles de Gaulle decided not to participate, is an observer in the consultations.

The Western Allies form one bloc in the Geneva conference. Eastern European Communist countries another and a group of smaller nations the third.

Faribault Boy To Go on Trial Feb. 10

FARIBAULT, Minn. (AP) — Raymond Van Straaten, 17, will go to trial Feb. 10 for first degree murder in the slaying of Rolene Madison, also 17, his one-time high school sweetheart.

Judge John F. Cahill set the date late Wednesday after denying a defense motion that Van Straaten be given psychiatric examinations before facing a jury.

Also turned down was a plea by Arthur Ogle, Mankato, attorney for the youth, that his client be treated in a mental hospital.

Herbert J. Cook, Rice County attorney, told Judge Cahill that neither motion was necessary because Faribault High School officials had informed him Van Straaten had caused no trouble in classes and had been drawing marks of C-minus.

Sheriff Charles Carver said the youth had been orderly and quiet in a jail cell here since his arrest Nov. 23.

Leslie Hammond, 17, already has pleaded guilty to a murder charge in the girl's death and started serving up to 40 years in St. Cloud Reformatory. The state charges Van Straaten strangled Miss Madison as she pleaded with him to marry her because she had become pregnant.

Barry Flays 'Hate Theme'

By WALTER R. MEARS
PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater accused President Johnson today of unwittingly enlisting in a leftist attack on American conservatives by charging that an atmosphere of hate was behind the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Goldwater called it "that hate theme" and said it is the "most, overdone, the most untruthful attack in the history of this country."

The Arizona senator, campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, said he "was sorry to see that Mr. Johnson felt he had to resurrect the hate theme in referring to President Kennedy's assassination" in the State of the Union message Wednesday.

He said that is the theme stressed by Communists and radical columnists.

Goldwater also accused Johnson of tricky talk on federal spending.

"This Congress is truly economy minded," he said. "His administration is not."

In a three-page critique of Johnson's message to Congress, he said the administration budget estimate of $97.9 billion actually means a spending increase of several billion dollars.

"The trick is that President Johnson is using the requested estimated figures of the Kennedy budget rather than the figures actually authorized by Congress," Goldwater said.

The Arizona senator said actual spending during the current fiscal year will total about $95 billion dollars. He said Congress has voted obligation authority for about $103 billion, so Johnson's request for $103.9 billion also is several billion dollars over the figure for the year ending next June 30.

Dealing with the Kennedy assassination comments, Goldwater said "to simply say that it was an act of hate is an attempt to obscure the real issue."

He told a news conference that there is "an attack that was started immediately after the trigger was pulled, against the conservative people in this country."

He said the assassin "was a product of the sort of halo

Mastrian Trial Set for Duluth

ST. PAUL (AP) — The trial of Norman Mastrian, accused of the go-between in the Carol Thompson murder, today was ordered transferred from St. Paul to Duluth.

District Judge John W. Graf granted the petition of attorneys for Mastrian.

The former boxer faces a charge of first degree murder. He is accused of hiring the killer of Mrs. Thompson.

Judge Graf said in his order, filed in District Court today, that he followed the basic reasoning laid down by the Minnesota Supreme Court when it ordered a change in venue in the T. Eugene Thompson case.

Thompson, a St. Paul lawyer and husband of the murder victim, won a change of venue to Minneapolis. Thompson's counsel claimed their client could not obtain a fair trial in St. Paul because of adverse publicity.

Thompson, accused of engineering the slaying, was convicted of first degree murder and is serving a life sentence at Stillwater Prison.

The trial date will be set by St. Louis County District Court. Judge J. K. Underhill of Duluth said earlier this week, that if the trial was moved there, it probably would be on the January court calendar.

The jury is scheduled to report Jan. 20 and criminal cases have priority on the calendar. District judges will meet to determine which judge will hear the case.

Nixon to Make 'Any Sacrifice'

By JULES LOH
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Richard M. Nixon, apparently detecting growing sentiment that he should run again for president, says he is "willing to do everything necessary" to see to it the Republicans nominate their most popular and best qualified man this fall.

He insists there has been no change in his position that he is not a candidate, but it was his first indication that events might put him in this year's race.

"I will make any decisions in the future," he said in an interview, "based on my primary conviction that it is vital to get new leadership for this country and that the Republican party must nominate its strongest man."

"I will say this—and I haven't said it before—I will make any sacrifice to see that that is done."

The former vice president, who is 51 years old today, became a partner Jan. 1 in a New York law firm now named Nixon, Mudge, Rose, Guthrie & Alexander.

"It is a lucrative position for me," he said, "and some believe I wouldn't take any more risks. That's bunk."

Goldwater said the Johnson message implies "that we are probably engaged in unilateral disarmament."

He said the message told Congress "that we are deliberately going to cut down on military strength because the Communists might regard it as provocative if we are too strong."

