Tax Bill in Race With March 1 Goal

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — The $11.5-billion tax bill has taken a giant stride toward enactment but whether it can become law by March 1, the administration goal, is uncertain.

The Senate Finance Committee voted 12-5 approval of the measure Thursday after 20 days of executive sessions and well over 100 separate votes. But the floor debate cannot begin until congressional staff experts finish drafting all of the new language written into the 310-page bill by the committee.

They indicated today this might well take all of next week. In that case, the debate probably would not start before Feb. 3. This would leave only seven or eight days for floor action before the passage deadline of Feb. 11 set by Democratic leaders. They must meet that deadline if the final enactment goal of March 1 is to be achieved. If the Senate does not pass the bill until after the Feb. 11-17 Lincoln Day recess there would be little chance to have the conference with the House over differences in the two versions and get the bill to President Johnson for signature next month.

The committee included in the bill all of the major provisions sought by Johnson. The President won a last-minute victory Thursday afternoon when he persuaded nine Democrats to kill $455-million worth of excise tax repeals which had been voted in the morning. Chiefly involved were excises on luggage, jewelry, cosmetics and furs. The six Republicans on the committee and two Democrats—Paul H. Douglas of Illinois and Albert Gore of Tennessee—remained for repeal of the taxes in the afternoon test. Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, author of the key repeal amendments, said he would press them on the floor.

Democrats on the committee who will handle the bill on the floor said they were confident it can be kept pretty much in the form approved by the finance group. Sponsors of the bill said they did not expect any serious efforts on the floor to change the rate cuts in the bill. If this is correct, the final Senate version would provide cuts averaging 19 per cent and totaling about $9.2 billion for 80 million individual taxpayers and cuts averaging about 10 per cent and totaling $2.3 billion for 550,000 corporations.

The amendment provides that the right to vote in any primary or general election for president or vice president, or for senator or representative in the Congress, shall not be denied because of the failure to pay a poll tax or any other tax. The poll tax, the payment of a fee as a requirement for voting, has long been caught up in controversy with civil rights defenders charging that it was used to keep Negroes from casting ballots. Only five states — Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas, and Virginia—still have the poll tax. The new amendment will not bar these states from continuing to require voters in state elections to pay poll tax, since it applies only to elections for federal office.

U.S. Accepts Panama Talks

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has affirmed U.S. willingness to discuss with Panama all differences between the two countries—differences that reportedly are narrowing within the councils of the Inter-American Peace Committee.

The President took this conciliatory stance in a statement he read Thursday at an impromptu news conference at the White House. He said he had spoken to members of the peace committee earlier in the day and stated "our willingness to engage without limitation or delay in a full and frank review and reconsideration of all issues between our two countries."

2 Teenagers Dead In Drinking Party

STICKY FINGERS . . . Soft drinks do nothing for a young lady's hands, but the test Lucy Baines Johnson applied Thursday wasn't intentional. ## Lucy Visiting Maiden Rock On Saturday

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Lucy Baines Johnson and Jack Olson, the Wisconsin friend she came to visit, left Madison by automobile today for a trip that will include a visit with Olson's parents. The state's capital city was blanketed by fog and the couple's auto and a state police escort left shortly before noon for Rochester, Minn., some 220 miles away. Lucy and her escort shared the back seat with Mrs. James Cain of Rochester, a longtime friend of the Johnson family. A Secret Service man was at the wheel and another agent was at his side. The President's younger daughter will stay at the Cain home in Rochester tonight and visit Olson's folks in Maiden Rock, Wis., Saturday.

Olson took his 16-year-old date to dinner and a movie Thursday night. Lucy called the evening a "just wonderful" close to a two-day visit in Madison. As she stepped into the automobile that took her away today, she told newsmen she had "thoroughly enjoyed everything."

Olson, 18, proudly escorted Lucy on a tour of the Wisconsin campus Thursday. "We talked last summer about her visiting Wisconsin and maybe the family but sometimes I thought it might never happen," Olson said as he walked with his arm around the waist of his pretty date.

The two met last February while Olson was a congressional page. The visit to Olson's Maiden Rock Wis., home Saturday will be the first time his parents have met the President's daughter. They will stop tonight at the Rochester, Minn., home of Miss Johnson's chaperone, Mrs. James Cain. The campus tour was more than an hour long, but the strolling was slowed by two dozen newsmen, photographers, a host of well wishers and the ever-present Secret Servicemen.

Lucy had a bit of sigh in her voice when she told University President Fred H. Harrington she hadn't expected such a group of followers. Harrington, who has four pretty daughters of his own, said he could sympathize with her but she would have to become accustomed to crowds. "This is part of the democratic process," he said, pointing to the battery of photographers and reporters.

Olson was resigned to the attention. "I know this is part of your job," he told newsmen. "So far everything's worked out pretty well, though, and we'll have a good time anyway."

Rain, Sleet and Snow Pelt U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, rain, sleet and fog hit wide areas across the nation today. Storms broke out in many Midwest areas as arctic air clashed with warm moist winds from the Gulf, bringing snow, sleet and rain. Snow covered sections in the Northern Plains and snow mixed with sleet pelted areas from Minnesota into western Wisconsin.

Thunderstorms rumbled across northeast Missouri, eastern Iowa and parts of Illinois. Heavy fog, with drizzle, was reported from southern Minnesota and northern Iowa eastward into lower Michigan.

Fog and drizzle sprayed the lower Mississippi Valley and the Gulf Coast region. Thunderstorms also hit the Gulf Coast, with more than one inch of rain in Biloxi, Miss., in a six-hour period.

Rain and thunderstorms were indicated during the day from east Texas and northern Florida northward into the southern Great Lakes region and Ohio Valley. The rain belt was expected to spread into the Middle Atlantic and south part of the North Atlantic states late today. In the western half of the nation, snow flurried in the plateau region and the Rockies. More showers fell along the Pacific Coast from central California northward. Up to two feet of snow was reported in some mountain areas of Arizona.

Boy, 14, and Sister, 13, Shotgun Victims

ST. PAUL (AP) — A 19-year-old youth placed on probation in a morals case last week was booked on suspicion of murder today following the shotgun deaths of a young boy and his sister.

Held is David Oehrlein, once confined to the Owatonna State School for the mentally retarded and released on probation last week after pleading guilty to indecent assault.

Also held as a witness was Darrell Oehrlein, 19, the suspect's brother.

Killed with shotgun blasts in the head were Gary Brindamour, 14, and his sister, Bonnie Lou, 13, children of Mrs. Edna Brindamour, 51.

The victims were found in separate rooms of the upper duplex occupied by Mrs. Brindamour and her three children. Another daughter is in a foster home.

Police said the rooms were littered with empty beer bottles. Police said Darrell Oehrlein told them Mrs. Brindamour and some teen-agers had been drinking beer.

Police said a shotgun was found in each of the Oehrlein brothers' rooms but that it wasn't yet known if either gun was involved in the slayings.

The bodies were found by Mila Brindamour, 18, a sister of the victims, who returned home about 11 p.m.

Another Brindamour daughter, Joyce, 15, is in a foster home.

Police said questioning of neighbors turned up the fact that a car carrying teen-agers had been sighted at both the front and rear of the house during the evening.

Mrs. Brindamour has been separated from her husband, Archie, for about 10 months. He reportedly still is living in St. Paul. She returned home shortly after midnight and was being treated for shock.

The body of the dead boy was found in a bedroom, that of his sister in the living room. Pathological studies were being made, seeking to determine an approximate time of death.

Officers said no one in the neighborhood had reported hearing any gunfire.

Stereo Gift From Friend, Johnson Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said the expensive stereo set delivered to his home in 1959 was simply a gift from old friend Robert G. Baker. Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield says this explanation should end the matter.

But Republicans, sensing an election year issue, are pressing this and other facets of the Senate Rules Committee's inquiry into the complicated business dealing of Baker, a former Johnson protégé who quit under fire last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate Democrats.

"The Baker family gave us a stereo set," Johnson said Thursday at a White House conference. "We had exchanged gifts before. He was an employe of the public and had no business pending before me and was asking for nothing and so far as I knew expected nothing in return any more than I did when I had presented him with gifts."

The President volunteered this explanation a day after the Senate committee released testimony by Don B. Reynolds, an associate of Baker in a local insurance firm, who said he sent the $542 stereo record player to Johnson's home at Baker's suggestion.

Reynolds said he paid for the set after selling Johnson—then the Senate Democratic leader—the first half of $200,000 in life insurance policies.

24th Amendment Ratified

South Dakota Action Outlaws Poll Taxes

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has hailed as a triumph of liberty a new amendment to the Constitution outlawing the poll tax as a requirement for voting in elections for federal office. The 24th Amendment was written into the law of the land this election year when South Dakota Thursday became the 38th state to approve it. Ratification by three-fourths of the 50 states was required. Johnson said in a statement it was a "verification of the people's rights which are rooted so deeply in the mainstream of this nation's history."

"This triumph, now of liberty over restriction is a grateful and proud moment for me," Johnson said. He added: "The tide of a strong national desire to bring about the broadest possible use of the voting process runs too strong to hold back."

"In a free land where men move freely and act freely, the right to vote freely must never be obstructed."

While certification ceremonies probably will be held here later, they are only a formality. Once South Dakota's legislature completed its ratification no further legal action was required.

The amendment provides that the right to vote in any primary or general election for president or vice president, or for senator or representative in the Congress, shall not be denied because of the failure to pay a poll tax or any other tax.

Only five states — Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas, and Virginia—still have the poll tax. The new amendment will not bar these states from continuing to require voters in state elections to pay poll tax, since it applies only to elections for federal office.

Army Brigade Will Be Flown Across Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 4,000-man brigade of Army infantrymen is about to bolt across the Pacific in the first test of a new technique for mating airlifted troops with heavy gear stockpiled aloft. If the test works, it could herald wider use of depot ships moored in strategically located harbors and ready to rendezvous with reinforcements at crisis points. In this exercise, called "Quick Release," a brigade of the 25th Division will be flown some 5,000 miles from Hawaii to Okinawa.

Nixon Willing To Be Drafted

By RAY KOHN
NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon says he would accept a draft for the presidential nomination if a deadlock developed at the Republican National Convention.

Broadcasting System network, the former vice president said he considered it a great privilege to have served the public. "If the opportunity should come again, I would accept it," he said.

Nixon, noting that he is leading in public opinion polls, said: "I don't think that's surprising. After all, I received 34 million votes in 1960."

Nixon also said, however, he did not anticipate that the GOP would need him at this time, and he reiterated that he does not want to be a candidate.

But, bringing up the subject of a possible draft, he said "a man always must try to distinguish between the voice of the people and the echo of his own voice."

"I don't intend to go out and stimulate a draft," Nixon said, "so that when we get to San Francisco (for the GOP convention) as a result of my own initiative I respond to my own voice."

Nixon said he thinks Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is "still the leader among the professional politicians," with Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton second. Nixon said that he feels that he does not have the support of professional politicians because he is not in the race and has no staff.

Weed Helps Smokers Quit, Cost Soars

By ROGER LANE
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A weed that grows wild in the Great Smokies is worth a fancy price because so many people are trying to quit smoking.

An alkaloid derived from the weed would bring $70 an ounce — if there was any to be had. It's lobeline sulphate, main ingredient in most stop-smoking drugs. Ordinarily, it sells for about $40 an ounce. The herb it comes from, Lobelia Inflata which re-seeds itself annually, won't be gathered again until late summer.

Makers of tablets, lozenges, pastilles and special chewing gums to substitute for the cigarette habit say business is booming. Two eastern drug chains confirm difficulty in keeping up with retail demand since the government report of Jan. 4 linking heavy cigarette smoking with cancer. Booksellers, also trying to capitalize on the cigarette deterrent impulse, report fairly brisk sales of books which counsel for aspiring quitters.

Trade sources say about a dozen drug deterrents are sold nationally, and others regionally.

Eleva Switch To Dial Phones Expected Soon

ELEVA, Wis. (Special)—The Eleva exchange of Tri-County Telephone Co-op will be switched to dial service soon, according to Marshall Robbe, Strum, president.

A definite date is anticipated by the end of the week. Delay is caused by some trouble with long distance lines, Robbe said.

The Hawkeye Construction Co., Moline, Ill., had the contract for the outside plant at Eleva and also at Strum. The co-op covers these exchanges and also the ones at Pleasantville, which went dial this week, and Independence, which will switch over next month.

Dick Scott Construction Co. was subcontractor on the cable work in the Eleva area, with Eddie Brixen, Osseo, as manager.

PREVIOUS to new installation, Eleva exchange had 173 miles of telephone line and served 410 subscribers in Chimney Rock, Bennett Valley, Norden, Hamlin, Pleasant Valley and Drammen, some of the lines extending into Eau Claire and Buffalo counties.

New dial phones are replacing the some 200 French type and 210 wall type phones here.

The substation in Eleva and central station in Strum are completed. Arrival of office equipment for Strum is anticipated daily. There also will be an office at Independence.

The present central office in Eleva was sold to Ole Thompson at a high bid of $2,225. Possession will be given after the changeover. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hermundson, who operates the exchange at night, reside in the attached living quarters. Adam Wold and Mrs. Clarence Swendby also are switchboard operators.

WOLD HAS BEEN with the exchange about 40 years. He and his wife, Sadie, who died two years ago, took over from Maude Hunt and Esther Anderson. Wold did all the line work for the company.

The entire co-op will be changed over by Feb. 12 or shortly thereafter. Rates of $5.20 for private lines and $4.20 for party line service have been requested of the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin. Private and two-party service will be available in towns and four-party service in rural areas. Buried cable has been laid in rural areas.

ITT Kellogg Co., Chicago, had the $111,445 contract for central office switching equipment in the four centers. Farmers Lumber Co., Mondovi, had the building contracts at Pleasantville, Eleva, and Independence. Systems Installations, Inc., Faribault, Minn., laid 25 miles of cable in the Pleasantville area and had the outside plant contract at Independence, where men worked on aerial cable

Firm Develops Electronic Bloodhound

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—An electronic bloodhound that can sniff an odor diluted a million to one has been developed by Minneapolis Honeywell.

The firm says the machine uses an ultraviolet lamp and a sensitive detector tube, operating on the principle that some gases absorb ultraviolet radiation more than others.

