Meet the Casts and Crew of the One-Acts

Christine Bohn (Mary - Out the Window) Christine Bohn returns to the Marinello Little Theater for the second time this year. She is very excited to be performing again at JCU. You may remember her as everyone's yellow friend, Big Bird, in the acclaimed Murder on Sesame Street in last semesters One Acts. Christine is a junior Chemistry Major and English Minor, and is thoroughly enjoying her time in the theater this year. She wants to send a huge thank you to all her amazing friends who have supported her! Especially Kim, Lisa, Dana, Christine (No.1), and Krista for all their help with memorizing lines. (Shout Out to LD, KH, RM, SD, KT, and a long distance one to MK!) Another huge thank you goes to her family-Mom and Tom-for all their support and love. And finally, she advises everyone to be careful when shaking out those dustmops!

Lauren Calevich (Stage Manager) Lauren is a sophomore Communications major. This is her second time stage managing the Marinello one-acts, and this past semester she stage managed the fall production of The Foreigner. This spring she is assistant directing Noises Off, which says "everyone should come see!" Props to everyone who puts up with her crankiness. Love you guys!!

Erin Kaminski (Director - Out the Window) Erin Kaminski is a senior Communications major. She has acted in many John Carroll productions in the past four years and recently co-produced and directed the benefit performance of the Vagina Monologues this February. This will be Erin's first time directing a one-act play! Erin would like to thank her family and friends for all their love and support. Big up yo'self!! Respect.

Kelly Lavelle (Nana - Out the Window) This is Kelly's acting debut at JCU, and she is totally pumped to be part of the One Acts. Kelly is a junior English major, and she requests that if anyone knows (or has a few ideas) of what she should do after her expected graduation date in May 2006, please contact her after the production. She would like to thank her family for making all things possible and always making the payments to her friends on time. Enjoy the Show!

Michael Schneeberger (Officer Dunlop – Money) Michael Schneeberger grew up in the city of Cleveland Heights, in a brown shake-shingled colonial house trimmed in beige. Three evergreen bushes, a Mountain Ash tree and four rose bushes adorned the home's front yard, while two maple trees, a lilac bush, and a bridal's wreath graced the back. He spent his childhood summers swimming at Dennison Pool, playing stick ball games, and eating Mr. Freeze pops. He attended St. Margaret Mary Elementary and Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin High School before enrolling at John Carroll University. He is no stranger to the John Carroll stage and is thrilled to be costarring with his beloved brother.

Phillip Schneeberger (Mr. Ryan - Money) Phillip Schneeberger grew up in the city of Cleveland Heights, in a brown shake-shingled colonial house trimmed in beige. Three evergreen bushes, a Mountain Ash tree and four rose bushes adorned the home's front yard, while two maple trees, a lilac bush, and a bridal's wreath graced the back. He spent his childhood summers swimming at Dennison Pool, playing stick ball games, and eating Mr. Freeze pops. He attended St. Margaret Mary Elementary and Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin High School before enrolling at John Carroll University. He is no stranger to the John Carroll stage and is thrilled to be costarring with his beloved brother.

Natalie Wilson (Light Designer) Natalie Wilson is a junior communications major here at JCU. This is her very first attempt as a lighting designer, so she hopes to dazzle you all. Other jobs around JCU theater include stage manager, set builder, assistant director, and actress extraordinaire. Natalie would like to thank both Keith Nagy and Bill Amato for all of their expert guidance and know-how. Thank you and enjoy!

Justin Blanche (James – Out the Window) Justin Blanche is very excited to be making his final theatre appearance in this fantastic production of (Insert Play's Name Here). Previous JCU productions include: Judgment Call, Sociability, and the title role in The Miser. He is a junior and author of six one-act plays including last fall's one-act Murder on Sesame Street... or Fowl Play and has earned a 'Best Playwright' in Ohio award. Justin wants to thank all the JCU people he's had the pleasure of working with over the years. He dedicates the play to his father Joseph W. Blanche (1949-2005).

Mary Ellen Madden (Ingrid - The Valentine Fairy) Mary Ellen is a sophomore majoring in Sociology. She enjoyed doing musical theater in high school and this is her first theater experience at J.C.U. She is also involved in three JCU choirs, J.U.S.T.I.C.E. and amnesty international. She wants to thank all of her family and friends for being extraordinarily supportive and fabulous. You guys are amazing. I am the luckiest

Becky Meil (Director - The Valentine Fairy) Miss Becky is a senior communications major and hopes to have some sort of life plan shortly since graduation is fastly approaching along with school loans and life in general. She has been involved with theater at JCU for two years and would like to state for the record that theater kids rock her socks off. She'd like to thank all her peeps for being the coolest turds she knows and everyone else for coming to the one acts and laughing their bums off. Last but not least, it's a meatball.

Mike Minnaugh (Director - Money) First off, I would like to thank Karen Gygli and Keith Nagy for giving me the opportunity to direct a one-act. Second, thank to my actors. They rocked! The brothers Schnee were so fun to work with and my assistant director Vince helped me keep them in line. This is my first play I have directed and he helped keep the rehearsals focused. Thanks again to all those working behind the scenes and enjoy the show.

Mike Rempel (Valentine Fairy - The Valentine Fairy) Mike Rempel is a senior Communications major/English minor who is very depressed he will be making his final appearance on the Marinello Little Theatre stage dressed in a... well, you'll see. His MLT credits include A Murder on Sesame Street (Oscar), The Bear (Smirnov), Judgment Call (Harvey), and in the fall '03, he played Max in Cabaret on the main stage. He will also be appearing on the main stage this April as Lloyd Dallas in Noises Off. Mike would like his fellow thespians and everyone else to know that some of his best friends and memories have been made in the JCU theatre, and he regrets not having gotten involved before last year. He would also like to add that W. R. Inge once said that theatre is a reflection of life. So if you think the show you are watching stinks, it's probably your fault. Enjoy!
