U.S., Panama Agree on Peace Plan

OAS Will Help By Naming 5th Man to Panel

By JOE MCGOWAN

PANAMA (AP)—The United States and Panama agreed today to the creation of a joint authority in cooperation with the Organization of American States to keep peace on the Canal Zone border.

This was announced by Ambassador Manuel Trucco of Chile, who will be chairman of the authority. He is a member of the five-man OAS peace mission to Panama.

There were these additional signs that calm was returning to the Canal Zone area and tension was lessening between the United States and Panama: — U.S. personnel returned to the embassy building in downtown Panama. — Official sources said Gen. Andrew O'Meara, commander of U.S. forces in the Canal Zone, would hand back control of the zone during the day to Thomas J. Fleming, the civilian governor.

O'Meara assumed control of the zone after civilian police were unable to cope with violence and disorders that flared Thursday after a flag-raising incident at the Balboa High School. In the aftermath of that incident, Panama broke relations with the United States and demanded revision of the 61-year-old Panama Canal treaty.

The new authority will be made up of two Americans and two Panamanians in addition to the chairman.

The Americans are William Beldon, political adviser to O'Meara; and Lt. Gen. George Mabry, chief of U.S. military operations in the Canal Zone.

U.S. personnel quit the embassy building and burned secret papers Saturday, fearing that the building might become a target for anti-U.S. demonstrations.

Panama has broken relations with the United States and demanded guarantees for revision of the 61-year-old Panama Canal treaty in the wake of U.S. Panamanian clashes on the Canal Zone border.

The five-man delegation from the OAS arranged for a final meeting today to settle technical details for the peace authority proposed by Argentina.

Informants said the United States and Panama would each have one military man and civilian on the authority, with a neutral OAS representative as chairman. Alfredo Vazquez Carricosa, Colombian ambassador to the OAS, has been proposed, they added.

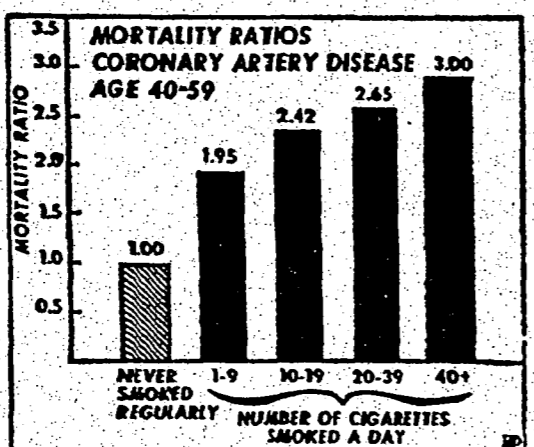

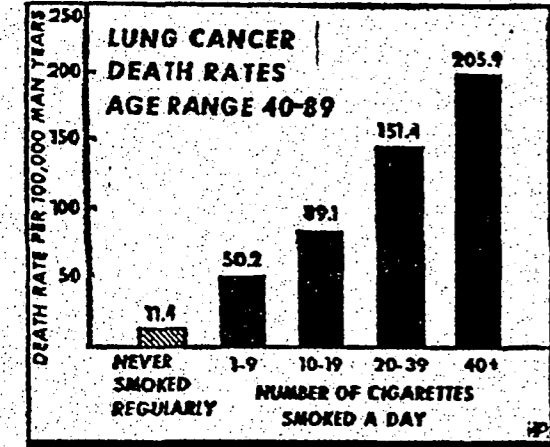

Diplomatic sources said it had not been decided whether the peace-keeping group would use military or civilian forces to police the border area. It was said earlier that troops from both the United States and Panama might make up the patrols.

Edwin M. Martin, U.S. assistant secretary of state, represented the United States in the OAS negotiations and told newsmen at 1:55 a.m.: "We have made reasonable progress."

Big Bomber Crashes in Maryland

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP)—A huge jet bomber of the Strategic Air Command carrying two unarmed nuclear weapons and a crew of five crashed and burned in the Appalachian Mountains today.

"There is no danger of nuclear explosion," said Air Force officials, adding that explosive experts were en route to the scene.

The eight-engine B52 fell to earth in a blinding snowstorm at the foot of Big Savage Mountain in western Maryland, about 20 miles west of Cumberland. It was en route from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., to its home station at Turner Air Force Base, Ga.

"There is no need of evacuation," said the Air Force announcement from Westover AFB.

The Air Force explained that an unarmed nuclear weapon contains nuclear material but cannot explode until a crewman takes action to activate it.

State Troopers put a security ring around the wreckage.

The Air Force said three teams of experienced explosive ordnance disposal teams were dispatched from Westover Turner and Andrews Air Force Base, Md., but said this was routine.

The swept-wing SAC bomber was returning to its base in Georgia from a bomber-alert training mission, the 8th Air Force announcement said, and landed at Westover because of weather conditions.

It took the troopers from Cumberland five hours to reach the rugged, isolated area at the foot of the 2,788-foot mountain. There was 15 inches of snow on the ground and it was still snowing.

Legislation Futile, Dr. Mayo States

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Legislation against smoking would be futile, something like barring people from drinking or sex, says Dr. Charles W. Mayo. The retired senior surgeon of the Mayo Clinic here said people who smoke will have to decide for themselves whether to continue or quit. Others should not decide for the smokers, he said.

Dr. Mayo, 65, retired last October as senior surgeon and chairman of the board of governors of the Mayo Clinic, founded by his father, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, and uncle, William J. Mayo.

Democrats Agree on 3,056 Delegates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic party has taken a big step toward solving one of its convention problems, that of proportionate representation. But another problem has, if anything, been aggravated.

The party began in 1952 to ignore the fact that some states were growing and others were losing population. The result: Some smaller states had a disproportionately loud voice in the convention.

There were two ways to correct this situation: Take votes away from some states or give votes to others. The first seemed too painful. So Saturday the Democratic National Committee approved a vote allocation formula for the 1964 convention which recognizes both population and zeal for the party—and greatly increases the number of votes to be cast.

But the other problem, size of the convention, is thornier than ever.

To cast the 2,316 votes authorized for the August convention, the committee approved 3,056 delegates and 2,208 alternates. This means that about 5,264 of them will be floating around Atlantic City's mammoth Convention Hall, compared with 4,509 four years ago in Los Angeles. As usual at Democratic conventions, most will be casting only one-half of a vote.

By contrast, the Republican convention in San Francisco will have only 1,308 delegates, to cast a like number of votes. Another 1,308 alternates are authorized, meaning that physically the GOP convention will be about half as large as the Democratic one.

Democratic leaders say they don't mind. The additional alternates and delegates give them more openings to spread among the party faithful. But convention floor managers may be gnashing their teeth come August.

Commenting on Saturday's report by a 10-member federal advisory committee on smoking, Dr. Mayo said he has not been involved in smoking-health studies and has no official viewpoint on the report.

His only observation, Dr. Mayo said, was that government does not have the right to legislate the private lives of people. Citing the example of prohibition, he said, "We should have learned our lesson."

"It's a private matter whether we smoke or not," he added.

Like sex or alcohol, he said, smoking is something people like to do and have been doing for years.

"I don't think you can legislate against tobacco any more than you can legislate against sex or alcohol," Dr. Mayo said.

By JOHN BARBOUR
WASHINGTON (AP)—The American smoker—still lingering over the grim facts of a federal report branding cigarettes a health hazard—is center stage to a big audience this week.

Legislators, investors, tobacco growers, cigarette manufacturers, legal and health authorities want to know first and foremost: Will he quit or not? Will he cut down? What will happen to cigarette sales?

Just how loud will the public reaction to the federal report be?

On those questions hinge a number of important decisions in coming days:

The tobacco companies have been invited to meet with the Television Code Review Board in Miami Beach Jan. 22-23. Subject: The federal report and what it means to cigarette advertising on television.

The American Cancer Society's board of directors meets this month to assess educational campaigns against cigarette smoking, called by the federal report the major cause of lung cancer, the leading fatal malignancy in men.

Several bills will be introduced designed to better arm federal agencies to regulate the sale and advertising of cigarettes and to force the cautionary labeling of cigarettes as potentially hazardous.

Federal courts may be the scene of another test of the scientific report. Will it encourage further damage suits against tobacco companies by lung cancer victims? Will it improve their chance of collecting?

The new report—14 months in the making—cited cigarette smoking as the major cause of cancer of the larynx, and associated it with a number of other cancers from those of the oral cavity to the bladder.

And there was an association—but not yet a proof of cause—between cigarettes and heart and blood vessel disease, and peptic ulcers.

So strong is the evidence of health hazard, the committee said, that it called for corrective action.

Three La Crosse Correspondence Schools Indicted

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A federal grand jury returned indictments today against the operators of three La Crosse correspondence schools accused of using the mails to defraud.

The indictments, presented to U.S. District Judge David Rabinovitch during his first full day of courtroom work, named National Preparatory Service, Career Service Inc., National Service and 16 officers of the three schools.

U.S. Atty. Nathan Heffernan said the schools train persons to take examinations offered by the U.S. Civil Service Commission. The indictments allege the schools, through direct mail advertising, falsely assured applicants that completing the courses offered would land them a government job.

The U.S. attorney estimated the schools had collected about $250,000 since they began offering the civil service correspondence courses.

Several persons were reported killed and many others wounded in heavy fighting that erupted Saturday night and raged into early Sunday around police stations, an armory and the residence of Prime Minister Mohammed Shante Hamadi.

A radio station, identifying itself as "The Freedom Fighters of Zanzibar," said at least two policemen were killed in the successful storming of the armory. There were reports another policeman was killed defending the prime minister's home.

The rebel broadcast said Hamadi and Sultan Seyyid Jamshid Bin Abdulla had taken refuge on a cruise liner in the harbor.

By late Sunday night the rebels were reported to have seized control of all but one strategic building in or around Zanzibar City.

They took over the cable office and halted cable services from the island. They also held the airport, and no planes were allowed to take off or land. Only faulty telephone communications were open.

The United States sent the destroyer Manley to remove American women and children. A U.S. State Department source in Washington said the 57 Americans stationed on the island at a tracking station for the Project Mercury satellite program appeared to be in no immediate danger. The U.S. consul in Zanzibar reported to the embassy in Dar-es-Salaam that it was "all quiet."

10-Foot Drifts In Central Illinois

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A massive snowstorm, described by the Weather Bureau as the winter's worst, snarled across the eastern United States today.

Numerous highways were blocked, hundreds of motorists stranded and communities isolated as gale-force winds piled the snow into drifts as much as 10 feet deep.

From two to five inches of snow has fallen on greater New York and up to six inches were expected before the storm blows out to sea this afternoon.

The Weather Bureau in Washington issued a heavy snow warning for New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and all but the northern part of New England.

Western Pennsylvania received from 5 to 10 inches of snow which began falling Sunday afternoon and was still coming down Monday morning.

Huge snow drifts were piled up by 50-mile-an-hour winds in central Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

The Weather Bureau urged motorists in the Midwest and East to stay off the highways in storm areas or run the risk of becoming snowbound in near-zero weather.

That fate already has befallen hundreds of motorists.

In Illinois, some 500 motorists became overnight guests of the 1,200 citizens of Neoga, a farm community which opened the local American Legion hall and Masonic Temple to accommodate stranded travelers.

In Indiana and Ohio, other hundreds of motorists abandoned autos on snow clogged highways and sought shelter at service stations, road houses and farms.

Springfield, the capital of Illinois, was virtually isolated with only one main highway into the city open. A few miles south of Springfield, 25 Boy Scouts on a weekend camping trip awaited rescue today at their snowbound camp site.

Hundreds of schools in the Midwest, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania were closed.

Castro Makes Surprise Visit To Khrushchev

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN
MOSCOW (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro arrived today on a surprise visit to Premier Khrushchev with more Soviet economic aid for Cuba presumably his aim.

The Cuban leader may have trouble getting an increase in help. Khrushchev is spending hundreds of millions of dollars to buy wheat from Canada, Australia and the United States, and he has embarked on a massive expansion of the Soviet chemical industry.

Khrushchev gave Castro the same red carpet welcome as last April, when Castro visited the Soviet Union for five weeks. The Soviet premier was at the airport along with other officials.

Castro said his visit would be considerably shorter than his stay last year because he had to return to Cuba for the sugar harvest now under way.

His visit took Western diplomatic colony and the State Department in Washington by surprise. So were the Cuban people who, hours after his departure, had not been informed.

A Cuban economic delegation has been in Moscow for 11 days, reportedly asking for a big increase in aid. It seemed likely that Castro came to add his pleas to the delegation's.

It also appeared likely that Khrushchev and Castro would join in a denunciation of U.S. policy in Panama. U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Sunday that Castro is partly to blame for the rioting along the border of the Panama Canal Zone.

Arab Sultan Of Zanzibar Overthrown

DAR-ES-SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP)—African Nationalists proclaimed a republic on the East African spice island of Zanzibar Sunday after overthrowing the Arab sultan in an overnight revolt.

Several persons were reported killed and many others wounded in heavy fighting that erupted Saturday night and raged into early Sunday around police stations, an armory and the residence of Prime Minister Mohammed Shante Hamadi.

A radio station, identifying itself as "The Freedom Fighters of Zanzibar," said at least two policemen were killed in the successful storming of the armory. There were reports another policeman was killed defending the prime minister's home.