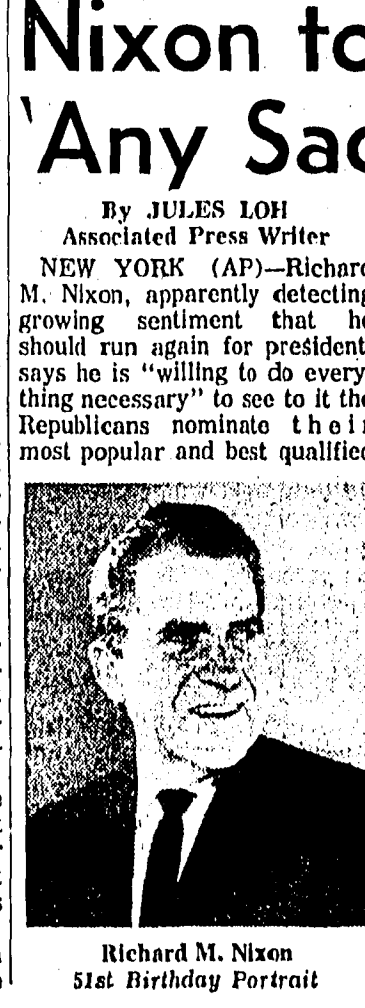

The senator said cuts in defense spending would put too much reliance on the nation's missile forces. He said intercontinental ballistic missiles are not reliable.

"I can tell you that, and I'll probably catch hell for it," he said.

Goldwater said Wednesday Johnson "outliberated every liberal since 1932" in his message to Congress.

"I didn't think he could do it but he did," said Goldwater, campaigning in New Hampshire for the Republican presidential nomination.

Today, Goldwater completes the opening stint of what he says will be at least a 19-day campaign for the state's March 10 presidential primary.

Idaho Miner Rescued From Deep Shaft

MACKAY, Idaho (AP)—Stanley Johnson, a miner trapped for 27 hours in a 12-by-6-foot cubicle 1,158 feet underground, was rescued Wednesday.

He was cold, tired and a little weak—the temperature in the underground cell was around 40 degrees—but otherwise okay.

Taken to a hospital in nearby Arco, the doctors looked him over, gave him food and sent him to bed.

Custer County Sheriff Glen Reed who drove Johnson, 38, a bachelor, to the hospital said, "He didn't have much to say. He was pretty cold but had enough room to keep moving around in there so he could keep from freezing."

Justice of the Peace Art Wright of Mackay said "they got him out by drilling a series of holes through a partition from another shaft, then chipping out the area between the holes. They couldn't blast because of the cave-in danger."

Man Who Shot Cow for Bear To Pay $250

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—That cow he shot and killed, thinking it was a bear, is going to cost Eugene L. Lind, Rush City, a total of $250.

The slaughtered animal happened to be part of the herd of John Rowe of Saginaw. But Lind said it looked just like a bruin when he fired at it over the headlights of his car.

Mistake or not, Judge Thomas Bejold ordered Lind to pay a $100 fine for destroying private property, another $150 to reimburse Rowe who, incidentally, also got to keep the carcass.

Cong. Baker of Tennessee Dead

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Rep. Howard H. Baker, Republican congressman from Tennessee's 2nd District and a member of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, died Tuesday of a heart attack.

Baker, 61, was stricken in the bathroom at his home as he was shaving. Mrs. Baker found her husband and summoned an ambulance. Baker was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Relatives said Baker had no previous record of a heart condition.

Bjornson Puts State Debt at $232,838,000

ST. PAUL (AP)—Minnesota borrowed more than $123 million last year but state debt saw a net increase of only about $53 million at year's end, State Treasurer Val Bjornson said Wednesday.

Bjornson's semiannual financial statement, listing state debt at $232,838,000, said: "The reason for this rather unusual situation is that just about $49 million of our borrowing was in refunding issues, sold on the open bond market to pay off certificates of indebtedness held in our own funds."

The treasurer said Minnesota evaded its archaic $250,000 debt limit for years by continuing the practice of "borrowing from ourselves"—issuing debt certificates and placing them in one invested fund or another.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1962 eliminated the 1958 debt limit.

The new bond issues of the past year included $29.3 million in the re-enacted 1961 building program and nearly $34 million in a 1963 construction program at state facilities.

Also, there was an aeronautics issue of $6.6 million, of which $4.5 million went for re-financing of older obligations, and an issue of $12.8 million went for the maximum-effort school funds, of which $3.8 million was for re-financing.

The big refunding issue was for $40.6 million, sold last December at an interest rate of just over 2.98 per cent.

Comparisons between the year-end debt figures for 1962 and 1963 show Minnesota Seaway Property Conservation certificates dropping from $3.6 million to $334,000, as the state's contribution to the Duluth port.

Romney Asks Record Budget For Michigan

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Gov. George Romney, citing what he called a "booming" economy in Michigan, asked the state legislature today to approve spending a record $624 million next fiscal year.

Romney, 56, who has announced he would accept a draft for the Republican presidential nomination, proposed the 1964-65 budget in a "state of the state" message to the legislature. His proposal is $74 million more than the present budget of $550 million.

The program is designed to meet two basic objectives, Romney said: "To protect and enlarge human rights, and to serve human needs."

Romney planned to deliver the message to the legislature at 11 a.m. (EST). The text of his message was made public before hand.

Michigan's Republican-controlled legislature, which turned down Romney's fiscal reform program last year, received proposals from Romney for increased spending on mental health and for higher education. Romney said he would propose no new taxes. He made no mention of fiscal reform.

Romney called for greater spending on grounds of what he called Michigan's improved financial picture which he attributed to accomplishments in his first year in office.

$50 Million Savings Seen In Uranium Cut

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration calculates that its cutback in production of nuclear weapon raw material will save about $50 million in the next fiscal year, more later — and eventually end several thousand jobs.

The cutback was announced Wednesday by President Johnson in his State of the Union message and explained to newsmen later by Chairman Glenn T. Seaborg of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Other highly placed officials discussed the strategic and political implications of the announced 25 per cent reduction in the output of enriched uranium and the closing of four plutonium plants. They said stocks of U.S. nuclear weapons had increased 50 per cent in the past three years, making the uranium cutback possible.