It was developed for use in coin operated drycleaning plants, where it will detect escape of any of the toxic gas used in the cleaning process. The machine can also smell dozens of other odors, "even ripe apples and bananas."

It can't, however, detect carbon monoxide.

Houston County ARC Gets Gift, Maps Future Plans

BROWNSVILLE, Minn.—The Hokah American Legion has contributed $50 toward the Houston County ARC camping site, it was reported when the Houston County Association for Retarded Children met here.

An open discussion was held and it was decided needs are a preliminary program plan, estimates of operation and the evaluation of the needs for such a camp.

Plans were made for the Valentine party in the St. Mary's School auditorium, Caledonia, Feb. 15. This party is open to all the retarded of Houston County and is not limited to those whose families are ARC members. Volunteer helpers are needed.

The public is invited to the Feb. 6 meeting at 8:15 p.m. in the kitchen of the community hall at Houston.

41-Pound Muskie Costs Pair $150

WALKER, Minn. (AP)—Two Dundas, Minn., men got a dandy 41-pound muskie from Leech Lake this week—but it cost them $75 apiece.

The men admitted in justice court Wednesday they speared the fish from a darkhouse. A nearby angler spotted the fish and took down the car's license number. The pair was arrested near St. Cloud.

Bruce and Paul Albers were fined by Justices of the Peace Ray Bright. It's illegal to take muskies by spearing in Minnesota.

and replaced cable in the conduit.

JACK BULLIS, Stevens Point, and Richard Johnson, Eau Claire, represent the REA on the $1 1/4 million project. Finley Engineering Co. of Wisconsin, Eau Claire office, provided the engineering service.

There'll be about 1,800 subscribers on dial service in the four areas when the changeover is completed. The co-op also includes the present Elk Creek exchange, which is being absorbed.

AT HOUSTON MEETING

Mondale Asks Support Of Poverty Program

HOUSTON, Minn. (Special)—Attorney General Walter F. Mondale said at a Houston County DFL and county DFL Women's Club supper here Wednesday night that Americans have a duty to support President Lyndon B. Johnson's war on poverty unless more practical alternatives can be proposed.

Speaking before an audience of about 150, he said that 312,000 people are born each day throughout the world, more than half of whom face life without enough food, without adequate clothing, with no decent shelter, and little hope of a useful or interesting life.

Mondale, known as Fritz to his friends, was introduced by Claude Kremer, county party chairman and master of ceremonies.

THE SPEAKER pointed out that people in the U. S. annually spend $12.5 billion for liquor and cigarettes, while one out of five lives in acute poverty.

"This poverty means a family income of less than $3,000 a year, no car, no recreation, shared clothing, meat once a week, dwellings infested by vermin and lice, and absence of the most simple necessities of life we take for granted."

He said poverty afflicts every class and every age group. More than 75 percent of the citizens over 65 who live alone have incomes under $2,000 per year, the largest portion from the government.

Equally impoverished are the Negroes and Indians. In the U.S. today, the average income of Negroes is 55 percent of the whites, he said.

"The poor are everywhere," he continued. "They are the inhabitants of 'pockets of poverty' in the Appalachians; sharecroppers of the south; they live on the Iron Range; in fishing villages, and in the slum areas of our great cities."

HE SAID private charities, while both desirable and necessary, have been unable to reach and help the great majority of the needy. Americans, he declared, cannot wait for private response to take care of the needy.

"We can no longer be fearful that government assistance will destroy personal initiative when we know that most of those living in poverty are unemployed and unemployable," Mondale said.

With neither opportunity nor initiative, with lack of education and skills with which they could improve their life, the speaker asked that all citizens recognize their obligation to support the President's program on poverty and measures designed to reduce the causes of poverty. He said benefits from such programs will be "tremendous in terms of human gain and gain to our society."

"It is a fact that the tax income the government receives from men trained under the retraining act was more than four times what it had been previously."

He also introduced Mrs. Pat Ask, Caledonia, county chairwoman, and Warren Eustis, Rochester, chairman for the 1st District.

Mrs. Ask introduced Stella Jensen, Elkton, district vice chairwoman, and Mrs. Betty Kane, state chairwoman who previously served with the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Kane said she would like to see political parties make more use of women's clubs in Minnesota.

The greatest problem of women's clubs, she said, is getting and keeping members and putting them to work. She emphasized the importance of women's groups choosing worthwhile projects. She said the first statewide women's workshop will be held in February and urged the County to send delegates to the presidential convention.

Eustis urged attendance at precinct caucuses March 3 as the voters only chance to express themselves and send the type of delegates they want to the presidential convention.

Suit Against Insurance Firm Continues

Trial is continuing this afternoon on a $4,595 damage suit brought by an Altura man against State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co.

No jurors were selected for the case, which is being heard by District Judge Leo F. Murphy. Trial began Thursday afternoon.

THE SUIT arises from an accident which occurred at 10 a.m. Jan. 3, 1961, at the intersection of County State Aid Highway 27 and CSAH 33 near Altura. Connaughty's car and a truck driven by Paul E. Greden, Altura, collided almost head-on as the truck started to make a left turn onto the cross road.

Greden told sheriff's deputies at the time of the accident that a passing milk truck had caused a swirl of snow, and because of this, the sun, and the side road's location at the top of a knoll, he did not see the approaching Connaughty car.

Neither driver was injured, but Everett Morcomb, a passenger in the car driven by Connaughty, then 23, was cut over his left eye and complained of pain in his right knee. He was treated by a Lewiston doctor.

Connaughty seeks costs and expenses involved in a personal injury lawsuit brought against him by Morcomb. State Farm was named as a third party defendant in that suit.

Thomas Wolf, Rochester, attorney for the plaintiff, contended this morning that Connaughty never had received a notice that his insurance coverage on his car had lapsed.

IN ANSWER to a question from Wolf, Leo McCarthy, St. Charles insurance agent with whom Connaughty had dealt, testified that he had received from State Farm no copy of a lapse notice, although he generally did receive such notice.

Connaughty himself testified that the first indication he had that he was not covered by State Farm insurance was when he reported the accident to McCarthy's office. The agent's secretary then told him that she thought the premium had not been paid, Connaughty said.

He then returned to his home and found a copy of the expiration notice sent him in November (when his policy was up for renewal) by State Farm. He also found the check for the premium, Connaughty told the court, and sent it and the notice to McCarthy.

JOSEPH N. Moonan, attorney for State Farm, contended that the company could not write an insurance policy on Connaughty's car until it received the premium payment Jan. 4, 1961 — one day after the accident.

Under questioning by Wolf, Connaughty testified that Morcomb worked for him and for his father, who had a farm about 15 miles from where Connaughty then lived. Morcomb was paid by the day, he said, and had not worked for him on the day of the accident prior to the time it happened.

Moonan, however, on cross-examination, determined that State Automobile Insurance Co. had paid damages and costs resulting from Morcomb's lawsuit, on the grounds that Morcomb was Connaughty's employee at the time of the accident, and thus was covered by that company's policy.

The firm paid $3,000 in damages, plus $600 in fees to Wolf and $95 in costs. Wolf, Connaughty told the court under Moonan's questioning, was hired.

3 Get Awards At St. Charles

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — The dining room of the St. Charles Catholic school was crowded here Thursday night for the annual Jaycees awards dinner.

● Kenneth Millard, Jaycees president, was presented the distinguished service award by Harold Hayes, former member of the service group.

● Stanley Harcey was named the outstanding young farmer of the year. John King Jr. made the award.

● Perry Jenks was named the outstanding citizen of the year and was cited by President Millard.

DR. SAM McHutchison was master of ceremonies. Kelton (Kelly) Gage, Mankato attorney named outstanding state Jaycees president in the nation in 1959 and state man of the year in 1958, was guest speaker.

Gage pointed out the achievement of the St. Charles Jaycees: bringing house numbering and mail delivery here, procuring a gopher machine, chartering four other Jaycees chapters.

Nearly Severed Ear Sewed Back On at Hospital

A Winona physician sewed a Rochester man's left ear back on today after it was nearly cut off in a car accident.

Jerome M. Bauer, 28, was cut and bruised when his car left Highway 14 at Lewiston about 7:15 a.m. and rolled over in a ditch. His head crashed through a window, according to Winona County sheriff's officers.

They rushed him to Community Memorial Hospital. Physicians said his condition is satisfactory.

Bauer, a Rochester State Hospital employee, was traveling west on the highway when his car skidded on an icy curve at the north edge of Lewiston. The auto went out of control, into the north ditch and landed on its left side. Damages were estimated by officers at more than $200.

Truck Cuts Off Electric Power Near Wabasha

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — Electric power was off about three hours at Camp La Cupolis on Highway 61 about five miles north of here early this morning after a traffic accident.

A truck driven by Leroy Malinich, Phillipsburg, Pa., was traveling north toward Lake City at 2:15 a.m. It slipped on the icy pavement and skidded into a Northern States Power Co. pole, on right, breaking it and smashing the transformer.

The wires were entwined around the truck. Malinich had the good sense to sit and wait until the company's crewmen and Deputy Sheriff Marilyn Aitkin came to extricate him from the truck.

The accident occurred near the John Mohlke trailer home. There were four or five homes without electricity until the damage was repaired about 5 a.m.

The truck was not damaged and the driver was not injured so he continued on his way.

Tri-County Mental Health Center Named

The Tri-County Community Mental Health Board selected a name for its proposed mental health center at a meeting Thursday night.

"Hiawatha Valley Mental Health Center" was the name selected by the nine-member board.

Dr. Robert Pfeiler, St. Paul, assistant medical director for the state of Minnesota and director of community mental health services, discussed the organization of a mental health center. He also told how the other 18 existing centers in the state function.

Dr. Pfeiler outlined personnel recruitment and formation of committees for the center.

William P. Werner, director of the Winona County welfare department, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Richard Feiten, director of Catholic Charities for the Winona Diocese, were appointed advisers to the mental health board.

The board's next meeting will be Feb. 27.

Zoning Petition For Restaurant Held Up for Plans

An application to build a drive-in restaurant at 1558 Service Dr. was laid over Thursday night by the Board of Zoning Appeals to await completion of specific plans by applicants.

A half-dozen homeowners in the area asked the board to restrict access to the Highway 61 side, if the restaurant goes up.

They also expressed concern over possible use of gaudy electric signs and asked whether the business would impair values of nearby property.

DUANE PETERSON, local attorney, represented Donald Thompson, Mankato, the applicant. Thompson was not present. Robert Selover, realtor, also supplied some of the limited information available on proposed plans.

Peterson told the board the application concerns two lots, owned by E. G. Bunke, whose Apo service station is just west of the site. The lots front on Service Drive, which parallels Highway 61. Two similar lots north of the site, also owned by Bunke, are not included in the proposal, Peterson said.

If two lots immediately north of the proposed building site were sold as parking area, they would be accessible from West Howard St.

Robert Shoup, 1564 W. Howard St., and A. L. Nelson, 1516 W. Howard St., were apprehensive that the street would become a "thoroughfare" into the area. Commissioners said such use would have to be approved by the board and indicated that approval would likely be denied, if requested. Peterson said his client was not interested in the lots.

The building site is in a B-1 neighborhood business zone. Drive-in restaurants are conditional uses in such zones, permits for which are issued at the discretion of the zoning board.

Peterson said the building would be about 30 by 50 feet in size but said detailed plans have not been finished. Selover said construction would probably be concrete block with painted exterior.

THE BUSINESS would be primarily the carryout type, he said, where customers pick up prepared food orders to take with them. It would not be a carhop service establishment, he said, although some tables would be available within the restaurant for customer service.

The parking area would not be extensive, Selover said, because most patrons would take their food elsewhere to eat. He added that signs would be of modest size and would not unduly illuminate surrounding areas.

Blair Agent, Wife Honored at Dinner

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Carl J. Sexe, who retired Dec. 31 after 36 years as Standard Oil Co. agent in Blair and Eltrick, was feted at The Pines, Black River Falls, Saturday night by friends and associates.

Sexe received a set of golf clubs from friends and co-workers in the oil company and a gold watch from the firm. Mrs. Sexe was presented with a decorative bowl. Lee Lodi, Black River Falls, area representative of the firm, was master of ceremonies.

The couple's oldest son, Carroll, Madison, was present. They have three other children. Jerome Strande, his successor, and Mrs. Strande, also attended.

Heavy Snow May Miss City

A January rain, almost unheard of in Minnesota, passed over Winona and vicinity this morning, a forerunner of what is expected to change to a freezing drizzle and light snow by tonight.

The snow is predicted for most of the night with increasing northerly winds and colder weather. The thermometer may drop to between 5 and 15 above tonight.

Gradually clearing and colder weather with diminishing winds is predicted for SATURDAY when the high is expected to be between 20-25.

Little change in temperature and no precipitation of any consequence is the outlook for SUNDAY.

The rain and snow for the Winona area is part of a general storm moving across the Northwest which brought a prediction of a blizzard and heavy snow warning for northern Minnesota and Wisconsin. An accumulation of more than 4 inches of snow is predicted for the northern portions of the two states.

"The storm has many of the ingredients necessary for it to become a dangerous mid-winter storm," the Weather Bureau said.

As long as the temperature remained above the freezing point area drivers anticipated no real difficulty.

drizzle was reported at both places.

But high school officials of schools north of an east-west line through Alma, Wis., were reported calling off basketball games scheduled for tonight because of the icy roads and danger of worsening conditions tonight.

At 7 a.m. today, when the precipitation had amounted to .03 of an inch the thermometer stood at 34. At noon the reading still was 34. High Thursday afternoon was 39.

IN THE EXTENDED forecast for the next five days temperatures are expected to remain near normal with daytime highs 20-25 and nighttime lows zero to 5 above. No precipitation of any consequence is indicated.

Today's rain wasn't much like this day last year when the high was only -2 and the low a chilly -25. Six inches of snow lay on the ground at the time.

All-time high for Jan. 24 was 52 in 1947 and the low -26 in 1904 and 1936.

DRIZZLE, RAIN, snow and fog were spotted across the state today with temperatures this morning ranging from 7 at International Falls to 34 at Winona.

Rochester temperatures ranged from 32 to 36 and La Crosse posted figures of 33 and 39. A Minot, N.D., reported snow and a temperature of -5.