Tobacco Stocks Fall at Start

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices of tobacco company stocks slumped on the New York Stock Exchange today in first reaction to a U.S. Public Health Service report that smoking is a health hazard.

The rest of the market was a mixture of small gains and losses.

Opening of trading in American Tobacco, Reynolds and Lorillard was delayed because of an influx of sell orders.

Liggett & Myers fell $2.75 to $71.50, Lorillard $1.50 to $43.75, Reynolds $1.50 to $41, Philip Morris $1.25 to $73.75 and American Tobacco 62 cents to $27.87.

Democratic leaders say they don't mind. The additional alternates and delegates give them more openings to spread among the party faithful. But convention floor managers may be gnashing their teeth come August.

Here's how the vote allocation formula adopted Saturday works:

Each state will get three convention votes for each electoral vote. Since the Electoral College is based mostly on population, this helps solve the representation problem.

Likewise, each state gets a convention vote for every 100,000 Democratic votes cast in 1960. Thus bigger states with more voters will benefit.

Furthermore, each state voting the Kennedy-Johnson ticket in 1960 will get a bonus of 10 votes.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Average Student Gets Help, Too

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D. Professor of Education U. of Southern California

The question often is asked, "Are we neglecting the great body of average students by centering our attention on the gifted and on the slow learners?"

Fortunately, the average student eventually does reap benefits from such attention. Many of the programs of individual study, released class time, special reporting projects and community projects originally designed for gifted students, have been found to work equally well for the average group.

EDUCATORS ARE beginning to realize materials written for slow learners can be beneficial to all.

The average student finds his approach to the standard textbook eased through use of "slow learner" materials as an introduction to each new phase of the subject.

This background for listening in class and mastering the textbook material speeds up the learning processes.

Materials written for the slow learner omit anything which would detract from the student's grasp of the overall ideas. The student's learning problems take precedence over detailed coverage to a much greater extent than is possible in a standard textbook.

THE USUAL high school textbook in American history is a good example. It is packed with valuable information. However, students find it difficult to get a preview of each section to serve as background for organization of material and for efficient class listening.

A new series of pamphlets, "American History Study Lessons," has been written by Dr. Jack Abramowitz to meet these needs. The series is published by Follet Publishing Co., Chicago, Ill.

These pamphlets describe the flow of American history in broad terms. Included are simple maps which serve all students, slow learners and average as well as memory devices. The student can visualize on the map where an event took place.

THE SIMPLIFIED version leaves room for more pictures. These can be useful since events are better remembered when dramatized in the student's mind.

Time lines are described and illustrated. This device used by college history majors, is just as valuable for the average student as for the slow learner.

When high school and college students read the appropriate pamphlet before reading each section of their textbook, they report greater enjoyment in reading, and greater success in organizing and remembering material.

Before a student can assimilate the details of any subject, he must have in his mind a relatively simple outline of the topic.

As more materials for the slow learner become available they will meet a hitherto un-supplied need of the average and gifted student.

Yogi Pusch, assistant Fillmore County agent, discussed management; Milton Hoberg, Fillmore County agent, talked about trends in agriculture and Mrs. Leonard Hohmann, Winona County home agent, discussed trends in family living.

The second meeting is slated for 10 a.m. Wednesday at Golfview Restaurant.

Six Killed in Road Mishaps in Wisconsin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six persons were killed during the weekend in Wisconsin highway crashes, boosting the state's 1964 death toll to 37, compared with 21 on this date one year ago.

Two Milwaukee men, Joseph Kryfke, 46, and Daniel Guerrero, 23, were killed Sunday night when their car and a semi-trailer truck collided on a Milwaukee viaduct.

Alfred Pirrung, 57, Port Washington, suffered fatal injuries in the collision of his car and another auto on Highway 57 about two miles north of Fredonia Saturday night.

William G. Rembert, 25, of Milwaukee, was killed Saturday in the collision of two cars at the intersection of Highways 158 and 192 about two miles west of Kenosha. Rembert, driver of one car and father of three children, worked at an American Motors Corp. plant in Kenosha.

Other weekend victims previously reported were Earl Oliver, 34, of rural Juneau, and Alfred Mueller, 34, of rural Darlington. Also listed during the weekend was Mrs. Jennie Weinstein, 65, of Milwaukee, who died Saturday of injuries suffered a week earlier when she was struck by a car while crossing a city street.

Retailers Favor N.D. Sales Tax

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — A 3 per cent sales tax which would replace North Dakota's personal property tax is favored by more than 75 per cent of 7,665 retailers who answered a State Tax Department poll.

Tax Commissioner Lloyd Omdahl told his advisory committee Friday that 5,800 retailers voted for the increased sales tax and 1,860 voted against it.

Omdahl said a three-quarter per cent increase in the current sales tax would yield about $7.5 million a year.

The State would lose about $15 million a year, he said, if all categories of personal property tax are eliminated except the levy on warehouses and elevators on leased property.

"This means that other sources must be found," the commissioner added.

Omdahl's statements contrasted with that of Robert P. McCarney of Bismarck, who in seeking the Republican nomination for governor has argued a 3 per cent sales tax would replace both personal property and income taxes.

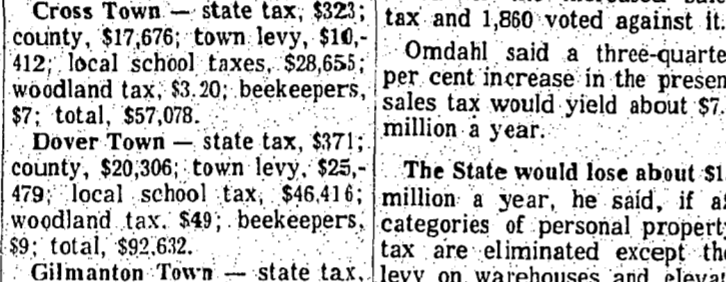

State Going After More Tourist Trade

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Minnesota will be more aggressive in future years in promoting tourist travel, Gov. Karl Rolvaag promised here Friday.

He told a luncheon sponsored by the Tri-State Hotel and Motel Association that the present state advertising grant of $100,000 was inadequate to do the job and far below what other states spend on promotion.

Despite this, Rolvaag said his administration would not spend its time bemoaning the lack of promotional funds but rather do the best job it can with the money on hand.

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Minnesota will be more aggressive in future years in promoting tourist travel, Gov. Karl Rolvaag promised here Friday.

He told a luncheon sponsored by the Tri-State Hotel and Motel Association that the present state advertising grant of $100,000 was inadequate to do the job and far below what other states spend on promotion.

Despite this, Rolvaag said his administration would not spend its time bemoaning the lack of promotional funds but rather do the best job it can with the money on hand.

Former City Judge Honored By Attorneys

Longtime Winona jurist S. D. J. Bruski, who was serving as Winona's municipal judge when he died last May 16, was remembered this morning by fellow members of the Winona County Bar Association as "a credit to the legal profession and the community of which he was a product."

Statements memorializing Mr. Bruski were read into the records of the District Court here today at the opening session of the January term of court.

The tributes were heard at a service conducted by members of the bar following the informal call of the court calendar by Judge Leo F. Murphy, designation of cases to be heard by court and jury during the term and the establishment of an order for trial of jury cases to be heard by Judge Murphy.

THE COUNTY bar association's memorial was prepared by a committee that included S. A. Sawyer, chairman, George M. Robertson Jr. and William M. Hull and was read by Hull. It reviewed Mr. Bruski's practice of law in this city since his admission to the Minnesota State Bar in 1930 and cited his service in numerous professional, governmental and civic posts.

A former chairman of the Winona County Welfare Board and onetime government appeal agent for Selective Service, Mr. Bruski served as city attorney from 1947 to 1950, was appointed judge of county probate court in 1957 and presided on the municipal bench from 1959 until his death.

The memorial described him as a judge who conducted his court with "fairness, prudence and deep understanding."

AT SAWYER'S invitation, two other bar association members, Harold S. Streater and Harold J. Libera, commented on their personal experiences with Mr. Bruski during their practice of law in Winona.

Judge Murphy described the memorial as a "well-deserved tribute," then recalled his association with Mr. Bruski and his father, former city official L. J. Bruski.

Judge Murphy observed that Judge Bruski's service with the county welfare board was instrumental in making the county welfare department a model for other counties and that his efforts in welfare work at the state level had a significant impact on the state welfare program.

"HE WAS A humble, social, kindly man," Judge Murphy recalled, "a careful, capable lawyer with highest professional standards and a patient, sincere, compassionate judge." "The rugged honesty, high character and sincerity which he exemplified through life and his high ideals of practice as a lawyer should all serve as an example and an inspiration to those who follow him in the profession he so dearly loved."

Judge Murphy ordered that certified copies of the memorial be sent to Mrs. Bruski and his family.

THE REMAINDER of the first week of the winter term will be devoted to the hearing of uncontested court cases, pre-trial conferences, motions and miscellaneous matters.

Jurors drawn for this term will report for duty next Monday afternoon with a personal injury suit brought by an Adams, Wis., man against the North Western Railway scheduled as the first matter for the jury.

Of the new cases on this term's calendar, 15 were listed for trial by jury and seven for the court.

Judge Murphy granted a motion for continuance over the term of one personal injury suit — an action brought by George Wherritt Sr. against the Green Bay & Western Railroad — but denied, in the absence of filed affidavits, motions for continuances in three other cases. These three suits were filed as a result of a fire which damaged a building at Howard and Center streets in 1959.

Another case which had been on the calendar for the September 1962 term, an automobile accident suit by David J. Rother and his father, Herbert Rother, against Leonard Kontler, was carried over the term on motion of attorneys.

One new case was added to the calendar this morning. This is a divorce action by Gerald Vaughan against Mrs. Mary Vaughan.

Fletcher Christian, nine other sailors from the "Bounty" and 19 Polynesians left Tahiti in 1789 secretly to colonize Pitcairn Island. The initial settlement has grown to more than 150.

SIX DIED HERE . . . The wreckage of this plane found Sunday afternoon in a snow covered forest in southern Cheboygan County, yielded bodies of six members of a Chicago area family bound for a Boyne Mt. Mich., Ski resort. Harold Cummings 36, his wife Pat, and four of their six children were found in the plane after a two-day search. The plane crashed Friday after he radioed that he was unable to locate the landing strip of a ski lodge. (AP Photofax)

Kin of Winonan, Family Killed In Plane Crash

CHEBOYGAN, Mich. (AP) — A recovery party plowed through snow in a northern Michigan forest today and retrieved the bodies of six members of a Chicago area family killed when their plane crashed on a skiing trip.

Ground crews, using a bulldozer, pushed to the wreckage site more than six miles in the forest some 30 miles from the top of Michigan's lower peninsula.

(Harold Cummings Jr. was the son of the former Sophia Libera, native Winonan and a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Libera Sr. One of her brothers, Winona County Probate Judge E. D. Libera, introduced the couple.)

A civilian observer in a state police plane had spotted the wreckage in a dense stand of trees shortly before dusk Sunday.

Authorities identified the victims of H. J. Cummings Jr., 36, River Forest, Ill., insurance broker, his wife, Patricia, 32, and four of their six children, Kathy, 11, Michael, 10, Susan, 9, and Mary, 6.

Cummings, who piloted and owned the Cessna 205, was last heard from Friday evening when he radioed he couldn't find a landing strip. The family was bound for a weekend of skiing at Boyne Mountain Lodge, a winter resort.

Cummings was the son of H. J. Cummings, president of Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Co., St. Paul.

The Cummings apparently died as a result of the crash, which ripped the plane into five sections, and not from exposure to temperatures ranging down to 12 below zero, a coroner's findings indicated.

Police theorized that Cummings, intent on finding a landing strip, flew too low without being aware of the plane's altitude.

The aircraft snapped off a number of tree tops in gliding in to crash, officers said. The power had been on, they said. The accident tore off both wings and the tail assembly from the fuselage. The fuselage struck a tree and flopped over, throwing the engine more than 25 feet.

The crash site is more than six miles from the nearest main highway, Interstate 75, and is about 30 miles south of Cheboygan. A rough road known as "Fisherman's Trail" was broken open by the ground crew to get near the crash scene.

They were represented by Martin J. Healy, Wabasha attorney. They pleaded guilty to implication in a series of break-ins at cottages and business places in Wabasha Jan. 5.

Six Dead in Massachusetts Chemical Blast

ATTLEBORO, Mass. (AP) — A chemical plant blew up Sunday night with a shattering roar — like a bomb, witnesses said — killing six and injuring scores.

The explosion was followed by a fire which raged out of control for hours destroying three out of six buildings which covered a 15-acre site in the Hebronville section of Attleboro.

Witnesses said there was a series of explosions followed by a gigantic blast heard for 50 miles.

Firemen from 30 communities in Massachusetts and Rhode Island battled the blaze all night.

The blast damaged homes near the plant, smashing windows and knocking pictures from walls. All of the windows in an 800-pupil elementary school across the road from the plant were broken, with the sashes and frames ripped away.

Unofficial estimates said the damage could exceed $3 million.

Alma Area Home Burns

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — Fire leveled the two-story residence on the Roger Dienger farm 9 1/2 miles northeast of here on County Trunk N this morning.

