FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FULBRIGHT SENIOR SCHOLAR AWARDS FOR U.S. FACULTY AND PROFESSIONALS: 2000–2001 COMPETITION

The competition for 2000–2001 awards opened on March 1, 1999. Opportunities for lecturing or advanced research in more than 125 countries are available to college and university faculty as well as to professionals outside academe, including artists, journalists, and lawyers. Awards range from 2 to 12 months, and many are flexible to the needs of grantees. In addition, a number of open awards allow applicants to suggest their own grant activities and host institutions.

Every year, grants are awarded to faculty at all types of institutions and at all academic ranks, including emeritus. International education administrators regularly receive Fulbrights, as do independent scholars, artists, and a wide range of professionals from the public and private sectors.

The deadline for lecturing and research grants for 2000–2001 is AUGUST 1, 1999. Other deadlines are in effect for special programs: distinguished Fulbright chairs in Europe and Canada (May 1), international education administrators programs and the Fulbright German studies seminar (November 1), and NATO advanced research fellowships and institutional grants (January 1, 2000).

The basic eligibility requirements for a Fulbright senior scholar award are U.S. citizenship and the Ph.D. or comparable professional qualifications. (For certain fields such as the fine arts, the terminal degree in the field may be sufficient.) For lecturing awards, university or college teaching experience is expected. Foreign language skills are needed for some countries, but many lecturing assignments are in English.

For further information and application materials, contact the USIA Fulbright Scholar Program, Council for International Exchange of Scholars, 3007 Tilden Street, NW, Suite 5L, Washington, DC 20008-3009. Telephone: 202.686.7877. E-mail: apprequest@cies.iie.org (requests for application materials only). Program information, late award announcements and updates, and application materials can also be found on the CIES Web site at www.cies.org.

Funding for the Fulbright Program is provided by the United States Information Agency, on behalf of the U.S. government, and by cooperating governments and host institutions abroad.