Sleet and freezing rain fell during the night south of a Minnesota line from Pine City to Little Falls to Alexandria, leaving secondary roads in hazardous condition.

Main routes, and well-traveled city streets were in fairly good shape after hefty applications of salt by highway crews.

WARNINGS of heavy snow and blizzards were posted for north and central Minnesota, including the Red River Valley where a 6- to 8-inch accumulation of snow was forecast.

The hazardous sleet conditions extended into Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Nebraska.

The Weather Bureau said the storm responsible was slowly organizing over the northern Mississippi Valley and would intensify and move eastward tonight.

About 3 inches of snow fell overnight in parts of northern Minnesota.

Three inches of snow had fallen up to daybreak in the Superior, Wis., region.

Thunderstorms occurred at Milwaukee, Madison and Beloit during the night. Freezing drizzle and rain fell in most of the northern half of the state. Fog and some light drizzle developed in the southern region.

In addition, colder weather is due for the entire state by tonight.

Liquid precipitation totaled .37 of an inch at Sussex in Waukesha County, .36 at Superior, 45 in the Milwaukee suburb of Shorewood, .18 at Wausau and .17 at Madison.

Nighttime temperature minimums ranged from 18 at Superior to 37 at Beloit.

BELLE GLADE, Fla., and Laredo, Tex., set the national peak of 82 Thursday, compared with the low early today of 17 below at Butte, Mont.

In Minneapolis, police had so many traffic accidents they were asking motorists to come in later to fill out their own accident reports. Squads were 45 minutes behind incoming calls.

The Weather Bureau said the anticipated blizzard conditions in northern Minnesota would diminish tonight, with little or no snow expected in southern Minnesota.

Freezing drizzle was expected to end by noon, but temperatures were due to fall.

Heaviest snow accumulation was eight inches at Lemmon, S.D. Nearby Moberg, S.D., had six inches.

Visibility was down to one-eighth mile in the Grand Forks, N.D., area this morning, although highways remained open.

42 Take Nurse Aid Course for Osseo Hospital

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — As the date for the opening of the new combination 70-bed hospital and nursing home nears, personnel who will be employed are being prepared for their duties.

Forty-two people took a nurses aides course this week under the direction of Robert Briggs, Eltrick, director of nursing service, assisted by Mrs. Charles Hoffman, R.N.

Others assisting in teaching the basic procedures of nursing assistants were Mrs. Donald Fisher, Mrs. R. N. Leasum Jr. and Mrs. Charles Rongstad, all registered nurses.

No fee was charged for the course. Certificates were awarded for satisfactory completion.

Organizations in town cooperated in the program. The hospital furnished coffee and milk at noon. The auxiliary to the nursing home and hospital furnished cookies and served at forenoon and afternoon coffee breaks. Chairs and blackboard were furnished by the Osseo Lutheran Church.

Most of the equipment has arrived for the building. It is anticipated the nursing home will open the first week in February and the hospital in March. Members of the auxiliary will clean the interior when the work is done and hang the drapes.

Open house will be held when both are finished.

Minnesota Township Filings to Open

Filings for Minnesota township offices will open Tuesday and close Feb. 11.

Persons wishing to place their names on the ballot must file with the township clerk. Filing fee is $2.

Generally, officers to be elected this year are a supervisor for three years and clerk, constable and justice for two years.

Township elections will be March 10.

Osseo Man Dies In Farm Accident

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — A retired farmer living in Osseo died at 8:15 a.m. Thursday at Luther Hospital, Eau Claire, from head and internal injuries received in a tractor accident Wednesday.

Otis E. Stewart Sr., 66, was helping with corn shredding on the Orlyn Tande farm in Town of Garfield, Jackson County, when the accident happened about 12:30 p.m.

STEWART was driving a tractor that was pulling another tractor from its storage in a shed. He looked backward to see how it was progressing, apparently lost his balance, and fell between the machines.

The tractor kept moving forward after he fell. The small wheel in back passed over his midsection and the large tractor wheel over his head.

He was rushed to the hospital by ambulance and remained conscious until about 15 minutes before his death, his son Daniel said this morning. However, he couldn't see; if he had recovered he might have been blind, Daniel said.

The family decided against an autopsy, Daniel said. The casket will be closed at the funeral.

Tande, whose farm is about seven miles east of here, was on the tractor being pulled from the

Planners Ask New Through City Routing

A firm recommendation for through-city routing of east and west traffic was drafted Thursday night by the City Planning Commission.

The commission's recommendation — replacing present routing — will be submitted to the next session of the City Council for approval.

Commissioners, after poring over several alternative routes, decided on a relatively straight pattern, with minimum turning. The marked city route, beginning at its east end, will follow Mankato Avenue north to Broadway, then west to Cummings Street, south to Gilmore Avenue and west to the intersection of Highways 14 and 61.

Uniform directional signs, approved by the state Highway Department, will mark the route for travelers who wish to go through, rather than around, the city. Signs at Franklin, Huff and Main streets will give directions to the business district and to Winona State College.

The commission's recommendation was made at the request of the council. The indicated route does not affect routing of State Highway 43 or existing truck routes through the city.

Scouts to Hold Klondike Derby

More than 100 Boy Scouts from the Sugar Leaf District are expected to participate in the annual Klondike Derby at Lake Winona starting at 10 a.m. Saturday.

"Cities" will set up on the ice and Scouts must travel to each city to solve a Scouting problem. Problems will be based on compass and mapping, measuring, ice rescue, lashings and firebuilding.

A sled race will climax the day's events. The sleds, built by the Scouts, will be pulled by the Scouts while a patrol leader will be the "dog team" leader.

McL Becker, Winona, is the derby chief. Teams from Winona, Minnesota City, Altura, Lewiston, Dover, Elgin and Plainview are expected to enter.

from $3.50 to $4.50 depending on years served in the evening school program.

Carnival Royalty Busy in St. Paul

A busy weekend is in store for the Winona Winter Carnival royalty, who will be representing their city in St. Paul during the mid-winter festivities there.

Arnold Stenehjem, Jack Frost XIV, and Mrs. Stenehjem left Thursday for St. Paul, along with the new Miss Snowflake, Donna Stead.

TODAY, THEY will be joined by the two Princes Frost, Robert Kelly and Richard Darby and their wives. The two princesses of the Winona carnival, Rose Marie Ahts and Marilyn Swanke, will go to St. Paul Saturday, along with Milton Knutson, general chairman of the Winona carnival, and his wife.

Other committee chairmen from Winona will be attending the St. Paul event, and a square dancing group is scheduled to take part in the St. Paul carnival dance festival Saturday night.

The Winona delegation visited the State capitol this morning, and appeared on the Treasure Hunt show on Channel 5 this noon. It will attend the coronation of King Boreas XXVIII, ruler of the St. Paul carnival, at 1 p.m. today.

The St. Paul Vulcans will be hosts for the Winonans at a banquet tonight and also at a reception in the Klondike Room of the St. Paul Hotel after the parade Saturday.

The entire Winona royal court will ride in the parade, which begins at 2 p.m. Saturday and finishes in the St. Paul Auditorium.

The group will make other visits while in St. Paul, and will present scrolls to persons there.

The royalty hopes to return from St. Paul in time to appear at the Rushford ski meet Sunday.

THEME OF the 1964 St. Paul Winter Carnival is "Toys 'n' Snowland," a motif imported from Belgium where it long has been a feature of a festival.

Marshall of Saturday's parade will be Baron Louis Scheyven, Belgian ambassador to the United States.

Comedian Herb Shriner and television actress Bea Benaderet will take part in the coronation and variety show tonight.

A total of 120 events is scheduled for the carnival, which lasts through Feb. 2.

Joe Di Maggio 'Drama Critic'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Friends of Joe Di Maggio say he's seething at what he's heard about Arthur Miller's new play, "After the Fall," which is strangely reminiscent of Marilyn Monroe — and is likely to turn into a very angry drama critic. They hope to keep the Yankee Clipper from seeing the show (which "Ladybird" Johnson saw previewed the other night) lest he explode.

Eddie Adams heard that "Nobody Loves An Albatross," the hilarious Robert Preston show about a wheeler-dealer Hollywood TV writer-producer, is patterned somewhat after her current boy friend, Cy Howard. "When he makes a date with me, forgets it, goes out with somebody else and I find out about it," says Eddie. "Cy says, 'Sweetheart, you know I wouldn't have gone out with her if I'd known you were in town! How can you say that!'"

JOYCE MATHEWS, twice divorced from both Billy Rose and Milton Berle, told some friends, "Billy's the only man I ever loved — I want him back." That's evidently why Billy flew to Europe to meet Joyce just when everybody thought he and Hollywood's wealthy Doris Vidor were practically at the preacher's.

"Morocco," the belly-dancer from the Roundtable, a legit tummy-tosser from Transylvania, is going to picket "Aida" at the Met claiming the Katherine Dunham bellyrings are give bellydancing a bad name and have "no integrity." Busy June Wilkinson of "Pajama Tops" and Connecticut theater man Robert Caplin were secretly married a few weeks ago. Edward R. Murrow's visiting Dr. Jonas Salk in La Jolla, Cal. Anthony Quinn and his Italian love expect the baby in March. Quinn's son, Duncan, 19, is visiting him in Yugoslavia.

SOME BROADWAYITES were giggling about a couple now sending out wedding invitations. "This," cracked one skeptic, "will be a great boon to the sleeping mask industry."

Tools Shor announced at his bar: "I'm the only slob around who's happy about people stopping smoking. When they stop smoking, they get nervous, and when they get nervous, they start drinking."

The Nixon jokes are starting again. Jackie Mason says at the Las Vegas Flamingo: "Nixon's been such a loser, Lyndon Johnson is financing his campaign for the nomination." Also: "Nixon doesn't care if he gets the nomination, all he wants is the Presidency." I picked this up in Monte Proser's "Anything Goes" at the Las Vegas Thunderbird: "I lost my wife, and all because of a Christmas pres-

Fishing Contest
There are no strictly local fishing contests this weekend. However, the Badger State Sportsmen Club of La Crosse, will hold an all-day event on the ice adjoining Goose Island Sunday. The contest runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This is the big Wisconsin contest of the year with a heap of prizes. There will be a heated tent on the ice where hot beef stew will be served all day. The Goose Island fishing area is on boundary waters seven miles south of La Crosse adjoining Highway 35.

Reports from last week's contests reveal that none of them, outside of the Third Lake one at Trempealeau, produced very many fish. At Lake City, 2,000 fishermen caught 35 fish large enough for the board in three hours of fishing. The Black River Falls National Guard contest made money but a very small number of fish were caught.

Protective League Resolutions
Resolutions adopted at the annual meeting of the Minnesota Game Protective League at its annual St. Paul "pow-wow," shows that the membership is far from satisfied with last fall's regulations of hunting in the state. The duck season and pheasant season got most of the heat but there is a demand for tags on the backs of deer hunters and a 24-hour trout season.

One of the resolutions urged a split duck season with three or four days of teal shooting in the middle of September with the balance of the season so it would end on Nov. 15.

Another resolution "deploring any attempt of state officials to discriminate against Minnesota duck hunters as compared with those of other states in this flyway" and urged the Minnesota legislature to clarify the law relating to seasons and limits on migratory game birds so as to "accord hunters in Minnesota equal privileges with those granted to hunters of other states."

Dave Vessal, state game supervisor, explained that the estimate of a 25 percent increase was based on reports in the annual pheasant population survey, but said that the mild weather during the hunting season was not conducive to seeing the birds. After the first snow came, he said, areas that appeared severely depleted of pheasants subsequently did show good populations.

As for insecticides, he said the department feels they are not distributed in heavy enough concentrations to materially affect pheasants. But he admitted that "we do not understand yet the long range effect of insecticides on wildlife."

Among resolutions adopted by the league were the following:
A proposal to require deer hunters to wear back tags bearing their license number.
An open season for mourning doves.
Twenty-four hour trout fishing.
Elimination of diversions of game and fish license fees to other purposes than game and fish.

Endorsement of the Minnesota Commission on Outdoor Recreation Resources.
Reorganization of the Game and Fish Division and its separation from the Conservation Department as proposed in a bill in the legislature.

A split deer season with the first half to start on the Saturday prior to Nov. 10 and the last half as determined by the commissioner of conservation.

Closing of the season on sharp-tailed grouse except in the extreme northwest corner of the state.

Mondovi Youth Pays Two Fines

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — In Buffalo County Court before Judge Gary B. Schlosstein here Wednesday afternoon, Dale Kent, 19, Mondovi, paid fine and costs of $93 on two charges and was placed on probation to the probation officer, Michael Hayes, Alma.

Kent paid $80 on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors and $13 on a charge of a defective muffler. Other cases:
Orrin P. Sandberg, Eleva Rt. 1, 55, pleaded guilty to driving too fast for conditions in Mondovi and paid fine and costs of $38.

Douglas R. Schuch, 20, Eleva Rt. 2, forfeited $38 bail for failing to appear on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

Norman J. Comer, 52, Independence Rt. 3, forfeited $13 on a charge of running a stop sign in Mondovi.

Ronald J. Bauer, 19, Durand Rt. 2, pleaded not guilty to allowing an unauthorized person to operate his motor vehicle. Preliminary hearing was set for next Wednesday.

Freeman Wants To Put Land To Better Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman says it will be the goal of his agency in its battle against rural poverty to emphasize the use of land, not the idling of it, and the development of small cities and towns.

In a discussion outlining programs to bolster the rural economy, the secretary criticized the measures that take land out of all uses and do nothing to keep displaced farm and unemployed rural people in their communities.

Freeman said the poverty campaign being inaugurated by President Johnson will utilize, insofar as agricultural areas are concerned, the department's Rural Area Development (RAD) program headed by Asst. Secretary of Agriculture John A. Baker. Baker is a former official of the National Farmers Union.

"Its (the RAD) aim is a rural renaissance through a host of new opportunities in rural areas, ranging from on-farm recreation for pay to new industry, from improved housing to modern community water systems, from new ways to utilize

He's Paying High Price

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a husband who is a walking adding machine? Our friends are slowly drifting away because of him. For example, he counts the number of cookies each guest consumes, and he tells them to bring their own tea bags! He is downright insulting. He will sit right there at the dinner table and tell his guests how much the meat costs a pound, and butter, too. Then he wonders why everybody has lost his appetite. My nerves are ragged and my blood pressure is very high. How can I make him realize what he is doing?