Dienger — who has moved his wife and four children into the neighboring home of his brother, Robert, temporarily — said he was awakened after 3 a.m. by his 7-year-old son, Gary, who came into his bedroom calling, "Daddy, daddy, the house is on fire."

Dienger discovered that flames were coming out of the attic above the kitchen.

He rushed his wife and children, Kathleen, 8, Gary, Dale, 5, and Steven, 3, into his car and a neighbor took them to the nearby home of another brother, Richard.

He, neighbors and the Alma fire department, who were still at the scene this noon, got most of the furniture and most of the clothing from the home.

Dienger said he had insurance on the building and contents but could not estimate the loss at this time. It was an old house, he said. He had lived there nine years.

Dienger said his brother Robert has a large enough house so that two families can live there comfortably for the time being. He isn't sure of the cause of the blaze. The farm is in the Town of Alma.

4 Plead Guilty In Wabasha Court

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — Four guilty pleas were heard in Wabasha County District Court before Judge Arnold W. Haffield this morning.

The jury, called for 10 a.m., was dismissed to 1:30 to hear the civil case brought by Quinn Distributing Co. against Clark W. Winckler, doing business as Wink's A & W Drive-In, Wabasha, a suit involving sale of an ice cream machine.

On motion of County Attorney John McHardy, the charge against Gerald Banick, 20, Mazepa, was reduced from indecent assault to simple assault. After his plea of guilty a presentence investigation was ordered. Donald Kelley, Minneapolis, was his attorney.

Melvin Schaefer, 19, Plainview, pleaded guilty to unauthorized use of a motor vehicle. He was sentenced to an undetermined term at the Youth Conservation Commission at St. Cloud.

Represented by Lawrence Lundie, Lake City attorney, he was charged with taking the automobile of Ronald Rosenberg, Plainview, Oct. 11. He took it to Carthage, Ill., where it was recovered by the sheriff's department after part of it had been dismantled and sold.

Pre-sentence investigations were ordered for William Edward Ziebell, 19, charged with burglary, and Robert George Benman, 24, charged with accessory to burglary. Both are of Lake City. Their bonds of $1,000 were continued into effect until sentencing.

They were represented by Martin J. Healy, Wabasha attorney. They pleaded guilty to implication in a series of break-ins at cottages and business places in Wabasha Jan. 5.

State Approves New Plat for Ridgeway Area

The plat for a proposed school district consolidation in the Ridgeway area has been approved by the state Education Department, Jesse B. Jesus, Winona County superintendent of schools, reported today.

Next step in the consolidation procedure will be the circulation of petitions asking for special elections in the eight elementary school districts involved in the merger. The petitions must be signed by 25 percent of the resident freeholders in the districts.

IF ENOUGH signatures are obtained and the consolidation is approved in the elections, the proposal will go through, clearing the way for construction of a new elementary school near Ridgeway.

Districts involved in the plan are Common School District 2542 (Whitlock), CSD 2543 (Boynton), CSD 2586 (Cooper), CSD 2601 (Bush), CSD 2602 (Ridgeway), CSD 2614 (Upper Cedar Valley), CSD 2617 (Ireland, not including 360 acres in Looney Valley) and CSD 2626 (Midway).

Of these, Upper Cedar Valley and Midway are closed districts, which do not operate schools.

A plat for the consolidation was rejected by the state commissioner of education in October because all of the land to be included in it was not contiguous, as state law requires. At that time, a small parcel of CSD 2555, which had become detached from the rest of the district, was situated within CSD 2614.

ACTION BY the county board of commissioners in December detached the parcel from CSD 2555 and attached it to CSD 2614, thus making contiguous all the land in the eight districts seeking consolidation.

The plan plat of the area was redrawn and submitted again to the state after the county board's action.

Highway Drive-in Permit Requested

Construction of a drive-in restaurant and carry-out service is planned at 1558 Service Dr. by a Mankato corporation, subject to approval of its application by the Board of Zoning Appeals.

The board will meet Jan. 23 to rule on the matter. The area is in a B-1 (neighborhood business district) zone. Such use is permitted in these areas on numbered highways, provided the board approves the application.

The location under consideration is just east of Bunke's Apo Station, Highway 61 and Orrin Street.

$100 Waiting Treasure Hunt

Get set and ready to go for the 1964 Winona Daily News Winter Carnival treasure hunt! This year, as in past years, you will be looking for a treasure certificate which is redeemable for a $100 check at the Daily News accounting office.

The treasure certificate will not be put in its hiding place until just before the last clue is announced on the 6 o'clock news broadcast Saturday on KWNO, so there is no point in looking for it before then.

The first five clues will be published on this page. The final clue will be broadcast rather than published to provide all treasure hunters with the vital path to the treasure at the same time.

You won't have to leave your home until the final clue has been announced to solve this contest. You probably will find that a good dictionary and the map in your telephone book will be helpful.

The treasure certificate will be located on property accessible to the public, but not necessarily publicly owned property. You'll find that the clues are reasonably easy, and everyone has an equal chance to win. Today's clue describes a location in Winona and each subsequent clue will lead you to a different location — all within the city limits. Good hunting!

CLUE NO. 1
Many arguments came forth
Over my brand new location.
But now I'm facing north
And will stay for a long duration.

Most Wisconsin Accidents 'Home-Grown,' Check Shows

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin registered motor vehicles were involved in nine out of every 10 traffic accidents which occurred in Wisconsin state during 1962.

A Motor Vehicle Department study on this aspect of last year's accident experience shows that of 1,134 vehicles figuring in death-producing mishaps, 948 were of Wisconsin registry.

Of 35,850 vehicles involved in injury-producing accidents last year, 32,489 were of Wisconsin registry. Of 82,006 vehicles involved in property damage mishaps, 74,476 bore Wisconsin auto registration plates.

Illinois vehicles were involved in 51 fatal accidents, 1,148 injury accidents and 2,005 property damage accidents.

MINNESOTA vehicles were involved in 40 death-producing tragedies, 502 injury-causing collisions and 1,167 mishaps in which only property was damaged.

Michigan vehicles were involved in 16 fatal crackups, 254 injury mishaps and 500 property damage accidents. Other states had even less involvement in Wisconsin mishaps last year.

These figures provide ample proof that the great majority of accidents in this state are of the "home-grown" variety. "The people we have to watch out for most are those immediately around us — and ourselves," a department spokesman said.

Passenger cars were involved in 45 percent of all accidents in Wisconsin during 1962. Better than 32 percent of all vehicles in accidents during the year were in the '60, '61, '62 or '63

Mountain Climber Lost in Blizzard Is Found Alive

TOKYO (AP) — A young mountain climber was found alive Friday by searchers after being lost for five days in blizzard-covered mountains in northern Japan with four other companions.

Hideyoshi Mural, 17, a high school student, was discovered halfway up 5,330-foot Mt. Iwaki in Aomori prefecture crouching in the snow. He was suffering from exposure, hunger and frostbite.

The bodies of two of his four companions were found as nearly 200 rescuers combed the snow-covered slopes.

Posture Queen Coming for Carnival Events

Beauty and talent — sometimes mixed in one individual — will be in Winona this weekend for the annual Winter Carnival.

Beauty will be provided by Valerie Dahl, Miss World Posture Queen. The same quality, plus talent, will be furnished by songstress Patty Clark.

Famed clown Emmett Kelly and country and western singer Stonewall Jackson will bring their talents to town.

MISS DAHL, 20, of Minneapolis, will be in Winona from Friday afternoon through Sunday afternoon. She received her title in international competition sponsored by the American Chiropractic Association. Her straight spine gave her half of the points needed for her to win her title.

Presumably, her other lines helped her get the other 50 percent. She will appear at all events scheduled to occur during her stay here.

MISS CLARK began singing in Fargo, N.D., then joined the staff of a Chicago radio and television station. Since then, she has sung on a network radio and television programs and has made night club appearances in Chicago and in Winnipeg, Canada. She will be in Winona from Friday evening until Sunday morning.

She will make appearances at the queen contestants' luncheon Saturday and in the parade that afternoon, and will sing at the coronation ball Saturday night.

KELLY, perhaps the most famous clown in the nation, will be here all day Saturday. The sad-faced comic was a long-time performer with Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey Circus.

JACKSON, a 25-year-old ex-farmer and logger from Georgia, has been appearing with Grand Ol' Opry shows since 1956. One of his records was a popular best-seller and brought television appearances Jackson's way. He will be the featured performer at the stage show at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Winona Senior High School auditorium.

Youth Charged In Girl's Death

NEW YORK (AP) — A youth described by police as a "bright, nice kid" sobbed bitterly in court Sunday as he was arraigned in the murder of his sweetheart.

Richard F. Bell Jr., 19, a telephone switchman from Blauvelt, N.Y., is accused of strangling 18-year-old Carole Yvonne Hughes of Pearl River, N.Y., in Central Park Friday night. Her body was found Sunday.

Bell was arraigned on a homicide charge and held without bail.

Police said Bell admitted strangling Miss Hughes with her scarf after she told him she was pregnant and demanded an early marriage.

Police said an autopsy showed she was not pregnant.

Many Americans are concerned about the ease of life in our country today — and what it may do to our children. Will the "soft living" of our times bring a continuing decline in their physical and moral stamina? This could happen if our children aren't encouraged to develop their bodies as well as their minds. Parents should insist on a minimum of 15 minutes of vigorous activity each school day — for every boy and every girl. Tell your school officials about your concern. For information about a program that your school — any school — can put into effect promptly, write the President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D. C.

Honesty Costs Delon His Girl

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK: — Honesty is the best policy — for getting hated.

A sad-eyed young French actor named Alain Delon, the most romantic thing to come out of Paris since Charles Boyer had hair, recently decided to tell the truth to beautiful Romy Schneider, with whom he had enjoyed a "short engagement" lasting only about six years.

"Cheri," he said, "you will never be a great star as I understand a great star . . ."

"You will never be a Marilyn Monroe, an Ava Gardner, a Rita Hayworth. You haven't that 'miracle' . . . that electricity . . . that appearance of a great star . . ."

The girl who was thinking of marrying him bit her lips and asked if that was all.

"No," he said. "You are different from Marilyn Monroe, as Henry Fonda is different from Gary Cooper. Fonda, a great actor, hasn't that electricity. Paul Newman doesn't have it as Marlon Brando and Jimmy Dean had it. Maria Schell couldn't be a Dietrich because she doesn't have it."

Do you know what sexpot Romy Schneider said to him? She said, "Forget it!"

Delon's touring the country on behalf of a picture called "The Love Cage." He visits Cleveland, Minneapolis, Detroit, Chicago. If he's just as honest everywhere, he'll be a barrel of laughs for the boys at MGM studios.

WE HAPPEN to respect him enormously. We asked him, now that he's broken up with Romy Schneider, if he might be deeply interested in Jane Fonda.

"Oh, NO!" he exclaimed. "SURELY NOT Jane Fonda!"

He's a delightfully frank young man who in today's society is likely to go far — to someplace that's the equivalent of Siberia.

"Anybody who would divorce Eddie Fisher," goes a line I heard yesterday, "can't be all bad." (Eddie tells it himself; it's attributed to his pal, Dean Martin) . . . The lady cigar smokers increase: The Baroness de Rothschild, Gloria Vanderbilt, Christina Paolozzi, the Maharanee of Baroda, Mrs. Louis Cates, Barbara Bergstrom, Mrs. David Muss, Princess Margaret, Hermione Gingold, Carol Lynley. A regular cigar-smoking set! . . . When you write about Richard Nixon nowadays, you get attacked from both sides: his friends and enemies . . . The guy must be a hot property to stir up letter-writers so much . . . Paddy Chayefsky, author and director of the show about Stalin called "The Passion of Josef D." said to his friend Milt Kamen of the cast, "If the author of this play only knew what the director of the play is doing to it."

PRESIDENT Johnson's leading lookalike hereabouts is well-known good-looking Neal Lung, vice prez and general mgr. at the Hotel Gotham. Also look-alikes: Joe E. Ross and Yogi Berra . . . "Two Ton Tessie from Tennessee" (Tessie O'Shea, the show-stopper in "The Girl Who Came to Supper") will appear at our "Fight for Sight" show at Carnegie Hall Jan. 19 . . . When Jack E. Leonard taped an album at Danny's Hideaway, he chided friends in the audience about their response. To Jack Carter, Leonard said, "Don't encourage me too much. The last time you encouraged me, I flopped at the Paramount . . . Julie Wilson, who recently became a mother, is taking her young son with her when she plays at the Ponce de Leon, Puerto Rico . . . Red Buttons' tailor Irving Heller and his recent bride Sarah Alvarez separated . . . Choo Choo Collins, the sexy singer, has been dating Vince Edwards in Hollywood. "Isn't he engaged?" I asked Choo Choo. "If he is," she said, "he never mentioned it to me!"

TODAY'S WORST PUN: Leslie (Great) Scott of Bridge City, Texas, claims he found a theater in Mexico advertising the film "Tequila Mockingbird."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's Phil Foster's definition of a snob: "That's a guy who shaves only once with each stainless steel razor blade."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "No man should be considered lazy until he hires a gardener to care for his boutonniere."

EARL'S PEARLS: At last the efforts of the post office to speed mail are getting results. Your bills are arriving faster now.