Seaborg said four of the AEC's 14 plutonium producing reactors will be shut down — three at the Hanford, Wash., plant and one at the Savannah River plant near Aiken, S.C.

Three of the nine plutonium reactors at Hanford and one of the five at Savannah River will be closed down.

"Budgetary savings of about $50 million in fiscal year 1965 will result," Seaborg said. "A total of about 2,900 contractor positions will be affected."

Approximately 2,500 of the total jobs affected will be at the Hanford and Savannah plants, with the remainder apparently in the uranium processing plants.

Tunisia Now Has Kennedy Street

CARTHAGE, Tunisia (AP)—A crowd of Tunisians cheered Tuesday when a street of this ancient town was named after the late President Kennedy.

The Rue Eshmoun, the puny god of help and rescue, became Rue Kennedy in a brief ceremony at which Cultural Minister Chedly Klibi presided.

Weekend Prospects

With a drop in temperature toward zero forecast for the weekend, fishermen do not expect any marked improvement in river fishing. Most fishermen rate it as "slow" during the last couple of days. Crappies have replaced sunfish as the most common fish being caught in the shallow backwaters.

Up to the present week, however, reports indicated that fishing has been good. Some areas were heavily fished. "There were more fishermen on Spring Lake, Buffalo City, than during the opening of ice fishing in recent years," Stanley Apel, Buffalo County warden, reports. It has been slow here this week.

The fish are probably resting up for the annual Buffalo County Conservation Clubs' contest which will be held here Sunday. This event is one of the big contests of the year and is sponsored jointly by all the rod and gun clubs in the county. An advance sale of tickets is now under way. Top prizes this year consist of quarters of beef, half hogs, and other useful items.

Walleye fishing below the dams in open water so far has not been too productive. Some walleyes and quite a lot of sauger have been caught at the lower end of Lake Pepin. There has been quite a lot of fishing also in the immediate Lake City area of Lake Pepin.

Minnesota Hunting
The sole purpose in announcing the opening dates of the 1964 Minnesota hunting season so early, Wayne Olson, conservation commissioner, says, is that hunters may arrange their hunting vacations. Here are these opening dates:

Deer, bow and arrow, Oct. 3; firearms, Nov. 7; pheasants, Oct. 24; and grouse, ruffed and sharp-tail, Sept. 26. All opening dates are Saturdays.

Other opening dates include squirrels, Sept. 12; rabbits, Sept. 29; and raccoon hunting only Oct. 3. The late bow and arrow season is scheduled to open Nov. 28.

Here and There
A commercial fishing meeting is scheduled to be held at Pepin shortly to discuss the new Wisconsin commercial fishing processing and sanitation code. The opening public hearing will be at Madison Monday. In connection with this move, the Wisconsin Fisheries Council, representing 65 firms of commercial fishermen, was organized in Milwaukee the other evening.

Thirty-six bald eagles were counted on the ice between Alma and Wabasha during the recent bird count.

Two Dead in Madison Falls

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Two men plunged to their deaths in Madison Tuesday, one from his hospital room, and the other from the ninth floor of a hotel.

The body of Dr. Eugene Pischke, 43, of Baraboo, was found on the ground below his fifth floor room in University Hospitals. Deputy Dane Clyde Chamberlain Jr. ruled the physician's death a suicide.

Army Lt. James Littell, 24, of Park Ridge, Ill., was found on the roof of a low section of a downtown hotel. He had plunged seven floors from his room. Chamberlain said the death was accidental and probably occurred when Littell lost his balance while trying to open a window.

Littell, stationed at Colorado Springs, Colo., and was in Madison for a job interview.

U.S. Army Air Defense Center, where he is receiving on the job training on the Hawk Missile System. He is a graduate of Canton High School.

Sgt. I.C. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson and family are spending his furlough at the home of his mother, Mrs. Norman Halvorson. He has been stationed in Hawaii and has been reassigned to Lafayette, Ind.

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special) — The address of Russell B. Briggs, RM5N, is: USS Annapolis, (AGMR-1) Box Section, Hampton Roads Branch, Norfolk, Va. He is the son of Mrs. Irene Briggs.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has had amazing luck. It was as if the rest of the world agreed to take a holiday from the news so he could get the biggest possible, unchallenged front-page play. And he did.

And he's been free of the anguish that comes from dealing with Congress except for a brief hurly-burly with absent members when he twisted their arms to get them back to vote on foreign aid just before Christmas.

So he had the field pretty much to himself to make announcements and pronouncements. This was bound to end, like all good things, as it is ending now with Congress.

Wednesday Congress got his State of the Union message in which he offered something for practically everyone. One derisive Republican called it a "cut-rate utopia."

There's nothing unusually ominous about that since it's just about what some Republican says every year when a Democratic president outlines his program.

But Johnson offered so much in so many fields that even a much harder working Congress than this one, which wants to get home fast for the 1964 elections, would pass only a fraction of his programs.

He knew before he proposed them that, unless he fought for them, he would be accused of making only an empty political gesture. So he can be expected to fight. But it takes two to fight.

So from now on he will have to share much of the news with Congress. But that's only a start.

The rest of the world, after being almost hush-hush for weeks, will have to return to normal with its murders, arson, riots, tensions, conflicts, confusions and usual insanities. That's more competition for Johnson, starting any day now. Shortly after President Kenne-

DEAR ABBY:

She's Interested in Mail, Not Male

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a mail carrier and some of the stories he tells me about the women he sees on his route would curl your hair. He says some of them answer the door in their bathrobes at two o'clock in the afternoon! And he has seen some appear in thin, see-through nylon dust-ers. Anyway, he says he sure wishes they would cover up as they are disgraceful! I was taught to dress up in the morning, with undergarments, hosiery, shoes and a fresh house dress. And, believe me, I wasn't trying to tempt the mail carrier, either. Please print this so the guilty ones will see it and take the hint.

