Dear Sue:

A recent conversation with a library school student made me wonder if our message to the Deans is reaching the students. The person has an interest in law libraries, but did not know about SEAALL or contacts in North Carolina.

Perhaps the Publicity and Public Relations Committee's next letter should include a SEAALL membership application and a request to post the letter and the application for student information. The application could include the Committee's school contact's name and phone number as a person to call for more information. What do you think?

Incidentally, thanks for your hard work and great letters! It is wonderful not to have to prepare the drafts myself, because writing does not come easily to me.

Sincerely,

Constance M. Matzen
Librarian