Hearing that Liz Taylor ordered a very expensive wedding gown, Al Cooper says, "That's natural — after all, it's not as though it's something she'd wear just once or twice . . ." That's earl, brother.

Tax Evasion. Case One of First For Rabinovitz

MADISON, Wis. (U)—Harold Lindstrom, a purchasing agent for a Merrill manufacturing firm, will be sentenced Monday for federal income tax evasion.

Lindstrom's case will be one of the first to come before U.S. District Judge David Rabinovitz, who received his appointment Tuesday from President Johnson.

Lindstrom, 54, has pleaded guilty to a charge of filing a fraudulent return. U.S. Atty. Nathan Heffernan said Lindstrom paid taxes of $655 on his 1959 earnings when the figure should have been $1,991.

Heffernan said the tax shortage developed because Lindstrom did not declare gifts he received while serving as purchasing agent and accountant of the Merrill Manufacturing Co.

A publicity committee was appointed for the year. These include: Mrs. Dean Helwig and Mrs. Marvin Moy, Mondovi, and Mrs. Marvin Passow, and Arthur Illt, Alma.

A report was given by Ervin Duellman on the recent dairy bargaining committee meeting at Menomonie. He explained riders which have been attached to dairy contracts signed in the area. Riders are clarifications of the original contracts and can be attached to any contracts in the area.

In his opinion no holding action on milk was forthcoming in the near future because of negotiations going on with many milk plants in the East. Possible contract negotiations with grade A processing plants was discussed.

LOWELL GRAFF, Menomonie, a national assistant organizational director, reported a total of 1,198,755 head of livestock were imported into the United States last year. This represents 11 per cent of the consumption of meat in this country. He said that this is more than the current over-supply of meat raised last year. Graff also discussed the organizational drive that is about to start in the area.

The meeting was concluded with discussion on the sausage feed at the High school of Mondovi Jan. 25. Final plans will be discussed at a meeting at the Alma bank Friday.

An assortment of canned goods and other useful items were presented to Melvin Mork. The family home was destroyed by fire Dec. 29. Members also are helping the Mork family to build a new home on their farm.

S.D. Bridge Materials Under Specifications

PIERRE, S.D. (AP) —Early investigation revealed that the materials used in the damaged piling of the giant Platte-Winner bridge did not meet specifications, state highway director Don Hagger said Friday.

"We are not making any accusations at this time on whether the contractor had deliberately avoided the specs," he said. "But we are making further investigation."

Merle Buhler, a department engineer, said state inspection crews discovered large cracks in about 10 per cent of the 276 bridge piles.

The $4.5 million, 5,655-foot bridge, which will span the Fort Randall Reservoir, had been scheduled for completion next fall.

The bridge is being financed by the U.S. Corps of Engineers. It is expected to be the longest span between the Mississippi River and the West Coast.

Buhler said the cracks in the bridge supports apparently were caused by freezing and the condition of the pre-stressed concrete.

Gov. Archie Gubbrud said that if the highway engineers had not discovered the cracks, the rising water level of the reservoir might have covered the defects.

"We aren't very happy about this," the governor said. "But it's one of those things that happen — and it's obvious that someone made a mistake."

DEAR ABBY:

Cancer Society Will Benefit

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Why do so many women object to a man growing a beard? I am sure that the good Lord didn't put hair on the faces of men so that a razor company could sponsor boxing matches. And you line right up alongside the rest of the women and say, "If the beard scratches—scratch him!" Men parted with their beards about the same time women were given the right to vote and permitted to drive automobiles (you can do neither intelligently) but knowing how you women stick together I'll bet ten bucks this never sees print. TED W.

DEAR TED: You lose! Now send that ten bucks to the Cancer Society.

DEAR ABBY: I've never seen a problem like ours in your column, and hope you can help us. Three years ago my husband accidentally hit a boy on a bicycle, and the boy was killed instantly. It was a foggy night, the boy darted out in front of the car, and my husband was not exceeding the speed limit, so no charges were brought against him. He was so heartsick he lost 30 pounds. Our problem is: Every Christmas since that happened we have sent the boy's family a lovely basket of fruit and a large wreath of flowers for the boy's grave. I have the feeling that perhaps we shouldn't do this because it reminds them that their son is dead and my husband is still living. We surely don't want to cause them any more heartaches in the future. Can you or someone who has been through this advise us? STUMPED

Abby

DEAR STUMPED: You didn't say how the family reacted to your gifts. If they appear appreciative, by all means continue. If your gifts are acknowledged coolly, or not at all — discontinue the practice.

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to "NOT MOVING" gives me the impression that you are plain stupid. I agree with the letter, NOT with your answer. I have 30 minutes for lunch and I don't aim to spend it moving around so that people can sit together at a lunch counter. I also refuse to move. Why should I? I've never asked anybody to move for me. I'll bet you would stand in line at a grocery check-out with 6 or 7 people who each had about $15 worth of groceries, and you'd let someone ahead of you with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter. I wouldn't, but I think you are stupid enough to. Yours truly, HOMER IN SOUTH GATE

DEAR HOMER: You sure have me pegged, Buddy. I frequently let someone ahead of me with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter. And I'm stupid enough to enjoy it.

DEAR ABBY: Don't tell me there is nothing to dreams. My husband tells the truth more times when he's sleeping than he does awake. One night he did a lot of talking in his sleep. When he woke up I asked him about it. He laughed it off, saying he didn't know what I was talking about. In a few months there will be living proof that he was not lying in his sleep. I am glad he talks in his sleep. Otherwise, when it comes to telling the truth, he would bat zero. DREAMER'S MATE

Taconite, Bill, Computers on AAUW Program

More than 50 members of the Winona Branch, American Association of University Women took part in the all-day meeting Saturday at the Watkins Products Inc. plant and the Hotel Winona. In the forenoon the group visited the computer section of the company, where the various operations of the computer, such as key-punching, sorting and data processing were explained by Robert Gleason, Philip Eberhard, and Harry L. Anderson, all of whom have been involved with the work of the computer for several years.

Luncheon at the hotel, highlighted by a speech on the Taconite Amendment, was preceded by a brief business session, at which Mrs. Robert Horton presided. It was announced that on Feb. 13 at Pasture Hall Dr. Zoe Swecker, of the Winona State College faculty, will discuss "Occident and Orient: Some Basic Considerations." This meeting will be sponsored by the Occident and Orient study group, of which Mrs. Curtis Johnson is chairman.

Other groups which will be meeting soon include the afternoon literature group on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Horton, and the "Occident and Orient" group at the home of Mrs. Johnson at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Horton asked that members who wish to have fellowship luncheons or dinners in their homes call Mrs. David Mahke or Mrs. James Spear.

During luncheon the Winter Carnival Royalty paid a visit and presented to several officers and chairmen carnival "appointments". Entertainment following luncheon was provided by Nancy Edstrom, who played an organ solo, and by Mrs. C. Robert Stephenson who sang three selections from musical comedies. Mrs. Stephenson was accompanied by Nancy, Arnold Stenehjelm joined Mrs. Stephenson in a duet from "The Music Man". Mrs. Stephenson and Miss Edstrom were introduced by Miss Evelyn Taraldson, program chairman.

AAUW legislative chairman, Mrs. Ray Crowley, introduced Mrs. Virginia Torgerson, state representative from Winona, who discussed the Taconite Amendment which will appear on the state ballots in 1964. Mrs. Torgerson described the taxation of regular iron ores, including the ad valorem, occupation and royalty taxes and described the competition developed after the Korean War throughout the world.

She told of the process of manufacturing taconite and the present taxes against taconite and semi-taconite, including taconite tax in lieu of ad valorem taxes, railroad gross earnings tax, occupation and royalty taxes, and listed the several types of amendments to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota which have been proposed.

She pointed out what the new proposed amendment does not do, that it does not apply to regular ore mining companies, that in the lieu taconite tax will not be affected so that the taxing authorities where the mines are situated will be able to raise additional property taxes if necessary, and that it does not give immunity to taconite companies nor freeze their rates.

Mrs. Torgerson said that the amendment had to sound complicated in order to protect the State of Minnesota from losses. Chapter 81 of the Minnesota

MR. AND MRS. Reynolds Tomter, Pigeon Falls, Wis., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Julie Ann Tomter, to David C. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Warner, Whitehall, Wis. The wedding will be Feb. 2 at Evangelical Lutheran Church, Pigeon Falls. The bride-elect is a registered nurse and is employed at Luther Hospital, Eau Claire. Her fiance is in the submarine service of the Navy, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Laws of 1963 are incorporated by reference and that chapter provides:

1. That taconite companies shall be taxed by whichever is the greater: laws in existence on July 1, 1963, or the amount applicable to manufacturing corporations other than taconite.

2. A provision apportioning income to Minnesota other than ordinary manufacturing corporations because almost all taconite will be sold and shipped outside the state and the legislature wished to make certain it would be able to tax the taconite companies correctly.

3. Capital losses cannot be carried forward from one taxable year to another except to the extent permitted by laws. The Legislature anticipates the taconite companies may lose money for a number of years and should not be permitted to carry forward all those losses as deductions in later years.

4. The market value may be treated as gross income. This is provided because some taconite producers might sell to steel company stockholders at cost.

5. A provision regarding deduction of federal income tax to prevent too much of a benefit in the case of a taconite company operating as a subsidiary of a steel company.

6. Taconite and semi-taconite are defined to prevent application of the amendment to other and richer ores. The definition is that iron formation of which iron oxide particles are so small that fine grinding to less than 20 mesh -- to pass a screen with 400 openings to the square inch -- is necessary to permit separation from the silica.

Mrs. Torgerson stated that both Gov. Elmer L. Andersen and Sen. Hubert Humphrey had favored the new amendment and she urged its adoption. Also recommended was the adoption of a second amendment to be proposed which removes some obsolete language from the Constitution which has been superseded by federal law or Supreme Court decisions.

Mrs. Torgerson stated that when the Great River Road is completed, she hoped it would lead to a Northern Minnesota blossoming with fully operating taconite plants.

St. Olaf Choir Sings Concert Of Sacred Music Saturday

By Mrs. James K. Carlson
An outstanding choir of 68 voices filled Winona Senior High Auditorium with sacred music Saturday evening, and even a critical listener would have thought he was hearing professional singers. They were, however, college students, members of the famed St. Olaf College Choir, and inspiring to hear.

The choir, by all comparisons, is a superbly trained group of musicians, and is directed by Dr. Olaf C. Christiansen, ably carrying on the traditions of his father, the late F. Melius Christiansen.

It was the elder Christiansen who founded the choir and initiated its long history of touring in this country and in Europe.

THE FIRST SECTION of the program included numbers by four of the most brilliant spokesmen for the Renaissance spirit in sacred music; all of these numbers were written before 1600.

In "Hodie Christus Natus Est" by Palestrina, the mystical, almost unearthly quality of this great Italian composer was beautifully expressed by the singers. Thomas Vittoria, a Spanish contemporary of Palestrina, was represented by "O Quam Gloriosum," and the choir produced the smooth, sustained phrases of this song as if breathing were unnecessary.

"Alas They Have Taken The Lord" was next, this somber tune by Thomas Morley, the Englishman more famous for his secular madrigals than for sacred songs.

The elegant counterpoint of Orlando di Lasso, a Frenchman by birth but Italian by association, was well done in "Surrexit Pastor Bonus." In response to well-deserved applause, the choir added the familiar "Praise Him in Gladness," arranged by the director.

THREE MOTETS for double choir were offered in the second portion of the program, these showing an interesting contrast between the gigantic genius of Johann Sebastian Bach and the contemporary expression of Healy Willan. The great Baroque motets of Bach were a culmination of nearly 500 years of development of this form. As a rule, a motet is an unaccompanied choral composition, based on a sacred Latin text; specific rules were followed in the use of words, rhythms, and melodic themes.

"Be Not Afraid," a fast moving motet performed by double choir (two equal groups of sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses) was probably one of the most difficult numbers of the evening, and was contrasted to "We Need Thee O Lord," a quiet, smooth, supplicating expression of Bach's religious devotion.

In Willan's "Apostrophe to the Heavenly Hosts" the first modern music of the program was well-received. In the choir's third group, recent musical settings of ancient texts by American, Russian, German, and Scandinavian composers of the last 100 years were presented. "Vision of Peace" (from Isaiah) by Jean Berger was one of the most effective numbers of the evening, with angular melodic lines, and dramatic contrasts between loud and soft.

THE SLOW, sustained Agnus Dei" featured the low bass notes, typical in Russian liturgical songs. The most dissonant of the modern settings was "At the Cross Remember Me" (from Luke) and the singers appeared, understandably, to have some difficulty in performing its harsh harmonies.

The more traditional chords of Anton Bruckner's "Christus Factus Est" showed the influence of that Austrian's compositions for organ. Hugo Distler's "Sing to the Lord a New Song" contained vigorous and rhythmic parts contrasted to soft, restrained sections.

In the final offerings, the choir sang ancient and modern hymns and carols, beginning with a stirring professional "Crown Him King of Glory," by Olaf C. Christiansen. "All Men Draw Near" was an interesting setting by Zoltan Kodaly; the contemporary Hungarian who has done extensive research into the folk melodies of his country; his short, repeated phrases were well enunciated by the youthful singers.