ADDING MACHINE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: The only hope for your husband is a psychiatrist. One visit should do the trick. When he finds out how much it costs, he'll probably snap out of it.

DEAR ABBY: I have just returned from another fruitless shopping trip through our local stores. I have a teen-age daughter who is, and always has been, dogged by the problem of overweight. She is a lovely, sensitive girl. Because of her exceptional personality she has many friends. My problem? CLOTHES! I wonder if clothes manufacturers think that everyone who wears a size 20 or 40 has to look like "granny." Why don't they make youthful styles in the larger sizes for teen-agers?

Abby

MEMPHIS MOM

DEAR MOM: Dress manufacturers design for the masses, and the teen-ager who requires a size 20 or 40 is exceptional. If your daughter is difficult to fit, buy patterns and fabric and make her clothes — or have a dressmaker make them. The ideal solution, of course, would be to put her on a diet under the watchful eye of a physician, and eventually get her exceptional personality into a size 12.

DEAR ABBY: Last June we sent our niece a wedding gift that cost $50 and mailed it to her in another state. We never got one word of acknowledgement, so we wrote to her mother, who lives in the same city, and asked if the package was ever received. We said we'd have it traced if she didn't get it. The mother wrote back, "The kids got the gift but they have been so busy trying to get their apartment furnished, and with the baby coming and all, please don't be angry with them for not writing." Abby, how can young people be so lax? We've had the same experience with graduation and Christmas gifts. But these same people are Johnny-on-the-spot with announcements of every kind. How does one handle this?

HURT AUNT

DEAR HURT: Any girl who is old enough to be married is responsible for her own actions, so it's unfair (and unkind) to expect her mother to make her apologies. You should have written directly to the girl. If one fails to acknowledge a graduation or Christmas gift, and then has the nerve to send a birth announcement, the announcement should be disregarded.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ELKHART": You can't stop people from thinking. But you can start them!

Get it off your chest. For a personal unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Barry Claims He's Ahead in N. Hampshire

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater figures he is the 2 to 1 favorite among New Hampshire Republicans who have already decided how they will vote in the nation's first presidential primary.

He says New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller would have to produce magic to overcome that margin.

Goldwater, winding up a three-day New Hampshire campaign swing, conceded a big bloc of voters still is reserving judgment on the March 10 primary.

But the Arizona senator said many of them will back his candidacy for the GOP nomination.

"I feel very definitely that New Hampshire has made up its mind about Rockefeller," the Republican senator said in an interview Thursday night.

He added: "As of today, unless some magic happens, he has all the votes he is going to get."

Goldwater said his views on the New Hampshire picture were based on polls conducted for his campaign organization.

If the New Hampshire primary field widens to a half dozen or more candidates, Goldwater said, nobody may emerge with a decisive victory.

Goldwater flew out of Concord Thursday night promising to return for another 2 1/2 weeks of campaigning. His next date: Feb. 5-6.

Mondovi Schools Set Open House

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — The Mondovi Public Schools will conduct quarterly open house Monday.

To help eliminate the problems of long lines and short conference time, a new plan has been arranged so parents will be able to see all the teachers with minimum waiting.

The elementary school and junior high school will conduct the following plan: Parents with last names beginning with letters L-Z will visit classrooms from 6:30-8 p.m. Parents with last names from A-K will visit from 8-9:30 p.m.

In the high school, parents with last names beginning with A-K will visit from 6:30-8 p.m., and those from L-Z, 8-9:30 p.m. By alternating the visiting time of grades 1-8 and grades 9-12, the faculty hopes all parents will have an opportunity to visit all the rooms they wish.

The rural schools, Naples, Canton, Anthony and Modena, also will hold open house Monday from 3:45-6 p.m. This will enable parents in the rural areas an opportunity to visit all schools, rural and city.

Lunch will be served in the school cafeterias. The Mondovi Education Association also invites all persons regardless if they have children in school.

Mondovi Lions Get Membership Awards; Pancake Plans Made

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — Frank Norrish, chairman of the October membership drive, presented membership awards from the international office to members of the Mondovi Lions Club when they met Tuesday at the Methodist Church here with 34 members attending.

He awarded certificates and the clasps to Harley Hesselman, Carl Stynstad and George Weiss for sponsoring one member and gold plated Lion paper weights to Howard Peck, Ervin Heck and Maynard Olson for sponsoring two members.

Otto Bollinger, Buffalo Memorial Hospital administrator, thanked the Lions for the money donated for gifts for patients at the nursing home.

Arnold Gunderson reported plans are complete for a Lions public pancake feed Feb. 2. Otto Bollinger and James Heike were appointed to check details for sponsoring a barbershop show.

Members re-elected Gordon Solberg as representative to serve a two-year term on the youth camp committee. Vice President William Hehl presided.

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

IT never rains but it pours! The other day in talking with manager Paul Berg of the State Theater he remarked that I hadn't attended many movies the past couple of months. I said that that was true, and I felt there hadn't been too many interesting and top-notch ones shown lately. That is, I added, until "Charade" last week.

He said, "And 'The Cardinal' this week. That's perfectly true that over the past holiday month or two we didn't book as many outstanding movies. People just didn't have the time to go. But wait till you hear what's coming up!"

I said I knew that "The Cardinal" was one of the top pictures of the year and I was planning to see it this week. But did he have anything else up his sleeve?

Then he told me about an interesting experiment he's going to conduct in February. On three successive Wednesdays in February, for one night only, the State Theater is going to show three of the top foreign films of recent years.

"This is purely an experiment," he said, "and if the attendance is good and people like them we'll try to book other outstanding foreign films at intervals. We now have a film connection that enables us to book the finest of foreign-made films. Some are made in British or American actors and are in English — like 'The Leopard' starring Burt Lancaster. Others are made in the language of the country but have English subtitles so they can be easily followed by American audiences."

Then he told me about the three films he has booked. On Wednesday, Feb. 5: "Virgin Spring," the Academy Award Winner for the best foreign film of last year. Made in Sweden by the great director Ingmar Bergman, this movie won all honors in the international film contest.

On Feb. 12: "Black Orpheus," the extraordinary Brazilian film with the leads played by beautiful American dancer Marjorie Dawn and Brazilian football star Bruto Mello. It is a thrilling suspense story of carnival time in Rio de Janeiro and was brilliantly filmed in color.

On Feb. 19: "Ballad of a Soldier," the tender and touching Russian war drama of a 19-year-old Soviet soldier and a girl he meets on leave. This film was the first Soviet-produced film to be released in the U. S. under the U. S.-U. S. R. Cultural Exchange agreement. All the American critics raved about it as deeply moving, sensitively played, and beautiful in its simplicity. This film, I noticed in the New York papers, is still a top attraction in New York.

So during February we'll be fortunate in having these three remarkable and widely different foreign films as our one-night treats. Many Winonans remember with nostalgia our old West End Theater where many wonderful foreign films were shown from time to time. Here is our chance to get back into the swing of having occasional foreign films which are shown only in New York and other big cities.

According to Manager Berg, showing foreign films in a small town is a financial risk, for they are "different" and many people tend to regard with suspicion any form of art that is new and different in any way from the old well-worn pattern. But here's hoping that people will make the effort to get up out of their comfortable TV chairs on Feb. 5, 12 and 19 and go to see what these three prize-winning foreign films are like. It should be exciting to see the best of what's being produced in Sweden, Brazil and Russia and compare it with our own Hollywood output.

Man Lives Hour With New Heart

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Surgeons at the University of Mississippi Medical Center here transplanted a human heart into the body of a man dying of a heart ailment today.

A medical center spokesman said the transplanted heart beat for more than an hour but proved inadequate for the patient's requirements and the recipient died.

The spokesman said it was believed to be the first transplant of a human heart in history.

Rockefeller Would Help Small Firms

LACONIA, N.H. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York returned to the campaign trail in New Hampshire today and proposed a program to help the nation's 4 1/2 million small business firms and their 30 million employees.

Rockefeller's plan was outlined in a statement prepared for delivery at a luncheon of the Laconia Chamber of Commerce.

The governor, who is seeking the Republican presidential nomination and votes in New Hampshire's preferential primary March 10, said his program is particularly pertinent to this state.

"New Hampshire, more than perhaps any other state in the nation, is a state of small businesses," Rockefeller said.

One of the 11 steps he proposed was the assurance of availability of adequate credit and equity capital.

"In New Hampshire the banks have pioneered in pooling their resources to help finance small business," Rockefeller said. He noted that the New Hampshire Business Development Council had loaned $2,455,000 to 90 companies.

He called for full and continuing support for the Small Business Administration, then said: "According to my information there is not now, under the Democratic administration, a single official of the agency at the top policy-making level who was a small businessman."

"Such a situation would, if I had the opportunity, be promptly corrected."

Judge John D. McGill set Jan. 31 at 9:30 a.m. as the trial date. Larson posted $100 bail and was released.

Governors of 3 States Support Medicare Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Governors of three states supported Thursday proposals for medical care for the elderly under the Social Security system.

The governors' views were expressed at a hearing conducted by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Gov. Endicott Peabody of Massachusetts said a national health insurance program financed by contributions from the beneficiaries is the fairest and most effective method of providing a minimum of medical assistance to those who have reached retirement age.

Gov. William Wallace Barron of West Virginia testified that proposed legislation to provide hospital insurance for the aged through the social security system has his enthusiastic and whole-hearted support.

In a statement filed with the committee, Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag of Minnesota, said he does not consider Kerr-Mills legislation a substitute or an alternative to the benefits of the King-Anderson Medicare bill which would provide for medical care under the Social Security system.

Mayor Arthur Naftalin of Minneapolis, Minn., urged favorable action on the bill and said his view reflects that of a great majority of people in his community.

Duluth Mother Charged With Starving Child

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — A Duluth mother was jailed here today, charged with second degree manslaughter in the alleged starvation death of her infant son.

Arrested Thursday night was Mrs. Frederick Patrick, 29, mother of six-month-old Bruce Patrick, who died last Sunday. She was taken into custody after an autopsy showed the child had succumbed to malnutrition.

The action came after a juvenile court hearing in which five other Patrick children were ordered under supervision of the St. Louis County Welfare Department.

A second child, Paul, 20 months, was hospitalized when he showed malnutrition symptoms. Officers said the four other children, all of school age, appeared to be in good condition. But physical examinations were ordered for all.

Patrick, an Air Force sergeant stationed in California for a six-month training program on missiles, returned home on emergency leave Thursday and promised to help care for the children. He could offer no immediate explanation of circumstances leading to death of his son.

Patrick was stationed at a Bormac missile installation at French River, near Duluth, until drawing the California assignment just before the first of the year.

Deadline Passes In Osseo Issue

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — Thursday was the deadline set by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin for Beef River Valley Telephone Co. and General Telephone Co. of Osseo to produce a plan on how best to serve the Osseo area.

John Ward, Beef River attorney, said no further progress had been made by the deadline but he would expect an announcement next week.

Beef River has given a local group a price on its company and option to buy. One meeting has been held with General officials but no price had been quoted by Thursday.

The commission ordered the companies either to work cooperatively, sell to each other, or a third party. A group of local men propose to form a corporation to purchase both companies and operate the service themselves.

Notes on the Stems of Plants

In a previous article it was stated that the tip of the main root of a plant was directed downward by the effect of gravity on the protoplasm of the cells.

The cells of the stem of the plant, on the other hand, behave in a different manner and cause the stem to grow upward. Why the cells in the stem and the root thus act differently is one of the unsolved mysteries of biology. The basic mechanism of growth is much the same in both the stem and the root in the division and elongation of the cells.

Unlike the roots, the growth of a stem is greatly complicated by the formation of leaves. As we observe the leaves that grow out along the branches, little do we think that they all have been formed at the tips of branches at the same time that the stems lengthened. Originally they all developed from buds. Any bud is a potential length of stem with very small closely packed leaves that will later be borne on the stem as it lengthens.

BUDS WHICH endure through the winter begin to grow again in the spring. Most of them cease to grow again in the late summer, though, of course, there are many exceptions to this.

All buds are not so simple in construction, since in some buds the leaves may be replaced by the parts of a flower which develop from the apex of a stem. This can be seen in the buds and blooms of the lilac.

In many plants lateral buds form in the axils of the leaves and as they continue to grow they form branches. If the terminal bud on the main stem of a small tree is removed, one or more of the lower lateral buds will take its place and form the stem and leaves. The gardener who has pruned small trees and shrubs is familiar with this.

IN WOODY plants such as trees, the epidermis comprises the outer layer of cells, or outer bark. Next is the cambium layer, or the green inner bark. Then comes the wood which is the central portion of the stem.

The main function of the outer layer, or bark, which may be more or less woody, corky, or scaly, is the protection of the inner growing tissues. The food manufactured in the leaves and brought up from the roots are carried by the green inner bark, or cambium layer. The growth of the entire stem is due primarily to the increase of cells in this green inner bark.

From this the annual growth rings are produced by which the age of a tree can be determined approximately. These annual rings, also, tell a story in the life history of a tree.

A broad ring indicates favorable conditions for growth during that particular year. Narrow bands, or rings, indicate restrictive conditions such as dry weather, setback due to transplanting, or some other unfavorable factor.

THE INNER bark, or sap wood, is composed of living cells, as stated above, while the heart wood is made up of dead cells. As a rule, the new wood cells of the stem remain alive for only a few years.

As previously stated, the increase in the diameter of a tree is due to the growth of the inner bark only. The growth in height is due to the formation of new cells at the top of each stem as it grows. Also, the leaves are formed here, as stated above, and the branches of the stem develop in the axils of the leaves. Once a branch or limb appears on the stem of a tree, its location is fixed and its height from the ground always remains the same.

THE STEMS of plants have undergone many changes through long periods of time to adapt themselves to various conditions. One of these is the climbing type of stem illustrated by the morning glory, a twining vine.

A n o t h e r type of modified stems are those that creep along in the soil and often resemble roots more than stems, such as quack grass. There are various other kinds, but these will serve as illustrations of the adaptability of the stems of plants to meet varying conditions.

75 Moved to Safety in Dallas Hospital Fire

DALLAS (AP) — Fire units and policemen took to safety 75 patients of the Medical Arts Building Hospital early today after a fire sent smoke spiraling through the 18-story building.

