Dear Carol:

Because I am unable to attend the SEALL meeting next week, I am forwarding to you a very brief report on what the PR committee has done this year. I am also enclosing copies of the brochure which is referenced in the report, should anyone wish to see an example for use at their library.

Please let me know if I need to do anything further in this regard.

Very truly yours,

AMY BECKHAM OSBORNE

ANNUAL REPORT
PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE
SOUTHEASTERN ASSOCIATION OF
LAW LIBRARIES
1995

The public relations committee has this year primarily been involved in distributing our "What is a Law Librarian" brochures to various libraries in the region. These libraries have then placed the brochures in areas where they are accessible to patrons. Among the libraries involved in this effort were St. Thomas University Law Library, The University of Kentucky, The Virginia State Law Library and Loyola University just to name a few. Additionally, brochures were made available at the registration table of the Kentucky Library Association annual meeting in September. I have also received at least one request from a librarian outside of the region who wished to look at our brochure.

If anyone would like to receive brochures for use at their library or at any conventions where librarians may have a booth please contact Amy Osborne at Landrum and Shouse Law Offices Lexington, KY.