A TENDER German carol, "Auf Dem Berge," arranged by Kranz, and three lovely songs written and arranged by F. Melius Christiansen, completed the program. "In Dulci Jubilo" with a familiar 14th century German melody, proved an audience favorite with its swinging rhythm and beautifully done soprano solo.

"A Christmas Symbol" featured another lovely soprano solo, and the final "Praise to the Lord" was a reverent tribute to the founder of this extraordinary musical group.

In encore, the genial director presented Miss Georgianna Loomis of Winona as a talented and capable soloist in the beloved "Beautiful Savior."

We're Off to A Good Start

THE NEW YEAR is less than 15 days old yet it seems to be going well. The great economic growth of 1963 appears to be continuing, we have a new President who is off to an impressive start and, with a few exceptions, the international situation seems fairly calm.

The year past, however, will stand out stark in the chronology of our times. It was dominated — indeed, overwhelmed — by one terrible event.

The nation is still wondering what was done to the soul of America by the assassination of John F. Kennedy. In the first few hours there was football-as-usual. In the long nights when men remembered the muffled drums and the scandal of the Dallas jail there was a kind of horror that a free people could have grown so irreverent of the law.

IN THE LONGER light of many dawns, however, we will remember Mr. Kennedy's contributions. One was the nuclear test ban, after which you could hear the world exhale. Another was a polish that the Presidency had often lacked and will miss. Most of all, perhaps, was an insistence on the dignity of the American person.

History, of course, will handle the failings — the stalemate with Congress, the power squeeze on business — when these short years of a memorable Presidency are put in perspective. Today, it is too early to judge.

WHAT HAPPENED IN Congress was hardly worth mentioning.

In the nation a business boomlet surprised the pessimists. Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges told us at the end of the year that the Gross National Product had topped $600 billion for the first time. And that was a lot more than in '62.

People were earning more and possibly learning more. Here in Minnesota we had the longest recount in the governor's race that has ever been recorded anywhere. Business has been good, but not the best, but with a favorable vote on the taconite amendment, a surge forward, particularly on the Iron Range, is expected.

ALL THE football pre-polls were wrong, and the Yankees lost four straight in the World Series.

John Glenn and his spacemen were the Lindberghs of a new generation. People stopped kidding about the Peace Corps.

But, inexorably, we went deeper into debt, and the ceiling had to be raised. The richest and best-informed nation on earth hasn't admitted in 30 years that punishing taxes are the penalty for living beyond your means as a people.

President Johnson has indicated he favors a cut — and his budget is somewhat lower than had been anticipated under our late President. This is cheering news, but now the nation is waiting to see just what will be done about a cutback in expenditures — at least one that amounts to something.

IN 1963 THE world said farewell to a popular Pope and made its manners to a new one of promise. In Christian nations church participation reached a new high.

Castro's Cuba was a nut yet to be cracked but perhaps (despite the juntas) there was a little more stability in Latin America.

What challenged the imagination was the bad blood boiling between Communist Russia and Communist China. What was patent was the spectacular slippage in the Soviet economy: communism came to capitalism seeking wheat.

Both the East and the West cut back a little on men and arms, and there was much less thundering. Men change, because change is a law of life. Is it for the better? Will the rest of the 1960's bring on a new Victorian era?

AS WE move well into 1964 and with Congress again in session, we should be grateful that we have a President who sits tall in the saddle after a mountainous transition brightened only by the smooth functioning of our Constitution. One defect, however, must be remedied: the manner of presidential succession in case of disability or death of both the President and the Vice President.

We can be somewhat optimistic about the pace of our economic growth because it has a continuity which ignores calendars. It's good now and everything indicates it will continue to be. Let's hope so and let's hope also that 1964 will not be another year of great national tragedy.

HOW DO YOU STAND, SIR?

Hoodwinking On Economy

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

The recently announced shutdown of military bases and Navy yards by the Department of Defense was hailed widely as a return to fiscal sanity in the most costly branch of our government.

Secretary of Defense McNamara said the action would save the taxpayers upwards of $100 million, and most of us welcome such frugality, even though at times it may have a bearing on the income and economic status of our states and districts. But none of us likes to be hoodwinked with a grandstand play for economy if such is not the case.

One of the keenest of our congressional watchdogs on economy, Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa, sourly greeted the news of cutbacks in defense installations with the comment that Secretary McNamara could have saved the taxpayer $400 million by contracting with Boeing to supply the military with the TFX plane.

McNamara ignored the recommendations of his top Army, Navy and Air Force advisors, who wanted the Boeing version of the plane, and awarded the contract to General Dynamics, which would build the aircraft in President Johnson's home state of Texas.

The practice of saving $100 million while throwing away $400 million is not new at the Pentagon, but it should be brought to a halt before the nation finds itself in a position of not being able to support a Defense Department.

Although it undoubtedly is true that much of the controversy about unnecessary government spending is purely political, a great deal of waste does exist, and the only thing political about this fact is that it is greater under "liberal" administrations and Congresses.

PERHAPS THE greatest source of objective information on this profligacy with the taxpayers' money is, paradoxically, a governmental office which is non-political — the General Accounting Office, which comes under the direction of Comptroller General Joseph Campbell.

Although the comptroller general is appointed by the President with the "advice and consent" of the Senate, the nature of his work and the length of his term keeps the office pretty much out of the sphere of politics.

The comptroller general is required to audit and rule on the legality of all government spending, and his term in office is 15 years. He thus is charged with the responsibility of investigating through the GAO the actions of the administration which appoints him and those which follow during his term in office.

Last year, for instance, refunds, collections, savings and other financial benefits accruing to the general public from the work of the GAO amounted to nearly $250 million, or approximately two-and-a-half times the amount supposedly saved by the shutdown of military bases and Navy yards.

PERHAPS BECAUSE it gets the biggest chunk of our budget, the Department of Defense and its activities occupy most of GAO's time. In the huge and swelling bureaucracy of the department, reckless and unnecessary spending long has been a problem. That it does not grow worse faster is due primarily to the efforts of GAO, which tracks down and brings to light all sorts of uncalled for waste.

Just one further example of this profligacy with the Treasury's money may explain why the latest and most widely-touted saving — the $100 million on defense installations — is but a drop in the proverbial bucket.

Two years ago, GAO presented a report to Congress showing that the military was skirting competitive bidding requirements and making purchases through direct contract. This is the practice which was followed in the award of the TFX contract to General Dynamics, according to critics of the Kennedy-Johnson administration.

AS A RESULT of the report and Congressional pressure, all branches of the service have been forced to revert to competitive procedures. How do you stand sir?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Johnson Revolutionized Presidential Image Fully

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It has now been about 50 days since a new President of the United States entered the White House, and during that time not a single policy of the late President has been changed. Yet the entire presidential image has been changed — from press conferences, to relations with Congress, to easygoing informality.

Most observers expected LBJ to be a me-too President. But no man has so changed the presidential image in so short a time without changing a single policy.

Quipped UPI's Merriman Smith after a press conference at the LBJ ranch: "Never before in history has a President held a press conference using a bale of hay for a podium and then made his exit on horseback."

Pearson

"Never before has the White House staff been given orders to get a reception for 300 congressmen on three hours' notice and put it across."

Said a White House policeman to newspaper guests: "Just drive up the front driveway, park, and walk in the front door like rich folks."

Remarketed one White House employee: "Nothing around here is the same. Now we've got just plain, cotton-pickin' folks."

Not in a good many years — if ever — has the business advisory council been invited to the White House for dinner to read the President's State of the Union message in advance, or the AFI-CIO Executive Council to lunch to read the message; or the foreign correspondents been given a personal tour of the living quarters of the White House by the President himself, including his pajamas lay neatly folded on his turned-down bed.

SELDOM BEFORE has a visiting head of state been given such thoughtful treatment as Chancellor Ludwig Erhard — from the box of cigars chosen by cigar connoisseur Pierre Salinger; to the book on his bedside table, "Pioneers of These Hills," telling how the Germans settled the LBJ part of Texas; to the German language sermon preached by the Lutheran minister; to the special Quiche Lorraine, or cheese custard pie, specially prepared by the first lady.

Finally, there has seldom been such vigor in a President's relations with Congress.

Yes, the presidential image has changed completely without changing a single policy.

The White House operates one of the most efficient telephone switchboards in the nation's capital. Its hello-girls are experts. But frequently when you call the White House these days, you find its lines are jammed.

One reason is the telephoning of the President himself.

THE OTHER DAY Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine got a phone call from the President. She was on the Senate floor, where she usually is, but was called into the Republican cloakroom by a Senate page. The President said he didn't have anything special to talk about but didn't want any wall to be built up between them. He hoped that she would come down and see him sometime.

Sen. Smith replied that she didn't feel any wall was being built up. "We're too old friends for that," she said.

Three days later, on a Sunday, Mrs. Smith got another phone call from Lyndon to wish her a happy birthday. He said he'd been thinking about her on the previous day — her birthday — but was so swamped he hadn't called her.

He told Sen. Smith that he had been talking with the Pentagon regarding the cut-back of bases, and that the Portsmouth — Kittery Point submarine base was on the original list to be closed.

"But I told the Pentagon, 'I don't want to do this to the lady from Maine. Take it back and review it.' Of course," he added to Mrs. Smith, "we may have to close it eventually."

NATURALLY this was not pleasant news to the senator from Maine, and she wanted to know what the Navy would do in case of emergency. She also asked: "How are you going to have a yardstick to see whether the private yards are overcharging the government or not? The government will be at the mercy of the private yards if you close Kittery."

To Your Good Health

Many Have Allergies

By J. G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Any information concerning allergies from dust and pollen would be greatly appreciated. MR. B.

That's a big order. It is estimated that 75 percent of us have at least minor allergies, and 25 percent have strong ones, and no two of them are necessarily alike. However, maybe I can give you some helpful clues.

An allergy is a hypersensitivity to something or other which ordinarily is harmless. The symptoms can be a running nose, chronic drainage in the throat, hives, itch, inflamed eyes, sneezes, digestive upsets and a host of other common complaints.

Pairing the hypersensitivity with the symptom isn't always easy. A careful history of the case is essential. In one instance symptoms occurred only on weekends; a lot of detective work disclosed that certain cheeses used for snacks when the family visited their cottage was the cause.

Pollen allergy is usually easier to spot because of its seasonal nature, but remember that two or three different types may overlap. A dozen or so pollens, at least, are frequently involved in "hay fever." It isn't just a single ragweed.

DUST SENSITIVITIES may be harder to identify, and involve many things other than "dirt." Molds, yeast, pollen, animal danders, feathers, fabrics—quite a list.

We may sneeze from the irritation if a cloud of dust blows in our faces. The allergic person doesn't need a cloud of it. Watch the particles in the air where a sunbeam falls. Just a few particles of the right (or wrong!) material can make an allergic person sneeze. What can be done? Medical history and skin tests will usually identify at least some of the offending types of dust, and if the symptoms warrant, desensitization by injections may be utilized.

IN LESS severe cases, dust can be reduced by having a minimum of knickknacks around, and use of oiled cloth or mop for cleaning.

Allergies tend to add together. If you are sensitive to several things, you may have symptoms if ALL affect you at once, but you may escape if you encounter them singly. Or encounter them in small enough concentrations.

If you can avoid some of the things that bother you, you may find that the others will give you less trouble because your total exposure is reduced.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is the diocetyl sodium sulfosuccinate that you mentioned in your column available without a prescription? — MEIS, A. C.

Yes, the D-S-S is available in drug stores without a prescription. It is sold under a dozen or so trade names, but any up-to-date druggist can help you select one.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 18 and quite frequently get a bloody nose. I will just be sitting there and it will start to bleed. Sometimes I wake up in the morning and find blood on the pillow. I have had my nose broken three times but don't think this is the cause. — D. B.

At your age I doubt that high blood pressure is involved. That leaves us with two or three principal possibilities. Some people cause nose bleeds by picking their noses.

Be Your Own Judge In School Dispute

To the Editor: We would like to ask all persons who may have read the two articles — one in Thursday's edition, and one in Friday's edition, and the letter to the editor that followed in Sunday's edition concerning the School Board meeting held on Tuesday, Jan. 7 in St. Charles, that you be your own judge as to which of the first two articles was correct.

In making your decision, we wish to inform you that Friday's article was a correction made after Frank Koch and Del Ruhberg, accompanied by Henry J. Bartel, Superintendent of the St. Charles School appeared before the area editor of the Winona Daily News to make that correction.

We feel, and believe you will also, that as administrator of the school, Mr. Bartel would not have permitted these corrections to have been made had they not been correct.

—even unconsciously while they are asleep. If we can pass that by, it leaves:

A — Enlarged superficial blood vessels that rupture at the slightest irritation or — a small ulcerated spot which bleeds periodically. This is the most likely answer in a case like yours, and it is readily corrected by simple cauterization, which your doctor can do in his office.

Dear Dr. Molner: A neighbor has a skin problem and I notice that when people smoke around her, the condition becomes worse. She seems very uncomfortable but will not complain. Is it too much to expect her husband to give up smoking and don't you think her friends should be more considerate? — MRS. H.

It's up to her to say so if the smoke bothers her. After that, her husband and friends should, of course, be considerate, meaning not smoking when with her — or cutting down to a degree that does not unduly bother her. But it seems to me that she ought to make the first move. Or the first comment.

