

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

---

Ann Volk Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

---

10-5-1943

1943-10-05, Larry to Ann

Larry Langerholc

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/avolk\_correspondence

---

Recommended Citation

Langerholc, Larry, "1943-10-05, Larry to Ann" (1943). Ann Volk Second World War Correspondence Collection. 2.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/avolk\_correspondence/2

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ann Volk Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

1943-10-05, Larry to Ann

Keywords

1943-10-05, San Angelo, Texas

Identifier

2017-325-w-r_Volk_WWII_1943-10-05

Sgt. L. Langerhale #33018260
56th Air Base Squadron
Goodfellow Field, Texas

free

Mrs. John Volk
Box 53
Park Hill, Penna.

GOODFELLOW FIELD

Tuesday
Oct. 5th
San Angelo, Texas

Dear sis;

Received your air mail letter just a while ago, and was glad to hear from you. You've probably read the letters I wrote home, and to Joel, and maybe even Pauline's, so I guess you know how I feel too. I'm sure you and Joel are taking it O.K. but I'm really worried about Mother. All she would ever talk about while I was home on furlough was about him, and wishing he could be home too. I was looking forward to his home-coming too, and was planning on coming home on furlough when he did. But that is war, and it can't be helped. He did his share I'm sure, but I do wish he could have had his furlough.

Also had a very consoling letter from Pauline to-day too. Said she knows she should try to help if she can, but doesn't know what to do about it. I'm sure I don't know either. It was nice of you to go down home Ann. I'm sure it helps a lot. I think that mother shouldn't be alone for a while, at least till she gets some of the grief out of her system.

I'm glad I'm not home. I couldn't do anything to help, and it would just make me more miserable to be around a lot of crying. Jewel wrote me about mother. Having all of Phil's pictures in front of her, and crying. Gosh! I'd give anything for her not to have to go thru that. How is Dad taking it? I guess he's OK.
cause he's a man, but poor mom.
I won't write anything to Rudy about it Ann. maybe its best he finds out for himself, when he gets one of Phil's letters back. Which reminds me, I'll be getting one back too. I didn't even get to thank him for the wedding gift.

Hope everyone is in the best of health, and taking things as they come. Hope the kids are doing O.K. in school. Bye now, I've got to close with love. Brother Larry.

Thanks for the clipping. Pauline sent me the one from the Democrat.