MAIL CARRIER'S WIFE

Abby

DEAR WIFE: I doubt if the average housewife has any intention of carrying away the mail carrier. It's her MAIL she's interested in — not your MALE.

DEAR ABBY: Is it proper to thank people at the grave for having come to a funeral? My little niece passed away last week. She was only two years old. The funeral was small in attendance, but very lovely. When we were all leaving the cemetery, the child's grandmother went around to all the people she knew and said, "Thank you for coming." This is the first time I have ever heard of THANKING people for attending a funeral. Wasn't she out of order?

SIMPLE QUESTION

DEAR SIMPLE: I see nothing wrong with thanking those she knew for attending the funeral. And if you do, you appear to have dug uncommonly deep to find fault.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going steady with a nice man for six months and he wants me to meet his people. He says his mother wants me to come for dinner. I am 28 and he is 32. When I go to his house for dinner for the first time, should I offer to help his mother with the dishes afterwards? I have never met his mother or father.

NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: If his mother has no help in the kitchen and it is apparent that she must do her own cleaning up, by all means offer to help.

DEAR ABBY: Just a comment on the letter from the mother of a fifth grader who wanted a garter belt and nylon stockings. My 12-year-old son is a born conformist. In the fifth grade he started giving me this "But, Mom, everybody else is..." business. I broke him of the habit by answering, "Fine. Give me a list of all the boys and I'll call their mothers and see what they say." Naturally, I was never given the name of one boy. And that put a stop to it.

State Fair Gains Reported

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota State fair showed record receipts during its 10-day run last fall and produced record operating gain, John E. Libby, secretary-general manager, reported to the State Agricultural Society Monday.

Receipts for the fiscal year ended Nov. 30 totaled $1,730,073.64, Libby said. Operating gains reached $279,704.24, despite record operating costs.

Libby gave his report at the 105th meeting of the society, parent organization of the fair. Previous record receipts of $1,567,016.93 came in 1962 and the best prior operating gain was $252,795.38 in 1950.

Operating costs in 1963 totaled $1,597,859.11, compared with the previous high of $1,510,537.71 in 1962. Largest single cost item was $247,652.17 for 1963 premiums.

The official 1963 attendance was 1,181,845, second only to 1958 when turnstiles registered 1,193,661 admissions.

Same Couple Wed 5 Times

DENVER (AP)—Oswald Lyman has reached retirement age but instead of retiring "he just makes excuses," his wife complained Tuesday.

Mrs. Lyman, 69, was granted a divorce. But only after she had promised Dist. Judge Sherman G. Finesilver that she wouldn't marry Lyman again. The couple has been married five times.

Cuban Minister To Help Farmers

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuba's minister of industry will lead cane cutters into Camaguey Province's sugar fields next month, Havana Radio said Wednesday.

(Che) Guevara is scheduled to head a brigade of 1,000 volunteer machete-wielders.

The broadcast, monitored in Miami, said labor unions in Camaguey are contributing 4,000 volunteers to cut and load sugar cane during the harvest; now getting under way.

New Fashions Expensive, Hard to Do-It-Yourself

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Being a clothes horse is an expensive proposition for the average - income woman.

This became more self-evident to newswomen here for Press Week activities with each of Monday's shows arranged by the New York Couture Group and the American Designers.

Although no more extravagant than last year, couturier designs still are astronomically out of reach of all but one of every 1,000 women.

The styles, even reproduced at ready-to-wear prices, will require larger wardrobes. The woman who sews her own will find that design piracy is difficult. If she does acquire the garments, she will spend a mint pawning them out of the dry cleaners.

In place of the basic dress that nobody quite remembers are unforgettable costumes in screaming color combinations and bold, attention-demanding patterns. Both Adele Simpson and Donald Brooks made use of these in their collections. Naturally, a woman needs more of these, since the same shouting costume wears on the memory.

Further, shouting fabric linings in jackets and coats, match up with blouses or dresses, and a new coat for every dress is a strain on anybody's budget.

The semi-fitted suit is not as easy to make as last year's box jacket, Harry Fretel explained to the writers, showing a variety of such silk and men's wear worsted suits. Bias-cut dresses, miserable to fit and sew unless you are a professional, were among the challenges offered by designers Brooks and Roxanne of Samuel Winston. Models floated on stage in romantic chiffon clouds, all bias cut, and a small fortune in yardage alone.

New Wedding Story Policy Rules Repeated for Brides

Readers of the Winona Daily News women's pages are respectfully asked to comply with changes being made in publishing wedding stories.

Because of the wide area now covered by the Daily News and the consequent increase in the number of weddings in this area, it has become necessary to compress wedding stories and to tighten up the deadline time for submitting weddings and wedding pictures.

In the future the description of the bridal gown will be brief, since the accompanying picture tells the story of how it is made. Names of those who assist at the reception will only be listed, not what each one does (such as pours punch, cuts the cake, etc.)

Details that will be omitted are: Description of decorations; what jewelry the bride and her attendants wore, and other facts that are apt to be about the same at every wedding.

Wedding stories that come into this office later than 10 days after the wedding date will contain only the basic facts — names of the bride and bridegroom, their parents, minister, attendants, time and place of the wedding and reception, where the bridal couple went for a wedding trip, where they are making their home, where they attended school and where they are employed.