NOTE TO B.J.R.: Some medications can pervert the sense of smell and taste, but I have never heard that pain-killing injections in the shoulder can do so.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Support For Barry

By LOUIS HARRIS

In the positions he has taken to date on public issues, Sen. Barry Goldwater received overwhelming support from conservatives in this country, a mixed reaction from the rank and file of Republicans and substantial disagreement from the electorate as a whole.

The central problem of the Goldwater candidacy for the Presidency is that, up to now, it has been tailored to the one-third of the voters who see themselves as conservatives, while the GOP nomination will be decided by Republicans of all stripes, and the election itself will be settled by a still broader constituency.

A SURVEY of a carefully-drawn probability cross-section of the voting public shows the line-up of American voters on nine issues on which the Arizona Republican has taken positions. The results indicate the extent of agreement with Goldwater among the total electorate, Republicans and those who classify themselves as conservatives:

GOLDWATER ON THE ISSUES (Among Those With Opinions) AGREE WITH GOLDWATER

	Total GOP Voters	Conservative	Rep.	Other
Cut government spending	72	89	93
Gradually withdraw farm price supports	60	68	73
Favor right to work laws	53	66	70
Oppose wheat sale to Russia	40	47	62
No tax cut until budget balanced	38	49	58
Leave Medicare to private companies	36	50	55
Oppose atomic test ban treaty	32	45	47
Sell TVA to private companies	32	43	55
Consider withdrawing from U.N.	11	17	20

Most significant is that of nine stands taken by Goldwater, the general voting public now agrees with him on only three while disagreeing on six. Republicans support him on three, disagree on five and divide 50-50 on the remaining one. Conservatives, however, back Goldwater on seven of the nine.

EASILY THE most popular stand of Senator Goldwater is to cut federal spending. Recognizing the Democratic vulnerability on this issue, President Johnson in his first days in office has made much of his intentions of paring the budget. How convincing he will be remains to be seen.

If Senator Goldwater could be judged on this key issue alone, it is possible he could win the Presidency next November. The senator also strikes a responsive chord in his stand to do away gradually with farm price supports. Surveys show that even farmers themselves have become disillusioned with the complex system of price supports and production controls and want to go back to a free market for farm products. Goldwater's farm position will undoubtedly attract both city and rural votes.

ON THE KEY current foreign policy stands — his opposition to the sale of wheat to Russia and to the recent atomic test ban treaty — Senator Goldwater finds himself at odds with a majority of the American people and, perhaps more seriously for him, with a majority of his fellow Republicans. Coupled with the idea of considering withdrawal from the United Nations (a position the senator has tempered some of late), the foreign policy stance of the senator emerges easily the most controversial part of his platform.

The most unpopular domestic stand of Senator Goldwater is to sell off the Tennessee Valley Authority, where he meets general disagreement by 2 to 1. Significantly, the South opposes the senator on this issue by close to a 4-to-1 margin. Only slightly more than a bare majority of conservatives go along with him on TVA.

IN HIS campaigning, Barry Goldwater will have to make clear those issues on which he is willing to stand or fall. If the showdown on Goldwater were over these nine issues alone, he would have a tough, uphill fight at best to win the nomination or the Presidency. But Presidents are chosen partly on their stands and partly on their personalities as well. In tomorrow's column, the total Goldwater Impact — including the Goldwater political personality — will be measured.

Let's Get Growing

By A. F. SHIRA

Holiday Gift Plants

This post-holiday period brings in the usual number of inquiries in regard to the handling of some gift plants so they can be carried over for another year of flowering.

The plants that bloom during this season of the year are not usually classed as "house plants", as they are grown generally in the hot, humid atmosphere of a greenhouse. From there they are transferred to the very different and generally unfavorable conditions of the average home. Yet, if they are properly handled and given the necessary care, some of them may be grown on to flower in another year.

In an article last month we talked about the poinsettia, so let us start off here with the azalea which is one of the most beautiful plants typical of the holiday season. It is a small tree-like plant that will bloom profusely for a number of weeks, if given suitable care. It requires good light and humidity, plenty of water, and a room temperature of 60 to 70 degrees, if possible.

AFTER THE PLANT has bloomed off, continue to keep it in a lighted room with ample water while new growth is forming. If it is desired to prune the plant to keep it more shapely, this can be done right after flowering.

The azalea requires an acid soil and, since the soil tends to lose this acidity, an application of aluminum sulphate at the rate of one teaspoonful dissolved in water to each plant is very desirable. About every two weeks it should have a feeding of a liquid fertilizer.

In the spring after the weather has become warm, the pot can be buried in the rim in a partially shaded place in the garden. We have found a location among the low-growing evergreens to be good. The plant should be kept well watered with an occasional feeding of a complete fertilizer.

The plant should be taken indoors before the first frost in the fall and kept in a cool, lighted room. If the conditions have been suitable, it should bloom again.

THE CYCLAMEN is generally considered to be the most difficult of the holiday plants to keep growing in the home, but, at the same time, one of the most beautiful. Its blooming period can be prolonged by keeping it in a cool well-lighted room during the day, but not in direct sunlight, and in a cool room or the basement at night.

After the plant has bloomed off, the watering can be reduced gradually as it is one that should go through a rest period. A light watering every two weeks is sufficient. It can be kept in a cool dry basement until the weather warms up in the spring when it can be placed outdoors and handled as suggested above for the azalea.

When the cyclamen is taken again into the house in the late summer, it can be repotted in a fresh soil mixture. In doing this, the crown of the tuber should be well above the surface of the soil in the pot.

THE BEAUTIFUL and popular gloxinia is another plant that requires special handling. At the same time it does not seem to be as touchy as either the azalea or the cyclamen and is more easily grown. While in bloom it should be kept in a light place, but not in direct sunlight. The soil should be kept moist, but over-watering should be avoided.

When flowering has been completed, the watering can be discontinued. Then the pot can be placed on the floor in a closet, or in a dry basement, for a period of about two months to rest.

As soon as new growth starts, it can be repotted in the same pot, or one slightly larger, but fresh soil should be used. A mixture of one part good garden soil and one part peat moss, together with some sand, is a good one to use. An application of a liquid plant food will be very beneficial. Then, the pot can be placed in a warm bright room. If the conditions have been favorable, the plant should continue to grow and flower.

Truck Breaks Off Highway 61 Posts

Five highway guard posts were removed from the side of Highway 14-61 near Dresbaen today at 1:15 a.m. by a skidding semitrailer truck.

The driver, Gilbert L. Dace, Sterling, Ill., told sheriff's officers he applied his brakes when a car passed him on the detour route, just east of Dresbach.

Traveling west, the truck skidded 136 feet on the roadway, 168 feet along the right shoulder and ditch, across the road to the other ditch and stopped facing east. The truck had damages of $300 but remained upright. Dace was not injured.

Stassen Shows Interest in Wisconsin Race

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Harold Stassen, who has expressed interest in entering Wisconsin's presidential primary, has asked a meeting with a state Republican leader and an aide for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller says he will visit the state within a month.

Hard on the heels of these developments, State GOP chairman Talbot Peterson of Appleton announced Sunday that a number of Republican speakers will stop in Wisconsin to back the favorite son presidential nomination campaign of Rep. John W. Byrnes of Green Bay.

Peterson said Saturday night he had received a telegram asking a meeting with Stassen, who is now in Russia as president of the American Baptist Convention.

Stassen had said last July he was interested in entering Wisconsin's April 7 primary. Asked what effect Stassen's possible entry into the primary would have on the Byrnes "favorite son" campaign, Peterson said, "We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

Stassen, who told Peterson he wanted to discuss the Wisconsin political situation, is scheduled to speak in Milwaukee next Sunday as president of the Baptist organization. Stassen won 19 of 27 delegates in the 1948 Wisconsin presidential primary, but failed to get any in 1952.

Peterson said he was aware that Stassen would be in the state, but added, "I'm not going to call him. He can call me if he wants to. I don't know his intentions and none of the Pennsylvania Republicans I have talked with know either."

Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the two announced candidates for the Republican presidential nomination, have said they will bypass the Wisconsin primary in deference to the Byrnes campaign as long as no major candidate enters the state race.

Lawrence B. Lindemer, former Michigan state GOP chairman from Lansing who was named midwest director of the Rockefeller campaign Saturday, said, "We're not just going to walk away from Wisconsin and leave it. It's a major state."

Lake City Aims Lighting Plan

LAKE CITY, Minn.—The Lake City Chamber of Commerce is on record for new lighting on Lyon Avenue hearing from the state district Highway Department regarding its contribution.

Final decision on new lighting will be by the city council and the electric utility. ROBERT OWENS, district traffic engineer, said under regular trunk highway policy the state is permitted to participate in lighting of accident or other hazardous locations. Lyon Avenue is Highway 63.

Charles Burrill, district engineer, said Lyon Avenue could be considered as having a number of hazardous intersections because of the railroad, church and school crossings.

The state doesn't pay for standards in the middle of blocks but only at hazardous corners. Usually there are two posts at corners. The state would pay for one.

Installation was said to run about $700 per standard. Usually there are four standards to a block. The state pays only toward installation — maintenance and current is city expense.

The men said that in improving the present lights, they could only participate in underground wiring and the ornamental system, they couldn't put money toward the present wood poles.

OWENS SAID the department prefers mercury vapor lights over fluorescent because they are cheaper to install and operate.

WORTHINGTON, Minn. (AP) — A Worthington youth wounded in a shooting accident died in a hospital here Sunday night.

Bernard Sandersfeld, 17, was shot in the left eye with a .22 caliber pistol Saturday.

The girl, Leah Roslyn Hart, 4, and her mother had just visited the graves of the girl's grandmother and 7-year-old brother, who died last year. The girl was running to catch up with mother when she bumped into the loose headstone.

Conservative Group to Visit Here on Tuesday

A touring group of state legislators will address a joint meeting of five city service clubs Tuesday noon at Hotel Winona. Moderating the panel discussion will be Mrs. Virginia Torgerson, Winona city representative.

Guests of the sponsoring Exchange Club will be members of Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and Soroptimist clubs.

Other legislators on the program will be Rep. Clinton Hall, Rushford, and Rep. John Yngbe, Plymouth. One other panelist, still unnamed, will join the legislative group. Mrs. Torgerson said. The representatives are affiliated with the Conservative majority's action group, now engaged in what is called Project Update, 1964.

The legislators will discuss the governor's order calling for a 5 percent across the board cut in state expenditures, based on predicted governmental receipts for this year. A question period also will be held, Mrs. Torgerson said.

Kryzsko Heads Hunt for Marshall State President

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota State College Board approved the report of its site selection committee recommending Marshall as the location of a southwestern Minnesota state college today.

The report of the site selection committee was made public several weeks ago. The board also approved steps toward hiring a president for the new college. Board Chairman Charles F. Mourin of Aurora recommended such action and board member S.J. Kryzsko of Winona was appointed to head a committee to seek a president.

In a move to prevent dropouts from state colleges and avoid acceptance at the fall quarter of students unprepared to enter college, the board approved a "deferred admission" plan submitted by St. Cloud State College.

The board also approved a motion to permit the other colleges at Moorhead, Winona, Bemidji and Mankato, to adopt a similar plan on an individual basis. The plan would not be effective until the fall quarter of 1964.

Garage Housing St. Cloud Garbage Trucks Burns

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP) — City officials made emergency plans to haul the city's garbage after a fire destroyed a building housing most of the regular equipment Saturday.

The blaze, discovered about 3 a.m., destroyed four packer trucks, worth about $10,500 each and a bulldozer, worth about $13,000. The equipment was housed in a building about three miles south of the city.

Initial plans called for the use of city dump trucks, and garbage pickups once a week instead of twice, until new equipment is obtained.

A small oil-burning heater or electrical headlight heaters in the trucks were suspected as possible causes of the fire.

Sen. McCarthy May Set Up V.P. Committee

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., says it may be necessary to set up an informal committee to deal with offers of support for him as a candidate for vice president.

He made it clear he will not seek the nomination, acknowledged he had received offers of support from a number of congressmen and educators and added: "It may be necessary to have the boys set up an informal committee to respond to these offers."

He said the committee's response could be something like, "If a decision is made to take more positive action, we'll call you."

"A committee," said the senator, "can just kind of hold things. Sometimes a committee can prevent action. When in doubt set up a committee."

McCarthy, whose first senate term expires this year, was among those who got votes in a recent nationwide poll of Democratic county chairmen conducted by the Associated Press.

Receiving the most support for vice president in the poll was Minnesota's senior senator, Hubert H. Humphrey.

Extensive damages were inflicted on three cars in a collision at the entrance to the Winona Country Club Sunday at 3:14 p.m.

Mrs. Howard Dorn, 1603 W. 5th St., driving south on CSAH 17 (Pleasant Valley), slowed to make a left turn into the Country Club drive. Gary C. Walters, 17, Houston Rt. 2, following her, was unable to stop because of icy conditions, according to the report, and collided with the rear end of the Dorn auto. The Walters car slid to the west shoulder and stopped. The Dorn auto was pushed to the left, hitting a parked car belonging to Edward B. Stephens, 555 E. 4th St.

All three autos had over $300 damages but none of the occupants were hurt, according to sheriff's officers who investigated. No citations were issued.

North Central Has Good Year

MINNEAPOLIS — North Central Airlines' record traffic, coupled with an industry-leading operating performance during 1963, highlight the airline's greatest year in its 16-year history, it was announced today by Hal N. Carr, president.

