Reading from the New Testament
Masses for the Dead

From the Book of Romans, Chapter 14

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans:

None of us lives as his own master and none of us dies as his own master. While we live we are responsible to the Lord, and when we die we die as his servants.
Both in life and in death we are the Lord's. That is why Christ died and came to life again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. We shall all have to appear before the judgement seat of God. It is written, " As surely as I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bend before me and every tongue shall give praise to God."

Every one of us will have to give an account of himself before God.

This is the Word of the Lord
