

CHAPTER 4 CONCLUSIONS

4.1 Conclusions

Having analyzed registers in football news in The Jakarta Post Edition November 2011, the writer presents conclusions in this chapter.

The writer finds 28 registers in the football news and their meaning related to football game. They are loose 'without mental pressure', drew 'the same score', defense 'defending from the opponent's attack' to guard the goal', counter attack 'response to an opponent's attack', battling 'to make great effort to achieve ball', thrashes 'to defeat an opponent very easily in a football game', attempts 'an effort to do better than usual', notched 'to achieve a high score', pass 'to kick the ball to a teammate', headed 'hitting the ball with your head', corner 'a free kick from the corner of the opponent's field', saves 'stop a goal being scored', substitute 'a player replacing another player in a team', put 'to defeat easily in a football game', hosts 'the country responsible for holding and arranging a specific football game', match 'a football competition', goal 'a kick that is scored', strike 'a strong kick in football game', pressure 'mental and technical threatening', points 'score obtained from a football game', sword 'defeat the opponent with absolute win', fouls 'action against the rules of the game', charge 'physical crash between players in football game', shot 'a strong kick for a goal', recovering 'getting well after injury', scored 'to win a football game', striker 'a player whose main job is score goals' and penalty 'chances given to both teams to win the game'.