Yearend traffic figures reveal the airline carried a record 1,214,532 passengers, a gain of 8 percent over 1962, while flying 203,828,672 revenue passenger miles, also a new mark.

Carr said that "for 17 consecutive months — since August 1962 — each month has surpassed its own passenger boarding record. The previous single day high of 4,511 passengers, set in August 1962, was topped six times during 1963." Dec. 20 was finally established as the airline's greatest single day when 4,818 passengers were enplaned.

North Central serves 91 cities (including Winona) in 10 Midwestern states and Canada over its 7,900-mile system.

234,000 Visit Lake City Water Area: Estimate

LAKE CITY, Minn.—According to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, St. Paul, an estimated 234,000 persons participated in recreation at the Lake City waterfront last year.

It is further estimated that some 70,900 motor vehicles passed the official check point near the municipal harbor here during the year.

The figures are based on a government recreational use survey conducted here last summer with John Selck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Selck, as local checker.

John spent two weekends each month from June through October making a spot check of cars Saturdays and Sunday, with additional checks on holidays.

Based on the findings, the Army engineers anticipate a probable 242,000 visitors to the boat harbor and general waterfront area by 1965; 261,000 by 1970, and 273,000 by 1975.

The survey will be of help to the Water Commission in developing future plans. Sightseeing, fishing and swimming in that order attracted most people, and other amusements following.

Similar samplings of the popularity of recreational areas were authorized last summer at six additional sites along the Mississippi River and at several other points in Minnesota and North Dakota.

Cozy Fireplace Nook Adds Charm

A "conversation corner" with a massive brick fireplace and cozy furniture arrangement adds an extra measure of warmth to this sturdy and comfortable two-story colonial home.

The area is tucked away in a corner of the family room, or informal living room, and emphasizes the rustic charm of the room which has applied beams on its ceiling and wood paneling on the walls.

H-11 Statistics

A four-bedroom two-story containing a spare bedroom on the main level; three full baths; full basement; attached two-car garage.

Living space includes 1,549 square feet on first floor not counting a 506-square-foot garage, 1,161 square feet on upper level. Exterior is brick with hand split or sawn shingles.

ELEGANT COLONIAL . . . A covered portico, shuttered windows and a cupola atop the garage impart a typically New England flavor to this handsome four-bedroom home. A 2-foot overhang or cantilever, provides the roof over the living room bay window.

AT THIS time of year, when wintry winds howl, there's little doubt where would be the favorite spot in the house for family relaxing.

But the room has summer-time attraction too. Sliding glass doors lead to a breezy rear terrace, and large windows overlooking the backyard assure plenty of natural light and air when wanted.

The house contains four bedrooms upstairs, each large enough for twin beds, plus a fifth room on the main level which can serve as a maid's room or guest room or can even be pressed into family use.

as an extra bedroom, if necessary.

The spare room also is ideal for an elderly relative, since there's no need to climb stairs to reach it.

THE HOUSE was designed by architect Herman H. York as H-11 in the House of the Week series. It contains 1,549 square feet of living area on the first floor and 1,161 square feet upstairs. The attached garage adds 506 square feet. Overall dimensions are 69' wide by 40'5" deep.

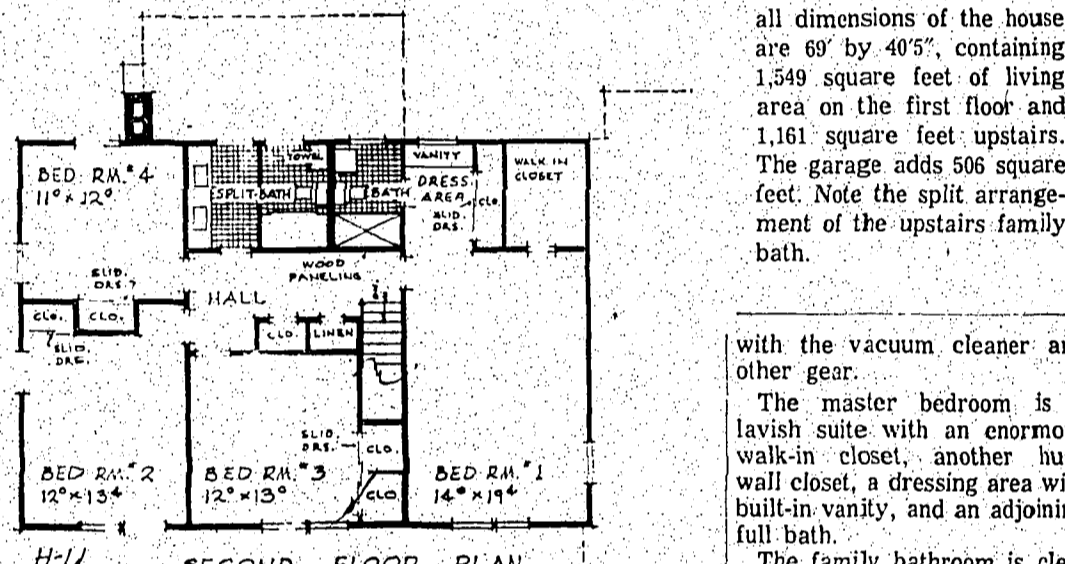

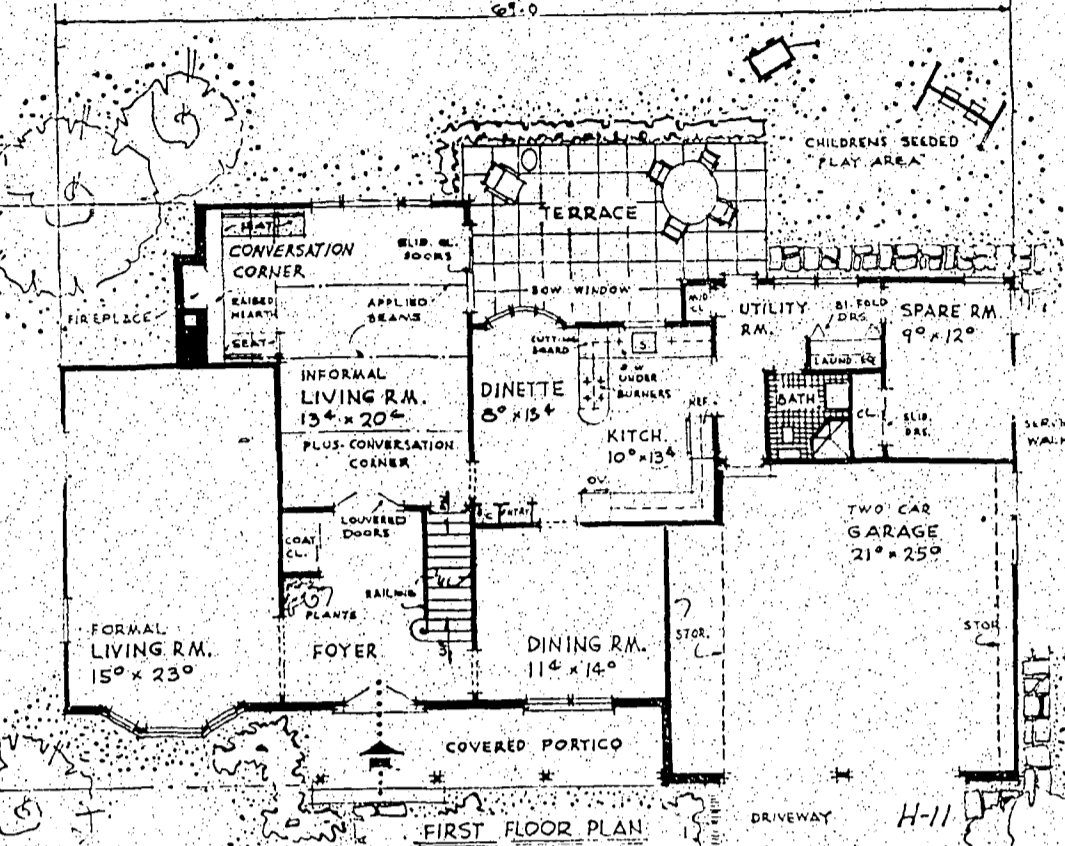

The exterior is typically New England, with a covered porch, double front door, shuttered windows with window boxes, and a quaint cupola atop the garage.

Architect York suggests red brick and natural cedar shingles with the woodwork all in white. "You could use another color on the front door for accent," York says, "but take care it doesn't clash with the brick. Actually, an accent color would be unnecessary in this scheme; a plain white door would be hard to improve on." If the sidewalk shingles are natural, the architect says, the roof shingles should be either white or black.

ARCHITECT York, a leading designer of residential housing, has combined the best from former years with a layout clearly in tune with modern living needs.

The huge entry foyer with its attractive plant area and large coat closet is in effect a glamorous reception room.

The formal living room also is spacious and has plenty of wall area for imaginative furniture arrangements. A large bay win-

The housekeeping area is a well ordered ensemble of large kitchen, large dinette (which also has an attractive bow window) and handy utility room with an adjoining full bathroom.

Remodeling Set At Milwaukee Freight House

A $5,000 building permit was drawn by the Milwaukee Road last week for remodeling of its old freight house and office building just west of the Milwaukee depot.

The work will be done to provide an office and storage area for REA Express which is moving its offices from 216 E. 3rd St. to the West Mark Street site.

This was one of two building permits issued by the city engineer's office last week.

The other went to Budd Squires, 865 Gilmore Ave., for construction of a dormer at the rear of his house.

The dollar volume of new building permits issued during the first two weeks of the year now is $8,750. Last year at this time the total was $757,875.

Last week's permits for gas-fired installations went to:
Kramer & Toye Plumbing Co., for its building at 312 E. 3rd St.
American Plumbing Co., for B. F. Perkins, 523 W. Sanborn St.

A roof of Norfolk reeds, the most durable thatching, costs up to $1,120, but it will last 60 to 80 years if maintained properly. Devon reed remains in tact for 25 to 40 years, wheat straw 10 to 20.

St. Mary's Hosts Hamline Tonight; Warriors Top NIC

Redmen After 4th Straight Loop Win

The Redmen of St. Mary's College seek their fourth straight MIAC basketball victory when the dean of conference coaches, Joe Hutton, brings his Hamline Pipers to Terrace Heights tonight at 8 o'clock.

Few coaches have ascended the heights Hutton has in his 32 years as chief Piper, but St. Mary's proved last year that Hamline in basketball now is just another team.

FOR THE first time in as long as anyone could remember, the Redmen whipped the Pipers twice.

And tonight, they will be favored to beat Hutton and Co. again.

Saturday night St. Mary's whipped St. John's 69-61 and today Ken Wiltgen, Redmen coach, is beaming again.

"We're finally back to normal," said Wiltgen. "Saturday was the first win I've been satisfied with for a long time. We worked our game plan and stayed steadily ahead. We're playing much better now."

Tonight Wiltgen will start Rog Pylewski, who came through with 20 points against the Johnnies after being ill through the middle days of the week, and Mike Maloney at forwards with Jerry Sausser and Al Williams at guards and Jim Rockers at center.

"I DON'T KNOW how long that will last," said the coach. "There's no doubt in my mind that Maloney is a better guard than forward, but Tom Hall hasn't been playing as well as he can."

Hamline will build its attack around 6-7 Fred Schmiesing and 6-0 Juris Kauls.

"They gave Duluth a real good ball game," said Wiltgen. "But I was disappointed with their result against Augsburg."

The Redmen got 13 points from Al Williams and 11 from Jim Rockers.

In other Saturday games, Northern Michigan ran to an 82-58 victory over Bemidji State and Northland broke a 10-game losing streak by beating Minnesota-Morris 83-77.

WINONA STATE COLLEGE basketball team today stands in a tie for the Northern Intercollegiate Conference lead.

That tie will be broken tonight as co-leader St. Cloud hosts winless Michigan Tech.

The Statesmen won their first loop start at Mankato Saturday night in a contest that brought joy to the heart of Warrior Coach Robert Campbell.

"WE REALLY played a game," he said. "We did just what we wanted to do and we made them play our game."

The 70-67 victory stretched the Warriors' victory string to five, snapped Mankato's at eight and left Winona with an 8-6 record.

"We worked until we got what we wanted," said Campbell.

Campbell credited a 1-3-1 defense with a big share of the victory.

"We started in the 1-2-2 half court press we've been using," said the coach, "and then dropped back into a 2-1-2. We played it well, but we weren't aligned right and they were getting too many easy shots.

Then we tried the 1-3-1 and stopped them."

THE WARRIORS finished with an overall shooting percentage of 52 on a 63-percent display in the final half.

Mankato shot 46 percent for the game. Lyle Papenfuss was the big man for the Warriors dropping through 25 points.

Dave Goede had 15 and Gary Peterson 14. Jon Hagen led Mankato with 17 points.

But the road gets no smoother for Winona State. The Warriors face two crucial games this week, hosting undefeated La Crosse State Tuesday before traveling northward to St. Cloud Saturday.

La Crosse will be seeking its ninth straight victory here.

CAMPBELL WILL start the same lineup that opened against the Indians.

Gary Peterson and Lyle Papenfuss will be at forwards with Dave Rosenau at center and Dave Goede and Darrell Schuster at guards.