Pictures will be printed with stories, if they reach this office within the 10-day period. Those submitted after 10 days will be made smaller and will be printed with only a brief caption beneath and no story. Pictures received after three weeks cannot be used. Brides are asked to insist that photographers get the glossy prints to the Daily News as early as possible.

Hutchins-Stendahl Auxiliary Meets

A campaign is being started to have a flag purchased for every home in the community.

Plans were completed for the Jan. 20 Bloodmobile canteen, and for blood donors solicitation. Cash donations are being requested for the supper to be served to workers at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church during the Bloodmobile visit. Donations are to be left with Miss Helen Fjeld at the Whitehall Hardware store. Members bringing food are asked to have it at the church by 1 p.m.

Mrs. Wilfred Fontana is general chairman of the bloodmobile visit, and Mrs. Willis Briggs is in charge of the canteen.

So HELP Me

by Fran

How many of you feel that now the Holidays are over — a NEW YEAR — a NEW YOU — but let's keep all of the good parts we have! It does seem, however, that during all of the hustle and bustle there is always something else to think of other than beauty up-keep — does your hair need attention? — why not use some of your Christmas money to buy a good new hair brush, and then resolve to use it every day, to make your hair shine and get back some of the life it lost with the use of too much hair spray — isn't it nice that hair styles have changed so that we can all use spray a bit more sensibly!

Another thing neglected is usually our hands! If you want to keep them really soft and lovely make a resolution to use a good hand cream after every time you have your hands in water. This is the last month for the DOROTHY GRAY HORMONE HAND CREAM Special, and it is WONDERFUL — if you have never tried it you are missing a good thing! For all over body use the companion item of Dorothy Gray Dry Skin Lotion is a favorite for all the family.

This is the weather for dry flaky skin on legs and feet — do you notice such dry spots on the backs of the heels? Buy PRETTY FEET — the lotion entirely different than anything else on the market — one application and the dryness all flakes away — amazing — with use after each bath on the bottoms of the feet there will be no more callouses — and that's a promise.

If you want to do something about those nails that have become a bit unsightly — let us help you when you come in Brown Drug. We have suggestions for each step of a good manicure — there are so many little pointers that will help to keep the nails strong and pretty.

As for the new you and make-up — each of you is an individual case, and again let us give you that individual help — it is fun to find just the right thing for you, and not buy just because it is an item highly advertised and perhaps doesn't fit your needs.

Last but not least — why not have a new fragrance — have you tried LANVIN'S new Natural Spray? — so much more for your money.

Have fun in the New Year — come see us at Brown Drug — browse — see all of the pretty items we have.

Watch for this column every Thursday.

Toastmistresses Conduct Semi-Final Speech Contest

Mrs. Ralph Kohner and Mrs. Irvin Teasdale were chosen as winners in the semi-final speech contest of the Winona Toastmistress club held Tuesday at Hotel Winona. Titles of their speeches were: "Grandma's Little Children" selected by Mrs. Kohner and "Our Greatest Defense" by Mrs. Teasdale.

A second group of speakers will compete Feb. 4 when eight members will take part in the second elimination contest. Mrs. Robert Ramonda, president, announced the final local contest date as Feb. 18 at Hotel Winona. Five speakers will participate. The winner will represent Winona at the Council No. 1 competition scheduled for April.

IT IS traditional for all members of the Winona club to speak in the annual contest regardless of whether or not each is eligible to compete at a higher level. This participation provides a rewarding experience for everyone and lends interest and opportunity to demonstrate skills she has acquired and learns of the areas in which she needs improvement.

Mrs. Henry Langowski presented a brief lesson on "Microphone Technique" demonstrating the correct way to use the instrument.

"Advice to Contestants" was the title of an educational feature by Mrs. Lambert Hamerski. Last year's contest winner, Mrs. Anthony Chelmoski, now of Chula Vista, Calif., and Mrs. John Somers who represented the Winona club in 1962, furnished valuable information to aid members in the preparation and delivery of contest type speeches.

A READING was given by Mrs. F. M. McShane whose topic "One Twin Too Many" dealt with redundant phrases. Miss Katherine Wasnoska read an article titled "The Art of Poor Speaking."

The inspiration was given by Mrs. Teasdale, the humorous note by Mrs. Robert Ramonda, the pledge by Mrs. McShane and the thought-for-the-day by Mrs. Kohner. The contest committee for this meeting included Mrs. Addison Glubka, chairman, toastmistress for the evening; Miss Wasnoska, timer; Mrs. F. A. Lipinski, chief of tellers assisted by Mrs. Hamerski and Mrs. Ramonda.

Three subjects for the four to five minute talks were assigned by the chairman 48 hours in advance. Each member was instructed to select a subject and then choose a title for her speech.

Mrs. Ramonda said names of judges for the final contest will be announced early in February.

First Baptist Church Women Study World Council of Churches

Members of First Baptist Church Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Calvin Blumentritt Wednesday. Mrs. Harold Reed presided at the meeting.

"Lord of the Church," a program on the World Council of Churches was presented by Mrs. M. Reed, Glee Sulack, Russell Dacken and Milton Lueck.

In Paul's letter to the Corinthians, divisions of faith began to appear. As time went on these divisions increased, it was pointed out. In the United States there are more divisions than in any other country in the world.

A movement toward unity began in overseas missions where missionaries from many denominations carry the gospel into all parts of the world. Missionaries found people ready to respond to the idea of loving God, and a Christ who brought love and hope, but couldn't understand the different "kinds" of Christians and many denominations the speakers said.