The fire department said the fire was brought under control in little more than an hour, at 6:29 a.m.

Patients were rushed to outlying hospitals. Some suffered slight cases of smoke inhalation.

One report said the fire started in the building's air-conditioning unit on the first floor. The hospital occupies three other floors.

Hero As A Politician

THE PHENOMENON of the hero as politician is going to be seen in full flower again as John H. Glenn Jr. makes the race for a U.S. Senate seat from Ohio. It is a fair guess (though we may be in for a surprise on this count) that as is usual in such cases the candidate's view on important issues will have less emphasis than the accomplishments and personal qualities that have made him a national hero.

This is not said in denigration of Glenn as a candidate for high office. The marked abilities he has shown as senior astronaut in the space program are not at all incompatible with able performance as a representative of the people, though legislating is quite different from navigating. His notable poise and good judgment in the difficult role of hero also demonstrated that he is far more than simply a dashing Marine with a zest for adventure.

THE FACT remains that at this stage Glenn is pretty much an unknown quantity, politically speaking. Nothing showed this more clearly than the efforts of both Democrats and Republicans to entice him into the fold before he decided to run as a Democrat. Even now, his views on major questions have not been elaborated.

This elaboration will come, at least to some extent, as the campaign progresses. It is to be hoped that John Glenn will not stint on such exposition either in the primary race or, should he win that, in the final drive for election. When popular heroes seek high office, they have a particular obligation to demonstrate their seriousness and enlightened concern with the problems that must be dealt with once that office is attained.

University Prexy Holds Novel Ideas

IF, AS WE ARE SO often told, there's virtue in non-conformity then surely a California educator must be virtuous enough for sainthood. For Chancellor Dean E. McHenry of the University of California at Santa Cruz has publicly decried (1) early marriages and (2) automobiles on campus.

Now it may well be that Chancellor McHenry is just inexperienced. You see he is Chancellor of a college that doesn't yet exist. The Santa Cruz institution is presently in the building with opening set two years hence.

McHenry won't prohibit student marriages, but — "We won't make playing house easy, we will not provide married student housing for undergraduates."

SANTA CRUZ won't prohibit students owning automobiles, but — "We don't plan to provide them with parking spaces."

Santa Cruz also proposes to make its academic programs so rigorous that students won't have time for outside jobs.

And if they can't hold part-time jobs, Mr. McHenry believes, they are not so likely to get married or buy automobiles, or do both.

"A great number of college students rush into marriage," Mr. McHenry told reporters at the annual meetings of the Council of Education.

"WE'VE MADE it so easy, the economic barriers aren't there. Why wait? And often they soon hate each other. They grow apart intellectually. The wife drops out to put her husband through. Then she gets pregnant and never goes back to class. They wind up in a divorce court."

He emphasizes he is not opposed to all undergraduate marriages. But Mr. McHenry said, if students are going to get married, they should be mature and responsible, and able to pay the regular rates for housing.

ONLY TIME will tell whether this educator's reactionary ideas that a university is a place for scholarship will be accepted. It hasn't been so many years ago when a normal university was where Dante out-ranked dancing, where Scheele was more highly regarded than Elvis Presley, where the dean of letters and science was better known than the "head" football coach and where a visiting poet got a bigger audience than the campus soda fountain.

We think the Chancellor has one thing going for him and that is he'll have no alumni at first to insist that the university not only admit a married fullback from Pennsylvania, but find employment on campus for his wife and their three children.

WHICH IS TO SAY, Brother McHenry may get away with his non-conformities for a time — perhaps as long as it takes for alumni (or hormones) to conspire for his defeat.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Khrushchev Eyes Loans From West

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—For American policymakers the fork in the road is clearly marked with a warning sign. But whether the Western allies will pay any attention to the warning, as repeatedly underscored by Washington, is doubtful.

The sign says: "Beware of long-term credits to the Communist-bloc countries."

Behind the diplomatic maneuvering is the pull of economic forces as Western Europe searches for new markets in a competition grown increasingly keen in a prosperous Europe.

Premier Khrushchev is shrewdly playing for credits. He has promised the Soviet people a huge program to produce chemical fertilizers which will raise agricultural production and the standard of living. Not less than 200 new fertilizer plants would have to be built in six years and more than 400 converted. This cannot be done without large imports of machinery from the West.

When the British prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, comes here next month credits and trade with the Soviet bloc will be one of the most important topics for discussion. The State Department was most unhappy over the British deal to sell buses and spare parts to Cuba. The British repented to criticism with: Well, what's the difference between that and your deal to sell wheat to the Soviet Union?

THE DIFFERENCE, from the American perspective, is the five-year credit to Cuba as against gold or dollars on the barrel head for American wheat. When Chancellor Ludwig Erhard met with the President in Texas they agreed that credits should not be advanced to the Communist-bloc countries without political strings tied to the deals he is holding out to Western business. But the British have long been convinced that West German deals with the Soviet Union are far more extensive than the announced figures would indicate. The Ruhr industrialists under a 1958 agreement, extended last year, have sold entire rayon and other artificial-fiber plants.

This suspicion increasingly color relations between the Western allies as they look for outlets for their greatly expanded productive capacity. Now that President de Gaulle is moving to recognize Red China the race will be intensified. For Peiping even more than Moscow is searching for Western imports of advanced machinery with little to pay except promises.

A FRENCH trade mission has laid the groundwork for expanded sales that will apparently be on an IOU basis.

Japan has been moving in that direction and the French step will spur both businessmen and politicians arguing that Tokyo must move closer to Peiping. The French will have repercussions, both politically and economically, so wide as to be as yet unforeseeable.

The hand-wringing gesture is at this late date a futile one. So many opportunities have been lost. In the Dulles era of "pactomania" the illusion was fostered that military alliances could hold the line in the Middle East and Southeast Asia. The rickety pacts have been coming unstuck and yet it has seemed easier to keep up the old pretense.

The need now is for hard reality. That was evident in the President's response to Khrushchev's lengthy message calling for peaceful settlement of territorial disputes. To say there was a controversy over the drafting of the response would be untrue.

NEVERTHELESS voices were raised in the official family to argue for a more outgoing and warm reply — a kind of hats-in-the-air-for-peace-its-wonderful.

Dulles Law Firm Got Canal Built in Panama

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The most amazing chapter in the sensational story of the Panama Canal was disclosed as a result of a libel suit brought by President Theodore Roosevelt against the old New York World and Indianapolis News.

Like many who are foolish enough to bring libel suits, T. R. lost. The suit was thrown out by the Supreme Court. But in defending its case, the World accumulated significant testimony of great interest to the American public at this time when our entire relations with Panama are in jeopardy.

The testimony showed: 1. That William N. Cromwell, founder of the law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, of which the late John Foster Dulles was a famous partner, was hired by the French to sell the Panama Canal route to the U.S. Senate, rather than the Nicaraguan Canal route, which the U.S. government favored.

2. That a pool of Wall Street bankers secretly bought up stock in the French Panama Canal Company when it was low, then helped inspire a revolution in Panama to take over from Columbia, which would increase the price of their stock.

3. That Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of Teddy Roosevelt, was a member of this pool to the extent of $200,000, which put Teddy Roosevelt, the man who with Cromwell engineered the Panama revolution, in a conflict-of-interest position.

4. That Henry W. Taft, brother of William Howard Taft, who was secretary of war under T. R. and in charge of the Panama Canal operation, also was a secret member of the Wall Street pool to the extent of $19,000. This put Secretary Taft also in a conflict of interest position.

5. That Panama was paid very little of the original $10,000,000 supposed to have been given her for deeding the canal zone to the United States in perpetuity.

MANY OF these revelations are told by Earl Harding, former correspondent for the New York World, in his book, "The Untold Story of Panama." Mr. Harding was given the task of digging up evidence to defend the libel suit and it was largely through his diligence that some of the carefully concealed facts were uncovered.

The story goes back to 1896 when the French were bogged down in their attempt to dig a canal across Panama and wanted to sell out to the United States. However, American sentiment was overwhelmingly for a sea level canal through Nicaragua, rather than cutting through the mountain chain of Panama.

So the French retained New York Attorney William Nelson Cromwell, whose law firm has dominated American foreign policy ever since. Its most recent dominators have been John F. Dulles, who served as secretary of state, and his brother Allen, who long served as head of Central Intelligence.

CROMWELL accomplished the phenomenal feat of getting $40,000,000 allocated to the French for their old canal bonds—though a good slice of it went to the Wall Street bankers. For this Cromwell submitted a bill for $832,450—which he never actually collected. The French shaved him down to $228,000.

But the founder of the Sullivan and Cromwell firm really earned his fee. Despite the fact that all U. S. government agencies were in favor of a Nicaraguan Canal—which would not have entailed $40,000,000 to the French and Wall Street—Cromwell set up an anti-Nicaraguan press bureau in Washington, then adopted delaying tactics by persuading the McKinley administration to set up a new commission to examine Panama and other routes.

Then he devoted all his time to influencing this new commission away from Nicaragua and toward Panama and the French route. Despite Nelson's efforts, the commission once again recommended the cheaper and easier route through Nicaragua.

But by this time the indefatigable Cromwell had persuaded the Republican party to change its platform from recommending a Nicaraguan canal to an "Isthmian Canal," also got J. P. Morgan, Kuhn Loeb, August Belmont, G. and W. Seligman and other Wall Street bankers to organize "The Panama Canal Company of America," to buy up French Canal stock cheap. All were big contributors to the Republican party.

More About Garbage, Tin Cans To the Editor:

Much has been in the papers regarding this smelly subject. Some folks want the city to pick up their tin cans with the garbage. To do this, would require a big payroll to handle the job. And as anyone should know, higher taxes would be the result. They talk about tin cans getting smelly. The simplest thing to do, is to rinse out the tin cans before discarding them. That's all brother.

When the container is full of clean cans, take them to the dump. It will cost much less than having the city do it.

He'd Welcome Debate With DFL Chairman To the Editor:

While the DFL record of the past quarter century certainly points in that direction, I had no idea things had gone so far, so fast, that the political machine which claims to represent the working people of America now openly endorses the shoddy views of Professor Sibley as indicated by Bill Wagner in his letter to the editor.

I hereby accept the apparent offer of the Democratic party bosses to debate Professor Sibley's contentions regarding advocacy of communism, nudism, atheism and free love. Further I stand ready to do so publically, anytime, anywhere and I shall be pleased to debate their local county chairman or any of his overlords at the state or national levels, on these and any similar aspects of what is apparently to be the 1964 Democratic platform.

I agree with Mr. Wagner that it should certainly be interesting and informative.

Disagrees With Banquet Speaker To the Editor:

On the evening of January 15, I was privileged to attend a banquet sponsored by the Plainview Commercial Club, Plainview, Jaycees, and Pedco Agriculture Committee, at which I was further honored to be named "Outstanding Young Farmer."

The banquet was well attended and excellently executed, however I feel there was one outstanding disappointment. The main speaker, George I. Brooks, from Red Wing, it seems, was raised on a farm, and therefore has become an expert on all phases of farming and the economics thereof.

It seems as though he felt the Plainview community and surrounding area should pattern itself after Texas. I don't know what his reasons could be, because Texas is the 4th lowest state as far as average income is concerned and at the same time has the most millionaires per capita, unless he figures he'll be one of the millionaires.

Mr. Brooks mentioned that there is a surplus of labor on the farm. Most farmers work at least 70 hours a week and in many cases the wife and the children have to help. It must have been a very long time since Mr. Brooks has worked on a farm.

During a special type question and answer period, he asked those in attendance to list the needs of the Plainview community. Many very good ideas were brought out by those in attendance. However, when a need for increasing the buying power of farmers was mentioned, he implied that this job could be accomplished by increased efficiency on the part of the farmer or as he said, "better management", as if there is no limit thereto. Presently farmers are increasing their efficiency at a rate of 2½ times that of industry.

Now, I think that most people realize Plainview cannot exist without the family type farmer because the business men are forced to close their doors at about the same ratio as farmers leave the farm and if it came to corporate farming, these managers would, quite likely, do business more directly. Therefore, the greatest need of the community is to increase the buying power of farmers and thereby preserving the family-type farming and Plainview.

The only real way to increase the buying power of the farmer is to stop the cost-price squeeze. We can do comparatively little about costs, especially those that are fixed. So the only avenue left is price, and the only organization concerning itself directly with "price" is the NFO. Why, then, does anyone in a rural community oppose the NFO?

Help for Retarded Children

By J. G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I read with interest and dismay a letter written to you and your reply to the woman with a brain-damaged child.

There is help, there are people who are concerned, and something can be done. My brother has such a child who has been taken to various doctors. Then one recommended — Institute. It has a program designed to develop that part of the brain which is not damaged. Due to this program children have been taught to walk, to talk, to read and in general become normal. In many cases these children have surpassed the mentality of so-called normal children of equal age. Please pass this information along. — S. R.

I'm sure you are sincere, but I cannot in good conscience publicize the "Institute" you mention. I imply no criticism of it. It may do a very fine job.

But let's face facts. Brain damage is a serious and permanent matter. It is tragic. I agree that much can often be done for either the retarded or the brain-damaged child. There is no doubt that, in the past, many such children have been shunted aside or "written off" without any effort to develop their capabilities.

AFTER ALL, normal children have to be trained, or "taught" or whatever you want to call the process of imparting knowledge. A normal child, subjected to being ignored or thrust aside, will develop to his potential capabilities. This, regrettably, has happened at times. Perhaps it still happens.

Let's take the opposite condition. Either retarded or brain-damaged children can be trained, but there will be a limit as to what they can learn or understand. Frequently a retarded child will have a remarkable good memory. Yet not "understand." But because of that, such children can with patience, be trained to have certain skills even though they may not understand the reasons.

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — A card party will be held at Peck School, Monday evening.

Auxiliary Board Votes to Purchase New Equipment

Purchase of an Astrup Micro instrument for laboratory use at Community Memorial Hospital was approved Thursday by the board of directors of the Women's Auxiliary. The equipment will cost approximately $2,600.

Mrs. Brantly Chappell, finance chairman, presented a description of the equipment to the board, and read a letter from Dr. Paul Heise, expressing the enthusiasm of the medical staff and explaining the use of the Astrup-Micro instrument.

