The KSU Mixed Chamber Ensembles

The Kennesaw State University Mixed Chamber Program is dedicated to training musicians in classical and contemporary chamber repertoire. Student ensembles receive regular coachings from artist faculty. Students have the opportunity of performing in Master Classes with visiting guest artist ensembles. These have included: Pacifica Quartet, eighth blackbird, Boston Brass, and Aspen String Trio. Student ensembles have competed in and won awards in collegiate chamber competitions. For more information about chamber ensembles, contact Allyson Fleck at afleck@kennesaw.edu.

Welcome to the Kennesaw State University School of Music

The School of Music at KSU has dedicated, vibrant, and talented faculty and staff that are completely devoted to teaching, performing, scholarship, and serving our community. It is an incredibly exciting place to study, boasting state-of-the-art facilities with opportunities to produce and explore music in a dynamic place that is ahead of the curve for what it means to be a musician in the 21st century. Our students come from the leading musical honor organizations across the region and are poised to lead the cultural offerings and musical education in our area and beyond for years to come.

We welcome you to attend a concert, meet our faculty and staff, and feel the energy and excitement that our students exude. We are fully committed to our purpose as educators, performers, and scholars. We hope that you will find as much enjoyment in our product as we do in producing it. Welcome!
