Oswaldo Golijov - Tenebrae

The composer writes:

“I wrote Tenebrae as a consequence of witnessing two contrasting realities in a short period of time...I was in Israel at the start of a new wave of violence that is still continuing today, and a week later I took my son to the new planetarium in New York, where we could see the Earth as a beautiful blue dot in space. I wanted to write a piece that could be listened to from different perspectives. That is, if one chooses to listen to it “from afar”, the music would probably offer a “beautiful” surface but, from a metaphorically closer distance, one could hear that beneath the surface, the music is full of pain.”

Program notes compiled by Rachael Keplin.