DR. HEISE described the equipment as "more life saving than resuscitators and similar equipment" in its ability to provide information to facilitate the treatment of newborn infants with hyaline membrane disease (which afflicted the Kennedy baby).

The equipment is easily transported and is thus useful for bedside measurements as well as for laboratory work. With the equipment, it is possible, using a few drops of blood, to ascertain all the quantities which characterize the acid base status of blood, thus making it invaluable in its diagnosis and treatment use.

The decision to purchase the Astrup Micro instrument follows a long line of other contributions the Auxiliary has made to the hospital during past years, including such items as the hypo-hyperthermia unit, X-ray film processor, nursery bassinets, and a long list of other items.

MRS. D. B. Robinson, auxiliary president, read a letter from Mrs. Hubert Weir, inviting auxiliary members to the quarterly meeting of the St. Anne's Hospice Auxiliary Feb. 6. The meeting, designed to be a "get-acquainted" gathering, will feature a program planned by Sister M. Eymard of St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester.

It was voted to send incoming volunteer service chairman to the institute on methods and techniques for directors of hospital volunteers, to be held at Chicago March 9-11. This is a seminar to give valuable guidance to volunteer service chairman, thus benefiting all auxiliary services.

MRS. ROBERT Stephenson was appointed to serve as a representative from the auxiliary to the Citizens Advisory Committee on Urban Redevelopment. Mrs. George Loomis, chairman of the information desk, asked for volunteers to assist on Saturdays. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Loomis, or Mrs. Robert Selover, assistant chairman.

Members were reminded by Mrs. Robinson of the annual meeting to be held at the solarium on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. Highlighting the meeting will be the election of officers, awarding of 100-hour pins, and a talk by Earl Hagberg, hospital administrator, on the Chronic Care and Rehabilitation Unit to be built in the near future, as well as a musical program to be presented by Mrs. Robert Stephenson and daughter, Becky.

Coffee was served by the hospital committee, with Mrs. Fred Burmeister as chairman.

Riverside Magnolias Conduct Installation

WSHS Junior Classical League Holds 11th Annual Roman Banquet

Winona Senior High School chapter of the Junior Classical League held its 11th annual Roman Banquet in the school cafeteria Tuesday evening. The theme was a visit to Orcus (the Lower World) and the cafeteria was decorated to suggest the Kingdom of Pluto by the use of blues and greens in wall hangings, lighting and table decorations. "Sulphurous fumes" issued from a murky pool in the center of the square formed by the tables. Place mats featured a stylized symbol of clouds and fire. Centerpieces portrayed the three-headed dog, Cerberus, who guarded the entrance to Orcus, according to the ancients. The menu and program, in Latin, were in the form of scrolls.

The three-course dinner was prepared by Mrs. Bonnie Sullivan and the cafeteria staff and was served by "slaves" from the Latin I classes: Scott Biesanz, Alex Callender, Joy Albrecht, Joyce Albrecht, Laurie Bambenek, Cheryl Bltgen, Tom Tindahl, Jeanne McCluer, Ricky Curran, Brad Underdahl, Patti Sizemore and Dennis Bell. Head slaves were Tracy Allen from the second year class and Sandra Pritchard, a former Latin student.

The reunion of Aeneas with his father Anchises (Bill Kane) and a farewell speech by Proserpina concluded the entertainment.

Serving on the banquet committee as chairmen were Cheryl Wos, program; Carole Dinkler, table decorations; Martha Heise and Claire Peirce, hall decorations; Susan Steber, food, and Kay O'Dee, invitations.

Eyota Club Elects

EYOTA, Minn. (Special) — Officers were elected when 26 members of the Eyota Commercial Club met Wednesday at the Predmore Cafe here. Donald Morrison was elected president; A. C. Podien, vice president; Donald Keller, secretary, and Albert Pries, treasurer.

Meetings will be the third Wednesday.

Spring Grove Class

SPRING GROVE, Minn. — The 1964 farm business outlook will be discussed at 8 p.m. Monday at the adult agriculture evening class at the high school here. The vocational agriculture record analysis program from the 1962 analyses will be evaluated. Boyde Anderson, vocational agriculture instructor, said there is room for three additional farms in the area for the record analysis program.

Firmly Rooted

How strong are your roots? In Sequoia National Park one may read: "These Sequoia Gantea are of a noble lineage which bridges humanity back through eons of the age of reptiles. — Here dwell venerable forest kings in reveries which carry back a thousand years before Jesus Christ walked the shores of Galilee." How strong are your roots? "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." These reflect being well rooted. In a spirit of unity let us read: "Unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout the ages, world without end. A-men." — Eph. 3:17-19, 21.

New Pastor Installed At Arcadia

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — The Rev. Howard B. Benson, the new pastor at American Lutheran Church here, was installed Sunday.

The Rev. O. G. Birkeland, conference chairman, Whitehall, officiated and delivered the sermon at the service.

Rev. and Mrs. Benson and their four children arrived here from Crosby, N. D., where he had served as pastor of Concordia Lutheran Church since May 1958. The four children are Brent, 9; Jane, 10; Bryan, 6, and Carrie, 1.

Rev. Benson is a native of Minneapolis and a graduate of St. Olaf College in Northfield. He did graduate work in philosophy at the University of Minnesota and received a degree from Luther Theological Seminary. He also served the Bladon Lutheran parish near Riverdale, N. D., during the peak years of the Garrison Dam construction.

The new pastor is a veteran of World War II, having participated in five major campaigns in the European Theatre. He served as a combat medic with the 90th Infantry Division, Patton's Third Army, and landed on Uah beachhead on D-Day with a combat team attached to the 4th Infantry Division.

While at Crosby, he served as chairman of the district charities committee of the Western North Dakota district; chairman of the upper Missouri Bible Camp board and president of the Williston ALC Conference.

Holdover deacons: George Fredrickson, Joseph Staff; Donald Akeley, Joseph Peterson and Arnold Hanson. Holdover trustees: Arden Skadahl, Robert Hanson, Knut Theron, George Fremstad, Hensel Berge and Theron Paulson.

The pastor's report by the Rev. James Braaten showed a confirmed membership of 184 and a baptized membership of 242.

Lutherans Discuss Fixed Easter Date

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Implications of a fixed date for Easter were discussed by the president of the 34 North American Districts of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod during their three-day session here.

"The date of Easter is not important," commented the Rev. Dr. George W. Wittmer, third vice president of the synod and chairman of the college of presidents. "Easter is important because the Christian church throughout the world celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead on that festival. His resurrection marked the success of God's plan of salvation for all mankind. By faith we accept the vicarious suffering and death of Jesus Christ and His subsequent resurrection as the atonement for our sins and the renewal of our relationship with God."

Realignment Discussed at Pigeon Falls

PIGEON FALLS, Wis. (Special) — A budget of $17,000 was adopted at the annual meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran Church here Thursday. This includes $5,000 for the Synodical budget.

Discussion centered on the area realignment of the churches. The church council was authorized to enter into the talks or meetings deemed necessary, and instructed by the congregation to give special attention to the directives of the district president.

Congregation members agreed to take action only on those matters having first received council approval. On the recommendation of the district president, the congregation gave authority to the church council to retain an attorney. They also pledged themselves to support of all those sharing in the responsibilities pertaining to parish realignment.

Officers and others elected were: Howard Akeley, president; George Eid, vice president; Edwin Fremstad, secretary; Ernest Stetteland, treasurer; Lorraine Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Sverre Aasen, organist; Tekla Anderson, assistant organist; Mrs. Basil Olson, choir director; Reynolds Tomter, Palmer Hanson and Alfred Vosselie, deacons; Lorenz Mattison, Edgar Gopin, trustees, and Harry Galstad and Armand A. Burt, auditors.

Mmes. Harold Fremstad, Lorenz Mattison and Byron Berg, board of parish education; Gordon Lundstad, head usher, Reynolds Tomter, assistant; Wendell Hagen, Howard Akeley, Gene Edmundson, Robert A. H. Perry Back, Armand Burt, Hensel Berge, Roger Fremstad, Kenneth Ringlien, Terry Staff, Vernon Estenson, Lawrence Tomter, John Paulson and Benard Olson, ushers.

Benard Olson, Helmer Negerud, Harry Galstad and Mrs. Wilhelm Ringlien, property committee; Theron Paulson, Wendell Hagen, Ernest Fremstad, Archie Berge, Knut Theron, nominating committee, and Mads Stetteland, Melford Hagen and Henry Paulson, parking committee.

Holdover deacons: George Fredrickson, Joseph Staff; Donald Akeley, Joseph Peterson and Arnold Hanson. Holdover trustees: Arden Skadahl, Robert Hanson, Knut Theron, George Fremstad, Hensel Berge and Theron Paulson.

At the cemetery association meeting John Skadahl was re-elected as trustee for a 3-year term; Oluf Skumlien continues as president; Benard Olson as holdover trustee, and Harry Galstad as secretary-treasurer.

Student to Take Tests in Jail

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — A burglary charge isn't stopping Robert W. Schaffer, 22, from finishing his semester at college.

Sheriff Dave Middleman arranged with Carroll College officials to give Schaffer the semester examinations in a private office at the county jail. The student is charged with burglarizing a drug store.

ject is to complete the swimming pool and bathhouse. Richter said the club should try to update progress and the accomplishments of the community in general, realizing that there would be a need to sacrifice time and money for a unified spirit of cooperation.

Your Income Tax Exemptions Explained

Editor's Note: Do you know who to claim as a dependent in filing a tax return on 1963 income? Do you understand how to claim exemptions for the fullest benefit to yourself? In this fourth of five articles you will find the answers to these and other questions that may save you money.

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press Writer You knock $600 off your income—before what's left is taxable—for each exemption you can claim in filing your 1963 income tax return.

A person filing a return gets a $600 exemption for himself if he is under 65, an additional $600 if he's 65, and $600 if he's blind. He gets the same for his wife.

The person filing a return also gets a $600 exemption for each person he can claim as a dependent but he doesn't get any extra $600 if the dependent is 65 or blind.

Who's a dependent? It varies. Your child can be claimed as a dependent if he was born or died in 1963 (but not a stillborn child, or your over-19 child who qualified as a full-time student.

Your over-19 child would not qualify as a full-time student if he had a regular or part-time job or went to night school or took correspondence courses.

What happens if your under-19 child, or your over-19 child who qualifies as a student dependent, had $600 or more income? He would file his own return, claiming his own $600 exemption, and paying any tax he owed but you could take a $600 exemption for him on your return and not have to include his income in your return.

A paid servant in your house can not be claimed as a dependent. But a friend can be if he lived in your house the full year and got more than half his support from you—provided any income of his own did not amount to as much as $600 for the year.

If he had $600 or more income he'd have to file his own return, taking his own $600 exemption, and you couldn't claim him as an exemption even though you did contribute to more than half his support.

The following relatives—in addition to your child—can be claimed as dependents if the rules given below apply to them: Your grandchild, great-grandchild, and so on; your legally adopted child or stepchild, but not the latter's descendants; your brother or sister; your parents, grandparents, or other direct ancestors, but not a foster parent; your stepfather or stepmother; your niece or nephew, meaning a son or daughter of your brother or sister; your father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

Death or divorce does not end those relationships. For example: you can continue to claim your father-in-law as a dependent—even though your wife died or divorced you—if he got more than half his support from you.

The relatives listed above did not have to live with you to qualify as dependents. For example: you may have been paying more than half the support of your mother or father who was living with your brother.

In short: you can claim any of them as a dependent if he did not have as much as $600 of his own (taxable) income and got more than half his support from you.

Right here an important point arises in deciding who's a dependent. It is the difference between taxable and non-taxable income. Social Security benefits are non-taxable. They do not have to be reported by anyone who had to file a return because he had $600 or more taxable income from some other source.

But when you as a taxpayer want to decide whether someone you wish to claim as a dependent got more than half his support from you, you may have to consider his Social Security income to this extent: You must figure the support you gave him against the support he got from all other sources.

For example: suppose your mother got $700 in Social Security benefits but put the money in the bank and didn't use it to live on. You could claim her as a dependent if you provided more than half her support. But, suppose she used her $700 to help her live. You couldn't claim her as a dependent unless you contributed more than $700 to her support.

Warriors' Chore: Wermager, Lysaker

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Writer

It probably wouldn't be fair to call Moorhead State's basketball team a two-man gang.

But for the sake of simplified offense, Dragon Coach Larry MacLeod has resorted to a twin-pronged attack featuring the talents of 5-9 guard Don Wermager and 6-2 forward Pete Lysaker.

And while neither is big enough, it seems to pose a serious threat, both have talents aplenty.

The Dragons roll into Winona Saturday night for a contest with the Warriors of Winona State College, who will be gunning for their second Northern Intercollegiate Conference victory against a single loss, that at the hands of St. Cloud last Saturday.

A preliminary contest between natural rivals Lewiston and St. Charles is scheduled for a 7 p.m. start with the college till to follow.

But back to Wermager and Lysaker.

"They're not big," said Warrior Coach Bob Campbell. "But they're good ball players."

One serves as a balance for the other. Lysaker is a fair outside shot and good driver. Wermager can go to the board, but prefers the long jumper.

"If we are going to beat Moorhead," said Campbell. "We very definitely have to stop those two."

The remainder of the Dragon starting lineup will have 6-4 sophomore Jim Jahr at center, 6-2 senior Larry Graham at forward and 5-10 junior Jerry Hegna at guard.

Lysaker is the conference's

No. 1 scorer with 90 points in four games — the Dragons own a 2-2 record — while Wermager has 36.

At State, Dave Meisner, who sprained an ankle in the loss to St. Cloud, is healthy and will start at guard along with Dave Goede. The forwards will be Lyle Papenfuss and Gary Petersen with Dave Roscnau at center.

Eligible for Saturday's game are Tom Stallings, two-year letterman transfer from St. Mary's, and Chuck Pettit, transfer from L. Keland.

"Stallings will see action," said Campbell, "but he won't start. He can play the point, wing or down-under position. He's a jumping jack like Petersen."

Although the junior transfer stands only 5-10, he has a 30-inch jump.

A question mark for Saturday's game is Darrell Schuster, who has infected blisters on his feet.

"He's taking penicillin," said Campbell, "but he may not be ready."

Moorhead tonight plays at Mankato State before moving on to Winona.