At the same time churches at home faced problems due to lack of unity. The solution to all this called for a united front. The World Council of Churches grew out of problems common to all churches. Through the World Council of Churches grew

Every Woman Queen For a Day in Greece

MOMOCISSIA, Greece (AP)—It's ladies' day today in Momocissia, and the males of the northern Greek village don't dare show their faces outdoors. Once a year Aristophanes' ancient comedy, "The Women in Politics," comes to life here. From sunrise to sunset, just as in the play, women rule.

They impose their opinions in all civic and family matters. Only they can go out in the streets. Only they can sit in cafes, normally their husbands' sacred haven, and sip coffee, play cards and smoke.

The men must cook, wash, tend the children, clean house and sew. Any male caught outdoors is stripped naked and doused with cold water.

With sunset comes there's a big spree in the village tavern. Meanwhile, papa is home, weary and ready to retire.

COME-AS-A-ROSE . . . Admiring the centerpiece at the Winona Rose Society's annual dinner are four members who won prizes. From left are Mrs. Henry Langenberg, who correctly guessed the most representations of roses; Mrs. A.

H. Maze, who came as a Pink Favorite Rose; Dr. C. A. Rohrer, dressed as a clown and representing Circus Rose; and Mrs. James Foster, who represented two roses, Nocturne and Good News. (Daily News photo)

Winona Rose Society Members Attend Annual Banquet as Roses

By JEAN HAGEN
Daily News Women's Editor

Sixty-three roses kept each other guessing Wednesday night for a couple of hours. They were not the floricultural kind, but people representing roses at the annual Come-As-A-Rose banquet at the Winona Rose Society in Richards Hall Cafeteria, Winona State College.

Dr. C. A. Rohrer won top prize as Circus Rose. He was in a clown suit with a funny headdress.

Mrs. James Foster was second. Her complicated representation was actually two roses—Nocturne and Good News. She wore a beribboned nightgown for the first and a "Happy New Year" tiara and a funny false nose for the second, explaining that she gained so much weight over Christmas that she thought she should be two roses.

TIED FOR THIRD were Mrs. A. H. Maze, Mrs. O. C. Tillman and Tim Morris. Their ballot cards were shuffled and Mrs. Maze won. She was Pink Favorite, dressed in a charming pink frock and pink-rose trimmed picture hat.

A popular vote to determine the winners was taken at the close of the evening after members had studied each others' outfits and kept scores on attractive rose-covered score cards.

Mrs. Henry Langenberg had the most correct guesses (34). Mrs. Karl Lipsohn was second (28) and Mrs. Oscar Tillman, third (26). Mrs. Lipsohn won the attendance prize, the head table centerpiece of baby pink roses, carnations, stock and small mums.

AMONG the amusing and clever get-ups were a headdress of New Yorker magazine covers, for New Yorker Rose; four lumps of sugar on a lace paper doilie as a corsage, for Sweet Adeline Rose (on a woman named Adeline); a torn piece of pink paper, worn like a corsage, for Pink Peace Rose; magazine covers of pretty girls, worn like a sandwich board, for Cover Girl Rose; four white doves with their wings spread on a headdress, for White Wings Rose.

Archie McGill, society president, was master of ceremonies and introduced the special guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hasinger and Mrs. Jean Hagen. Mrs. Curtis Rohrer gave a humorous reading, entitled, "Why We Should Not Grow Roses." Oscar Lindstrom also gave a funny talk, a rambling discourse mostly about exaggerated finances of the Rose Society.

AN ATTRACTIVE table display, including a handsome hand-lettered placard, "American Rose Society," made by the membership chairman, Mrs. Foster; a single American Beauty rose in a bud vase; the framed charter of the Winona Rose Society; and books and pamphlets, was for the purpose of encouraging the local members to join the national organization.

Mmes. Clarence Tribell and J. O. Reinhard were chairmen of the dinner party. In charge of the punch bowl, where delicious hot hors d'oeuvres were served with pink punch, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore. On the host committee were Mrs. A. F. Bowman, James Foster and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rohrer. Others on the committees were Mrs. Mmes. Syrus Johnson, Archie McGill, James Foster and Hiram Bohn.

New chairmen recently appointed by the president are Arthur Moore, garden visitation; Mrs. Robert Callahan, Proof of the Pudding; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Risser, program; Mrs. R. M. Stephan, publicity. Mrs. Foster continues as membership chairman. Francis Jilk is Society representative on the Citizens Advisory Board; and Dr. Rohrer is permanent chairman of the Memorial Gardens.

Boned beef rump roast may be braised in the oven. Use a moderate temperature, a covered pan and a small amount of braising liquid, adding more as necessary. Count on at least three hours cooking time for a roast that weighs four pounds.

Lewiston Farm Gets Highest Holstein Award

LEWISTON, Minn. — C. H. Mueller and Sons, Lewiston, have qualified for the Progressive Breeders' Award—the highest recognition attainable by a breeder of registered Holstein cattle.

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has accorded this honor to only 533 Holstein breeding establishments in the entire nation. The Muellers are the ninth Minnesota recipients.

The quality for the award, a Holstein breeder must meet strict requirements in all phases of dairy cattle breeding and management, including production, type improvement, herd health and development of home-bred animals.

The Mueller herd completed its latest Herd Improvement Registry testing year with a lactation average—calculated on a two milkings a day, 305-day mature equivalent basis—on 103 individual records of 14,173 pounds of milk and 529 pounds of butterfat.

