ROSALIE TRAMNA, sophomore drama major at Ursuline College, tonight marks her first appearance in an L.T.S. play but is by no means inexperienced. She has had roles in numerous Ursuline productions including The Heiress and The Trojan Women.

Senior LD REISS has been a backstage mainstay for the L.T.S. for three years. He deals with the technical problems of electricity and lighting for the L.T.S., concerts, and University Series.

MICHELLE REILLY, a freshman speech major, brings to her first L.T.S. performance credits including work in the Cleveland Playhouse Summer Dramatics school at Chautauqua, N. Y.

Also a Chautauqua alumna, LILA DAUM tonight makes her first appearance on the Carroll stage. She was seen in the title role of WWJZ TV's production of The Diary of Anne Frank.

MIKE SCHMITTDIEL, a sophomore English major, has given his valuable backstage assistance on two previous L.T.S. productions. Last fall he appeared in the Candlelight Theatre production of Johnny Appleseed.

KATHY GULLA, tonight making her first L.T.S. appearance, is a sophomore drama major at Ursuline. She has worked for two years in the Cleveland Playhouse workshop.

PAMELA ABOOD is in the third grade of Gesu School.

PETER MARINELLO is in the eighth grade of Greenview Junior High. This is his third production with L.T.S.