For La Crosse it will be 5-9 John Cogins and 6-0 Larry Tranberg at guards with 6-3 Vern Stark at center and 6-2 Ken Peterson and 6-1 Doug Potter at forwards.

"They're not big, but they hustle and they're good shooters," said Campbell who will scout St. Cloud tonight.

ROGGE WINS George Rogge defeated Dave Mertes for the YMCA singles handball championship Saturday.

State Tests La Crosse Tuesday

Winona State College's basketball team today stands in a tie for the Northern Intercollegiate Conference lead.

That tie will be broken tonight as co-leader St. Cloud hosts winless Michigan Tech.

The Statesmen won their first loop start at Mankato Saturday night in a contest that brought joy to the heart of Warrior Coach Robert Campbell.

"WE REALLY played a game," he said. "We did just what we wanted to do and we made them play our game."

The 70-67 victory stretched the Warriors' victory string to five, snapped Mankato's at eight and left Winona with an 8-6 record.

"We worked until we got what we wanted," said Campbell.

Campbell credited a 1-3-1 defense with a big share of the victory.

"We started in the 1-2-2 half court press we've been using," said the coach, "and then dropped back into a 2-1-2. We played it well, but we weren't aligned right and they were getting too many easy shots.

Then we tried the 1-3-1 and stopped them."

THE WARRIORS finished with an overall shooting percentage of 52 on a 63-percent display in the final half.

Mankato shot 46 percent for the game. Lyle Papenfuss was the big man for the Warriors dropping through 25 points.

Dave Goede had 15 and Gary Peterson 14. Jon Hagen led Mankato with 17 points.

But the road gets no smoother for Winona State. The Warriors face two crucial games this week, hosting undefeated La Crosse State Tuesday before traveling northward to St. Cloud Saturday.

La Crosse will be seeking its ninth straight victory here.

CAMPBELL WILL start the same lineup that opened against the Indians.

Gary Peterson and Lyle Papenfuss will be at forwards with Dave Rosenau at center and Dave Goede and Darrell Schuster at guards.

For La Crosse it will be 5-9 John Cogins and 6-0 Larry Tranberg at guards with 6-3 Vern Stark at center and 6-2 Ken Peterson and 6-1 Doug Potter at forwards.

"They're not big, but they hustle and they're good shooters," said Campbell who will scout St. Cloud tonight.

ROGGE WINS George Rogge defeated Dave Mertes for the YMCA singles handball championship Saturday.

Rogge stopped Mertes 21-16 and 21-14.

Pro Bowl Once Again Proves That

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If the court please, counsel for the National Conference of the National Football League wishes to offer a third exhibit in support of its claim to superiority over the Eastern Conference. It asks that this be marked Exhibit C and placed in evidence.

The jury will recall that Exhibit A was introduced Dec. 29. That was when the champion Chicago Bears of the Western Conference won the NFL title by defeating New York's Eastern Conference champions 14-10 at Chicago.

Exhibit B was the Playoff Bowl game at Miami Jan. 5. In that one the West's No. 2 team, Green Bay, scored a 40-23 victory over Cleveland, the Eastern Conference runner-up.

Exhibit C is the NFL's 14th annual Pro Bowl game, played Sunday before a crowd of 67,242 and won by the Western Conference All-Stars 31-17.

The Western Conference submits that this sort of thing has been going on, almost without interruption, since 1857. It suggests that since that time the Eastern Conference has probably suffered more reverses than it has pulled in post-season games.

Baltimore quarterback John Unites threw two touchdown passes and Green Bay fullback Jim Taylor gained 98 yards rushing Sunday as the West scored its ninth Pro Bowl victory in 14 tries.

Unites, for the third time in this series, was named Player of the Game. And Baltimore's retiring defensive end, Gino Marchetti, was named Lineman of the Game.

Cleveland fullback Jim Brown scored both of the East's touchdowns and led all rushers with 101 yards in 15 carries. Taylor got his 98 yards in 14 carries, averaging seven yards to Brown's 6.73.

The West, ahead 14-3 at the half, ran its lead to 25 points early in the third period. First Jesse Whittenton of Green Bay intercepted a pass by Washington's Norm Snead and returned the ball 26 yards for a touchdown.

Bobby Mitchell of Washington fumbled returning the next kickoff and Herb Adderley of Green Bay recovered on the East 21. Unites passed 14 yards to Mike Ditka of Chicago and, on third down, threw a five-yarder to Gail Coghill of Detroit for a touchdown.

That made it 20-3 and the East was decensed.

Brown made his two touchdowns runs, one for eight yards and one for three, in the fourth quarter.

The East led once, 3-0, in the first period. Bill Glass of Cleveland intercepted a pass by Unites and returned the ball to the West 28, setting up a 30-yard field goal by Sam Baker of Dallas.

But the West went ahead in the same period on a 37-yard touchdown run by Taylor and scored again in the second on a four-yard pass from Unites to Ray Berry of Baltimore.

REDMEN ICEMEN LEAD MIAC

The St. Mary's College hockey fortunes got a shot in the arm Saturday when "Concordia edged defending champion and pre-season title pick Macalester 3-2.

The Redmen now hold the undisputed loop lead with a 5-0 record after beating St. Thomas 6-3 at Terrace Heights Saturday.

The other league game Saturday found Augsburg topping Hamline 4-2.

St. Mary's will host Hamline at Terrace Heights at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

If It Please the Court: West Tougher

TAYLOR STARS FOR WEST IN PRO BOWL WIN

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Green Bay fullback Jim Taylor and several teammates from the Packers defensive squad played significant roles Sunday as the Western All-Stars whipped the East 31-17 in the 14th annual Pro Bowl football game.

Taylor scored the day's first touchdown on a 37-yard run and pushed 98 yards in 15 carries for the West.

The victory gave the West a clean sweep of the National Football League's three post season games.

Chicago earlier defeated New York 14-10 for the NFL title and the Packers trounced Cleveland 40-23 in the Playoff Bowl.

Leading 14-3 at the half, the West scored 49 seconds after the third period kick-off when the Packers' Jesse Whittenton intercepted a pass by Washington's Norm Snead and raced 26 yards for a touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff Bobby Mitchell of Washington fumbled and Herb Adderley of Green Bay recovered for the West on the East 23. Four plays later the West scored again on Baltimore quarterback John Unites' pass to Detroit's Gail Coghill.

West coach George Halas was lavish in his praise of Packer defensive linemen Henry Jordan and Willie Davis.

Platoon System Returns To College Football

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—After 11 years of frequent and sometimes confusing change, the college football rule makers have adopted a proposal allowing a return to the platoon system.

The coaches have screamed for its return ever since the free and unlimited substitution rule was knocked out of the books after the 1952 season.

Sunday, the football rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association went almost all the way back.

Only one restriction was left in the way. To send a platoon into a game during a period when the clock is running, a team must use one of its three outs.

Otherwise, a coach will be free and unlimited in the switching of his personnel.

"This is what the coaches desired," said elated Jack Curtice, rules chairman of the American Football Coaches Association. He had carried to the committee the plea of 90 per cent of the coaches for an end to rule restrictions.

"This is the nearest they could possibly come to what they wanted," Curtice said. "This is a reasonable rule."

By overwhelming majority, coaches all around the nation applauded the committee's action.

College football's two platoon systems was abruptly outlawed in January 1953, and the one-way specialist went into discard, when a drastic rule was adopted providing that no player withdrawn from a game could return in the same year.

Iba, Rupp on Way to 700 Victory Club

Hank Iba can catch Adolph Rupp tonight on the way to Ed Diddle's Club, an exclusive organization which has 700 prerequisites.

Diddle, basketball coach at Western Kentucky, currently is the board of directors and the entire membership of college basketball's 700-victory club. But Iba and Rupp are just about ready to have their applications processed.

Iba can make it 696 victories in a 35-year career if his Oklahoma State Cowboys, co-leaders of the Big Eight Conference, defeat Kansas State tonight. That would move Iba into a tie with Rupp, whose 34 Kentucky teams also have won 696 games. Diddle, the dean, has 755 victories.

Both unranked Oklahoma State and Kentucky, second-ranked in the nation, improved their records of a form-filled Saturday night program — the first this season in which not one member of the top ten came out without a victory.

BADGERS CAN'T STOP LOSING, TO HOST IOWA

CHICAGO (AP)—Wisconsin's Badgers are hoping to snap out of the doldrums tonight when they return home to meet Iowa in one of the few Big Ten basketball games scheduled this week.

The Badgers reached their heights when they won the Milwaukee Holiday Tournament with a stunning 104-84 triumph over Georgia Tech. Badger stock zoomed after that when Georgia Tech upset previously undefeated Kentucky, then the nation's No. 1 team.

However, since that triumph, Wisconsin has suffered three straight losses without a victory in conference competition and appears headed for a lowly second division finish.

Wisconsin dropped a 76-63 decision at Northwestern Saturday while Iowa is coming off an 87-70 loss to Illinois on the Hawkeye home court.

The Illinois victory kept the Illini in a tie for the league lead with Michigan and Ohio State. Michigan, the nation's No. 4 team and favorite to capture the conference title, made good at the free throw line and defeated Purdue 77-70 while Gary Bradds led Ohio State to an 85-73 triumph over Minnesota.

Illinois' Tal Brody enjoyed the biggest upset Saturday with 28 points. Rick Lopessa hurled in 27 points in Northwestern's victory.

Michigan State went on another scoring binge and defeated Indiana 107-103. It marked the fifth time the Spartans have scored more than 100 points at home this season. Seven players hit in double figures and offset the marksmanship of the an Arsdale twins. Both Tom and Dick scored 23 points each for the Hoosiers.

Michigan State will be at Minnesota Tuesday night and three conference games are scheduled Saturday as most of the schools will be busy with semester examinations.

Saturday's schedule finds Iowa at Purdue, Ohio State at Michigan and Northwestern at Minnesota in a game which will be regionally televised. All three games will be matinee Michigan State will host Notre Dame Saturday night in non-conference action.

The other circuit at Westgate saw the junior regiers in action. Steve Kwosek knocked 126-221 for Four Aces, while Vicki Kowalczyk rapped 117-211 for Blue Bells. Bowlerettes topped the group scores with 582-1,155.

Norby, Peterson Soar 191 Feet

EAU CLAIRE — Youngsters Dave Norby of Madison and Tom Peterson of Iron Mountain, Mich., each recorded leaps of 191 feet to top the field in the annual ski jumping tournament of the Eau Claire Ski Club Sunday.

Headwinds of about 10 miles per hour frustrated the field of 110 entrants, bidding to break the Hendrickson Hill record of 189 feet. A crowd of about 4,000 persons watched the 21st annual meet in 12 degree weather.

Norby, who took the Class B title, and Peterson, who topped the juniors, reached 191 feet on their second leaps. Norby's first jump was 186 feet as he rolled up 213.1 points. Peterson, who scored 201.5 points, had a first leap of 155 feet.

TRAINOR HITS 3 AGAINST RANGERS

Winona's entry in the Southern Minnesota Hockey League broke even in two games Sunday. The Hornets opened the day by losing to Albert Lea on a score that came with five seconds to play 7-6 and then won a 5-1 nightcap at Austin.

For two and a half periods Sunday afternoon, it looked as if Winona might stop Albert Lea, but a goal by Archie Nelson on an assist from Butch Westrum with five seconds to play gave the Rangers the 7-6 victory.

Brian Trainor was the big scorer for Winona, hammering the little black disk home three times. Each time the assist came from Don Ehmman.

Lance Carroll triggered two goals in the game and Ed Ratajczyk one.

John Gray, Albert Lea High School hockey coach and one-time Rochester Mustangs' player, counted twice, Nelson three times and Johnson and Ron Mathews once each.

The Hornets brought their SMHL record back to an even 2-2 at Austin Sunday night, breaking for three goals and a 5-1 victory in the last period.

Carroll, Muth and Rog Neitzke scored in the final period after Winona had led 2-1 with 40 minutes gone.

Brain Trainor and Ratajczyk got the other two Winona goals and Larry Hisch the Austin score.

Wall Shoots 274, Wins at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Art Wall Jr., back in the tournament golf spotlight after his victory in the $30,000 San Diego Open, led the professional contingent Monday to one of his favorite shooting grounds.

That would be the Bing Crosby National this weekend, an event in which Wall tied for second a year ago and won in his last really big year in the golfing wars, 1959, when the famed Masters came his way.

The personable, rather retiring Wall returned to national attention Sunday when he polished off the opposition with a carefully-carved par 70, a 72-hole score of 274, six shots under par for the attractive, rolling par 35-35-70 Rancho Bernardo Country Club course.

Tommy Lema finished with a rush—30 on the backside—and tied with Bob Rosburg at 276 for second. Rosburg had a 70.

The windup in bright, sunny weather found several erstwhile threats finishing in arrears.

National Open Champion Julius Boros had a 74 for 282; Gene Littler 73 for 280; British Open Champion Bob Charles 66 for 277, and Al Geiberger 71 for 279.

Arnold Palmer, finally shaking off a flu bug which had harassed him all week, rallied with a 66 for 281. It was worth $275 for Palmer, an amount he usually budgets for caddy fees.

Wall confided he told his caddy before setting out, "I hope I can shoot a 70. I think I can win." The score and the prophecy panned out.