The herd has also been officially classified for type with a breed average of 102.9 percent—obtained by dividing the classification score of each cow by the average score of all registered Holstein cows of the same age.

Applicants Asked For IFYE Plan

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Five or six months abroad, living and working with foreign families and making enduring international friendships are being offered to Minnesota rural youths.

Rural young people, 20-30 years old are urged to make long range plans and investigate becoming an International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) delegate in 1965.

The purposes of the IFYE program, says Francis Januschka, Houston County agent, is to increase international understanding at the grass roots level. Delegates from the United States learn about life in foreign lands by actually living the way their people do, by working with them on their farms.

Candidates for the program must be mature young people with a farm background and at least a high school education. They must be in excellent mental and physical health. They should be ready to spend considerable time on language study and in intensive advance study of the geography, history, culture and agriculture of both the U.S. and the country they will visit.

Upon return home, IFYE delegates speak to various groups about their experiences in their host countries. Additional information of the IFYE program may be obtained from the county extension office. Application forms will be available in May.

Last year Minnesota had three IFYE delegates — one to Switzerland, another to Wales and England. A third is now in Jamaica.

Since 1948 more than 3,000 young people have participated in this exchange between the U.S. and 63 other countries.

At this conference the local officials will be instructed to their duties as weed inspectors, to the latest information on the control of weeds, insects, and other pests, and the latest information regarding seed.

Every acre of cropland may be planted to a crop in 1964, regardless of the seriousness of the weed, provided the proper method of weed control is carried out in connection with the cropping program, said Strand. The public is invited.

Winona County NFO Plans Sausage Feed

LEWISTON, Minn. — A committee of five NFO members met at the Frank Ford home last week to work out plans for the first annual Winona County NFO "whole hog sausage feed" to be held soon in Winona.

Members of the planning committee are Leo Rowekamp, Edgar Rupprecht, Ford, Kenneth Anderson and Donald Rupprecht.

428 County Farms Need Soil Practices

LEWISTON, Minn. — Despite the technical aids and free assistance available to county farmers for soil conservation improvement, there still are 428 farms in Winona County that need soil conservation practices, William Sillman, Winona County soil conservationist, said in summing up the work completed by the county Soil Conservation Service during 1963.

SILLMAN SAYS these 428 farms do not have any conservation practices in use and need them.

Farms in the county total 1,628; 1,410 of them are commercial. During 1963 the SCS laid out 3,871 acres of contour strips; 5 miles of field terraces; 52 acres of waterway construction; 5 1/2 miles of diversion terraces; 28 farm ponds, 3 fully stabilizing structures; 7 flood control structures; 5,150 feet of tiling; 77 acres of tree planting; 313 acres of pasture improvement; 109 acres of wildlife area preservation; 7 acres of wildlife area development and 1,035 acres of woodland practices.

A total of 57 new cooperators were signed during the year. A total of 36 conservation plans were completed with 615 remaining where part of the work has been completed.

Conservation work was done on approximately 165 farms in the county during 1963. There are 17 watersheds in the county, Sillman reports.

"SOIL CONSERVATION is cheap and it saves the farmers dollars," says Sillman.

The farmer doesn't pay for any of the technical assistance from the SCS office for laying out contour strips or terraces. When a pond or detention dam is constructed the farmer still pays only 20 percent of the cost. The average farm pond costs $600, Sillman reports.

The federal government pays the farmer by the acre for land put into contour strips. This is to help cover the cost of the farmer moving fences.

Farmers interested in soil conservation of their farms should contact Sillman at the SCS office at Lewiston.

Club Work in Review

4-H Can Help Choose Career

By JOHN HALVORSON, Assistant Winona County Agent

(This is the final in a series of six articles on 4-H projects offered in Minnesota. The county agent staff at each county extension office administers the 4-H club program with help from local adult leaders and the University of Minnesota.)

Four-H, a worldwide organization, has unlimited opportunities.

A 4-H member can gain valuable experience by a very basic method called application. The young person that applies himself and strives to achieve will be able to look back on 4-H club experience as a highlight of youth.

The first five articles were concerned with the five major areas — They were livestock, mechanical, home economics, outdoor and special projects.

THE LAST AREA to be discussed is special programs for group study.

Although they are not necessarily projects, they do have an important part in the 4-H club program. The two programs are career exploration and town and country business.

Choosing a Halvorson career can create a complex problem. There are more than 40,000 careers that a young person may select from. Selecting one that best fits the need of an individual requires thought and discussion, because the average person is qualified for approximately 200 jobs.

Yet on the average a person will consider 16 of these, but really takes a look at only two of them. With our society of today many things look quite glamorous. With the grass greener on the other side of the fence it is easy for a young person to be unrealistic about job selection. A young person must carefully consider what his capabilities are and just where he can be put to the best use for an enjoyable future.

THE USE OF more automotive and scientific advancement increases the need for more trained personnel. By 1970 there will be a need for 40 percent more professional and technical people than in 1960. Whereas, semi-skilled workers will be up only 17 percent with no change in unskilled workers and less farmers and farm workers.

This points up the need for more and continued education. The majority of our young people will need to acquire some sort of training to adequately support themselves in the future.

Career exploration gives the young person a chance to study themselves. By analyzing their capabilities and likes they will be in a better position to select an employment field for the future. Careful study now can mean a big difference in the future.

Town and country business is another new study group. Interested 4-H members can learn more about employment opportunities in business that are closely related to agriculture. It also helps to give farm youth a better appreciation of the problems and structure of agriculture marketing. Learning more about our economy can be very important to the future of our country. This can be a very interesting study field and should help people better understand the principles of marketing.

