How these papers have been placed in sequence will be made manifest in the reading of them. All needless matters have been eliminated, so that a history almost at variance with the possibilities of later day belief may stand forth as simple fact. There is throughout no statement of past things wherein memory may err, for all the records chosen are exactly contemporary, given from the standpoints and within the range of knowledge of those who made them.

Bram Stoker's introduction.

This is only a partial list, as almost everyone is filling slots as peasants, stage drivers, etc.

At this point I would like to thank all the members of the cast for their Understanding, Patience, and Work.

This was an interesting cast, as most have not been in a LTS production before. I hope that this is not their last as they are excellent to work with, and joys to laugh with.

This play has been a revelation to me, and I hope I have the opportunity to work on many productions in the future.