Shooting Again Is Top Factor

STEVENS POINT, Wis. (Special) — Sparked by a sterling performance from Captain Tom Hall, St. Mary's made it a clean-sweep on its two-game road trip by blasting Stevens Point 82-74 Thursday night.

Hall poured in 17 points, mostly from the outside, to lead another brilliant shooting night for the Redmen who hit 58 percent in the first half and 48 for the game.

Stevens Point matched the taller Winona school shot-for-shot in the first half, but succumbed under pressure in the second 20-minute span.

With the battle going nip-and-tuck in the initial half, each bucket was crucial as St. Mary's took a 45-42 lead at the buzzer. Mike Maloney, who again paced the Redmen in scoring with 20 points, collected 14 of them and Hall had eight in the first half.

Bill Borchardt and Mike Fortune each had 11 points in the first 20 minutes for the Pointers. The second half was a different story, however. St. Mary's pulled steadily away until it held a 10-point margin with 14:30 left to play.

With the score standing 75-60 and 4:25 showing on the clock, Redmen Coach Ken Willgen cleared his bench and installed his freshmen quintet.

Hall and Maloney were the only St. Mary's players to score in double figures as 11 cagers hit the scoring column for the Redmen. Five Stevens Pointers got into the double digit bracket, led by Fortune with 15. Jerry Lawetzki added 12 while Borchardt, Bill Wesenberg and Wes Zuege had 11 each.

Willgen gave his cagers a short vacation before they resume practice to ready for the upcoming clash with MIAC leader Duluth on the Bulldogs' court Wednesday.

"We won it defensively," said Willgen, "You never saw such shooting as in that first half. They were taking 25-footers, 20-footers, and everything was going in. In the second half, we stuck with them and they didn't score as well."

"The thing that really did it was when we intercepted four straight passes in the second half," he continued. "I think the score was 47-46 when we started getting the ball. That broke it open."

Hawks' Crucial Seconds Will Come Before Game

By BOB JUNGHANS
Daily News Sports Writer

Basketball is a game of seconds. An accurate shot just seconds before the end of the first half or the end of the game can swing the tide to one side or the other.

Tonight's Winona High-Faribault game is just such a contest, but the telling seconds in this tilt may well come just before the game starts. This will be the time that Winona Coach John Kenney decides whether 6-5 forward and the team's leading scorer, Bill Squires, will start the game.

questionable starter for tonight), Steve Keller, Gary Addington and John Duel. Winona High tonight hosts Faribault. (Daily News Sports Photo) same as the Winhawks if Squires starts.

If Squires is unable to play, both Denny Duran and Bruce Holan will play in his slot.

"We can play good ball and we can play average ball," said Kenney in summary. "If we have a hot hand we can take care of most anybody. I guess we'll just have to play by ear tonight."

Game time is 8 p.m. Bob Lee's "B" squad meets Faribault in the 6:30 o'clock preliminary.

WWBA Tourney Opens Saturday

SQUIRES is questionable because of an arm injury incurred in a practice session early this week. "He played a little on defense last night," said Kenney, "and he looked all right. But I won't decide if he will start until I see him in the pre-game warmup."

The rest of Kenney's lineup is set with Gary Addington and Steve Keller at guards, fast-improving John Duel at one forward and Jim Kasten at center.

Kasten is a story in himself. Stretching skyward to the height of 6-4, Jim doesn't have to look up at many people. But it seems that is what he has been doing all season long, being assigned to guard opponents 3 to 5 inches taller than himself in three games this season. Tonight will be no exception with the Falcons' 6-7 Tom Weaver playing opposite Kasten in the pivot spot.

Weaver is the leading scorer in the Big Nine and gets adequate help from forward Al Handahl, who currently ranks second. They average 23 and 21.2 points per game, respectively. The rest of the Faribault lineup will have 6-3 Jim Fuchs at the other forward and Dave Prigge and Jim Ohmstad, a pair of six-footers, at the guards.

With launch time less than 24 hours away, the count down to the Winona Women's Bowling Association City Tournament has already begun.

And with blast-off scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday at Westgate Bowl (pre-tournament festivities get under way at 1:30), results from action the first day will make or break defending team champions.

The defending doubles duo will be only half present for this year's tournament and the singles champion isn't entered. Only all-events king, Irene Bronk, is in the running.

Cornelia Podjaski, who swept through singles competition and nailed down the championship with a 605 total, isn't entered in the tournament, so come Wednesday night's final round, a new champion will be crowned.

Then, too, Pat Brang, WWBA secretary and half of the doubles combination that triumphed with a 1,176 score last year, isn't among the contestants this year. Expecting a visit from the stork, Pat will confine her participation to handling of scores.

Her 1963 partner, Marlys Meyer, will form a team with Larry Donahue to swing into action on lanes No. 1 and 2 Wednesday at 9 p.m.

Both the Class A and B team champions could be out of the running come Sunday morning.

Watkowski's, which won the Class A title last year with a 2,759 total, helps get the tournament started with a reserved spot on alley No. 6 at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Super Saver, the 1963 Class B champ, launches its '64 bid at 9 p.m. Saturday on alley No. 11.

Irene Bronk, who won the all-events title with a 1,638 total last year, is scheduled to complete her doubles and singles events during the 9 p.m. shift Tuesday.

Although everything at Westgate is in readiness and owner-manager Paul Gardner is hoping for record scores, several records have already been broken.

The team entry total of 122 is an increase of eight over last year's tourney and tops the 1962 total by two. There are 127 doubles teams in the running this year. That's 25 duos above last year and marks an increase of 50 in singles competition. There are 177 all-events entrants.

On hand to greet the bowlers during the opening festivities will be City Council President Harold Briesath and Jim Hogue of Randall's Super Valu, which is donating private scorecards to all entrants in the '64 tournament.

The officers of the city Association will also be present. The annual Association banquet will be held at the Winona Athletic Club Feb. 15 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Comets, Buzzards Record Victories

Comets and Buzzards notched victories in the Park Rec Junior Hockey League Thursday.

Comets squeezed past Vultures 2-1 on Brian Traimor's goal, and Buzzards stopped Spartans 4-1. Traimor's goal came in the final period on an assist from Keith Peterson, after Butch Burt's tally had tied it for Vultures. Henry Gerth scored Comets' first goal on an assist from Peterson. Brewer was given the assist on Burt's goal.

Buzzards built a four-point lead before Ron Hanson dented the nets for Spartans. Larry Kaniz had two goals and two assists for Buzzards. Don Fhmann and Bill Kaprowski had a goal each.

In the Bantam ice loop, Mike Holubar and Lee Kaniz personally won the game as Mustangs downed Blackhawks 7-3.

Holubar had four goals and an assist, while Kaniz fired in the other three along with two assists. Bill Gilbertson had a pair and Rod Stoltz one for Blackhawks.

BLAIR VS. INDEPENDENCE Dairyland Giants Battle Tonight

With several conference first places on the line in this weekend's basketball action, the Dairyland circuit has the headline attraction in the area with a pair of powerhouses vying for the top spot.

Independence and Blair will square off at the latter's gymnasium in a showdown that has a battle of the big men as its feature. Independence boasts 6-7 Jack Bisek, while Blair has 6-6 Richards. John Woyicki roaming the floor as its pivotman.

The two teams hold almost identical season records. The Cardinals are 9-1 for the campaign, while the Indees stand 8-1. Blair's lone loss was to this same Independence team by 74-66 Nov. 22. In that game, Paul Kulig, Bisek and Connie Marsolek fired in 63 points between them to pace the win.

MARSOLEK and Kulig flank Bisek in the front line and stand 6-0 and 6-1 respectively. These three currently lead the team in scoring. In the backcourt will be Tony Brickner, a 5-8 senior, and Bob Edmundson, a 5-6 sophomore. Blair coach Tony Fiore feels that being on their own court will give his Cardinals that edge. Woyicki, but that advantage may be offset by the possible loss of leading scorer Jim Rawson for the tilt.

MEET HERE TONIGHT

Buffalos, Cotter Boast Hot Shots

A pair of accurate shooting basketball teams take the floor at St. Stan's gym tonight when the Cotter Ramblers play host to the Buffalos of Mondovi.

The Wisconsin team has swept to a 7-3 season mark behind the torrid firing of Jim Lehman and Roy Tanner, a duo of forwards who stand 5-11 and 6-2 respectively.

Both cagers were on the team which missed going to Wisconsin's state basketball tournament last year by a single win. Tanner is leading the Buffalos in scoring with an 18 point average, while Lehman is close behind with 17-plus.

In order to compensate for this pair of high scorers, Cotter will rely on its balanced scoring machine and a tenacious man-to-man defense that often leaves opponents puzzled.

The remainder of Mondovi's lineup will have 6-3 John Canar at center, while a pair of non-letterwinners, Bill Elkinton and Dennis Parr, will be at guards. Coach Al Parker will also have a trio of lettermen on the bench in Mike Fedie, Chuck Deutscher and John Loomis, indicating that the Mondovi quintet has good depth.

Gene Schultz is leading Cotter's machine (which has rolled to an 11-2 season mark) in scoring with a 14.4 average. Schultz will team in the backcourt with playmaker Rick Starzecki, who has been hitting at a 7.5 clip.

The biggest man on the floor will be the Ramblers' 6-5 center Mike Jerecek. On the flanks will be John Nett Jr. and Bob Judge. These three have been averaging 11.3, 9.6 and 8.3 points per game, respectively.

The Ramblers also have an entire second unit which has shown scoring ability. Dan Pelowski, 6-3, is the center, with Russ Fisk, 6-5, and Dave Knopick, 6-1, at the forwards. The guards are Bob Allaire and Bill Browne.

After tonight's tilt, which will start at 8 p.m. with John Kosidowski's "B" team playing in the preliminary tilt at 6:30 Wayne Thornton will have a lay-off of only one day before meeting Wabasha St. Felix at St. Stan's gym in a 2:30 p.m. game Sunday.

The Ramblers crushed St. Felix 72-46 earlier in the season, but since that time the Yellowjackets have jelled, and taken the lead in the Bi-State Conference with a 5-0 mark.

STOUT WINS 4TH

Stout crushed invading Northland 100-55 for its fourth victory Thursday night in non-conference basketball action.

HAWK SWIMMERS HOME SATURDAY

Winona High's wrestling team will be in action tonight, traveling to Faribault for a meet with the perennially tough Falcons.

Both Winhawk "A" and "B" squads will make the trip with the varsity meet getting under way immediately following the "B" squad meet which opens at 6:30 p.m.

Lloyd Luke's swimming team will take today off before hosting Edina, a state swim power, at 2 p.m. Saturday at the high school pool.

Indees Register 29-16 Mat Win

Despite forfeiting the heavyweight match, Independence took a 29-16 wrestling decision from Augusta Thursday night.

133 pounds—Tom Helgerson (I) d. Paul Plice (A) 4-0; 112—Jim Shutter (A) d. Jim Halama (I) 8-0; 120—D. Dasalis (I) d. Robert Harker (A) 3-21; 125—Dave Wanorik (I) d. Robert Stocks (A) 5-30; 135—Raymond Severson (I) d. Jim Bethune (A) 4-0.

Peralta Gets Nod In Title Warmup

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Gregorio Peralta is a 2-1 favorite to whip California's Wayne Thornton for the second straight time tonight and move on to a title fight with light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano in March.

The 175-pound division contenders clash in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. It will be telecast coast to coast. Starting time is 10 p.m., EST.

Pastrano has promised to meet the winner in March and he hopes it will be Thornton. This is not because he likes one more than the other. It's simply that he feels that Thornton will be easier for him.

After tonight's tilt, which will start at 8 p.m. with John Kosidowski's "B" team playing in the preliminary tilt at 6:30 Wayne Thornton will have a lay-off of only one day before meeting Wabasha St. Felix at St. Stan's gym in a 2:30 p.m. game Sunday.

The Ramblers crushed St. Felix 72-46 earlier in the season, but since that time the Yellowjackets have jelled, and taken the lead in the Bi-State Conference with a 5-0 mark.

Rushford to Host Jumpers

Expect 40 Entries for Tournament

Innsbruck, a city of 95,055 population, is the capital of the Austrian province of Tirol. Surrounded by mountains, this city, among other things, is the site of the 1964 winter Olympics.

But there has been one problem. There is no snow. To keep the games on schedule, emergency forces have been hauling snow from the mountain passes to the slopes used for the skiing competition.

AND SO IT IS with Rushford, a city of 1,335 population in Fillmore County.

While soaring temperatures this week have left the ground bare of snow, the city, and especially the Hillcrest Lions Ski Club, is looking forward to an invitational ski jumping tournament to be held on Magelsen Hill Sunday beginning with pre-tournament festivities at 1:45 p.m.

The meet, a sanctioned Class "B" event, is expected to draw 40 entries.

Snow has been hauled in and the meet will be held as scheduled.

With the hill in good condition, entries are in from such cities in Wisconsin as Westby, Racine, Eau Claire, Beloit and Tola and the Minnesota communities of Minneapolis, St. Paul, Virginia, Dalton and Rushford.

The meet is sanctioned by the Central U. S. Ski Association.

DURING pre-tournament festivities, the Murphy-Johnson Legion Color Guard will present the colors. Rushford Mayor Arthur Miller will give the welcome and the Rev. E. Friedrich will give the invocation.

Lions Club President Robert Bunke will introduce guests and ski tournament officials. Don Woxland will sing the Star Spangled Banner and Winona Winter Carnival royalty will attend.

The large parking area directly below the jump will permit fans to watch the tournament from their cars.

Earl Bunke is the official starter and judges will be assigned by the central association. Scorers are Cliff Hoel, Robert Bunke, Joel and Lew Hatlell.

JEFF CENTRAL WIN IN WRESTLING

Jefferson and Central each won a Junior High wrestling meet recently. In a Jan. 14 meet held at Washington-Kosciusko, Jefferson scored 22 points to 21 for Central and 13 for W-K. Jan. 23, the scene shifted to Jefferson. Central again scored 21 points, but this time it was good for first place. W-K tallied 19 and Jefferson 12.

3 HONOR COUNTS HIT

Kowalewski Hits 237-666 Series

After battering the pins quite steadily for more than a week, Winona anglers tapered off Thursday night with only a trio of 600s registered.