CAREER exploration and town and country business are just a small part of the vast 4-H club program. With the projects and events that 4-H offers there is something for everyone. Regular membership is available to all young people between the ages of 9 and 21. Interested persons can gain more information from a local leader or from the county extension office.

RURAL POUNDUP

By FRANK BRUESKE, Daily News Farm Editor
What's the shelf life of food in metal containers? KATHERINE HISEY, Wabasha County home agent, reports light colored fruits will keep up to three years; deeply colored fruits, 12 months or more, most vegetables, three years or more, and canned breads and puddings, practically indefinitely. . . The managers of Cook's Valley Watershed have been appointed. They are WILLIAM DRYSDALE, FRANK SPOONER, ROY KENNEDY, QUENTIN BILDINE and ART GRAFF. . . Corn rootworms are more likely to be a problem if you raise corn next summer in a field that had corn in 1963, Wabasha County Agent MATT METZ said.

The deadline for joining Pepin County 4-H Clubs is March 15, said GARFIELD STOCK, Pepin County agent. Youths 9 to 19 may join. Stock also has available copies of the farmer's tax guide for a slight fee. . . An additional 225,000 rural people will have modern electric and telephone service as a result of USDA loans during the first 11 months of 1964. . . Records are a most important part of the 4-H programs, says JOHN HALVORSON, assistant Winona County agent.

A move will be started in some states to get the hundredweight adopted as the standard unit for trading in grain. The bushel is the unit now used almost exclusively. . . Mr. and Mrs. ALVIN LAFKY have moved from the former FRED BISHOP farm in Cedar Valley to the B. BOBO farm near Nodine. Mr. and Mrs. LEONARD LAGESON have moved from Soldier's Grove, Minn., to the ROBERT GALLAGHER farm which was vacated by Mr. and Mrs. GERALD WOODARD, who moved to a farm near Wilson.

During June 1963 farmers used an average of 667 kilowatt hours of electricity, up 4 percent from 1962. . . A million youth under 18 "hire-out" for all kinds of farm jobs every year. . . ROY BACK was elected president of the FFA chapter at Strum High School. WAYNE MONSON is vice president; DALE STUBER, secretary; RONALD HAZEN, treasurer; ROLLIN ENGAN, reporter, and CLARK OLSON, sentinel. LEON MITCHELL, agriculture instructor, is adviser.

Nearly $500 million in farm crops — highest in the 25-year history of the agency — was protected in 1963 by the USDA's federal crop insurance program. . . To receive the incentive payment on shorn wool and unshorn lambs sold, you must file an application at your local ASCS office before Jan. 30. . . Last year we used the equivalent of 1.5 billion more pounds of milk than in 1962. The big jump was in the use of fluid milk, American cheese and ice cream. Butter use continues downward.

Houston Co. 4-H Enrollment Hits Record of 811

CALEDONIA, Minn.—The Houston County 4-H enrollment has hit an all-time high of 811 members; County Agent Francis J. Januschka said.

In 1963 the county reached its previous high of 777 members which also was the membership in 1954.

Januschka credited 4-H leaders, parents and members with the success. There are 32 clubs, including two new ones: South Ridge Cyclones and Yucatan Willing Workers.

Four-H members may choose from 29 different project activities. A club has a three-fold purpose: Education, recreation and business. An ideal club meeting is divided approximately evenly in these three areas.

Members of all ages are preparing for the 4-H radio speaking contest to be held at the extension office Jan. 25.

Lewiston Bull Gets Gold Medal Award

LEWISTON, Minn.—Hayssen Fond Master 1292699, a registered Holstein herd bull owned by Eldon Gremelsbach and C. H. Mueller, Lewiston, has been designated a Gold Medal Sire, the highest recognition a Holstein herd bull can receive from the Holstein Friesian Association.

Thirteen of his daughters have official records averaging 14,744 pounds of milk and 578 pounds of butterfat.

JACKSON COUNTY FAIR

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special) — Douglas Curran, longtime secretary of the Jackson County Fair Association, was elected president at the annual meeting Saturday. Curran, who recently retired as supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration office for Jackson and Trempealeau counties, was

Young Pasture, Young Hay—They're Alike

ALMA, Wis. — Hay that was harvested later than one-tenth bloom stage last summer just won't produce as much milk this winter as early cut hay.

Farmers have long recognized the feed potential of young pasture in the spring. What some farmers have neglected to recognize is the same things that make spring pasture good feed also make stored forages good feed, says Russell Johannes, superintendent of the University of Wisconsin Marshfield Experimental Farm.

Research shows the pounds of hay produced per acre increases up to maturity. But the pounds of total food value per acre increases only to the one-tenth-bloom stage.

After one-tenth bloom, the percentage of total food value drops faster than the increase in total weight. The result is you get no increase in total food value and in some cases may actually get a reduction.

Pounds of hay per acre and pounds of food value are not the same thing. When you harvest mature hay, the cow, steer, or sheep must eat 25 percent more forage to get the same amount of nutrients it would get if fed hay harvested in the one-tenth bloom stage.

Not only does each pound of mature forage have less food value, it also moves through the rumen more slowly. This means that livestock consume less of the mature forage than they do of the one-tenth bloom harvested forage.

secretary of the fair from 1934 with the exception of two years during World War II. For the Wisconsin State Fair Association he has been president, vice president and secretary. Renamed county fair secretary was Eugene Savage; Dr. John Krohn is assistant secretary and Morril Orlich treasurer.
