CITATION

Ellen Bree Burns has distinguished herself as an attorney as well as Judge of the United States District Court.

A Summa Cum Laude, Bachelor of Arts degree graduate of Albertus Magnus College, she holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from Yale Law School.

After law school, she served as a special assistant on the Commission to revise the Connecticut General Statutes. She later joined the legal staff of the Legislative Commissioner's Office, where she served for 24 years, culminating with her appointment as the Director of Legislative Legal Services.

Her judicial career began in 1973 when she was nominated Judge of the Connecticut Circuit Court. She has served as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Judge of the Superior Court, and presently serves as Judge of the United States District Court.

Judge Burns served on the State Law Library Advisory Board and the Commission on the Legal Profession of the Connecticut Bar Association. She is affiliated with the New Haven County Bar Association, the American Bar Association and is a fellow of the American Bar Foundation. She also serves as a Trustee at Fairfield University and Albertus Magnus College.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers the Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa, upon

CITATION

Dr. Vincent Darnowski — educator and author — is President of Housatonic Community College, a position he has held since his appointment in 1974.

During the past twelve years, Dr. Darnowski has been an outstanding proponent of the mission and role of community colleges. He has directed his efforts toward achieving both access and excellence in the programs provided for the citizens of the greater Bridgeport community.

Dr. Darnowski graduated from St. John's University, Brooklyn, New York with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry; St. John's University, Jamaica, New York with a Master of Science degree in Chemistry; and New York University with a Ph.D. in Science Education.

After teaching science on the secondary and collegiate level for ten years, he became a research associate in the New York University Physics Department. He later worked as a science editor at The American Book Company.

Returning to his love for education, Dr. Darnowski became Director of the Division of Natural and Applied Science at Essex County College, and was later promoted to Dean of Academic Affairs.

Before his present position at Housatonic Community College, Dr. Darnowski served as Dean of the College and later, Vice President at Delaware County Community College.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers the Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa, upon

VINCENT S. DARNOWSKI

CITATION

James R. McManus, as Chairman and President of Marketing Corporation of America, heads an innovative company known for recognizing and cultivating the talents of its employees, motivating them to high levels of achievement.

Mr. McManus is actively involved with several academic institutions — at the University of Wisconsin, where he is a member of the Bascom Hill Society and supports the James R. McManus Bascom Professorship; and Northwestern University, where he is a member of the J.L. Kellogg Board of Visitors, he sponsors the James R. McManus Research Chair in Marketing.

Graduating from the University of Wisconsin with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and Northwestern University with a Master of Business Administration degree, Mr. McManus was with The Proctor and Gamble Company and Glendinning Companies, and in 1971 founded Marketing Corporation of America.

Mr. McManus also serves as a Trustee at Fairfield University and Norwalk Hospital, as a Presidential Trustee of the Republican National Committee and is a member of the American Business Conference, Washington, D.C.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers the Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa, upon a businessman dedicated to education

ON ACADEMIC DRESS . . .

Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece when only youths of wealthy parents or ones with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed that fine clothing and jewels should not be worn by the scholar but rather, that he should wear the principle garments of the workman.

In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate's and bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming with the exception of the doctor's which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in a distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. Master's and doctor's gowns may be worn open.

Upon graduation, each student of old carried a mortarboard showing him to be a mason of the future destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear the mortarboard cap and gown, symbolizing that they are builders of the future of mankind.

The history of the hood with which degree recipients are invested dates back to 13th century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two and one-half feet long for the associate's, three feet for the bachelor's, three and one-half for the master's and four feet for the doctor's degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution — red and white, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The color of the trim indicates the academic degree — white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.) . . . golden yellow for science (B.S.).

The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the mortarboards of the undergraduates, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

Arts, Letters and Humanities	White
Business	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Law	Purple
Media Studies	Crimson
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Sociology/Social Work/Criminal Justice	Citron
Theology/Religious Studies	Scarlet