Lambert Kowalewski's 205-237-224-666 for Hot Fish Shop in the Classic circuit at Westgate Bowl was high in the city. Lambert's count was errorless and paced the Fishmen to 1,011-2,811. Gordy Fakler blasted 225-202-181-608 for the same squad in Kowalewski that loop.

Hal-Rod Lanes was the star for the other honor count as Del Prondzinski tallied 222-602 and Dick Seeling ripped 246 as they led Eagles Club to 988. Schlitz Beer had 2,789.

ST. MARTIN'S: Thursday night—Walter Rott smashed 237-549 in leading Mahlkke Bakery to 956-2,677.

HAL-ROD: Powder Puff—Betty Kanzer registered her first 500 series, a 199-502 for Steak Shop. Marge Moravec spilled 565 for Winona Insurance, while Watkins Products was blasting 928-2,662. Ruth Buerck laced 520.

WINONA AC: Ladies—Donna Kujak sparked Hot Fish Shop to 2,547 with her 209-499. Winona Knitters slapped 888.

K of C—Jerry Meier counted 568 for Winona Milk, and Bob Heer ripped 213 for Hamm's. Bub's Beer walked off with group honors on scores of 1,004-2,841.

WESTGATE: Junior Girls—Jane Ellings topped individual efforts with 144-257 for Girlie Gutters. Gutter Busters belted 591, and Alley Cats tilted 1,151.

Bay State Men's—Bob Gav-in's 590 paced Boss's to 2,954. Block Busters hammered 1,009 behind Dick Percy's 232.

Keglerette Ladies—Marie McDonald paced Hard's Music to 916-2,566 with her 193, while Leona Lubinski was cracking 494 for Lawrenz Furniture.

Pin Drops—Lonnie Kuhlman blasted 538 for Sportsman's Tap's 855. Dianne Huff ripped 193 for Steve's Lounge, and Kelly Furniture topped 2,458.

Golden Glovers Fight Saturday

The Catholic Recreation Center will be the place and 8:30 p.m. Saturday will be the time as Winona unveils its Golden Gloves boxing team for the first time before the home fans.

Director Jim Mullen has seven bouts lined up with plans to fill in three more to complete the 10-bout card.

The double-main event will feature Winona's Tom Van Hoof and Lee Huwald. Van Hoof, a welterweight, will move up one division to take over on Rochester middleweight Rusty Clark. Huwald will step in the ring with hard-hitting Gary Fitzmeier of Rochester.

Mullen also reports that local heavyweight Ron Puterbaugh may be matched against an Austin heavyweight, but plans for this fight are not definite. Mike Kittleson, Winona's top middleweight, may fight an exhibition match.

The other five bouts presently scheduled will have Carlisle Puterbaugh tackling Steve Klug of Caledonia in a middleweight bout, while Dave Belter meets the other half of the Klug broz, thers fighting duo in another middleweight match.

In what promises to be one of the top fights of the evening, Mike River and Jeff Moen of Chaffield will vie in a featherweight scrap. These two have met twice before, with each gaining a split decision in head-to-toe battles.

Bob Ogedahl of Caledonia will face Mike Keller in a welterweight bout, and Duane Speed takes on Bob Duval of Caledonia in a lightweight bout in other fights scheduled.

All fights will have three two-minute rounds, with a one-minute rest between each round.

Redmen Hockey Tilt Postponed

The MIAC hockey game between St. John's and St. Mary's scheduled for Terrace Heights Saturday has been postponed, Keith Hanzel, Redmen hockey coach, said today.

The game will be made up at St. John's Feb. 7 thus leaving St. Mary's free until Monday when it takes on Bemidji at Aldrich Arena in St. Paul.

Preston Matmen Top Chatfield

Preston used its dominance in the lighter weights to post a 30-14 wrestling win over Chatfield Thursday night.

93 lbs.—Doug Hahn (P) d. Matt Keets (C), 12-0. 107 lbs.—John Arnold (P) pinned Dan Eller (C), 2-0. 112 lbs.—Don Arnold (P) d. Wayne Bernard (C), 2-0. 127 lbs.—Stan Scott (C) d. Ken Hewitt (P), 6-5. 132 lbs.—Vince Arnold (P) d. Mike Wooster (C), 5-3. 133 lbs.—Dennis Dominik (P) d. Winona State's swimming and wrestling teams face a busy weekend. The swimmers were scheduled to compete against Carlton College at Northfield this afternoon before returning home to host Bemidji, an NIC foe, in the Memorial Hall Pool Saturday at 2 p.m.

Tax Action Factor in Market Rise

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market churned near its current all-time high in heavy trading early this afternoon.

A slightly higher tone prevailed among stocks, rails, rubbers, oils, cigar manufacturers and office equipments.

Cigarette stocks, drugs, chemicals and coppers drifted lower on balance.

The Senate committee's completion of action on tax-cut legislation was a favorable factor along with gains in retail sales and auto sales. Reports of possible boosts in interest rates ended to dampen enthusiasm.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1 at 291.4 with industrials unchanged, rails up .3 and utilities off .1. The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .53 at 782.33.

Changes of most key stocks were small. Airlines, building materials, motors and mail order-retails were mixed.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange moved irregularly lower in moderately active trading.

Burglars Hit 3 Galesville Business Places

GALESVILLE, Wis. (Special) — Three Galesville business places were entered this morning with a loss of about $475 in cash and merchandise besides damage to buildings. Nothing was taken from one place.

Gary Redsten, chief of police, said he received calls shortly after 7 a.m. from Byron Olson, operator of Midland Co-op, and Rall's Feed Mill on the lower table and Frank Howe, who runs the Phillips 66 station on Highway 53 on the east edge of town across the street from Gale-Etrick High School.

BURGLARS apparently tried unsuccessfully to pry open the back door at Midland Co-op. Then they forced open the window next to the door and crawled in. Missing was about $400 in merchandise, including radios.

The padlock on the front door of the feed mill had been broken. Proceeding through the mill to the office at the back, the burglars pried open the door with a tire iron or similar instrument, Redsten said, and broke a lock on a file but apparently left empty handed.

Entry to the service station was made by prying open the back door. Here about $10 in cash from the cash register and spark plugs and other merchandise were taken. The loss was estimated at between $50 and $75.

REDSTEN said merchandise was scattered around the premises at both Midland and the service station.

He thinks the breakins occurred between 4 a.m., when the night policeman, Scott Hotchkiss, went off duty, and 7 a.m. Sheriff Orris Klundby, Whitehall, also is investigating.

Shopping Center Site Planning Committee Set

A three-man committee to expedite site planning for the proposed Miracle Mall shopping place was named Thursday night by the Board of Zoning Appeals.

Conditional zoning of the 22-acre area depends on submission of a definite plan of development and construction to the board by the developers, Western Land Corp., Minneapolis. The conditional zoning change carries a six-month limit, which already has been extended once, and which will again expire in March. If no definite plans have been submitted for examination by the board, the area will automatically revert to its original residential zoning category.

BOARD CHAIRMAN E. J. Sievers appointed Commissioner E. O. Eckert, Secretary James Baird and City Attorney George M. Robertson Jr. to the expediting committee. They will meet with Western Land representatives to confer on an acceptable plan for the area. To date, developers have not filed the required plan.

City Council President Harold Briesath, present at the meeting, asked if the board would approve a building permit for a structure of unspecified size and construction, costing at least $250,000. He said developers say they are unable to furnish exact plans since occupancies are under constant negotiation.

AT PRESENT only one major occupant, a Tempo store, is committed to a location in the new plaza.

Sievers said the dollar designation would not be sufficient grounds for issuance of a permit by the board. He said the information needed would be that concerning general site layout. The application should specify grades, drainage systems, parking areas, points of ingress and egress and direction of possible future expansion.

Baird said the committee would contact developers and their architectural advisers as soon as possible to discuss these factors.

STOCKTON Discusses Insurance Program
STOCKTON, Minn. — Two insurance representatives spoke to members of Common School District 2558 and the Stockton village board Thursday evening at the school.

Ralph C. Morehouse, Minneapolis, and Howard W. Clark, Winona, answered questions and a general discussion was held. They will present a proposal of a complete quotation of comprehensive liability insurance at the next meeting of the village board Feb. 3, to which any interested people are invited to attend.

No action was taken since the full board was not present. Present were Chairman Lyle Ladewig; Clerk Paul Gehres; Treasurer Lawrence Oevoring; Mayor George Hinton and Councilman Allen Mueller.

ed by State-Automobile Insurance Co. and not by him.

Called as witnesses Thursday were William Holm, a claims representative for State Farm, and McCarthy.

Wolf had entered as evidence statements written by Holm concerning the accident and reports on it he had filed with his company.

Holm testified that he was aware that there was some question as to whether Connaughtly was covered by State Farm insurance at the time of the accident. He said that it was uncertain that Connaughtly had paid the premium for this period, and whether Morken was Connaughtly's employe and thus not covered in the policy.

Questioned later by Moonan, Holm said that his duties were to investigate accidents and to make recommendations regarding settlement of claims resulting therefrom. He also investigated possible questions of coverage and makes recommendations concerning them, he asserted.

He has no authority to write policies or to collect premiums, Holm testified.

HOLM TOLD Wolf that he sent to his company a check from Connaughtly allegedly paying the premium for insurance coverage during the period in which the accident occurred. Later, he testified that he saw the check in McCarthy's office but never had it in his possession.

The check allegedly was to pay the premium of $51.80, covering the period from Nov. 3, 1960, to May 3, 1961. It was dated November (no day given) 1960, Holm said that Connaughtly told him his wife had written the check Jan. 4, 1961.

Medical Aid for Aged Discussed

Ways of meeting requirements of Minnesota's new medical aid to the aged program were discussed by the Winona County Welfare Board Thursday.

The new program, set up under the Kerr-Mills Act, goes into effect July 1. It will be administered by county welfare departments.

William P. Werner, director of the county welfare department, reported to the board on a District Court hearing which resulted in an order for Mrs. Edna Nelson at Elewa with a crowbar at midnight Wednesday. After breaking down two doors, said Klundby, Knutson got to her room on the second floor and cut both her hands with a roofing knife. She ran downstairs and into the street, screaming for help, the sheriff added.

She ran in front of the car of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoy, Osseo, who were returning home on Highway 10 from Durand. They helped her find Donald Ganz, the village policeman, who captured Knutson and took him to jail at Whitehall, the sheriff reported.

Mrs. Nelson's two younger children, 7 and 4, ran barefooted out of the house after her and scrambled around in the snow, screaming, until the policeman arrived and took Knutson.

Knutson, Mrs. Nelson told the sheriff, had become jealous of her when he thought she went out with other men. He had previously threatened her, said the sheriff.

Knutson is employed by L. G. Arnold Construction Co., Eau Claire.

Werner told the board that his department is working on a number of cases involving custody of children, and is preparing court action.

The board reviewed two questions involving property valuations in view of old age assistance requirements.

SE Guernsey Breeders Meet

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special) — A Lewiston dairy farmer and his son received top honors at the Southeastern Minnesota Guernsey Breeders annual meeting at Rushford.

They were Elmer J. Wirt & Son, who received an award for the best three females in the last parish show. They also received an award for the highest producing herd for 1962-63 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Earl Wacholz was elected president; Russell Wirt, vice president; and Odean Goss, secretary-treasurer. Board members include Elmer Wirt, Goss and Wacholz; Lewiston; Olaf Krome, Spring Grove; Russell Heins, Eyota, and Loren Graskamp, Fountain.

The summer parish show will be held July 13 at Farmers Community Park. The summer picnic will be at the Krome farm at Spring Grove.

HOSPITAL AT LAKE CITY

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — The Lake City Municipal Hospital employees made a profit of $59.95 at a bake sale Saturday. On the planning committee were the Meses, Mary Ellen Feehan, Jean Wolbers and Janet Dicke. This money, plus an additional $250 from the hospital auxiliary, will provide new draperies and traverse rods for 15 windows in the remodeled section of the hospital. Auxiliary members are donating their time in sewing the drapes. They are Mrs. Carl Palmer, Mrs. Roy Carlson and Miss Anna Heise.

Seven Juveniles Before Judge for Galesville Thefts

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Seven juveniles between 15 and 17 from Etrick and Galesville appeared in juvenile court before Judge A. L. Twesme Thursday morning and 1 1/2 hours morning on breaking and entering charges.

Each appeared separately with his parents. Three were placed on probation with Harold Aberg, Whitehall, officer with the state Department of Public Welfare. Four were placed on probation to Joseph Emerton, child welfare worker with the Trempealeau County department of public welfare.

Three of the boys were implicated in prying open a back door at the Galesville school on two occasions. On Dec. 6 they confessed to taking $5 in money from the office. During Christmas vacation they took some pop.

These three also were implicated with four others in entering the Farmco mill and store at Galesville twice, in August and October. They admitted entering a window in the store once and through a basement window another time.

The first time they took 14 cartons of cigarettes, 40 candy bars and some pop. The second time they took smaller amounts of cigarettes, candy and pop.

Eleva Man, 44, Charged With Cutting Woman

ELEVA, Wis.—A 44-year-old Eleva man will be tried in Trempealeau County Court before Judge A. L. Twesme at Whitehall Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. on charges of aggravated assault and breaking and entering, with intent to commit a felony.

Judge Twesme appointed Edward J. Kulig, Independence, counsel for Clarence Knutson when he was arraigned Thursday. Bond was fixed at $500. Upon failure to furnish it, he was committed to Trempealeau County Jail.

Sheriff Orris Klundby said Knutson has admitted breaking into the home of Mrs. Edna Nelson at Elewa with a crowbar at midnight Wednesday. After breaking down two doors, said Klundby, Knutson got to her room on the second floor and cut both her hands with a roofing knife. She ran downstairs and into the street, screaming for help, the sheriff added.

She ran in front of the car of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoy, Osseo, who were returning home on Highway 10 from Durand. They helped her find Donald Ganz, the village policeman, who captured Knutson and took him to jail at Whitehall, the sheriff reported.

Mrs. Nelson's two younger children, 7 and 4, ran barefooted out of the house after her and scrambled around in the snow, screaming, until the policeman arrived and took Knutson.

Knutson, Mrs. Nelson told the sheriff, had become jealous of her when he thought she went out with other men. He had previously threatened her, said the sheriff.

Knutson is employed by L. G. Arnold Construction Co., Eau Claire.
