Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System Debuts One-of-a-Kind Online Learning Suite – eCampus

eCampus is Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System's (AFPLS) new online learning suite of tutoring, test preparation and educational resources. It is free to the public, designed for all ages, and accessible with an AFPLS library card. Each branch library has a new collection of books and materials to supplement this lifelong learning opportunity. Spanish and ESL resources are also available both online and in the libraries.

The online learning suite includes programs to assist with:

- Live online one-on-one tutoring sessions and homework help in academic subjects, basic learning skills, and GED preparation.
- Video review and preparation for standardized tests.
- Preparation assistance for naturalization and citizenship tests.
- Career exploration and employment search and assistance.
- Databases offering unlimited access to test preparation for college and technical school, plus informative career information.
- Continuing education classes for adults, including CEU-granting, self-paced classes with real instructors in subjects related to skills, jobs or personal growth in more than 500 courses.

Online databases include SkillsTutor; Tutor.com; ePrep; Universal Class; Testing & Education Reference Center; Ed2Go; Learning Express; Career Transitions; and American Book Company Online Testing.
